Preliminary Note

CyrusOne Inc., a Maryland corporation (the “Issuer”) was formed principally to own, operate and develop enterprise-class, carrier-neutral data center properties, and intends to be taxed and to operate in a manner allowing it to qualify as a real estate investment trust (“REIT”) for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Issuer is the sole beneficial owner and sole trustee of CyrusOne GP, a Maryland statutory trust (“CyrusOne GP”), which is the sole general partner of CyrusOne LP, a Maryland limited partnership (the “Operating Partnership”). On January 24, 2013, the Issuer completed its initial public offering (“IPO”), in which it offered and sold to the public an aggregate of 18,975,000 shares of its common stock, par value $0.01 per share (“Common Stock”).

Prior to the IPO, Data Center Investments Inc., a Delaware corporation (“DCI”), and Data Centers South Inc., a Delaware corporation (“DCS”), each an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Cincinnati Bell Inc., an Ohio corporation (“CBI”), each entered into a contribution agreement with the Operating Partnership, pursuant to which the Operating Partnership received a contribution of direct and indirect interests in a portfolio of properties owned by CBI and certain of its subsidiaries in exchange for common units of limited partnership interest in the Operating Partnership (“OP Units”) (such contributions, together with such other transactions entered into by CBI and its subsidiaries, the Issuer and the Operating Partnership in order to consolidate the ownership of the portfolio of properties owned by CBI and certain of its subsidiaries into the Operating Partnership, facilitate the IPO, enable the Issuer to raise necessary capital to repay indebtedness owed to CBI and enable the Issuer to qualify as a REIT for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the “Formation Transactions”). In connection with the Formation Transactions: (i) the Issuer issued 374,279 shares of Common Stock to Data Center Investments Holdco LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of CBI (“DCIH”), in exchange for the satisfaction and discharge of intercompany indebtedness related to DCIH’s incurrence of certain offering expenses on behalf of the Issuer in connection with the IPO, (ii) the Operating Partnership issued 19,624,537.71 OP Units to DCI, which immediately contributed such OP units to DCIH, (iii) the Issuer issued 1,515,721 shares of Common Stock to DCIH in exchange for an equivalent number of such OP Units upon the completion of the IPO and (iv) the Operating Partnership issued 24,478,018.29 OP Units to DCS, which immediately contributed such OP Units to Data Centers South Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of CBI (“DCSH”). CBI is the sole stockholder of Cincinnati Bell Technology Solutions Inc., a Delaware corporation (“CBTS”), which is the sole stockholder of DCI, which is the sole member of DCIH. DCI is also the sole stockholder of DCS, which is the sole member of DCSH. As a result, Cincinnati Bell Inc. exercises investment discretion and control over the shares of Common Stock and OP Units referenced in clauses (i) through (iv) above.

For purposes of this statement: (a) “Closing Date” means January 24, 2013; (b) “Prospectus” means the Issuer’s prospectus relating to the IPO, dated January 17, 2013, as filed by the Issuer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) on January 22, 2013; and (c) all references to the number of OP Units beneficially owned by the applicable Reporting Persons (as defined below) named herein gives effect to the approximately 2.8-to-1 OP Unit reverse split effected immediately prior to the completion of the IPO.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The 44,476,835 shares of Common Stock beneficially owned in aggregate by CBI consist of (i) an aggregate of 1,890,000 shares of Common Stock acquired by DCIH on the Closing Date and (ii) an aggregate of 42,586,835 OP Units acquired by DCIH and DCSH on November 20, 2012, upon completion of the contributions entered into in connection with the Formation Transactions.

Common Stock. DCIH, pursuant to the Formation Transactions described in the Preliminary Note above, acquired 374,279 shares of Common Stock in exchange for the satisfaction and discharge of intercompany indebtedness related to DCIH's incurrence of certain offering expenses on behalf of the Issuer in connection with the IPO and 1,515,721 shares of Common Stock in exchange for an equivalent number of OP Units upon the completion of the IPO.

