Section 4 Matters Related To Accountants and Financial Statements

Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On June 17, 2008, following an extensive review and request-for-proposal process, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Cumulus Media Inc. (the Company) determined not to renew its engagement of KPMG LLP (KPMG) as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm (auditors) and dismissed them as the Company's auditors. The Company appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PwC) as the Company's auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2008, commencing immediately.

KPMG's audit reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles, except as follows:

KPMG's report on the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2006 contained a separate paragraph stating that "As discussed in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123R, Share Based Payment." KPMG's report on the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2007 contained separate paragraphs stating that "As discussed in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements, effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123R, Share Based Payment." and "As discussed in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements, effective January 1, 2007, the Company adopted the Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109."

KPMG's reports on management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting and the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2007 and 2006 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that KPMG's 2006 report indicates that the Company did not maintain effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006 because of the effect of a material weakness, as further described below.

During the two most recent fiscal years ended December 31, 2007, and through the date hereof, there were no: (1) disagreements with KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to KPMG's satisfaction, would have caused KPMG to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its reports, or (2) reportable events as defined in Regulation S-K, Item 304(a)(1)(v); except that in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, management concluded in its report, and KPMG concurred, that the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006 was not effective as a result of a material weakness (at that time, management concluded that the Company did not maintain sufficient, adequately trained personnel in its corporate accounting function). The Company has authorized KPMG to respond fully to any inquiries from PwC regarding this matter.

KPMG was provided a copy of the above disclosures and was requested to furnish a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether it agrees with the above statements. A letter from KPMG is attached hereto as Exhibit 16.1.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years ended December 31, 2007 and through the date hereof, the Company did not consult with PwC regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Item 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.
