Note A Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair financial presentation have been included. Past operating results are not necessarily indicative of the results which may occur in future periods, and the interim period results are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.

In connection with the preparation of the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements, the Company made certain adjustments to the results reported in the press release on October 30, 2003, related to the significant events that occurred during the quarter. The first adjustment relates to the sale of the Company's Precious Metals business during the third quarter for approximately $814 million in cash. The Company previously reported a net gain on this sale of $53.7 million after-tax. However, the amount of expenses associated with this sale and deducted from the gain has been determined to be less than previously estimated. Additionally, the Company had previously recorded certain charges against the gain related to the exit of certain facilities, the sale of a Corporate asset, and severance and other executive compensation arrangements, all of which were indirectly related to the sale of the Precious Metals business. However, these charges have been reclassified as restructuring and other charges in continuing operations, as under generally accepted accounting principles they more directly relate to the Company's ongoing businesses. These adjustments increased the net gain on the sale to $62.7 million, after-tax.

The second adjustment relates to the $45.0 million of restructuring and other charges reported in the October 30, 2003 release. The Company determined that its estimate of inventory costs previously reflected in the restructuring charge included inventory that has a value that can be realized in future continuing operations. Accordingly, this inventory has been removed from restructuring and other charges. In addition, it was determined that certain restructuring and other charges more properly related to the first and second quarters of 2003 ($4.7 million and $4.9 million, respectively). As a result of these changes and the reclassifications from the net gain as noted above, restructuring and other charges for the third quarter of 2003 have been reduced to $23.5 million. The Company will file amended Form 10-Q's for the first and second quarters of 2003 as a result of these changes.

During the fourth quarter of 2002, the Company shut down the U.S. manufacturing operations of the Fidelity electroless nickel business in Newark, New Jersey, and accounted for it as a discontinued operation. During the third quarter of 2003, the Company concluded that the revenue streams for this business have sufficiently continued through tolling arrangements with outside processors, and, accordingly, has reclassified these results to continuing operations for all periods presented. The operating results of this business are summarized as follows (in millions):

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2003	2002	2003	2002
Net sales	$ 4.2	$ 5.9	$ 12.8	$ 16.8
Operating loss (a)	(6.0)	(1.2)	(11.0)	(2.8)

(a) - Operating loss for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2003 includes restructuring and other charges of $5.9 million and $8.4 million, respectively.

Operating results for Fidelity U.S. pertaining to the fourth quarter of 2002, representing net sales of $5.1 million and operating loss of $5.4 million (including restructuring charges of $3.6 million), will be reclassified in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2003.

Note B Divestitures of Precious Metals and SCM Metal Products, Inc.

On July 31, 2003, the Company completed the sale of its Precious Metals business (PMG business) to Umicore for 697 million (approximately $814 million) in cash. After transaction costs and expenses, the Company recorded a net gain on the disposal of this business of $95.0 million ($62.7 million after-tax). This business was comprised of the Precious Metal Chemistry and Metal Management reportable segments, which were acquired by the Company from Degussa in August 2001. The PMG business was classified as a discontinued operation beginning with the second quarter of 2003, and the consolidated financial statements of prior periods have been restated, where applicable, to reflect this business as a discontinued operation.

The net proceeds from the sale of the PMG business were used to repay all of the Company's outstanding indebtedness under its then-existing Senior credit facilities. On August 7, 2003, the Company entered into a new $150 million Senior Secured Revolving Credit Facility with a group of lending institutions. The new facility bears interest at an interest rate of LIBOR plus 2.00% to 3.00% or PRIME plus 0.25% to 1.25%, matures in August 2006 and includes covenants that are more favorable to the Company than those in the previous Senior facility. There were no borrowings under this facility during the three months ended September 30, 2003.

Table of Contents

On April 1, 2003, the Company completed the sale of its copper powders business SCM Metal Products, Inc. for proceeds of $65 million less expenses. The net proceeds were used to repay a portion of the Company's outstanding indebtedness under its credit facilities. There was no gain or loss recorded on that date, as the business was written-down to fair value in the fourth quarter of 2002. This business has been presented as a discontinued operation for all periods presented.

