Board Committees and Meetings

During fiscal 2004 the Board held twenty-one meetings and acted by unanimous written consent two times. The Board has an Audit Committee, Compensation Committee, and Nominating and Governance Committee.

During fiscal 2004, all directors attended at least 75% of the aggregate of the meetings of the Board. Audit Committee, Compensation Committee, and Nominating and Governance Committee members attended at least 75% of the aggregate of their respective meetings. Commencing in 2004, it is the policy of the Board to encourage members of the Board to attend the annual stockholders meetings, although attendance is not required. Director attendance at each annual stockholders meeting, commencing with the 2004 stockholders meeting, will be posted on the Company's web site at www.terayon.com. Commencing in 2003, the independent directors of the Board meet separately with no members of management present in executive sessions. It is further the policy of the Board that independent directors of the Board would meet in executive session at least once per quarter.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Board oversees our financial reporting process. For this purpose, the Audit Committee reviews our auditing, accounting, financial reporting and internal control functions and selects and engages the Company's independent auditors. In discharging its duties, the Audit Committee reviews and approves the scope of the annual audit, and non-audit services to be performed by the independent auditors and the independent auditors' audit and non-audit fees; recommends to the Board that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission; meets independently with the Company's independent auditors and senior management; and reviews the general scope of the Company's accounting, financial reporting, annual audit and matters relating to internal control systems, as well as the results of the annual audit and interim financial statements, auditor independence issues, and the adequacy of the Audit Committee charter. The Audit Committee monitors the Company's compliance with laws and regulations and standards of business conduct. The Audit Committee has also established procedures for (a) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and (b) the confidential, anonymous submission by the Company's employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board. The Audit Committee Charter sets forth the duties and powers of the Audit Committee.

The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Slaven, Speaks and Woodrow with Mr. Slaven serving as Chairman of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee met seven times during 2004 and acted by unanimous written consent two times. After considering transactions and relationships between each member of the Audit Committee or his immediate family and the Company and its subsidiaries and reviewing the qualifications of the members of the Audit Committee, the Board determined that all current members of the Audit Committee are, (1) independent as that term is defined in Section 10A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act); (2) independent as that term is defined in Rule 4200 of the listing standards of the National Association of Securities Dealers; and (3) financially literate and have the requisite financial sophistication as required by the NASDAQ rules applicable to issuers listed on the NASDAQ National Market.

Audit Committee Financial Expert

The Board has determined that the Audit Committee Chairman, Mr. Slaven, is an audit committee financial expert as defined in Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K. The Board determined that Mr. Slaven and in that capacity acquired the relevant experience and expertise and the attributes set forth in the applicable rules in order to constitute him as an audit committee financial expert in part, through his current position as the Chief Financial Officer of SpectraSite, Inc. and his previous position as Chief Financial Officer at 3Com Corporation.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee makes recommendations concerning salaries and incentive compensation, awards stock options to employees and consultants under the Company's stock option plans and performs other functions regarding compensation as the Board may delegate.

The current members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Solomon and Speaks and Dr. Miller with Mr. Solomon serving as Chairman of the Compensation Committee. The Board has determined that all current members of the Compensation Committee are independent as that term is defined in Rule 4200 of the listing standards of the National Association of Securities Dealers. The Compensation Committee met five times in 2004 and acted by unanimous written consent three times.

The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board, which sets forth the duties and powers of the Compensation Committee.

Nominating and Governance Committee

The Nominating Committee was established in February 2003 and was reconstituted as the Nominating and Governance Committee in May 2004. The committee recommends director nominees to stand for election at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders, monitors the board composition and handles corporate governance issues. The Nominating and Governance Committee has the authority under its charter to hire and approve the fee paid to consultants or search firms to assist in the process of identifying and evaluating candidates.

The current members of the Nominating and Governance Committee are Messrs. Slaven, Solomon and Woodrow with Mr. Woodrow serving as Chairman of the Nominating and Governance Committee. The Board has determined that all current members of the Nominating and Governance Committee are independent as that term is defined in Rule 4200 of the listing standards of the National Association of Securities Dealers. The Nominating and Governance Committee met two times during 2004 and acted by unanimous written consent two times.

