2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders

The proxy that accompanies this statement is being solicited by the board of directors of Brantley Capital Corporation (the Company) for use at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Annual Meeting) to be held on January 7, 2005, or at any adjournment thereof. This proxy statement was first mailed on or about December 10, 2004 to stockholders of record on December 8, 2004.

Any stockholder giving a proxy for the Annual Meeting may revoke it before it is exercised by giving a later dated proxy, submitting a new vote over the telephone or the Internet or by giving notice of revocation to the Company in writing or at the Annual Meeting. However, the mere presence at the Annual Meeting of the stockholder does not revoke the proxy. Unless revoked as stated above, the shares of common stock represented by valid proxies will be voted on all matters to be acted upon at the Annual Meeting. On any matter or matters with respect to which the proxy contains instructions for voting, such shares will be voted in accordance with such instructions. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be deemed to be present for the purpose of determining a quorum for the Annual Meeting, but shares that are voted as abstentions and broker non-votes, together with any other shares not voted at the Annual Meeting, will be deemed not voting on the issues or matters as to which abstention is applicable. A broker non-vote exists where a broker proxy indicates that the broker is not authorized to vote on a particular proposal. Brokers who have not received voting instructions from beneficial owners generally may vote in their discretion with respect to the election of directors and the ratification of the selection of the Company's independent public accountant. With respect to the election of directors, proxies cannot be voted for a greater number of persons than the number of nominees named.

The cost of solicitation of proxies in the form accompanying this statement will be borne by the Company. Proxies will be solicited by mail or by telephone or personal interview with an officer or regular employee of the Company, or by requesting brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward proxy soliciting material to the beneficial owners of shares of common stock held of record by such brokers, custodians, nominees or fiduciaries, each of whom will be reimbursed by the Company for its expenses in so doing. In addition, the Company may retain Georgeson Shareholder Communications, Inc., a professional proxy soliciting firm, to assist in the solicitation of proxies and, if it does so, will pay such firm a fee estimated to be $15,000, plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses.

The record date for determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is December 8, 2004. As of December 8, 2004, the outstanding voting securities of the Company consisted of 3,810,535 shares of common stock. Each share of common stock has one vote. The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the common stock of the Company outstanding and entitled to be cast shall constitute a quorum for the purposes of the Annual Meeting.

The Company's investment adviser, Brantley Capital Management, L.L.C., is located at 3201 Enterprise Parkway, Suite 350, Cleveland, Ohio 44122. The Company's administrator, State Street Bank and Trust Company, is located at 225 Franklin Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02110.

The audit committee performs its oversight functions and responsibilities pursuant to a written charter adopted by the board of directors. A copy of the audit committee charter can be accessed via the Company's website at <http://www.brantleycapital.com>.

Compensation Committee

The function of the compensation committee is to assist the board of directors in evaluating and recommending compensation of the senior executives of the Company and to administer the Company's stock option plan in accordance with the terms thereof, including the designation of which officers and employees of the Company shall receive stock options, and the number of shares which should be subject to each option so granted. The compensation committee, which is currently composed of Messrs. Bales and Saltz, held one meeting in connection with a meeting of the board of directors during 2003.

Executive Committee

The function of the executive committee is to assist the board in carrying out its responsibilities. The executive committee has and may exercise those rights, powers and authority as may be exercised by the full board, except where action by the full board is required by statute, an order of the Securities and Exchange Commission or the Company's charter or bylaws. The executive committee is composed of Messrs. Pinkas, Oliver and Cascio. The executive committee did not meet during 2003.

Nominating Committee

The function of the nominating committee is to recommend candidates for the board of directors. The board of directors currently acts as the nominating committee. The nominating committee held one meeting in conjunction with a meeting of the board of directors during 2003. The full board of directors currently acts as the nominating committee and is composed of four independent directors and three directors who could be considered interested persons under the 1940 Act. The board of directors has not adopted a charter for the nominating committee. The board of directors believes that, because decisions regarding nominations are made by the entire board, including the independent directors, a separate nominating committee charter is not necessary. In identifying and evaluating nominees, including shareholder nominees, the board will consider:

the appropriate size and composition of the Company's board of directors;

whether or not the person is an interested person of the Company as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the 1940 Act;

the needs of the Company with respect to the particular talents and experience of its directors;

the knowledge, skills and experience of nominees in light of prevailing business conditions and the knowledge, skills and experience already possessed by other members of the Board;

familiarity with national and international business matters;

experience with accounting rules and practices;

appreciation of the relationship of the Company's business to the changing needs of society;

the desire to balance the considerable benefit of continuity with the periodic injection of the fresh perspective provided by new members; and all applicable laws, rules, regulations and listing standards.