Operating results of discontinued operations are summarized as follows (in millions):

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2003	2002	2003	2002
Net sales	$342.1	$1,170.6	$2,415.2	$3,261.0
Operating income	6.6	27.4	47.5	75.1
Interest expense	3.6	12.1	32.7	35.5
Income tax expense	1.6	10.5	4.2	12.5

The operating results summarized above include an allocation of consolidated interest expense, based upon the estimated net proceeds from the sales of the respective discontinued businesses that were required to be used to re-pay amounts under the Company's credit facilities.

The Company has retained certain liabilities of the PMG business, primarily related to tax and employee compensation accruals that relate to the period that the business was owned by the Company, which are primarily included in other accrued expenses in the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Note C Restructuring and Other Charges

During the three months ended September 30, 2003, the Company recorded restructuring and other charges related to its continuing operations of $23.5 million, representing the completion of its worldwide restructuring program that commenced in the fourth quarter of 2002. These charges, which include an adjustment of $2.5 million to a charge taken in 2002, are recorded in Cost of products sold ($9.7 million) and Selling, general and administrative expenses ($13.8 million) in the Condensed Statements of Consolidated Operations. A summary of the charges, which have a cash component of approximately $6.3 million, is as follows (in millions):

Exit of facilities	$12.4
Severance costs	1.8
Asset impairments	1.1
Adjustment to charge taken in 2002	2.5

$17.8

Edgar Filing: OM GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

Executive bonuses approved for completion of Precious Metals sale
2.6
Inventory write-downs related to exited product lines and businesses
3.1

Table of Contents

Charges for the exit of facilities include amounts related to the shut-down of manufacturing operations of the Company's electroless nickel business in Newark, New Jersey; the pending sale of the Company's facility in Thailand; and facilities consolidation in connection with the sale of the Precious Metals business in July. Severance costs relate to severance and related costs for employees terminated during the quarter in connection with the restructuring program. Executive compensation relates to bonuses and other arrangements that vested upon successful completion of the sale of the Precious Metals business.

Restructuring liabilities for continuing operations at December 31, 2002, adjustments in 2003 to amounts recorded in 2002, charges taken in the 2003, and amounts utilized to date in 2003 are summarized as follows:

	Number of Employees	Workforce Reductions	Inventory and other asset write-downs	Facility Exit and Other	Total

Balance at 9/30/03
5 $5.0 $ $7.2 $12.2

The $5.0 million liability at September 30, 2003 pertaining to workforce reductions includes $4.8 million payable to terminated employees.

In connection with the first quarter 2003 restructuring activities, the Company also recorded charges of $5.6 million related to discontinued operations. This amount is included in Income (Loss) from Discontinued Operations.

Note D Inventories

Inventories consist of the following:

	September 30, 2003	December 31, 2002
Raw materials and supplies	$ 129,655	$ 138,840
Finished goods	111,663	122,853
	241,318	261,693
LIFO reserve	26,162	42,961
Total inventories	$ 267,480	$ 304,654

During the three months ended September 30, 2002, the Company recorded a non-cash charge of $108.2 million to write-down cobalt inventories to the lower of cost or market.

Note E Contingent Matters

The Company is a party to various legal proceedings incidental to its business and is subject to a variety of environmental and pollution control laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which it operates. As is the case with other companies in similar industries, the Company faces exposure from actual or potential claims and legal proceedings involving environmental matters. Although it is very difficult to quantify the potential impact of compliance with or liability under environmental protection laws, management believes that the ultimate aggregate cost to the Company of environmental remediation, as well as other legal proceedings arising out of operations in the normal course of business, will not result in a material adverse effect upon its financial condition or results of operations.

In November 2002, the Company received notice that shareholder class action lawsuits were filed against it related to the decline in the Company's stock price after the third quarter 2002 earnings announcement. The lawsuits allege virtually identical claims under Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and SEC Rule 10b-5 against the Company, certain executive officers and the Board of Directors. Plaintiffs seek damages in an unspecified amount to compensate persons who purchased the Company's stock between November 2001 and October 2002 at allegedly inflated market prices. While the ultimate outcome of this litigation cannot be determined at this time, management believes that these matters will not have a material adverse effect upon the Company's financial condition or results of operations. In addition, the named executive officers, the Board of Directors and the Company have Directors & Officers and Corporate Liability Insurance available for such matters.

