This statement is being filed pursuant to 13d-1(d).

Item 4. Ownership.

The Company had 17,894,691 shares of Common Stock outstanding as of December 31, 2003.

Regarding the beneficial ownership of each reporting person, reference is made to Item 4. of the cover page addendum for each reporting person and to Item 8., below. The beneficial ownership of shares of Common Stock by any reporting person is based on such reporting person's right to exchange O.P. Units for shares of Common Stock upon certain conditions under an exchange rights agreement with the Company.

The reporting persons constitute a group because under the Company's charter and certain agreements among the Company, the reporting persons and other parties, the ownership interests of the reporting persons taking into account the shares of the Common Stock that would be issued upon the exchange of O.P. Units for shares of Common Stock, are aggregated in determining whether the issuer is subject to certain restrictions based on such ownership, including:

- the required nomination of two representatives of the reporting persons to the Company's board of directors
- whether the approval of the reporting person's board representative of certain actions by the board of directors is required
- the approval of a sale of substantially all of the assets of the operating partnerships

In addition, the Company's charter and such agreements limit the number of shares that can be held at any one time by the reporting persons in the aggregate to the lesser of 20% of the outstanding Common Stock and the maximum percentage that individual shareholders can own, directly or indirectly, under applicable REIT ownership limits contained in the Internal Revenue Code. Consequently, each of the reporting persons disclaims beneficial ownership of all shares of Common Stock in excess of the maximum number of shares that such reporting person currently has the right to acquire, taking into account these ownership restrictions.

Furthermore, each reporting person disclaims beneficial ownership of shares that could be acquired upon the exchange of O.P. Units as to which such reporting person has no pecuniary interest.