The Nominating and Governance Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board, which sets forth the duties and powers of the Nominating and Governance Committee.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's directors and executive officers, as well as persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and report of changes in ownership of common stock and other equity securities of the Company. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent stockholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on review of the copies of such reports furnished to us and written representations that no other reports were required, during the year ended December 31, 2004, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to our directors, officers and greater than ten percent beneficial owners were complied with and filed on a timely basis except as set forth below: Messrs. Krstajic, Slaven, Solomon, Speaks, Woodrow and Richman, and Dr. Miller did not file a Form 4 reporting option grants each received on December 16, 2004 and filed the Form 5 reporting this transaction late in 2005.

Table of ContentsCode of Ethics

The Company adopted a Code of Business Conduct, which is applicable to all employees, including the controller, executive officers, including the chief executive officer, and the chief financial officer, and members of the Board of Directors. The Code of Business Conduct is available on the Company's Investor Relations website (www.terayon.com/investor). The Code of Business Conduct satisfies the requirements under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as well as Nasdaq rules applicable to issuers listed on the Nasdaq National Market. The Code of Business Conduct, among other things, addresses issues relating to conflicts of interests, including internal reporting of violations and disclosures, and compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations. The purpose of the code is to deter wrongdoing and to promote, among other things, honest and ethical conduct and to ensure to the greatest possible extent that our business is conducted in a legal and ethical manner. The Company intends to post amendments to or waivers from the Code of Business Conduct (to the extent applicable to the Company's executive officers and members of the Board of Directors) at this location on its website.

Employment Contracts, Termination of Employment and Change of Control Agreements

In August 2004, Mr. Lopez entered into a new employment agreement with the Company which superseded his prior employment agreement entered into in October 1999. Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Lopez's annual base salary was $230,000 and he was entitled to receive specified severance payments and benefits, as discussed below, in the event after October 1, 2004, his employment was terminated by the Company without cause or Mr. Lopez terminated his employment with the Company for any reason. Mr. Lopez resigned from his position at the Company effective December 31, 2004. In accordance with the terms of his employment agreement, he received the following severance payments and benefits: (a) a severance payment of $345,000; (b) subject to certain limitations, continuation of his employee benefits, at the Company's expense, until December 31, 2005; (c) a lump sum payment of $57,500 in lieu of outplacement and career counseling services; and (d) continued vesting of his outstanding unvested stock options until December 31, 2005. In connection with the receipt of severance benefits, Mr. Lopez reaffirmed his continuing obligations after termination under the proprietary information and invention assignment agreement that he signed upon his employment, and entered into a release of claims with the Company.

Dr. Rakib resigned as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company effective on September 7, 2004. Following his resignation, Dr. Rakib was appointed as Chairman of the Board. In connection with this transition, Dr. Rakib entered into a transition agreement with the Company pursuant to which he would remain with the Company as an employee until September 7, 2005. Pursuant to the agreement, Dr. Rakib also received a lump sum payment of $1,350,000, less taxes and withholdings. While Dr. Rakib remains an employee of the Company, his outstanding options will continue to vest in accordance with their terms, and he continues to receive benefits under group health, disability, life insurance and other welfare benefit plans. Prior to September 7, 2005, the Company cannot terminate Dr. Rakib's employment except for cause, which is generally defined as certain types of criminal acts generally involving dishonesty, willful material misconduct as determined by the Board or failure to comply in any material respect with the terms of the transition agreement. In connection with his receipt of the lump sum payment, Dr. Rakib entered into a release of claims. Dr. Rakib also entered into a proprietary information and invention assignment agreement and is subject to covenants not to compete and not to solicit customers and employees while he is an employee or director of the Company and for one year afterwards. The transition agreement superseded Dr. Rakib's prior employment agreement except that Dr. Rakib's change of control severance agreement, as discussed below, remains in effect as amended by the transition agreement while he is an employee. The severance payments and benefits received by Dr. Rakib pursuant to the transition agreement would reduce any compensation and severance benefits that he otherwise may be entitled to receive under his change of control severance agreement.