The nominating committee's goal is to assemble a board of directors that brings to the Company a variety of perspectives and skills derived from high quality business and professional experience.

Other than the foregoing, there are no stated minimum criteria for director nominees, although the nominating committee may also consider such other factors as it may deem are in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. The nominating committee also believes it appropriate for certain key members of the Company's management to participate as members of the board.

The nominating committee identifies nominees by first evaluating the current members of the board of directors willing to continue in service. Current members of the board with skills and experience that are relevant to the Company's business and who are willing to continue in service are considered for re-nomination, balancing the value of continuity of service by existing members of the board with that of obtaining a new perspective. If any member of the board does not wish to continue in service or if the nominating committee or the board decides not to re-nominate a member for re-election, the nominating committee identifies the desired skills and experience of a new nominee in light of the criteria above. Current members of the nominating committee and board of directors are polled for suggestions as to individuals meeting the criteria of the nominating committee. Research may also be performed to identify qualified individuals. To date, the nominating committee has not engaged third parties to assist in the identification or evaluation of potential nominees although the nominating committee reserves the right in the future to retain a third party search firm, if necessary.

The nominating committee will consider nominees recommended by stockholders; stockholders may send resumes of recommended persons to the attention of Paul H. Cascio, Vice President and Secretary, Brantley Capital Corporation, 3201 Enterprise Parkway, Suite 350, Cleveland, Ohio 44122.

Communications Between Shareholders and Board of Directors

All stockholder communications received in this manner will be delivered to one or more members of the Board of Directors.

Code of Ethics

The Company has adopted a code of ethics which applies to, among others, its senior officers, including its Chief Executive Officer and its Chief Financial Officer, as well as every employee of the Company. The Company's code can be accessed via its website at <http://www.brantleycapital.com>. The Company intends to disclose any amendments to or waivers of required provisions of the code on Form 8-K.

No information has been provided with respect to executive officers of the Company (other than those who also serve as directors), since none of them receives aggregate compensation from the Company and the Company's fund complex in excess of $60,000.

Stock Option Plan

The Company's 1996 Stock Option Plan (the "Stock Option Plan") permits the granting of nonqualified stock options to officers and employees of the Company. All officers of the Company are eligible to be selected to participate in the Stock Option Plan. At present, the Company has no employees. The Stock Option Plan is administered by the compensation committee of the board of directors, which selects the persons who are eligible to participate and determines the number of options to be granted.

The number of shares of common stock available for grant under the Stock Option Plan is 1,175,000, subject to certain adjustments. Options granted under the Stock Option Plan are exercisable at a price not less than the greater of (i) the current market value (as defined in the Stock Option Plan) on the date of option grant and (ii) the current net asset value of the shares of common stock. Options become exercisable to the extent of one-third of the subject shares after one year from the grant date, two-thirds of the subject shares after two years from the grant date and all subject shares after three years from the grant date.

