Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 1, 2012, VCA Antech, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“VCA”), acquired ThinkPets, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“ThinkPets”). The acquisition was effected by a merger (the “Merger”). VCA intends to consolidate the business of ThinkPets with its recently acquired subsidiary Vetstreet, Inc.

The combination of ThinkPets with Vetstreet is expected to improve the products and services it offers to the clients of both companies. It will provide ThinkPets’ existing client base a more robust platform of services which will allow them to communicate more effectively with their clients and pet owners. In addition, combining HealthyPet Magazine to its portfolio will enable Vetstreet to expand the quality of pet owner education that it offers to animal health professionals and their clients.

VCA paid $21.0 million to acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of ThinkPets (the “Merger Consideration”), payable by delivery of 473,389 shares of VCA common stock and $10,500,000 in cash. The shares of VCA common stock were valued based on the daily volume weighted average closing sales price of the VCA common stock for the 10 consecutive trading days ending on the trading day immediately preceding the Merger.

At the time of the merger, Bob Antin, our CEO and Chairman of the Board, owned 54% of the common stock of ThinkPets, and served as a director of ThinkPets, and Art Antin, our Chief Operating Officer, owned 8% of the common stock of ThinkPets.

In accordance with its charter, our Audit Committee is responsible for reviewing and approving all related-party transactions. To assist in its deliberations, the Audit Committee retained the services of an internationally recognized financial advisory firm, which opined that the merger consideration to be issued and paid by VCA is fair, from a financial point of view, to VCA. Following receipt of this opinion, both the Audit Committee and our Board of Directors unanimously approved the Merger. Due to the related party nature of the Merger, Bob Antin recused himself from all Board meetings wherein the Merger was discussed and did not vote in connection with the Merger.
