Item 3. Incorporation of Documents by Reference.

The following documents filed or to be filed by the Registrant with the Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) are incorporated by reference into this Registration Statement:

- (a) The 10-K filed by Registrant with the Commission on March 5, 2007, which includes: (i) Audited Consolidated Financial Statements of Spirit AeroSystems Holdings, Inc. for the twelve month period ended December 31, 2006 and the period from February 7, 2005 (date of inception), through December 29, 2005; and (ii) Audited Financial Statements of Wichita Division (a business of the Boeing Company) for the period from January 1, 2005 through June 16, 2005, and for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003.
- (b) All other reports filed pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) since the end of the fiscal year covered by the Registrant document referred to in (a) above.
- (c) The description of the Registrant's Class A and Class B Common Stock, which is contained in Registration Statement on Form S-1 filed under the Exchange Act on June 30, 2006, including any amendment or report filed for the purpose of updating such description.
- (d) All documents filed by the Registrant pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 and 15(d) of the Exchange Act prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment that indicates that all securities offered pursuant to this Registration Statement have been sold or which de-registers all securities then remaining unsold, shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement and to be a part hereof from the date of filing of such documents.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

Common Stock

The Company's Class A common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol SPR. The Class B common stock will not be listed on any securities exchange. The Class A common stock and the Class B common stock are otherwise identical in all respects, except with respect to voting and except that each share of class B common stock is convertible into one share of class A common stock at the option of the holder.

Voting Rights. Generally, on all matters on which the holders of common stock are entitled to vote, the holders of the Class A common stock and the Class B common stock vote together as a single class. On all matters with respect to which the holders of common stock are entitled to vote, each outstanding share of Class A common stock is entitled to one vote and each outstanding share of Class B common stock is entitled to ten votes. If the Minimum Condition (as defined below) is no longer satisfied, the number of votes per share of Class B common stock will be reduced automatically to one vote per share. The Minimum Condition is satisfied so long as the total number of outstanding shares of Class B common stock is at least 10% of the total number of shares of Class A and Class B common stock outstanding.

Class A Common Stock. In addition to the other voting rights or power to which the holders of Class A common stock are entitled, holders of Class A common stock are entitled to vote as a separate class on (i) any proposal to alter, repeal or amend the Company's certificate of incorporation which would adversely affect the powers, preferences or rights of the holders of Class A common stock; and (ii) any proposed merger or consolidation of the Company with any other entity if, as a result, shares of Class B common stock would be converted into or exchanged for, or receive, any consideration that differs from that applicable to the shares of Class A common stock as a result of such merger or consolidation, other than a difference limited to preserving the relative voting power of the holders of the Class A common stock and the Class B common stock. In respect of any matter as to which the holders of the Class A common stock are entitled to a class vote, such holders are entitled to one vote per share, and the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Class A common stock outstanding is required for approval.

Class B Common Stock. In addition to the other voting rights or power to which the holders of Class B common stock are entitled, holders of Class B common stock are entitled to vote together as a separate class on (i) any proposal to alter, repeal or amend the Company's certificate of incorporation which would adversely affect the powers, preferences or rights of the holders of Class B common stock; and (ii) any proposed merger or consolidation of the Company with any other entity if, as a result, shares of Class B common stock would be converted into or exchanged for, or receive, any consideration that differs from that applicable to the shares of Class A common stock as a result of such merger or consolidation, other than a difference limited to preserving the relative voting power of the holders of the Class A common stock and the Class B common stock. In respect of any matter as to which the holders of the Class B common stock are entitled to a class vote, such holders of Class B common stock are entitled to one vote per share and the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Class B common stock is required for approval.

Table of Contents

Dividend Rights. Subject to preferences that may apply to shares of preferred stock outstanding at the time, holders of the Company's outstanding common stock are entitled to any dividend declared by the board of directors out of funds legally available for this purpose. No dividend may be declared on the Class A or Class B common stock unless at the same time an equal dividend is paid on every share of Class A and Class B common stock. Dividends paid in shares of the Company's common stock must be paid, with respect to a particular class of common stock, in shares of that class.

Conversion Rights. The Class A common stock is not convertible. Each share of Class B common stock may be converted at any time at the option of the holder into one share of Class A common stock. The Class B common stock will be converted automatically into Class A common stock upon a transfer thereof to any person other than (i) Onex Partners, LP, Onex Corporation and their respective partners and affiliates ("Onex Entities"), (ii) an affiliate of an Onex Entity, (iii) any individual employed by the Company at the time of the transfer and any affiliate of any such individual or (iv) any other person or entity who obtained Class B common stock through a direct issuance by the Company. In addition, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Class B common stock may force the conversion of all, but not less than all, of the Class B common stock into Class A common stock.

Preemptive or Similar Rights. Holders of the Company's common stock are not entitled to preemptive or other similar rights to purchase any of the Company's securities, and no holder of the Company's securities is entitled to preemptive rights with respect to the shares of Class A common stock.

Right to Receive Liquidation Distributions. Upon the Company's voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the holders of the Company's common stock are entitled to receive pro rata Company's assets which are legally available for distribution, after payment of all debts and other liabilities and subject to the rights of any holders of preferred stock then outstanding.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

General Obligations Law

Registrant is incorporated under the laws, as amended, of the State of Delaware. Under Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or the DGCL, a corporation may indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents and its former directors, officers, employees and agents and those who serve, at the corporation's request, in such capacities with another enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, as well as judgments, fines and settlements in nonderivative lawsuits, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which they or any of them were or are made parties or are threatened to be made parties by reason of their serving or having served in such capacity. The DGCL provides, however, that such person must have acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, in the case of a criminal action, such person must have had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In addition, the DGCL does not permit indemnification in an action or suit by or in the right of the corporation, where such person has been adjudged liable to the corporation, unless, and only to the extent that, a court determines that such person fairly and reasonably is entitled to indemnity for costs the court deems proper in light of liability adjudication. Indemnity is mandatory to the extent a claim, issue or matter has been successfully defended.

Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws

Registrant's certificate of incorporation provides that none of its directors shall be personally liable for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. Any repeal or modification of that provision shall not adversely affect any right or protection, or any limitation of the liability of, any of our directors existing at, or arising out of facts or incidents occurring prior to, the effective date of such repeal or modification. Both Registrant's certificate of incorporation and its by-laws provide for the indemnification of Registrant's directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL.

Indemnification Agreements

Additionally, Registrant has entered into indemnification agreements with certain of its directors and officers which may, in certain cases, be broader than the specific indemnification provisions contained under current applicable law. The indemnification agreements may require Registrant among other things, to indemnify such officers and directors against certain liabilities that may arise by reason of their status or service as directors, officers or employees of the Registrant and to advance the expenses incurred by such parties as a result of any threatened claims or proceedings brought against them as to which they could be indemnified.

Liability Insurance

Registrant's directors and officers are covered by insurance policies maintained by Registrant against certain liabilities for actions taken in their capacities as such, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or the Exchange Act. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Underwriting Agreement

The Underwriting Agreement (filed as Exhibit 1.1 to the Registrant's Form S-1 filed with the Commission on May 8, 2007) provides for the indemnification of certain of Registrant's directors and officers in certain circumstances against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof), which individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form or prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.

Provided, however, that:

Paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) of this Section do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement; and

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