The Company's Disinterested Director Option Plan (the "Director Option Plan") permits the granting of non-qualified stock options to the directors of the Company who are not employees or officers. All such directors of the Company are eligible to be selected to participate in the Director Option Plan, which is administered by the compensation committee of the board of directors. In order for options to be issued to the non-employee directors, the Company obtained exemptive relief from the SEC. Under the terms of the exemptive order and the Director Option Plan Agreement, each qualified director will be granted an option to purchase 2,000 shares upon their initial appointment to the board of directors. Throughout the term of the plan and immediately following each annual meeting of stockholders of the Company, each qualified director then serving on the Company's board of directors will be granted options to purchase 2,000 additional shares, subject to adjustment. Such option grants were made retroactively by the Company to its formation. As a result, the three original qualifying directors who served on the Company's board of directors since the Company's formation received options to purchase 6,000 shares each. The remaining qualifying directors who served on the Company's board of directors since 1998 each received options to purchase 2,000 shares of common stock.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Brantley Capital Management, L.L.C., pursuant to the terms of an investment advisory agreement, is responsible, on a day-to-day basis, for the selection and supervision of portfolio investments. Transactions between the Company and the Brantley Capital Management, including operational responsibilities, duties and compensation, are governed by the investment advisory agreement. Throughout the term of the investment advisory agreement, the Company will pay to Brantley Capital Management an annual management fee of 2.85% of the Company's net assets, determined at the end of each calendar quarter and payable in arrears. For the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company paid Brantley Capital Management an investment advisory fee in the aggregate amount of $1,952,808. Robert P. Pinkas, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, Treasurer and a director of the Company, Michael J. Finn, President of the Company, and Paul H. Cascio, Vice President and a director of the Company are officers and managers of Brantley Capital Management, and together own 100% of Brantley Capital Management.

The Company co-invests in portfolio companies from time to time with affiliates of the Company and Brantley Capital Management, including certain venture capital investment partnerships. Certain officers and directors of the Company and officers of Brantley Capital Management also serve as general partners of the investment partnerships' general partner. The Company's co-investments with such affiliates are subject to the terms and conditions of the exemptive order granted by the Commission, which relieves the Company from certain provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and permits certain joint transactions with the investment partnerships.

The Company is an investor in Disposable Products Company, LLC, a non-woven paper products manufacturer. Grand River Industries, Ltd. owns approximately 35% of Disposable Products' outstanding capital stock. Grand River is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Objective Industrial Investments Partners, L.P. Robert P. Pinkas, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, is a managing member in Objective Industrial. As a result of his investment commitment in Objective Industrial, Mr. Pinkas owns 20% of Grand River.

James P. Oliver has been a director of the Company since 1998 and is a partner with the law firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey L.L.P., which has represented the Company as counsel since shortly after its formation in 1996.

On March 19, 2003, the Company entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (the "MOU") with Phillip Goldstein, currently a director of the Company, pursuant to which Mr. Goldstein agreed to dismiss the lawsuit he filed, in his capacity as a shareholder, against the Company and certain other parties, including certain directors of the Company, in September 2002, subject to compliance with the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act"). The U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio approved the proposed settlement on February 26, 2004. The MOU is subject to shareholder approval.

On June 4, 2003, the Company filed an application for exemptive relief from certain provisions of the 1940 Act relating to certain provisions of the MOU. On June 18, 2003, the Company received comments on its application from the staff of the Division of Investment Management (the "Staff") of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). On August 14, 2003 the Company responded to those comments. With such response, the Company proposed a MOU that was submitted to the Staff. On November 12, 2003, the Company received comments regarding its August 14, 2003 response. The Company responded to the comments on December 18, 2003. On February 11, 2004, the Staff requested a response from the Board of Directors, which the Board provided on February 25, 2004. The Staff responded with further comments by letter dated September 24, 2004 (the "September 2004 Letter"). In the September 2004 Letter, the Staff advised the Company that it would not approve the Company's application for exemptive relief to approve the MOU, based on its interpretation of the SEC's rules regarding investment adviser compensation and the application of those rules to the proposed new investment advisory agreement to be entered into between the Company and Brantley Capital Management, L.L.C., described below, and its analysis of the MOU's provision for the Company's reimbursement to Mr. Goldstein of certain expenses (not to exceed $275,000) he incurred in connection with the litigation related to the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on September 17, 2002. The Staff has currently placed the application for exemptive relief on inactive status.

Pursuant to the MOU, the Company would agree, among other things:

to cause there to be exactly four (4) directors who are not interested persons as defined under the 1940 Act and cause the board to be not more than seven (7) directors in total;

if Mr. Goldstein or Gerald Hellerman is no longer a director of the Company, then whichever of Mr. Goldstein or Mr. Hellerman remains on the board shall have the right to select a nominee; to not convert the Company from being an advised fund to an internally managed fund unless a majority of the independent directors agree; to allow any independent director to request independent counsel, subject to the approval of the board, which cannot be unreasonably withheld; and to refrain from making defamatory remarks about any party to the agreement.