Mr. Rakib resigned as Chairman of the Board effective on September 8, 2004. Additionally, on October 1, 2004, Mr. Rakib resigned as President and Chief Technology Officer of the Company. Mr. Rakib remains as a director of the Company. In connection with this transition, Mr. Rakib entered into an agreement with the Company pursuant to which he would remain with the Company as an employee until October 1, 2005. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Rakib also received a lump sum payment of $1,350,000, less taxes and withholdings. While Mr. Rakib remains an employee of the Company, his outstanding options will continue to vest in accordance with their terms, and he continues to receive benefits under group health, disability, life insurance and other welfare benefit plans. Prior to October 1, 2005, the Company cannot terminate Mr. Rakib's employment except for cause (which is defined similarly to Dr. Rakib's transition agreement). In connection with his receipt of the lump sum payment, Mr. Rakib entered into a release of claims. Mr. Rakib also entered into a proprietary information and invention assignment agreement and is subject to covenants not to compete and not to solicit customers and employees while he is an employee or director of the Company and for one year afterwards. The transition agreement superseded Mr. Rakib's prior employment agreement except that Mr. Rakib's existing change of control severance agreement, as discussed below, remains in effect as amended by the transition agreement while he is an employee. The severance payments and benefits received by Mr. Rakib pursuant to the transition agreement would reduce any compensation and severance benefits that he otherwise may be entitled to receive under his change of control severance agreement.

In January 2004, the Company entered into change of control severance agreements with Dr. Rakib and Messrs. Lopez and Rakib. These agreements provide for the payment of severance and acceleration of stock options upon termination of employment other than for cause or with good reason within twelve months of a change of control. Under the change of control severance agreements, 100% of unvested options would vest upon such termination. The change of control severance agreements also provide for a severance payment equal to 100% of base and target incentive compensation in the case of Mr. Lopez, and 150% of base and target incentive compensation in the case of Dr. Rakib and Mr. Rakib. Any payment that Dr. Rakib and Mr. Rakib would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to their change of control severance agreements would be reduced by the severance payments and benefits that each of Dr. Rakib, and Mr. Rakib received pursuant to their transition agreement and employment agreement, as discussed above. In addition, the change of control severance agreements of Dr. Rakib and Mr. Rakib will no longer be in effect after the expiration of their one-year transitional employment period as further discussed above. The termination of Mr. Lopez's employment voided his change of control severance agreement.

On July 22, 2004, Mr. Chase entered into a letter agreement with the Company providing for his appointment as the new Chief Executive Officer of the Company effective as of September 8, 2004. Pursuant to the letter agreement, Mr. Chase is entitled to receive an annual salary of $400,000 and eligible to receive an annual bonus of up to seventy-five percent of his base salary, the payment of which is based on the achievement of certain goals defined by the Company's Board of Directors. In the event Mr. Chase's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or Mr. Chase terminates his employment with the Company for good reason at any time on or before September 8, 2007, Mr. Chase is entitled to the following severance benefits: (a) a severance payment equal to twelve months of his then base salary; (b) subject to certain limitations, continuation of his employee benefits, at the Company's expense, for the duration of such twelve month period; and (c) outplacement and career counseling services, at the Company's expense, provided, that the expense shall not exceed twenty-five percent of his then base salary. Mr. Chase also was granted an option to purchase 800,000 shares of common stock of the Company under the 1997 Plan, at an exercise price per share of $1.67, which represented the closing selling price per share of the Company's common stock on the NASDAQ National Market on September 8, 2004. The option vests over a four year period, twenty-five percent of which will vest on September 8, 2005 and the remainder will vest on a monthly basis thereafter.

Mr. Chase further entered into a change of control severance agreement with the Company, dated as of July 22, 2004. The agreement provides, among other things, that, during the term of the agreement, in the event Mr. Chase's employment with the Company is terminated within twelve months of a change of control of the Company, without cause or Mr. Chase terminates his employment with the Company for good reason, Mr. Chase would be entitled to the following severance benefits: (i) a severance payment equal to one hundred percent of his then base salary and target bonus; (ii) subject to certain limitations, continuation of his employee benefits, at the Company's expense, for the duration of such twelve month period; and (iii) full vesting of all of his unvested stock options upon termination of his employment. Any severance benefits provided to Mr. Chase under the severance agreement in connection with a change of control of the Company are offset and reduced by the value of any severance benefits that Mr. Chase may be entitled to receive under his letter agreement discussed above. The severance agreement is in effect until September 8, 2007.

