PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

The Board of Directors of Ryan s Family Steak Houses, Inc. is furnishing this Proxy Statement in connection with the solicitation of proxies to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, April 30, 2003, at the Greenville/Spartanburg Airport Marriott, Greenville, South Carolina. The approximate mailing date of this Proxy Statement is March 31, 2003.

Shareholders of record at the close of business on March 5, 2003, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. On that date, 42,284,000 shares of Ryan s Common Stock, $1.00 par value per share, were outstanding. Holders of Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on March 5, 2003, on all matters properly presented at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment.

If you give a proxy, you may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by:

submitting a written notice of revocation (dated later than the proxy card) to the Secretary at or before the Annual Meeting;

submitting another proxy that is properly signed and later dated; or voting in person at the meeting (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself revoke a proxy).

Unless you decide to vote your shares in person, you may revoke your prior proxy by delivering a notice to the Secretary of Ryan s at the Annual Meeting or prior to the Annual Meeting to one of the above addresses, Attention: Janet J. Gleitz.

Unless you revoke your proxy by following the above instructions, your proxy will be voted as you specify. If you do not specify how to vote your shares, all shares represented by a proxy that is received by the Company s transfer agent will be voted FOR the proposal to elect as directors of Ryan s the nominees named in this Proxy Statement, FOR the proposal to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as independent auditors for Ryan s for the current fiscal year, and in the best judgment of the proxy holders on any other matter that may properly come before the Annual Meeting and any and all adjournments and on matters incident to the conduct of the meeting.

An automated system administered by Ryan s transfer agent tabulates the votes. The Company s bylaws require the presence, either in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock at March 5, 2003, to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are each included in determining the number of shares present and able to vote. Each is tabulated separately. In connection with the election of directors and the proposal to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as independent auditors, abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted.

Directors will be elected by a plurality of votes cast at the Annual Meeting. Shareholders do not have a right to cumulate their votes for directors. Ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as independent auditors will require the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares voting on the issue at the Annual Meeting.

(1) These options are exercisable beginning on April 28, 2003.

(2) In accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) rules, the dollar amounts under this column were calculated using the Black-Scholes based option valuation model. Use of this model should not be construed as an endorsement of its accuracy at valuing options. All stock option models require a prediction about the future movement of stock price. The valuation assumes an expected volatility of 0.34, a 0% dividend yield, a 7-year holding term prior to exercise, and a risk-free rate of return of 3.92%, reflecting the yield on a zero coupon U.S. Treasury security for the holding term prior to exercise of the option. No adjustment was made for non-transferability or risk of forfeiture. The actual value of the options, if any, will depend on the extent, if any, to which the market value of the Common Stock exceeds the exercise price of the option on the date of exercise.

(3) In order to obtain the Grant Date Present Value shown, the market price of the Common Stock would need to be $15.00 in present value terms.

Deferred Compensation Salary Continuation Agreement

The Company is party to a Deferred Compensation Salary Continuation Agreement with Mr. Way. The agreement provides for cash payments of $60,000 per year for each of the 20 years following Mr. Way's retirement, death or total disability, with retirement age set at 55. These benefits began vesting 10% per annum in 1987 and are now fully vested. The total deferred compensation liability as of January 1, 2003 relating to this agreement was $371,226. An aggregate of $27,498 of deferred compensation was accrued under this agreement for the benefit of Mr. Way during fiscal 2002. Ryan's is the owner and beneficiary of a life insurance policy on the life of Mr. Way. The Company expects that the benefits under this arrangement will be funded through a combination of general corporate funds and the cash surrender value of the insurance policy.

Executive Employment Agreements

In February 2001, each of Messrs. Way, McCranie, Grant and Hart (each an Executive) entered into an Employment, Noncompetition and Severance Agreement with Ryan's Family Steak Houses TLC, Inc. (Ryan's TLC), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Ryan's. Each agreement specified a base annual salary for the officer, subject to annual review by Ryan's Board of Directors. In addition to annual salary, each agreement provides for participation in Ryan's TLC's Executive Bonus Plan, discretionary stock option grants and other executive-level benefits.