In addition, the MOU provides that, at the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders following the approval of the MOU by the shareholders:

the Company would ask shareholders to approve a plan of orderly disposition of the assets of the Company or a sale of the assets with the goal of cash distributions to stockholders;

the Company would ask shareholders to approve a new investment advisory agreement pursuant to which, prospectively:

the advisor's fees would be reduced from 2.85% to 2.5% of the Company's net asset value;

all stock options would be forfeited and cancelled; and the advisor would be entitled to receive a fee equal to 20% of the aggregate distributions made by the Company in excess of $10.00 per share; however, none of the amount would be paid until aggregate distributions totaled $12.50 per share.

The MOU also includes provisions that would require the parties to take all steps necessary to accomplish the goals of the MOU, including voting their shares in favor of the proposals when and if they are presented at a meeting of stockholders. Under the MOU, the Company would also be required to reimburse Mr. Goldstein for certain expenses (not to exceed $275,000) he incurred in connection with the litigation related to the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on September 17, 2002. Mr. Goldstein would also agree not to engage in, lead or fund a proxy contest while the agreement is in effect. The term of the MOU would run until December 31, 2006.

The board of directors of the Company, including all of the directors who are not parties to the MOU, has unanimously approved the MOU, and the Company has received a stockholder proposal that the stockholders recommend that the board of directors implement the MOU as soon as possible. See PROPOSAL 3 Consideration of Stockholder Proposal. The complete text of the MOU is set forth as Annex A to this proxy statement.

PROPOSAL 2: RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The board of directors has selected KPMG LLP as independent public accountants for the Company for the year ending December 31, 2004. The decision to retain KPMG LLP was made by the board of directors upon the recommendation of the audit committee and is subject to ratification or rejection by the stockholders of the Company.

KPMG LLP has advised the Company that neither the firm nor any present member or associate of it has any material financial interest, direct or indirect, in the Company. The Company also has not consulted with KPMG LLP during the last two years or subsequent interim periods on either the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction either completed or proposed or the type of audit opinion KPMG LLP might issue on the Company's financial statements. KPMG LLP has also been selected to serve as the accountants for Brantley Venture Partners I, Brantley Venture Partners II, Brantley Venture Partners III and Brantley Partners IV.

The Company expects that a representative of KPMG LLP will be present at the Annual Meeting, will have an opportunity to make a statement if he or she so chooses and will be available to answer questions.

On June 11, 2002, we dismissed Arthur Andersen (AA) as our independent auditors. AA's reports on the Company's financial statements for the past two years did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. The decision to change accountants was approved by the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors and was submitted for ratification by its stockholders.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and any subsequent interim period preceding the dismissal of AA, there were no disagreements with AA on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of AA, would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreements in connection with their reports.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and any subsequent interim period preceding AA's dismissal:

(1) AA did not advise the Company that the internal controls necessary for the Company to develop reliable financial statements did not exist;

(2) AA did not advise the Company that information had come to AA's attention that let them to no longer be able to rely on management's representations, or that made them unwilling to be associated with the financial statements prepared by management;

(3) AA did not advise the Company of the need to expand significantly the scope of their audit, or that information had come to their attention during such period that, if further investigated, may (i) materially impact the fairness or reliability of previously issued financial statements and Reports of Independent Auditors, or the financial statements issued or to be issued covering the fiscal period(s) subsequent to the date of the most recent financial statements covered by an audit report, or (ii) cause AA to be unwilling to rely on management's representations or be associated with the Company's financial statements, and AA did not expand the scope of its audit due to its dismissal; and

(4) AA did not advise the Company that information had come to their attention that they had concluded materially impacted the fairness or reliability of previously issued financial statements and Reports of Independent Auditors, or the financial statements issued or to be issued covering the fiscal period(s) subsequent to the date of the most recent financial statements covered by an audit report.

The Company engaged KPMG LLP to act as its independent auditors, effective June 11, 2002. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and any subsequent interim period prior to engaging KPMG LLP, the Company did not consult KPMG LLP regarding either: (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, and KPMG LLP did not provide either a written report or oral advice to the Company that KPMG LLP concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue; or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement or a reportable event, each as defined in Item 304 of Regulation S-K.