In October 2002, the Company was mentioned in a report issued by a United Nations panel focusing on companies and individuals operating in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) and their alleged exploitation of the natural resources and other forms of wealth of the DRC. OM Group is not among the companies cited for financial sanctions in the report. As noted in the report, the Company's business in the DRC is comprised of a smelter plant, which is 55%-owned through a joint venture (Groupement Pour Le Traitement Du Terril De Lubumbashi) with the DRC state mining company (Gecamines) and a third party; as well as contractual arrangements and discussions with Gecamines and the third party with respect to the joint venture partners' rights to various feedstocks related to the smelter project. While the ultimate impact of this report cannot be determined at this time, management believes that this matter will not result in a material adverse effect upon the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

Note H Stock Compensation - Adoption of SFAS No. 148

Table of Contents

In December 2002, SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure, was issued. SFAS No. 148 amends SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, to provide alternative methods of transition when a company voluntarily changes to the fair value-based method of recognizing expense in results of operations for stock-based employee compensation, including stock options granted to employees. Prior to 2003, the Company accounted for stock-based employee compensation under APB No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related Interpretations. Under APB 25, compensation expense has been recorded for restricted stock granted to certain executive officers, but no expense was recorded for stock options granted to employees, as all options had an intrinsic value of zero on the date of grant. During the second quarter of 2003, the Company voluntarily adopted, effective January 1, 2003, the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. Under the prospective method of adoption selected by the Company under the provisions of SFAS No. 148, the recognition provisions will be applied to all employee awards granted, modified or settled after January 1, 2003. As such, net income for 2003 will include expense for stock options granted to employees in 2003; there were no such grants during the nine months ended September 30, 2003.

If the Company had previously elected to adopt the fair value provisions of SFAS No. 123 and thereby recorded compensation expense related to employee stock options, pro forma results of operations would have been as follows:

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,

Table of ContentsNote I Income Taxes

The income tax benefit as a percentage of loss from continuing operations before income taxes and minority interests for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 was 67.8% compared to expense of 3.9% for the same period in 2002. During the third quarter of 2003, the effective tax rate changed from a benefit of 25.7% at June 30, 2003 to a benefit of 67.8% at September 30, 2003, due primarily to the Company's ability to utilize operating loss carryforwards in the United States as a result of the taxable gain on the sale of the Precious Metals Business. The effective rate in 2002 is lower than the statutory rate in the United States due primarily to losses in the United States with no corresponding tax benefit.

Note J Business Segment Information

During the three months ended September 30, 2003, in connection with the sale of the Precious Metals business, which was comprised of its Precious Metal Chemistry and Metal Management segments, the Company reorganized how it manages and evaluates its operations. As a result of this change, the Company now has two reportable segments: the Cobalt Group and the Nickel Group. Formerly, these two segments comprised the Company's Base Metals reportable segment under its prior organizational structure. The information for prior periods has been reclassified to conform to the current segment presentation.

The Cobalt Group derives revenues from cobalt and other metal-based organic, inorganic, powder and metal products. The Nickel Group derives revenues from nickel-based organics, powders and metal products. Transactions between segments, which are not material, are made on a basis intended to reflect the current market value of material. Differences between the reportable segments operating results and net assets and the Company's consolidated financial statements relate primarily to items held at the Corporate level.

Segment financial information is as follows:

Table of Contents

Operating profit for the Cobalt Group for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2002 includes a $108.2 million charge to write-down inventories to the lower of cost or market. Operating profit for the Nickel Group for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2003 includes restructuring and other charges of $5.9 million and $8.4 million, respectively. Corporate expenses for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2003 include restructuring and other charges of $7.6 million and $9.0 million, respectively (see Note C), and a gain of $1.2 million related to a receipt of life insurance proceeds.

Note K Guarantor and Non-Guarantor Subsidiary Information

In December 2001, the Company issued $400 million in aggregate principal amount of 9.25% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011 (the Notes). These Notes are guaranteed by the Company's wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries. The guarantees are full, unconditional and joint and several.

