First Data and Concord EFS Issue Statement

DENVER and MEMPHIS October 28 2003 First Data (NYSE: FDC) and Concord EFS, Inc. (NYSE: CE) announced today that reports are not correct that a federal judge has set a January 5, 2004 hearing date on the Justice Department's request for a preliminary injunction regarding the proposed merger of the two companies.

Both the Justice Department and the companies have suggested dates for various steps in the litigation; however, as of today, no scheduling order has been entered by the judge. A hearing on the matter will be held this afternoon. Some time following the hearing, the judge is expected to set a schedule for the case.