Each agreement contains an evergreen term provision so that, until an Executive is 60 years old, the term of the agreement runs for the next two-year period. Either Ryan's TLC or the Executive may cause the term to become fixed to a two-year term from the date of notice. At age 60, the term converts to a five-year period, with the agreement expiring at age 65.

The agreement also contains noncompetition provisions. Each Executive is prohibited from hiring current and certain former Ryan's employees and from working for a competing restaurant business for a period of two years following termination of employment at Ryan's.

Each Executive is also eligible for severance payments resulting from certain termination circumstances. Severance payments, when applicable, will be based on the sum of Executive's most recent annual salary and the average of the most recent three years of bonus payments (this sum is referred to as Annual Compensation). If an Executive is terminated by Ryan's for reasons other than cause (or for cause after a change of control, as defined in the agreement), the severance payment will be equal to one times Annual Compensation or, for termination without cause after a change of control, two times Annual Compensation. Cause includes material criminal fraud, material dereliction of duties, intentional material damage to Ryan's TLC's property or business, commission of a material felony or repeated failure to carry out the Board's or the CEO's reasonable directions. Following a change of control, an involuntary termination by the Executive results in a severance payment equal to two times Annual Compensation, while a voluntary termination by the Executive after a change of control results in a severance payment equal to one times Annual Compensation. Involuntary termination is defined as a termination by the Executive following a change of control due to a change in the Executive's position, authority, status or duties, change in the agreement's terms (including the rolling two-year termination date), reduction in compensation or benefits, forced relocation outside the Greenville, South Carolina metropolitan area or significant increase in travel requirements. In addition, termination by the Executive due to a material breach of the agreement by Ryan's TLC (after notice and a cure period) results in a severance payment equal to two times Annual Compensation. All other termination circumstances do not result in any severance payment.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires Ryan's directors, executive officers, and greater-than-10% stockholders to file reports with the SEC and NASDAQ on changes in their beneficial ownership of Ryan's Common Stock and to provide the Company with copies of the reports. Based on review of these reports and of certifications furnished to the Company, the Company believes that all of these reporting persons complied with their filing requirements for 2002.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors periodically submits to the Board recommendations respecting the salary, bonus and other compensation to be provided to Ryan's executive officers and grants options for shares of Ryan's Common Stock to the Company's executive officers and employees. The Committee is composed entirely of independent, nonemployee directors who have not served as officers of Ryan's and have no interlocking relationships, as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee provides the following report.

Executive Officer Compensation

The Committee attempts to act on the shareholders' behalf in establishing executive compensation programs, for our shareholders ultimately bear the cost of these programs. Ryan's adopts and administers its executive compensation policies and specific executive compensation programs in accordance with that objective. The Committee annually reviews Ryan's corporate performance and that of its executive officers to determine appropriate compensation. The Committee seeks to achieve a balance between our need to attract and retain qualified and motivated executives, on the one hand, and maximizing our operating performance, on the other.

The Committee's executive compensation philosophy is to set compensation levels in its discretion that provide for compensation opportunities that reflect company and individual performances. Ryan's current executive compensation structure consists of base salary, incentive cash bonuses and stock options.

Over the years, the Committee has attempted to set executive officer cash compensation amounts at levels somewhat lower than levels that the Committee believes prevail within the restaurant industry, and has complemented these cash amounts with significant stock option grants.

The Committee adjusted the salaries for all executive officers except Mr. Way in 2002 based upon the recommendations of Mr. Way. Mr. Way considered factors that were generally subjective, such as his perception of individual performance and the level of individual responsibility. Mr. Way recommended increases in the base salaries of executive officers ranging from 5% to 8%. The Committee determined that these increases were appropriate to compensate executive officers for the increased level of responsibility associated with the increase in Ryan's size.

The Committee generally grants stock options on an annual basis at an exercise price equal to the stock market price at the time of grant. The grants provide Ryan's executive officers and key employees with an equity ownership opportunity in Ryan's and with incentives to maximize shareholder value. The Committee can grant stock options at its discretion and is not required to award grants within any given 12-month period. In October 2002, the Committee made an option grant to each executive officer shown in the table titled "Option Grants in Last Fiscal Year." In determining the size of any stock option grant, the Committee considered the following qualitative factors: the Committee's perception of Ryan's overall performance; the individual's performance; the potential effect that the individual's future performance may have on Ryan's; and the number of options previously granted to the individual. The Committee gave each of these factors approximately equal weight.

