from Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. The purchase price was determined based on arms-length negotiations between Health Fitness Corporation (HFC) and Johnson & Johnson Health Care Systems Inc. The purchase price is subject to certain post-closing adjustments.

The assets acquired by Health Fitness Corporation (HFC) consist primarily of client contracts, proprietary wellness, lifestyle and health promotion programs and other health and wellness services of the HFS Division. As part of the transaction, HFC has entered into a multi-year management contract with another subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson for HFC to manage more than 50 Johnson & Johnson affiliate sites, making the Johnson & Johnson family of companies HFC's largest client. Also as part of the transaction, virtually all of the employees from the HFS Division of Johnson & Johnson Health Care Systems are now part of HFC.

The HFS Division of Johnson & Johnson Health Care Systems has been serving clients since 1986, providing corporate fitness and wellness services and programs to companies across the United States and Canada. Services include: health and fitness center management, consulting, occupational health services, health risk assessment programs, wellness, fitness, injury prevention and treatment programs and data analysis services. HFC intends to continue the same services and programs.
