(c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25 (c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why the Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

This Form 12b-25 is being filed to cover the possibility that the SEC may determine that, despite the Company's best efforts to timely file its Form 10-K on March 31, 2005 before 5:30 p.m. EST, the SEC ultimately takes the position that the Form 10-K would be deemed a late filing, but for the filing of this Notice of Late Filing.

The factual circumstances surrounding the filing are as follows:

The Company sent a test filing of its Form 10-K to the SEC at approximately 3 p.m. EST on Friday, March 31, 2005, which was successfully received. Less than two hours later, the Company's filing agent had difficulty logging onto the SEC's EDGAR Website to initiate the live filing. After approximately 45 minutes of attempts to log on, the Company's filing agent successfully logged onto the Website just prior to 5:30 p.m. but had not completed the transmission by 5:30 p.m. EST. The Company's Chief Financial Officer called the SEC's EDGAR Filer Support Branch at 5:30 p.m. EST. The CFO reported that the Company had been trying for 45 minutes to initiate the connection to the SEC to allow for the Company to timely file its Form 10-K. The SEC staff member indicated that the Filer Support Branch had been taking many calls regarding the same problem. He said that the problem was due to the heavy volume of last minute filings they had received. He instructed the Company to continue to attempt to file the Form 10-K as soon as possible, noting that the SEC was aware of the problem. He indicated that he would provide a report to his branch manager and that the CFO's call would be taken into consideration in the SEC's determination as to the Company's on-time filing status. At 5:48 p.m. EST the Company's filing agent was able to obtain access onto the entry screen and began the transmission process. The transmission was completed at 5:57 p.m. EST with the SEC on March 31, 2005.