On November 10, 2004, Mr. Richman entered into a letter agreement with the Company providing for his appointment as the new Chief Financial Officer of the Company effective as of November 30, 2004. Pursuant to the letter agreement, Mr. Richman is entitled to receive an annual salary of $300,000 and eligible to receive an annual bonus of up to seventy-five percent of his base salary, the payment of which is based on the achievement of certain goals defined by the Company's Board of Directors. In the event Mr. Richman's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or Mr. Richman terminates his employment with the Company for good reason at any time on or before September 8, 2005, Mr. Richman is entitled to the following severance benefits: (a) a severance payment equal to twelve months of his then base salary; (b) subject to certain limitations, continuation of his employee benefits, at the Company's expense, for the duration of such twelve month period; and (c) outplacement and career counseling services, at the Company's expense, provided, that the expense shall not exceed twenty-five percent of his then base salary. Mr. Richman also was granted an option to purchase 500,000 shares of common stock of the Company under the 1997 Plan, at an exercise price per share of $1.99, which represented the closing selling price per share of the Company's common stock on the NASDAQ National Market on November 30, 2004. The option will vest over a four year period, twenty-five percent of which will vest on November 30, 2005 and the remainder vests on a monthly basis thereafter.

Mr. Richman further entered into a change of control severance agreement with the Company, dated as of March 24, 2005. The agreement provides, among other things, that, during the term of the agreement, in the event Mr. Richman's employment with the Company is terminated within twelve months of a change of control of the Company, without cause or Mr. Richman terminates his employment with the Company for good reason, Mr. Richman would be entitled to the following severance benefits: (i) a severance payment equal to one hundred percent of his then base salary and target bonus; (ii) subject to certain limitations, continuation of his employee benefits, at the Company's expense, for the duration of such twelve month period; and (iii) full vesting of all of his unvested stock options upon termination of his employment. Any severance benefits provided to Mr. Richman under the severance agreement in connection with a change of control of the Company are offset and reduced by the value of any severance benefits that Mr. Richman may be entitled to receive under his letter agreement discussed above. The severance agreement is in effect until November 30, 2005 and then renews for one (1) year periods unless terminated.

The definitions of change of control, cause and good reason under the change of control severance agreements applicable to Dr. Rakib and Messrs. Chase, Rakib and Richman are as follows: Change of control is defined as an acquisition of more than 50% of the Company's outstanding voting securities, a stockholder approved merger, consolidation or reorganization of more than 51% of the Company's outstanding voting securities, a stockholder approved liquidation or dissolution of the Company or the agreement for the sale or dissolution of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company to a third party. Cause is defined as fraud, misappropriation, embezzlement or willful engagement in misconduct that is demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company and its subsidiaries taken as a whole. Good reason is defined as a change in job duties, status, position, responsibilities or salary, a failure to pay compensation, material change in a benefit plan, breach of the change of control severance agreement, insolvency, relocation that is more than 60 miles from Santa Clara, California or the Company's termination attempts that do not comply with the severance agreement.

Additionally, the Company has entered into change of control severance agreements with several employees who are not Named Executive Officers of the Company.

Report of the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee has furnished the following report on executive compensation for fiscal year 2004.

ROLE OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee Charter gives the Compensation Committee the direct responsibility to:

- o review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer;
- o evaluate the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and, either as a committee or together with the other independent members of the Board, determine and approve the compensation level for the Chief Executive Officer; and
- o make recommendations to the Board regarding the compensation of the Company's officers and certain compensation plans.

The Committee's specific responsibilities include:

periodic review of the Company's general compensation policies and strategies, including executive compensation;

review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to executive officers and evaluation of their performance in light of those goals and objectives;

approve salaries, bonuses and all equity-based compensation of the Company's officers;

review the Company's benefit programs and review and approval of all incentive performance-based and equity based plans, plus review and approve other plans submitted to the Compensation Committee by management; and review and approve the terms of employment contracts of the Company's officers.

COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY

The goals of the Company, the Board and the Compensation Committee are to align compensation with business objectives and performance and to enable the Company to attract, retain and reward officers and other key employees who contribute to the long-term success of the Company and to motivate them to enhance long-term stockholder value. Key elements of this philosophy are:

The Company pays competitively compared to leading technology companies with which the Company competes for talent. To ensure that pay is competitive, the Company regularly compares its pay practices with these companies and establishes its pay parameters based on this review.