The Company's foreign subsidiaries are not guarantors of these Notes. The Company, as presented below, represents OM Group, Inc. exclusive of its guarantor subsidiaries and its non-guarantor subsidiaries. Condensed consolidating financial information for the Company, the guarantor subsidiaries, and the non-guarantor subsidiaries is as follows:

Table of ContentsItem 2 Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

On July 31, 2003, the Company completed the sale of its Precious Metals business (PMG business) to Umicore for 697 million (approximately $814 million) in cash. The PMG business was comprised of the Precious Metal Chemistry and Metal Management reportable segments, which were acquired by the Company from Degussa in August 2001. On April 1, 2003, the Company completed the sale of its copper powders business, SCM Metal Products, Inc., for cash proceeds of $65 million less costs and expenses. The PMG business and copper powders business each had been classified as a discontinued operation prior to the sale, and the consolidated financial statements of prior periods have been restated, where applicable, to reflect these businesses as discontinued operations. The continuing operations of the Company represent the historical base metals business and are organized into two segments: the Cobalt Group and the Nickel Group. The Nickel Group includes the results of the Company's Fidelity electroless nickel business, which has been reclassified from discontinued operations to continuing operations during the third quarter of 2003, for all periods presented, based on the tolling arrangements in place with outside processors (See Note A).

Three Months Ended September 30, 2003 Compared to Three Months Ended September 30, 2002

Net sales for the three months ended September 30, 2003 were $240.6 million, an increase of 29.0% compared to the same period in 2002. The increase was primarily the result of higher metal market prices for cobalt and nickel, resulting in higher selling prices for the Company's products. This increase was also due to an 8.6% increase in cobalt-contained sales volumes, partially offset by a 2.2% decline in nickel-contained sales volumes.

The following information summarizes market prices of the primary raw materials used by the Company:

	Market Price Ranges per Pound Three Months Ended September 30,
	2003	2002
Cobalt - 99.3% Grade	$9.40 to $10.10	$6.13 to $7.30
Nickel	$3.80 to $4.65	$2.91 to $3.40

Table of Contents

The following information summarizes the physical volumes of metals sold:

(in thousands of pounds)	Three Months Ended September 30,		Percentage
	2003	2002	Change
Cobalt	5,318	4,895	8.6%
Nickel	30,058	30,746	-2.2%

Gross profit increased to $29.8 million for the three-month period ended September 30, 2003, compared to a loss of $54.9 million for the same period in 2002. The amount in 2003 includes restructuring and other charges of $9.7 million due to changes in the Company's operational strategy that result in lower throughput and inventory levels at certain facilities, the exit of certain facilities in connection with the Company's restructuring program, and the discontinuation of certain product lines due to unacceptable profitability levels. The amount in 2002 includes a charge of $108.2 million to write down cobalt inventories to the lower of cost or market. Gross profit in 2003 compared to 2002 was negatively effected by the impact of the strengthened euro against the dollar on the Company's manufacturing expenses in Finland; increased raw material costs; LIFO charges of $6.9 million versus a benefit of $1.5 million in 2002; a longer than anticipated shut-down of the Company's nickel facility in Australia; and lower cobalt and nickel production volumes at the Company's facilities in Finland. These negative effects were partially offset by the positive impact of higher cobalt and nickel prices, which results in higher gross profit dollars due to higher selling prices.

Selling, general and administrative (SG&A) expenses decreased as a percentage of sales to 14.2% in 2003 compared to 15.4% in the 2002 period. This decrease is primarily the result of cost reductions from restructuring activities initiated in the fourth quarter of 2002 and higher selling prices in 2003 which result in higher net sales but do not result in a linear increase in SG&A expenses. This decrease was partially offset by restructuring and other charges of $13.8 million in addition to the $9.7 million recorded in cost of products sold as noted above. These charges are generally other asset write-offs associated with exiting of certain facilities in connection with the Company's restructuring program and additional severance and executive compensation. The decrease was also partially offset by the impact of the strengthened euro against the dollar in 2003 compared to 2002. When the euro strengthens against the dollar, selling, general and administrative expenses at the Company's facilities in Europe are translated into dollars at a higher rate, resulting in higher dollar expenses.

Other expense net was $9.8 million for the three-month period ended September 30, 2003, compared to $8.1 million for the same period in 2002, due primarily to higher interest expense in 2003 compared to 2002 as a result of higher interest rates under the Company's credit agreement, as amended in December 2002.

The income tax benefit as a percentage of loss from continuing operations before income taxes and minority interests was 82.9% compared to 16.8% in the same period in 2002. The higher benefit in 2003 relates to the Company's ability to utilize operating loss carryforwards in the United States as a result of the taxable gain on the sale of the Precious Metals business. The effective rate in 2002 is lower than the statutory rate in the United States due primarily to losses in the United States with no corresponding tax benefit.