OP Units. DCI and DCS, pursuant to the Formation Transactions described in the Preliminary Note above, received an aggregate of 42,586,835 OP Units on November 20, 2012 in exchange for the contribution of their direct and indirect interests in a portfolio of properties owned by CBI and its subsidiaries. Immediately following the completion of such contributions, DCI and DCS contributed such OP Units to DCIH and DCSH, respectively. As further described in Item 6 below, each of DCIH and DCSH has the right to cause the Operating Partnership (i) to redeem some or all of such OP Units for cash equal to the number of OP Units redeemed multiplied by the then-current market value of one share of Common Stock or (ii) at the Issuer's election, to exchange some or all of such OP Units for newly issued shares of Common Stock on a one-to-one basis, subject to adjustment.

Certain of the directors and executive officers named in Item 2 above acquired, with personal funds, beneficial ownership of shares of Common Stock through the Issuer's directed share program established in connection with the IPO. To the Reporting Persons' knowledge, such shares represent less than 1% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock in the aggregate and are not included in the percentages beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

As described in the Preliminary Note and Item 3 above, DCIH acquired common stock from the Issuer, and DCIH and DCSH acquired OP Units from the Operating Partnership in the Formation Transactions. In connection with the Formation Transactions the Reporting Persons entered into various agreements as described in Item 6 below.

The purpose of the acquisition of the shares of Common Stock is for investment. After the IPO and the Formation Transactions, CBI, through its investment discretion and control over the shares of Common Stock and OP Units owned by DCIH and DCSH, will beneficially own approximately 68.9% of the Issuer based upon 64,578,356 shares of Common Stock outstanding (comprised of 21,991,521 shares of Common Stock outstanding as of November 1, 2013 and an aggregate of 42,586,835 OP Units beneficially owned by CBI that may be exchanged for shares of Common Stock as described below). In addition, the OP Agreement (as defined below) initially grants CBI the right to nominate: (i) if there is an even number of directors, 50% of the number of directors minus one; or (ii) if there is an odd number of directors, 50% of the number of directors minus 0.5. If, in connection with a redemption request, a significant portion of CBI's beneficially owned OP Units are exchanged for shares of Common Stock, CBI could have the ability to elect a majority of the Issuer's directors. Pursuant to the terms of the OP Agreement, subject to certain exceptions, as long as CBI and entities controlled by CBI own at least 20% of the outstanding OP Units, CBI's consent will be required in order for CyrusOne GP to undertake certain actions, including, among other things: amending or terminating the OP Agreement, transferring its general partnership interest or admitting an additional or successor general partner, withdrawing as a general partner or approving on behalf of the Operating Partnership a merger, consolidation or certain other change of control transactions. See Item 6 below. As a result, CBI will have the ability to exercise significant influence over the Issuer.

Although no Reporting Person has any current specific plan or proposal to acquire, transfer or dispose of its shares of Common Stock, consistent with its investment purpose, each Reporting Person at any time and from time to time may acquire additional shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Issuer or the Operating Partnership, or transfer or dispose of any or all of its shares of Common Stock, depending in any case upon an ongoing evaluation of such Reporting Person's investment in the shares of Common Stock, prevailing market conditions, other investment opportunities, liquidity requirements of such Reporting Person and/or other investment considerations.

In addition, as further described in Item 6 below, each of DCIH and DCSH has the right to cause the Operating Partnership (i) to redeem some or all of its respective OP Units for cash equal to the number of OP Units redeemed multiplied by the then-current market value of one share of Common Stock or (ii) at the Issuer's election, to exchange some or all of its OP Units for newly issued shares of Common Stock on a one-to-one basis, subject to adjustment.