The Company considers individual and corporate performance and an individual's level of responsibility, prior experience, breadth of knowledge and skill set in establishing an individual's level of compensation.

The Company maintains annual incentive opportunities sufficient to provide motivation to achieve specific operating goals and to generate rewards that bring total compensation to competitive levels.

The Company provides significant equity-based incentives for executives and other key employees to ensure that they are motivated over the long term to respond to the Company's business challenges and opportunities as owners and not just as employees.

Philosophy Regarding Section 162(m) of the Code. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended (Code), limits the Company to a deduction for federal income tax purposes of no more than $1 million of compensation paid to certain named executive officers in a taxable year. Compensation above $1 million may be deducted if it is performance-based compensation within the meaning of the Code. While the Compensation Committee considers and attempts to preserve deductibility in executive compensation, it believes that stockholder interests are best preserved in not restricting the Compensation Committee's discretion and flexibility in crafting and adopting compensation programs, even if such programs may result in certain non-deductible compensation expenses. Accordingly, the Compensation Committee may in the future approve compensation arrangements for certain officers that are not fully deductible. Further, because of ambiguities and uncertainties as to the application and interpretation of Section 162(m) and the regulations issued thereunder, no assurance can be given, notwithstanding the Company's efforts, that compensation intended by the Company to satisfy the requirements for deductibility under Section 162(m) does in fact do so.

Table of Contents

The Compensation Committee has determined that stock options granted under the Company's 1997 Plan with an exercise price at least equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant shall be treated as performance-based compensation.

Long-Term Incentives. The Company believes in providing its employees, including its executive officers, with equity incentive through the form of stock option to provide employees with a personal incentive in the Company and as a retention mechanism. The Company believes that providing employees with such equity incentives builds long-term stockholder value and aligns the interests of the employees and the stockholders. The Company's long-term equity incentive program consists of the 1997 Plan and the 1999 Plan. The equity incentive programs utilize vesting periods (generally four or five years for new hire stock option grants and shorter periods for stock option refresh grants) to encourage key employees to continue in the employ of the Company. Grants are made at 100% of the fair market value on the date of grant. Executives receive value from these grants only if the value of the Company's common stock appreciates over the long-term. The Company determines the size of option grants based on competitive practices of comparable and leading companies in the technology industry and the Company's philosophy of significantly linking executive compensation with stockholder interests.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER COMPENSATION

Mr. Chase joined the Company as Chief Executive Officer and a director in September 2004, and became President of the Company in March 2005. Mr. Chase's annualized base salary was $400,000. Mr. Chase is also eligible to receive an annual bonus of up to seventy-five percent of his base salary based upon certain goals defined by the Company's Board of Directors. Additionally, Mr. Chase was granted an option to purchase 800,000 shares of common stock of the Company under the 1997 Plan, at an exercise price per share of $1.67. The option vests over a four year period, twenty-five percent of which will vest on September 8, 2005 and the remainder will vest on a monthly basis thereafter. The Compensation Committee, approved Mr. Chase's initial compensation arrangement, and will review annually Mr. Chase's compensation arrangement. In determining Mr. Chase's compensation, the Compensation Committee took into account (i) the fact that Mr. Chase was the Chief Executive Officer of a technology company that designs, develops and sells broadband equipment and video technology, (ii) the scope of Mr. Chase's responsibility and (iii) Mr. Chase's ability to lead the Company's continued development.

Dr. Rakib resigned as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company effective September 7, 2004. Dr. Rakib's annualized base salary in 2004 was $450,000, and Dr. Rakib was eligible to receive a 2003 bonus of up to $216,563 under the Company's 2003 Executive Incentive Compensation Plan (Compensation Plan), which would have been paid in 2004. Dr. Rakib voluntarily waived his right to receive his bonus and consequently did not receive any payout under the Compensation Plan, which is described below. The Compensation Committee, and in the past the Board, reviewed Dr. Rakib's compensation arrangement annually. In determining Dr. Rakib's compensation the Compensation Committee took into account (i) the fact that Dr. Rakib was the Chief Executive Officer of a technology company that designs, develops and sells broadband equipment, (ii) the scope of Dr. Rakib's responsibility and (iii) Dr. Rakib's ability to lead the Company's continued development.

