On September 10, 2007, The Topps Company, Inc. issued the following press release:

EGAN-JONES RECOMMENDS THAT TOPPS STOCKHOLDERS

VOTE FOR PENDING MERGER AGREEMENT WITH

TORNANTE AND MADISON DEARBORN PARTNERS

NEW YORK, September 10, 2007 The Topps Company, Inc. (Nasdaq: TOPP) today announced that Egan-Jones Proxy Services (Egan-Jones), a leading independent U.S. proxy advisory firm, has recommended that Topps stockholders vote FOR the pending merger agreement with The Tornante Company LLC and Madison Dearborn Partners, LLC (Tornante MDP transaction), at the special meeting of stockholders.

To follow Egan-Jones recommendation, Topps stockholders should vote FOR the company s proposed merger agreement on the Company s WHITE proxy card today. In recommending that stockholders vote FOR the Company s proposed merger agreement, Egan-Jones stated that significant factors it evaluated included:

The merger consideration is all cash, which provides certainty of value to stockholders. The $9.75 per share cash price equates to a multiple of 13.1 times Topps EBITDA for fiscal year 2007, which is good value for stockholders and compares favorably to comparable transactions for entertainment and confectionery companies. The $9.75 per share cash offer is the only real offer received as a result of an extensive and thorough value-maximization process that started over two years ago. The Boards belief that, based in part on the Company s historical and current financial performance, projections of the Company s financial performance prepared by Topps management and Lehman Brothers fairness opinion, the merger consideration would result in greater value to stockholders than either pursuing managements current business plan or undertaking alternative courses of action. The fact that the Company engaged in discussions with various parties over the last two years with respect to possible sale transactions, including an auction process for the confectionery business, and such transactions have not resulted in a definitive agreement or any proposals that the Board considered attractive. The timing of the merger and the risk that if the Company did not accept the Tornante-Madison Dearborn groups offer at the time that it did, the Board might not have had another opportunity to do so, particularly if the financial markets fluctuate in a manner that makes it more difficult to finance an acquisition of the Company. The fact that, due to the different nature of the confectionery and entertainment businesses, there was no logical strategic buyer of the entire Company and no other buyer has emerged. The Board proactively contacted 107 potential bidders (including Upper Deck) during the go-shop solicitation period to perform a thorough market check, but no superior proposal emerged.*

Permission to use quotations from the Egan-Jones report was neither sought nor obtained.*

Arthur T. Shorin, Topps Chief Executive Officer, said, "We are pleased that Egan-Jones recommended that Topps stockholders vote FOR the Tornante Madison Dearborn transaction and recognized that the pending merger agreement represents the best opportunity to deliver maximized value to all Topps stockholders. Notwithstanding the Egan-Jones recommendation, stockholders should be cautioned that Crescendo Partners is misleading Topps stockholders with unsubstantiated claims about Topps future valuation. We believe Crescendo is acting in its own self interest to take control of Topps for free. The Board recommends that stockholders vote FOR the Tornante Madison Dearborn transaction.

The Tornante MDP transaction requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Topps outstanding common stock and is the only binding offer received.

The Special Meeting of Topps stockholders to consider and vote upon the proposed merger has been scheduled for Wednesday, September 19, 2007 at 11:00 a.m., local time, at the Company's offices at One Whitehall Street, New York, New York. Topps stockholders of record as of the close of business on August 10, 2007 will be entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Topps stockholders are reminded that their vote is extremely important, no matter how many or how few shares they own. Stockholders are urged to sign, date and return the Company's WHITE proxy card today. If shares are held with a broker, stockholders may be able to vote their shares by telephone or by the Internet. If this option is available, stockholders may simply follow the instructions on the Company's WHITE proxy card to assure a vote for Topps directors and the governance proposals. Stockholders are advised that if they have any questions or need any assistance in voting their shares, they should contact Topps proxy solicitor, Mackenzie Partners, Inc., toll-free, at 1-800-322-2885.
