Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 23, 2018, Lincoln Educational Services Corporation (the “Company”) and its wholly-owned subsidiaries (collectively with the Company, the “Borrowers”) entered into a second amendment (the “Second Amendment”) of the Credit Agreement dated as of March 31, 2017 (as previously amended, the “Credit Agreement”) among the Borrowers and its lender, Sterling National Bank (the “Bank”), to, among other things, effect certain modifications to the financial covenants and other provisions of the Credit Agreement and to allow the Borrowers to pursue the sale of certain real property assets. As previously reported, pursuant to the Credit Agreement, the Borrowers obtained a revolving credit facility in the aggregate principal amount of up to $55 million, consisting of (i) a $30 million loan facility (“Facility 1”), comprised of a $25 million revolving loan designated as “Tranche A” and a $5 million non-revolving loan designated as “Tranche B,” (ii) a $25 million revolving loan facility which includes a sublimit amount for letters of credit of $10 million and (iii) an additional $15 million revolving credit facility provided under a prior amendment of the Credit Agreement. In 2017, the Borrowers repaid the $5 million non-revolving loan provided under Tranche B of Facility 1 resulting in a permanent reduction in credit availability under Facility 1 to $25 million. The aggregate availability under the Credit Agreement is currently $65 million.

Among other things, the Second Amendment modifies the interest rate on borrowings under Tranche A of Facility 1 such that revolving loans under Tranche A of Facility 1 will bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the greater of (x) the Bank’s prime rate plus 2.85% and (y) 6.00%. In addition, with respect to financial covenants, the Second Amendment (i) modifies the minimum adjusted EBITDA required, (ii) eliminates the requirement for a minimum tangible net worth, (iii) retains the prohibition on incurrence of a net loss but delays the commencement of testing for such financial covenant until December 31, 2019 and annually thereafter and (iv) requires the maintenance of a minimum funded debt to adjusted EBITDA ratio. The Second Amendment permits the sale of certain real estate assets, including four parcels located in Connecticut, Colorado, Tennessee and Texas currently mortgaged to the Bank, and a real estate parcel located in Mangonia Park, Florida (the “Florida Property”) not mortgaged to the Bank; provided that the net proceeds of any such sales are used to pay down the outstanding principal amount of Facility 1, which repayment will permanently reduce the availability under Facility 1. The Second Amendment further requires that the Borrowers actively pursue a sale of the Florida Property and, if the Florida Property is not under contract for sale within six months after the effectiveness of the Second Amendment, the Bank will be granted a first mortgage lien on the Florida Property.

In connection with the effectiveness of the Second Amendment, the Borrowers paid to the Bank a modification fee in the amount of $50,000.

The foregoing description of the Second Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Second Amendment filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The disclosure contained in Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K is incorporated herein by reference.