In 2003, the Board, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, implemented the Compensation Plan for certain of the Company's officers, including the Chief Executive Officer and each of the executive officers. The Compensation Plan was a bonus plan in which the Company's officers would be eligible to receive a bonus based on (i) the Company's performance and (ii) qualitative performance by the officer. The Chief Executive Officer would make a recommendation to the Compensation Committee on the qualitative performance of each of the officers and the Compensation Committee would evaluate the Chief Executive Officer's performance. Any payment from the Compensation Plan would be based on a percentage of the officer's base pay. The Compensation Plan expired on December 31, 2003.

In 2004, the Compensation Committee issued stock options to all employees other than the Named Executive Officers. In determining the size of the stock option grant to the employees, the Compensation Committee considered the Company's policy of providing employees with equity incentives to retain employees, stock option grants being provided by other companies that design, develop and sell broadband equipment and the size and value of outstanding stock option grants.

OTHER EXECUTIVE OFFICERS' COMPENSATION

In 2004, the other Named Executive Officers of the Company were Messrs. Lopez and Rakib, as well as Mr. Richman who was appointed the Chief Financial Officer of the Company in November 2004. In reviewing and approving the compensation, including base salary and incentive compensation (in both the form of equity in stock options and target compensation in the form of a bonus pursuant to a compensation plan) of the other Named Executive Officers, the Compensation Committee and the Board considered the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer,; to the extent available, the typical salary ranges for persons in comparable positions at comparable companies; and the person's experience. The fiscal 2004 salaries of the Chief Executive Officers and Messrs. Lopez, Rakib, and Richman are shown in the Summary Compensation Table.

THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FISCAL 2004
Lewis Solomon Chairman of the Compensation Committee
Howard W. Speaks, Jr.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

In the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, the Compensation Committee consisted of Messrs. Solomon and Woodrow, with Mr. Solomon as Chairman. The Board members, Messrs. Krstajic, Slaven, Solomon, Speaks and Woodrow, and Dr. Miller are not, and were not in 2004, officers or employees of the Company. Each of the Company's directors holds securities of the Company. No executive officer of the Company served on the board of directors or Compensation Committee of any entity, which has one or more executive officers serving as a member of the Company's Board or Compensation Committee.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

In October 2002, the Company adopted a compensation plan for non-employee board members whereby each non-employee director receives a monthly retainer of $2,000 and $1,000 per board or committee meeting attended. Committee chairs receive an additional $500 per committee meeting attended. In fiscal 2004, Mr. Krstajic received a total of $37,000, Dr. Miller a total of $11,500, Mr. Slaven a total of $48,000, Mr. Solomon a total of $45,000, Mr. Speaks a total of $23,000 and Mr. Woodrow a total of $47,000 for their board service. Additionally, two employee directors, Mr. Rakib and Dr. Rakib received a total of $6,000 and $10,500, respectively, of compensation for their board service in fiscal 2004. Mr. Speaks and Dr. Miller joined our Board in July and May of 2004, respectively. Mr. Chase joined our Board in September 2004 in connection with his appointment as the new Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The members of the board are eligible for reimbursement for their expenses incurred in connection with attendance at board and committee meetings in accordance with Company policy. Mr. Krstajic also received compensation of $30,000 in March of 2004 for consulting services that he provided to the Company in 2003.

Each non-employee director of the Company also receives stock option grants under the 1998 Non-Employee Directors' Stock Option Plan (Directors' Plan). Only non-employee directors, which are currently Messrs. Krstajic, Slaven, Solomon, Speaks, Woodrow and Dr. Miller, are eligible to receive non-qualified stock options under the Directors' Plan. The Directors' Plan is administered by the board, unless the board delegates the administration of the Directors' Plan to a committee comprised of board members.

