Accordingly, if an investor wishes to trade the Notes on any day prior to the third business day before the date of delivery of the Notes, the investor and its counterparty will be required, by virtue of the fact that the Notes initially will settle on a delayed basis, to agree to a delayed settlement cycle at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement.

On October 28, 2008, the Issuer filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a Current Report on Form 8-K containing certain financial and related information for the quarter ended September 30, 2008. The information contained in that Current Report is expressly incorporated by reference into this Pricing Supplement and the related Prospectus and Prospectus Supplement.