Income from discontinued operations was $64.6 million in the third quarter of 2003 compared to $5.1 million in 2002, due primarily to the net gain on the sale of the Precious Metals business of $95.0 million ($62.7 million after-tax), partially offset by the impact of the sale of the Precious Metals business, which was sold on July 31, 2003 and therefore is included for only one month in the 2003 third quarter compared to a full three months in the 2002 third quarter.

Net income for the three-month period ended September 30, 2003 was $62.0 million, compared to a net loss of $71.2 million for the corresponding period in 2002, primarily due to the aforementioned factors.

Table of ContentsCobalt Group

Net sales for the three months ended September 30, 2003 were $99.9 million compared to $85.9 million for the same period in 2002, due primarily to higher metal market prices for cobalt, resulting in higher selling prices for the Company's products. This increase was also due to an 8.6% increase in cobalt-contained sales volumes, due primarily to increased sales of products to the Japanese battery market.

Operating profit for the period was $4.0 million compared to a loss of $96.0 million in the 2002 period. The amount in 2003 includes restructuring and other charges of $10.0 million, and the loss in 2002 includes a charge of $108.2 million to write-down inventories to the lower of cost or market. Before these charges, operating profit increased by $1.8 million due primarily to the positive impact of higher cobalt prices, partially offset by the negative impact of the euro and higher LIFO charges.

Nickel Group

Net sales for the three months ended September 30, 2003 were $140.6 million compared to $100.6 million for the same period in 2002, due primarily to higher metal market prices for nickel, resulting in higher selling prices for the Company's products. This increase was partially offset by a 2.2% decline in nickel-contained sales volumes, as a result of lower feedstock availability.

Operating profit for the period was $5.7 million compared to $19.5 million in the 2002 period. The amount in 2003 includes restructuring and other charges of $5.9 million. Before these charges, operating profit decreased by $7.9 million due primarily to the negative impact of the euro, higher LIFO charges, and a longer than anticipated shut-down of the Company's facility in Australia, all partially offset by the positive impact of higher nickel prices.

Nine Months Ended September 30, 2003 Compared to Nine Months Ended September 30, 2002 Continuing Operations

Net sales for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 were $655.1 million, an increase of 19.9% compared to the same period in 2002. The increase was primarily the result of higher metal market prices for cobalt and nickel, resulting in higher selling prices for the Company's products. This increase was also due to a 9.9% increase in cobalt-contained sales volumes, partially offset by a 3.6% decline in nickel-contained sales volumes.

The following information summarizes market prices of the primary raw materials used by the Company:

	Market Price Ranges per Pound Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2003	2002
Cobalt - 99.3% Grade	$6.45 to $10.10	$6.13 to $8.45
Nickel	$3.28 to $4.65	$2.63 to $3.40

The following information summarizes the physical volumes of metals sold:

(in thousands of pounds)	Nine Months Ended September 30,		Percentage Change
	2003	2002
Cobalt	15,247	13,877	9.9%
Nickel	87,044	90,292	-3.6%

Table of Contents

Gross profit increased to $90.8 million for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003, compared to $46.6 million for the same period in 2002. The amount in 2003 includes restructuring and other charges of $20.4 million due to changes in the Company's operational strategy that result in lower throughput and inventory levels at certain facilities, the exit of certain facilities in connection with the Company's restructuring program, and the discontinuation of certain product lines due to unacceptable profitability levels. The amount in 2002 includes a charge of $108.2 million to write-down of cobalt inventories to the lower of cost or market. Gross profit in 2003 compared to 2002 was negatively effected by the impact of the strengthened euro against the dollar on the Company's manufacturing expenses in Finland; increased raw material costs; LIFO charges of $14.7 million versus a benefit of $6.1 million in 2002; a longer than anticipated shut-down of the Company's nickel facility in Australia; and lower cobalt and nickel production volumes at the Company's facilities in Finland. These negative effects were partially offset by the positive impact of higher cobalt and nickel prices, which results in higher gross profit dollars due to higher selling prices.