During 2002, Alan Shaw, Senior Vice President - Operations, was paid quarterly bonuses based on four factors: same-store sales comparisons; net earnings per share compared to the immediately preceding year; customer service as reported through a hidden shopper program; and various other subjective considerations, including management turnover, team work and creativity. The first two factors were given a combined weight of approximately 80%. The Committee considered each of these factors and awarded bonuses to Mr. Shaw as noted in the Summary Compensation Table.

During 2002, the Committee continued an Executive Bonus Plan to provide additional incentives to its other executive officers. The bonus plan covered seven of Ryan's eight executive officers. Alan Shaw participated in the plan described above in 2002, but switched to the Executive Bonus Plan in January 2003.

Pursuant to the Executive Bonus Plan, each year the Committee establishes a percentage of each participating executive's annual base salary, ranging from 25% to 40%, as a starting bonus amount. Each participant's starting bonus amount is subject to adjustment upwards or downwards based on a point scale with three categories for points: (1) Ryan's same-store sales growth, (2) Ryan's earnings per share growth and (3) the participant's attainment of pre-determined departmental and personal objectives. In 2002, the Committee established a total point maximum of 284 with the following weights among the three categories: 56% for same-store sales growth, 28% for earnings per share growth and 16% for departmental and personal goals. The Committee also establishes minimum thresholds for points awards. For 2002, if there was no increase in same-store sales or if earnings per share did not increase by at least 10%, no points were awarded for that particular area.

Once the points have been determined, the starting bonus amount is multiplied by the points, expressed as a percentage (e.g., 100 points equals 100%), and the product is the final bonus amount. Because the total point maximum for 2002 was 284, the maximum bonus amount was 284% of the starting bonus amount for each participant.

For 2002, all participants in the Executive Bonus Plan received no points for same-store sales growth (which were down 0.7% from the prior year) and 80 points for earnings per share growth (which were up 17% from the prior year). When combined with the performance of departmental and personal objectives, bonus payouts for these executive officers were 44% of their maximum bonus amounts.

The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 denies publicly traded companies the ability to deduct for federal income tax purposes certain compensation paid (including income on exercised stock option grants) to top executive officers in excess of $1 million per person. The Committee intends to administer Ryan's executive compensation programs in such a way that anticipated compensation to executive officers will be fully deductible under the Internal Revenue Code, including submitting plans for shareholder approval where necessary and determining compensation on an objective basis where necessary.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Mr. Way joined Ryan's in 1979, has served as its President and Chief Executive Officer since 1989, and became Chairman of the Board in 1992. In setting Mr. Way's compensation, the Committee tends to set a relatively low base salary for an individual with Mr. Way's responsibilities and emphasize stock option grants as a component of his overall compensation package. The Committee believes that this approach to Mr. Way's compensation has resulted in an appropriate alignment of his long-term rewards from Ryan's with the interests of shareholders.

During 2002, the Committee adjusted Mr. Way's base salary upward by approximately 7%. In making this adjustment, the Committee considered subjective factors including the perception of the Committee as to Mr. Way's overall performance and objective factors such as the increase in Ryan's earnings per share, operating margins, and return on equity. Each of these factors was given approximately equal weight. In addition, Mr. Way received a bonus of $199,640 pursuant to the Executive Bonus Plan described above.

In addition, in October 2002, the Committee granted Mr. Way options with respect to 40,000 shares of Common Stock. In determining the size of this grant, the Committee considered the following qualitative factors: the Committee's perception of Ryan's overall performance; Mr. Way's performance; the potential effect of his future performance on Ryan's; and the number of options previously granted to him. Each of these factors was given approximately equal weight. At fiscal 2002 year-end, the value of Mr. Way's outstanding exercisable in-the-money stock options was $1,570,500 as compared to $2,807,100 at the end of 2001, a decrease of 44.1%. The Committee believes that the stock options provide Mr. Way with appropriate incentives to promote long-term shareholder value.