Report of the Audit Committee

The audit committee has reviewed and discussed with the Company's management the audited financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. The audit committee has also discussed with KPMG LLP, the Company's independent public accountants, all matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. The audit committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from KPMG LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and has discussed with KPMG LLP its independence.

Based on the review and discussions noted above, and consistent with the roles and responsibilities referred to above and in the audit committee's charter, the audit committee recommended to the board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 for filing with the SEC.

Edgar Filing: BRANTLEY CAPITAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

In accordance with its charter, the audit committee's policy is to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by KPMG LLP. These services may include audit services, audit-related services, tax services and other related services. Pre-approval is generally provided for up to one year, and any pre-approval is detailed as to the particular service or category of service and is generally subject to a specific budget. The audit committee limits the engagement by the Company of KPMG LLP for non-audit services and tax services to those circumstances where the services are considered integral to the audit services that it provides, or in which there is another compelling rationale for using its services. KPMG LLP and management are required to periodically report to the audit committee regarding the extent of services provided by KPMG LLP in accordance with this pre-approval, and the fees for the services performed to date. The audit committee may also pre-approve particular services on a case-by-case basis. During the year ending December 31, 2004, all services provided by KPMG LLP will be pre-approved by the audit committee in accordance with this policy.

The favorable vote of a majority of the shares voting on this proposal is required for ratification of the selection of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent public accountant for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The persons named in the accompanying proxy intend to vote proxies received by them in favor of this proposal unless a choice "Against" or "Abstain" is specified.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS VOTING FOR RATIFICATION OF THE SELECTION OF KPMG LLP AS THE INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT OF THE COMPANY FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2003.

PROPOSAL 3: CONSIDERATION OF A STOCKHOLDER PROPOSAL

George A. Dakos, a stockholder, has submitted the proposal set forth below for consideration at the Annual Meeting. The Company will provide Mr. Dakos' name and address, and the number of shares of common stock he holds, to any stockholder upon request.

RESOLVED, The shareholders of Brantley Capital Corporation ("Brantley") recommend that the Board of Directors promptly take the steps necessary to implement the proposed settlement of the lawsuit brought by Phillip Goldstein against Brantley and other parties.

Supporting Statement:

A proposed settlement was reached by the parties in Mr. Goldstein's lawsuit regarding Brantley's 2002 annual meeting. In my opinion, the most significant provisions in the proposed settlement are the following:

Shareholders will be asked to approve a plan of orderly disposition of Brantley's assets with the goal of prompt cash distribution to shareholders.

Shareholders will be asked to approve a new investment advisory agreement in which the advisor's annual fee would be reduced from 2.85% to 2.5% of net asset value plus an incentive fee of 20% of the aggregate distributions in excess of 10.00 per share provided the aggregate distributions total at least $12.50 per share.

Brantley will reimburse up to $275,000 of Mr. Goldstein's expenses incurred in connection with the proxy solicitation and litigation related to Brantley's 2002 annual meeting.

I believe the proposed settlement will produce an excellent outcome for Brantley's shareholders when it is implemented, that the proposed settlement is fair to all the parties involved and that it is appropriate for Brantley to reimburse Mr. Goldstein's expenses. Therefore, the Board should take all necessary steps to implement the proposed settlement as soon as possible.

Management Comment:

As discussed above, the Company filed an application for exemptive relief from certain provisions of the 1940 Act relating to certain provisions of the MOU. The Staff of the SEC has advised the Company that it would not approve the Company's application for exemptive relief to approve the MOU, and has currently placed the application for exemptive relief on inactive status. See "Election of Directors - Certain Relationships and Related Transactions", above.

The board of directors of the Company, including all of the directors who are not parties to the MOU, has unanimously approved the MOU. Further, the settlement arrangements embodied in the MOU were approved on February 26, 2004 by the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio, which retains jurisdiction over the implementation of the settlement.