Selling, general and administrative (SG&A) expenses decreased as a percentage of sales to 12.4% in 2003 compared to 13.0% in the 2002 period. This decrease is primarily the result of cost reductions from restructuring activities initiated in the fourth quarter of 2002 and higher selling prices in 2003 which result in higher net sales but do not result in a linear increase in SG&A expenses. This decrease was partially offset by restructuring and other charges of $12.7 million in addition to the $20.4 million recorded in cost of products sold as noted above. These charges are generally other asset write-offs associated with exiting of certain facilities in connection with the Company's restructuring program and additional severance and executive compensation. The decrease was also partially offset by the impact of the strengthened euro against the dollar in 2003 compared to 2002.

Other expense net was $28.9 million for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003, compared to $11.3 million for the same period in 2002, due primarily to higher interest expense in 2003 compared to 2002 as a result of higher interest rates under the Company's credit agreement, as amended in December 2002, and to foreign exchange gains of $5.4 million in 2002 compared to a small loss in 2003.

The income tax benefit as a percentage of loss from continuing operations before income taxes and minority interests was 67.8% compared to expense of 3.9% in the same period in 2002. The change in the Company's effective income rate to a benefit of 67.8% for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 compared to the corresponding benefit of 25.7% for the six months ended June 30, 2003 is due primarily to the Company's ability to utilize operating loss carryforwards in the United States as a result of the taxable gain on the sale of the Precious Metals business. The effective rate in 2002 is different than the benefit derived using the statutory rate in the United States due primarily to losses in the United States with no corresponding tax benefit.

Income from discontinued operations was $62.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 compared to $14.9 million for the corresponding period in 2002, due primarily to the net gain on the sale of the Precious Metals business, partially offset by the impact of the sale of SCM Metal Products, which was sold on April 1, 2003 and therefore is included for only three months in 2003 compared to nine months in 2002, as well as the impact of the sale of the Precious Metals business on July 31, 2003.

Net income for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003 was $57.6 million, compared to a loss of $22.3 million for the corresponding period in 2002, primarily due to the aforementioned factors.

Cobalt Group

Net sales for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 were $279.0 million compared to $260.7 million for the same period in 2002, due primarily to higher metal market prices for cobalt, resulting in higher selling prices for the Company's products. This increase was also due to a 9.9% increase in cobalt-contained sales volumes, due primarily to increased sales of products to the Japanese battery market.

Operating profit for the period was $16.3 million compared to a loss of $53.7 million in the 2002 period. Profit in 2003 includes restructuring and other charges of $20.2 million, and the loss in 2002 includes a charge of $108.2 million to write-down inventories to the lower of cost or market. Before these charges, operating profit decreased by $18.0 million due primarily to the negative impact of the euro and higher LIFO charges, partially offset by the positive impact of higher cobalt prices.

Nickel Group

Net sales for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 were $376.1 million compared to $285.8 million for the same period in 2002, due primarily to higher metal market prices for nickel, resulting in higher selling prices for the Company's products. This increase was partially offset by a 3.6% decline in nickel-contained sales volumes, as a result of lower feedstock availability.

Operating profit for the period was $23.3 million compared to $49.7 million in the 2002 period. The amount in 2003 includes restructuring and other charges of $8.4 million. Before these charges, operating profit decreased by $18.0 million due primarily the negative impact of the euro, higher LIFO charges, and a longer than anticipated shut-down of the Company's facility in Australia, all partially offset by the positive impact of higher nickel prices.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003, the Company's net working capital decreased by $61.3 million. This decrease was primarily the result of retained liabilities for tax and employee compensation matters in connection with the sale of the Precious Metals business, which are included in Other accrued expenses; lower inventories due to reduced inventory quantities at September 30 and the 2003 restructuring and other charges; and higher accrued expenses due primarily to higher accruals for employee compensation in 2003 compared to amounts recorded at December 31, 2002. These factors were partially offset by cash provided by operations in the period of approximately $64 million; higher accounts receivable due to higher sales in the third quarter of 2003 compared to the fourth quarter of 2002, and the repayment of the current portion of long-term debt on July 31, 2003 utilizing the proceeds from the sale of the Company's precious metal business. Capital expenditures in 2003 were $7.0 million and primarily related to ongoing projects to maintain current operating levels.