The Issuer's charter provides for restrictions on ownership and transfer of shares of Common Stock, including, in general, prohibitions on any person actually or constructively owning more than 9.8% in value or number (whichever is more restrictive) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock or 9.8% in value of the outstanding shares of all classes or series of the Issuer's stock. The Issuer's charter, however, permits exceptions to be made for stockholders provided that the Issuer's board of directors determines such exceptions will not jeopardize the Issuer's tax status as a REIT. The Issuer's board of directors has granted CBI and its subsidiaries exemptions from the ownership limits applicable to other holders of Common Stock, subject to certain conditions designed to protect the Issuer's status as a REIT, including the receipt of an Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") private letter ruling or an opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm that the exercise of any such exemption should not cause any rent payable by CBI or its subsidiaries, as applicable, to jeopardize the Issuer's REIT status.

Except to the extent the foregoing may be deemed a plan or proposal, none of the Reporting Persons has any current plans or proposals which relate to, or could result in, any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) through (j), inclusive, of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. The Reporting Persons may, at any time and from time to time, review or reconsider their position and/or change their purpose and/or formulate plans or proposals with respect thereto.

Certain of the directors and executive officers named in Item 2 above acquired beneficial ownership of shares of Common Stock through the Issuer's directed share program established in connection with the IPO. To the Reporting Persons' knowledge, such shares represent less than 1% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock in the aggregate and are not included in the percentages beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons. To the Reporting Persons' knowledge, the directors and executive officers named in Item 2 above have sole power to vote or to direct the vote, and to dispose or direct the disposition of, all of the shares of Common Stock that such directors and executive officers beneficially own.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

The disclosure set forth in the Preliminary Note and Item 2 above regarding certain contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) among the persons named in Item 2 is incorporated by reference herein.

In connection with the Formation Transactions (i) DCI and DCS each entered into a contribution agreement with the Operating Partnership, pursuant to which the Operating Partnership received a contribution of direct and indirect interests in a portfolio of properties owned by CBI and certain of its subsidiaries in exchange for OP Units and (ii) CBI also received approximately $480 million in cash from the Issuer representing the repayment of intercompany indebtedness. The foregoing summary of the Formation Transactions is qualified in its entirety by the description set forth in the Prospectus under the caption "Structure and Formation of Our Company Formation Transactions," which description is filed as Exhibit 99.2 herewith and incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing summary of the contribution agreements is also qualified in its entirety by the description set forth in the Prospectus under the caption "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions Contribution Agreements," which description is filed as Exhibit 99.2 herewith and incorporated herein by reference, and by the full terms and conditions of such contribution agreements, copies of which are filed as Exhibits 99.5 and 99.6 herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

In connection with the initial capitalization of the Issuer, the Issuer issued 100 shares of Common Stock to CBI for total cash consideration of $1,000. On the Closing Date, the Issuer repurchased these shares from CBI for total cash consideration of $1,000.

Each of CBI, DCIH and DCSH is a party to the Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership of the Operating Partnership, dated as of the Closing Date (the "OP Agreement"). Pursuant to the OP Agreement, each of DCIH and DCSH has the right to cause the Operating Partnership (i) to redeem some or all of its OP Units for cash equal to the number of OP Units redeemed multiplied by the then-current market value of one share of Common Stock or (ii) at the Issuer's election, to exchange some or all of their OP Units for newly issued shares of Common Stock on a one-to-one basis, subject to adjustment as set forth in the OP Agreement. In addition, the OP Agreement initially grants CBI the right to nominate: (i) if there is an even number of directors, 50% of the number of directors minus one; or (ii) if there is an odd number of directors, 50% of the number of directors minus 0.5. Pursuant to the terms of the OP Agreement, subject to certain exceptions, as long as CBI and entities controlled by CBI own at least 20% of the outstanding OP Units, CBI's consent will be required in order for CyrusOne GP to undertake certain actions, including: amending or terminating the OP Agreement, transferring its general partnership interest or admitting an additional or successor general partner, withdrawing as a general partner or approving on behalf of the Operating Partnership a merger, consolidation or certain other change of control transactions. The foregoing summary of the OP Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the description set forth in the Prospectus under the caption "Description of the Partnership Agreement of CyrusOne LP," which description is filed as Exhibit 99.2 herewith and incorporated herein by reference, and by the full terms and conditions of such agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.7 herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

