PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Management of NRG Energy, Inc. continues to work on NRG Energy's fresh start accounting and its effects on the year end results of NRG Energy in the Form 10-K report to be filed by NRG Energy. Given the complexity of fresh start accounting under SOP 90-7, the material effects of fresh start accounting on our balance sheet, we will not be able to timely file our Form 10-K report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, as due on March 15, 2004, without incurring an unreasonable amount of effort and expense. We expect to be able to file the Form 10-K within fifteen calendar days, on or before March 30, 2004.

NRG Energy's results for the period covered by the subject report will not be comparable to the corresponding prior year period for a number of reasons related to significant corporate events that have taken place during the intervening period, including emergence from bankruptcy, significant financing transactions, asset dispositions and the impact of fresh start accounting on NRG Energy's financial reporting. In addition, the financial results contained in the subject report may differ from those described in NRG Energy's press release dated March 11, 2004 and filed with the Commission on Form 8-K on March 11, 2004 as a result of the continuing work on the application of fresh start accounting described in Part III above. Management expects such differences to relate primarily to balance sheet items and does not expect such differences to be material in amount or significance.