The net proceeds from the sale of the PMG business on July 31, 2003 were used to repay all of the Company's outstanding indebtedness under its then-existing Senior credit facilities. On August 7, 2003, the Company entered into a new $150 million Senior Secured Revolving Credit Facility with a group of lending institutions. The new facility bears interest at an interest rate of LIBOR plus 2.00% to 3.00% or PRIME plus 0.25% to 1.25%, matures in August 2006 and includes covenants that are more favorable to the Company than those in the previous Senior facility. There were no borrowings under this facility during the three months ended September 30, 2003.

On April 1, 2003, the Company completed its previously announced sale of its copper powders business - SCM Metal Products, Inc. for cash proceeds of $65 million less expenses. The net proceeds were used to repay a portion of the Company's outstanding indebtedness under its credit facilities. There was no gain or loss recorded on that date, as the business was written down to fair value in the fourth quarter of 2002. This business has been presented as a discontinued operation for all periods presented.

In August 2003, the Company entered into an interest rate agreement to convert the fixed interest rate on $50 million of the Company's 9.25% Senior Subordinated Notes to a variable rate of LIBOR plus 4.10% for the period ending December 15, 2011. This interest rate swap agreement is designated as a fair value hedge.

Critical Accounting Policies

The consolidated financial statements include accounts of the company and all majority-owned subsidiaries. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions in certain circumstances that affect amounts reported in the accompanying consolidated financial statements and related footnotes. In preparing these financial statements, management has made its best estimates and judgments of certain amounts included in the financial statements, giving due consideration to materiality. Application of these accounting policies involves the exercise of judgment and use of assumptions as to future uncertainties and, as a result, actual results could differ from these estimates. There has been no change in the company's critical accounting policies as disclosed in Form 10-K filed for the year ended December 31, 2002, except that policies associated with the divested Precious Metals business are no longer applicable, and effective January 1, 2003, the Company adopted SFAS No. 123, as amended by SFAS No. 148, related to stock-based employee compensation (See Note H). In addition, no new critical accounting policies have been adopted in the first nine months of 2003, except as noted above.

Forward-Looking Statements

The Company is making this statement in order to satisfy the safe harbor provisions contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. This report contains statements that the Company believes may be forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These forward-looking statements are not historical facts and generally can be identified by use of statements that include phrases such as believe, expect, anticipate, intend, plan, foresee or words or phrases of similar import. Similarly, statements that describe the Company's objectives, plans or goals also are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict, may be beyond the Company's control and could cause actual results to differ materially from those currently anticipated. Factors that could materially affect these forward-looking statements can be found in this report.

Important facts that may affect the Company's expectations, estimates or projections include:

- the price and supply of raw materials, particularly cobalt and nickel;
- the demand for metal-based specialty chemicals and products in the Company's markets;
- the effect of fluctuations in currency exchange rates on the Company's international operations;
- the effect of non-currency risks of investing in and conducting operations in foreign countries, including political, social, economic and regulatory factors;
- the impact of the Company's restructuring program on its continuing operations;
- the potential impact of the Company being named in a 2002 United Nations panel report focusing on companies and individuals operating in the Democratic Republic of Congo;
- the potential impact of an adverse result of the shareholder class action lawsuits filed against the Company and the named executives;
- the general level of global economic activity and demand for the Company's products.

The Company does not assume any obligation to update these forward-looking statements.

Item 3 Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

A discussion of market risk exposures is included in Part II, Item 7a, Qualitative and Quantitative Disclosure About Market Risk, of the Company's 2002 Annual Report on Form 10-K. There have been no material changes during the nine months ended September 30, 2003, except that risks associated with the divested Precious Metals business are no longer applicable, and risks associated with floating interest rates are no longer applicable due to the repayment of the Company's floating rate debt in the third quarter of 2003.

Item 4 Controls and Procedures

(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company carried out an evaluation under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) as of September 30, 2003. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in timely alerting them to material information relating to the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries that is required to be included in the Company's SEC filings.

However, in connection with the preparation of the condensed consolidated financial statements included in this Form 10-Q, which contain adjustments from the results reported in the Company's press release of October 30, 2003 (as described in Note A), the Company has received a material weakness letter from its independent auditors with respect to certain internal control over financial reporting matters that, in the independent auditors' judgment, could adversely affect the Company's ability to record, process, summarize and report interim financial information. The Company intends to correct any identified material weaknesses in its internal control over financial reporting in the current reporting period.

(b) Changes in Internal Controls

There were no significant changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the period covered by this report that has materially affected, or that is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