The aggregate number of shares of common stock of the Company that may be issued pursuant to options granted under the Directors' Plan is 800,000 shares. Option grants under the Directors' Plan are non-discretionary. Pursuant to the Directors' Plan, non-employee directors automatically receive (i) an option to purchase 60,000 shares of common stock on the date of his or her initial election or appointment to be a non-employee director and (ii) an option to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock on the date of each annual meeting of stockholders, which amount shall be prorated for the 12-month period prior to the annual meeting of stockholders if the non-employee director has not continuously served as a non-employee director during such period. In addition, each non-employee director who is then serving as a member of a committee automatically receives an option to purchase 6,000 shares of common stock for each such committee on the date of each annual meeting of stockholders, which amount shall be prorated for the 12 month period prior to the annual meeting of stockholders if the non-employee director has not continuously served as an committee member during such 12-month period. No other options may be granted at any time under the Directors Plan. The exercise price of the options granted under the Directors Plan will be equal to the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant. Options granted under the Directors Plan vest and become exercisable as to 33% of the shares on the first anniversary of the date of grant and 1/36th of the shares monthly thereafter. An optionee whose service relationship with the Company or any affiliate (whether as a non-employee director or subsequently as an employee, director or consultant of either the Company or an affiliate) ceases for any reason may exercise vested options for the term provided in the option agreement (three months generally, 12 months in the event of disability and 18 months in the event of death). Options granted under the Directors Plan generally are non-transferable, however, an optionee may designate a beneficiary who may exercise the option following the optionee's death. In the event of certain changes in control of the Company, all outstanding awards under the Directors Plan either will be assumed or substituted for by the surviving entity. If the surviving entity determines not to assume or substitute for such awards, the vesting and time during which such options may be exercised shall be accelerated prior to such event and the options will terminate if not exercised after such acceleration and at or prior to such event. The term of options granted under the Directors' Plan is 10 years. Unless terminated sooner by the board, the Directors' Plan will terminate in June 2008.

During fiscal 2004, the Company granted 296,000 shares of common stock pursuant to stock options from the Directors' Plan to non-employee directors of the Company. On December 16, 2004, each of Messrs. Slaven, Woodrow, Krstajic, Solomon, Miller and Speaks received an option grant for 40,000, 40,000, 28,000, 37,000, 10,417 and 20,583 shares, respectively, of the Company's common stock. The exercise price per share in effect under each such option was $2.74. On July 23, 2004, Mr. Miller received an option grant for 60,000 shares of the Company's common stock with an exercise price of $1.80 per share. On May 26, 2004, Mr. Speaks received an option grant for 60,000 shares of the Company's common stock with an exercise price of $3.07 per share. All exercise prices reflect the fair market value per share of the Company's common stock on the grant date. As of December 31, 2004, 24,591 shares of common stock pursuant to options had been exercised under the Directors' Plan.

Directors who are employees of the Company do not receive separate compensation for their services as directors.

Item 12. Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management and Related Stockholder Matters

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the ownership of the Company's common stock as of April 15, 2005 by: (i) each director; (ii) each Named Executive Officers; (iii) each former Named Executive Officers; (iv) all Named Executive Officers, former Named Executive Officers, and directors of the Company as a group; and (v) all those known by the Company to be beneficial owners of more than five percent of its common stock. All shares of the Company's common stock subject to options currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days of April 15, 2005, are deemed to be outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage of ownership of the person holding such options, but are not deemed to be outstanding for computing the percentage of ownership of any other person. This table is based upon information supplied by officers, directors and principal stockholders and Schedules 13D and 13G filed with the SEC. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes to this table and subject to community property laws where applicable, the Company believes that each of the stockholders named in this table has sole voting and investment power with respect to the shares indicated as beneficially owned. Applicable percentages are based on 76,869,633 shares outstanding on April 15, 2005, adjusted as required by rules promulgated by the SEC. Unless otherwise indicated in the table, the address of each party listed in the table is 4988 Great America Parkway, Santa Clara, California 95054.

Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

The Company has entered into indemnity agreements with certain officers and directors which provide, among other things, that the Company will indemnify such officer or director, under the circumstances and to the extent provided for therein, for expenses, damages, judgments, fines and settlements he or she may be required to pay in actions or proceedings which he or she is or may be made a party by reason of his or her position as a director, officer or other agent of the Company, and otherwise to the fullest extent permitted under Delaware law and the Company's Bylaws.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, Harmonic, Inc. purchased equipment and services from the Company, which accounted for approximately $9.9 million worth of the Company's revenues. Mr. Solomon, a director of the Company and member of the Company's Compensation and Nominating and Governance Committees also serves as a member of the Board of Directors of Harmonic, Inc.

During fiscal 2004, the Company employed Suzan Fishel, a sister of Dr. Rakib and Mr. Rakib. She was paid an aggregate salary of $99,500.08 for her services during the year.