If the Proposal is adopted by the shareholders, the board of directors will consider the shareholders to be in favor of the MOU and will determine the appropriate process to implement the MOU in an orderly manner and will take such other steps in furtherance thereof as it deems appropriate.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR THE 2005 ANNUAL MEETING

Stockholders may present proper proposals for inclusion in our proxy statement for consideration at the next annual meeting of its stockholders by submitting their proposals in writing to the Secretary of the Company in a timely manner. In order to be included in our proxy materials for the 2005 annual meeting, stockholder proposals must be received in compliance with our bylaws and must otherwise comply with the requirements of Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act. The Company intends to announce the deadline for the submission of stockholder proposals for our 2005 annual meeting in our Exchange Act reports.

OTHER MATTERS

Management does not know of any other matters that will come before the meeting. In case any other matter should properly come before the meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote in accordance with their best judgment.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Paul H. Cascio
Vice President and Secretary

2. At the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, BCC shall ask shareholders to approve:

(a) A plan of orderly disposition of the assets of BCC and their prompt distribution to shareholders, or in the alternative, a sale of the assets of BCC or a cash-out merger with another company with the goal of a prompt cash distribution to BCC's shareholders (Plan); and, in conjunction therewith

(b) A new investment advisory agreement pursuant to which (i) BCM's fees based upon BCC's net asset value shall be reduced from 2.85% annually to 2.5% annually; (ii) all options, warrants or other derivative securities or rights granted by BCC to BCM, or to any officers or employees of BCM, shall be forfeited immediately; (iii) BCM shall be entitled to receive a fee equal to 20% of the aggregate distributions paid by BCC to its shareholders in excess of $10 per share, provided however that none of this amount shall be paid to BCM unless and until aggregate amounts paid to shareholders since BCC's initial public offering shall exceed $12.50 per share; and (iv) no other compensation shall be paid to BCM (New Investment Advisory Agreement).

3. The Plan and the New Investment Advisory Agreement will each be proposed as contingent upon shareholder approval of the other.

4. The Parties agree to (i) actively support the Plan and the New Investment Advisory Agreement, subject to their fiduciary duties under applicable law, and (ii) in their capacities as shareholders, the Parties will vote in favor of the Plan and New Investment Advisory Agreement at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

5. (a) BCC shall reimburse Goldstein for all of his out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the Litigation and his proxy solicitation with respect to the annual meeting of shareholders on September 17, 2002, up to a maximum amount of $275,000 (the Reimbursement).

(b) BCC shall pay the Reimbursement to Goldstein upon submission by Goldstein of proof of his payment of such expenses within 15 business days of the later of this Agreement becoming effective and BCC's receipt of proceeds from the sale of any portfolio security. After such date, BCC shall not pay any advisory fees to BCM until Goldstein has been paid in full.

6. Subject to the Parties' fiduciary duties under applicable law and their continued compliance with the terms of the Agreement, Goldstein will not engage in, lead or fund a proxy contest during the term of this Agreement, nor will he support a proxy contest through the voting of his shares or those which he controls.

7. This Agreement is subject to the unanimous approval by BCC's board of directors who are not parties hereto.

8. Each Party agrees to refrain from making any defamatory remarks about the other Parties to this Agreement, including each Parties' subsidiaries, attorneys, employees and affiliates. Nothing in this provision affects the Parties' testimonial obligations. The Parties agree that the only public statement regarding this Agreement for the Litigation will be in the form of an agreed-upon press release.

9. This Memorandum of Understanding will become effective as the formal settlement agreement among the Parties upon (i) unanimous consent of the board of directors of BCC adopting this Memorandum of Understanding; (ii) approval by a majority of BCC's shares represented and voting at the 2003 annual meeting (provided, however, that terms of this Agreement requiring the approval of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of BCC, as required by and as that term is defined in the 1940 Act, be approved by such majority); (iii) obtaining of any exemptive or other relief from the applicable provisions of the 1940 Act, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder to the extent deemed necessary; and (iv) approval of this Agreement by the Court. Upon such effectiveness, the Parties will execute and tender to Goldstein's and BCC's counsel a stipulation of dismissal with prejudice to be filed with the Court when the obligations contained in paragraph 5 of this Agreement are satisfied.

10. Each and every obligation of the Parties hereto shall be read and interpreted so as to be consistent with each Party's obligations pursuant to the 1940 Act and the Party's fiduciary duties. To the extent that any provision herein is inconsistent with either the 1940 Act or a Party's fiduciary duty, it shall be null and void.

11. This Agreement will expire on December 31, 2006.