On January 17, 2013, DCIH entered into a Stock Subscription Agreement with the Issuer, CyrusOne GP and the Operating Partnership (the "Stock Subscription Agreement"), pursuant to which on the Closing Date (i) the Issuer issued 374,279 shares of Common Stock to DCIH in exchange for the satisfaction and discharge of intercompany indebtedness related to DCIH's incurrence of certain offering expenses on behalf of the Issuer in connection with the IPO and (ii) the Issuer issued 1,515,721 shares of Common Stock to DCIH in exchange for an equivalent number of OP Units. The foregoing summary of the Stock Subscription Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the full terms and conditions of such agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.3 herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

DCIH and DCSH entered into a registration rights agreement with the Issuer and the Operating Partnership, dated as of the Closing Date (the "Registration Rights Agreement") with respect to the shares of Common Stock acquired in connection with the Formation Transactions or the exercise of the redemption/exchange rights under the OP Agreement. These registration rights require the Issuer to seek to register all such shares of Common Stock effective as of that date which is 14 months following the Closing Date pursuant to a "shelf" registration statement under the Securities Act. In the event the Issuer fails to file this "shelf" registration statement or, if filed, fails to maintain its effectiveness, DCIH and DCSH will have the right (subject to certain limitations) to require the Issuer to register all such shares of Common Stock, provided that the Issuer will not be required to effect more than three such demand registrations in any 12 month period. DCIH and DCSH also have the right (subject to certain limitations) to have their shares of Common Stock included in any registration statement the Issuer files for an underwritten public offering. The foregoing summary of the Registration Rights Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the description set forth in the Prospectus under the caption "Shares Eligible for Future Sale Registration Rights," which description is filed as Exhibit 99.2 herewith and incorporated herein by reference, and by the full terms and conditions of such agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.8 herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

Pursuant to a lock-up letter entered into by CBI and the underwriters in connection with the IPO, dated as of January 17, 2013 (the "Lock-Up Letter"), CBI agreed not to sell or otherwise transfer or encumber any shares of Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock (including OP Units) beneficially owned by it for 12 months. The Lock-Up Letter expired pursuant to its terms on January 17, 2014. The foregoing summary of the Lock-Up Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the description set forth in the Prospectus under the caption “Shares Eligible for Future Sale Lock-up Agreements and Other Contractual Restrictions on Resale,” which description is filed as Exhibit 99.2 herewith and incorporated herein by reference, and by the full terms and conditions of such agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.4 herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

The Issuer’s charter provides for restrictions on ownership and transfer of shares of Common Stock, including, in general, prohibitions on any person actually or constructively owning more than 9.8% in value or number (whichever is more restrictive) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock or 9.8% in value of the outstanding shares of all classes or series of the Issuer’s stock. The Issuer’s charter, however, permits exceptions to be made for stockholders provided that the Issuer’s board of directors determines such exceptions will not jeopardize the Issuer’s tax status as a REIT. The Issuer’s board of directors has granted CBI and its subsidiaries exemptions from the ownership limits applicable to other holders of Common Stock, subject to certain conditions designed to protect the Issuer’s status as a REIT, including the receipt of an IRS private letter ruling or an opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm that the exercise of any such exemption should not cause any rent payable by CBI or its subsidiaries, as applicable, to jeopardize the Issuer’s REIT status. The foregoing summary of CBI’s exemption from the REIT ownership limits is qualified in its entirety by the description of such exemption as set forth in the Prospectus under the caption “Description of Securities Restrictions on Ownership and Transfer,” which description is filed as Exhibit 99.2 herewith and incorporated herein by reference.