In January 2004, YAS Corporation (YAS), an entity affiliated with Rouzbeh Yassini-Fard, the Company's Interim Head of Data Business from June to October 2004, entered into a consulting agreement with the Company. Pursuant to the consulting agreement, YAS agreed to provide the Company with consulting and market development services primarily in connection with the Company's cable modem termination system (CMTS) products until December 31, 2006, unless earlier terminated. The scope of YAS's consulting relationship is subject to specific tasks set forth in a statement of work agreed upon by YAS and the Company. Five specified consultants associated with YAS, including Dr. Yassini-Fard, agreed to provide consulting services to the Company on a non-exclusive basis. In consideration for its services, the Company agreed to pay YAS's approved expenses and the following fees: (i) $140,000 per month for 2004, (ii) $50,000 per month for 2005 and (iii) $40,000 per month for 2006. Additionally, YAS would be paid a commission based on the number of sales of the Company's CMTS products during the term of the agreement to the top fifteen North American Multiple System Operators, provided the aggregate commission to be paid to YAS would not exceed $4,920,000. The consulting agreement also sets forth the rights of the parties with respect to ownership of intellectual property created during the term of the agreement, with intellectual property created by YAS and its consultants belonging to YAS and intellectual property created by the Company and its employees belonging to the Company. The Company also agreed to indemnify YAS and its consultants in connection with YAS's provision of services to the Company. In addition to the consulting relationship entered into with the Company in January 2004, Dr. Yassini-Fard and entities affiliated with him have acted as consultants to the Company in the past pursuant to prior consulting arrangements with the Company which have since expired. In fiscal year 2004, the Company paid YAS an aggregate of $1,880,000 for consulting services.

In June 2004 in connection with Dr. Yassini-Fard's appointment as Interim Head of Data Business of the Company, the consulting agreement with YAS was orally amended. The modified arrangement with YAS provided, among other things, that Dr. Yassini-Fard would serve on a full-time basis as Interim Head of Data Business until August 31, 2004. In that capacity, Dr. Yassini-Fard had full authority to operate the Data Business but was required to report to the Executive Committee of the Board on a regular basis. The Executive Committee of the Board was dissolved upon the appointment of Mr. Chase, and Mr. Yassini-Fard reported directly to the Company's Board of Directors. YAS also added six additional consultants to work with the Company. In connection with Dr. Yassini-Fard's modified role on an interim basis and the addition of six consultants, the monthly fee payable to YAS increased from $140,000 to $180,000. The other terms of the existing consulting agreement with YAS remained unaffected. Dr. Yassini-Fard's position as the Company's Interim Head of Data Business was extended to December 2004. Dr. Yassini-Fard is no longer the Company's Interim Head of Data Business but the Company continues to engage YAS as a consultant to the Company pursuant to the terms and conditions of the original consulting agreement with YAS discussed above. Consequently, Dr. Yassini-Fard's monthly fee payable to YAS was reduced to $140,000 for the remainder of 2004.

The Company believes that the terms of the transactions described above were no less favorable to the Company than would have been obtained from an unaffiliated third party. Any future transactions between the Company and any of its officers, directors or principal stockholders will be on terms no less favorable to the Company than could be obtained from unaffiliated third parties and will be approved by a majority of the independent and disinterested members of the Board.

Item 14. Principal Accountant Fees and Services

Ernst & Young LLP performed services for us in fiscal 2004 and 2003 related to financial statement audit work, quarterly reviews, tax services, special projects and other ongoing consulting projects. Fees paid to Ernst & Young in fiscal 2004 and 2003 were as follows:

	2004	2003
Audit Fees (1)	$ 1,067,569	$ 606,922
Tax Fees (2)	$ 55,150	$ 84,912
All Other Fees (3)	$	$ 12,444

- (1) Audit fees represent aggregate fees billed for the audit of consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 and the review of financial statements included in our quarterly reports on Form 10-Q.
- (2) Tax fees represent fees for professional services provided in connection with the preparation of our federal and state tax returns and advisory services for other tax compliance matters.
- (3) All other fees consist of fees for products and services other than the services reported above.

Under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the Charter of the Audit Committee, all audit and non-audit services performed by Ernst & Young must be approved in advance by our audit committee to assure that such services do not impair the auditors' independence from the company. Our audit committee specifically approved all audit and non-audit services prior to them being performed by Ernst & Young in fiscal 2004.
