INTRODUCTION

This Amendment No. 1 to Rule 13E-3 Transaction Statement on Schedule 13E-3 (the "Schedule 13E-3/A-1") is being filed by HyperFeed Technologies, Inc. ("HyperFeed," or the "Company"), PICO Holdings, Inc. ("PICO") and Exegy Incorporated ("Exegy"). On June 14, 2006, the Company filed a Schedule 13E-3 with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intention to engage in a 1 for 1,000 reverse stock split. The purpose of the reverse stock split was to reduce the record holders of HyperFeed's common stock to fewer than 300 so that HyperFeed would be able to terminate the public registration of its common stock under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. On June 19, 2006, HyperFeed, its wholly-owned subsidiary, HyperFeed Acquisition Holdings, Inc. ("Acquisition Holdings"), and Exegy entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, pursuant to which HyperFeed and Exegy agreed to combine their businesses through a merger of Exegy and Acquisitions Holdings. Exegy would have survived the Merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of HyperFeed. The Agreement and Plan of Merger was disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC by the Company on June 26, 2006. The consummation of the merger was contingent upon the completion of the reverse stock split.

After further negotiation between the Company and Exegy and careful deliberation by the Company's Board, the Company has decided to abandon the reverse stock split and to continue to pursue a combination of the Company and Exegy, utilizing the contribution of the Company's common stock by PICO to Exegy and a subsequent statutory merger of the Company into Exegy pursuant to Section 253 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. The Agreement and Plan of Merger has been terminated. The Company has restructured the business combination due, in part, to certain business, financial and tax considerations.

Pursuant to the terms of the Contribution Agreement by and among the Company, PICO and Exegy, PICO would contribute all of its shares of common stock of the Company to Exegy (the "Contribution"), whereupon the Company would become a controlled subsidiary of Exegy. PICO currently holds approximately 6.1 million shares of the Company's common stock. However, the total number of such shares to be contributed would be approximately 20.7 million, which would include the current number of shares of common stock held by PICO plus an estimated number of shares of common stock to be delivered to PICO upon conversion of all outstanding principal and accrued but unpaid interest under a Convertible Note. Certain warrants held by PICO to acquire 250,000 shares of the Company's common stock would be cancelled upon closing of the transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement. Following the transfer of common stock as contemplated by the Contribution Agreement, the common stock held by Exegy would, based on publicly available information, represent approximately 93% of the Company's then outstanding common stock and PICO would have shared power to vote or direct the vote and shared power to dispose or to direct the disposition of the common stock. Upon completion of the transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement, the stockholders of Exegy and PICO would each contribute $3.0 million to Exegy to fund the on-going working capital needs of the combined enterprise and subject to the conditions contained therein, PICO would have the right to acquire beneficial ownership of approximately 15.4 million shares of Series A-3 Preferred Stock of Exegy representing 50% of the outstanding shares of Exegy. Contribution of the cash and common stock and delivery of the A-3 Preferred Stock would be made at closing.

The Contribution Agreement also provides that as soon as practicable after closing, the Company and Exegy will take all reasonable actions necessary to cause the Company to be merged with and into Exegy in accordance with Section 253 of the Delaware General Corporation Law and other applicable laws (the "Merger"). Pursuant to the Merger, Exegy would be the surviving corporation and all unaffiliated stockholders would receive cash payments for their shares and have the ability to exercise their appraisal rights under the Delaware General Corporation Law. Because the Company would have to borrow funds under the Convertible Note in order to complete the Merger and as part of its capital contribution to Exegy, PICO has agreed to be directly responsible for paying all costs and expenses associated with the Merger, including without limitation, the aggregate purchase price for shares of common stock of the Company not owned by Exegy and acquired pursuant to the Merger, accounting fees, attorney's fees, filing fees, the cost of any fairness opinion, printing costs and litigation costs.

Concurrently with the filing of this Schedule 13E-3/A-1, the Company is filing with the Commission an amendment to the definitive information statement (the "Amended Information Statement") originally filed on June 29, 2006 pursuant to Regulation 14C under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
