PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS
MERGER PROPOSED - YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The board of directors of Coast Bancorp, which we sometimes refer to as Coast, has agreed to a merger of Coast Bancorp with and into Sierra Bancorp, which we sometimes refer to as Sierra. The details of the merger are set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger, dated as of January 4, 2016, between Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp, which we refer to as the merger agreement. Immediately after the merger, Coast Bancorp's bank subsidiary, Coast National Bank, will be merged with and into Sierra Bancorp's bank subsidiary, Bank of the Sierra. We refer to the second merger as the bank merger.

If the merger is completed, each shareholder of Coast Bancorp will receive, subject to their stock and cash election and proration, their proportional share of the total merger consideration, which consists of (1) 581,753 shares of Sierra common stock; and (2) $3,176,371 in cash (subject to downward adjustment as described in the next paragraph). The total number of shares issued and cash paid may be increased if outstanding stock options are exercised prior to the effective time of the merger. This will not result in any change to the per share merger consideration payable to current shareholders.

The precise amount of the aggregate merger consideration and the resulting per share merger consideration will not be known until shortly before the closing of the merger. A total of 581,753 Sierra Bancorp shares will be issued in the merger, plus up to 46,565 additional shares if all outstanding Coast Bancorp stock options are exercised prior to the effective time of the merger. The aggregate amount of cash to be paid will equal $3,176,171, subject to reduction if and to the extent that Coast Bancorp's total adjusted shareholders equity is less than $5.2 million as of the end of the month preceding the closing or certain transaction expenses of Coast Bancorp exceed $2.4 million. See "PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Adjustments to the Merger Consideration." The aggregate amount of cash may be increased by up to an additional $254,250 if all outstanding Coast Bancorp stock options are exercised prior to the effective time of the merger.

By way of example only, assuming no reduction in the aggregate cash consideration as described above, if the per share merger consideration were calculated based on the closing price for shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market on May 2, 2016 of $17.13 per share, each share of Coast Bancorp common stock for which all cash was elected and received would have received $2.32 in cash, and each share converted into all stock would have been converted into 0.13543 shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock with a market value of $2.32. The actual merger consideration will be calculated five business days before the closing of the merger based on a formula in the merger agreement, and the resulting per share merger consideration may be more or less than in the above example. In addition, because the merger consideration is set by a predetermined formula and it is impossible to predict what elections different shareholders will make, there is no assurance that any given shareholder will receive the form of consideration he or she elects.

Holders of in-the-money Coast Bancorp stock options who do not exercise their options prior to the merger effective time will receive $2.25 minus the exercise price per share with respect to the corresponding Coast stock option. Outstanding warrants to purchase approximately 123,181 shares of Coast common stock at $5.50 per share shall be cancelled and become null and void unless exercised prior to the effective time of the merger.

Shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock are traded on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "BSRR." On January 4, 2016, immediately prior to the first public announcement of the merger, the price per share of Sierra Bancorp common stock was $17.51, and on May 2, 2016, the latest practicable trading date before the printing of this proxy statement/prospectus, the closing share price of Sierra Bancorp common stock was $17.13.

Shares of Coast Bancorp common stock are traded on the OTC-PINK under the symbol "CTBP." On January 4, 2016, immediately prior to the first public announcement of the merger, the closing share price of Coast Bancorp common stock was $1.75, and on May 2, 2016, the latest practicable trading date before the printing of this proxy statement/prospectus, the closing share price of Coast Bancorp common stock was $2.17.

Shareholders of Coast Bancorp will be asked to vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger at the special meeting of shareholders. We cannot complete the merger unless we obtain the required approval of the shareholders of Coast Bancorp. The merger agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock outstanding as of the record date for the special meeting.

We urge you to read this proxy statement/prospectus and all appendices carefully, including the “RISK FACTORS” discussion beginning on page 20 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any bank regulatory agency, nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of the securities to be issued in connection with the merger or determined if this proxy statement/prospectus is truthful or complete. A special meeting of shareholders of Coast Bancorp will be held at the office of Coast Bancorp located at 500 Marsh Street, San Luis Obispo, California 93401, on Monday, June 20, 2016, at 5:30 p.m (local time), for the purpose of considering and voting upon the following matters:

Approval of the Merger Agreement and Merger. To approve the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger, dated January 4, 2016, by which Coast Bancorp will be merged with and into Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp’s bank subsidiary, Coast National Bank will be merged with and into Sierra Bancorp’s bank subsidiary, Bank of the Sierra, as more fully described in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus.

Adjournment. To approve any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger agreement or for any other legally permissible purpose.

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on May 2, 2016, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting.

Shareholders are entitled to assert dissenters’ rights with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Your dissenters’ rights are conditioned on your strict compliance with the requirements of Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law, which we refer to as the CGCL. A copy of the applicable sections of Chapter 13 of the CGCL is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

The board of directors of Coast Bancorp has determined that the merger is advisable and in the best interests of Coast Bancorp shareholders based upon its analysis, investigation and deliberation and recommends that shareholders of Coast Bancorp vote “FOR” approval of the merger agreement and the merger.

The board of directors of Coast Bancorp also recommends that shareholders vote “FOR” adjournment of the special meeting to a later date or dates if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger agreement or for any other legally permissible purpose.

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided, so that as many shares as possible may be represented. The vote of every shareholder is important and we will appreciate your cooperation in returning your executed proxy promptly. Each proxy is revocable and will not affect your right to vote in person if you attend the special meeting. If you hold your shares in certificate form and attend the special meeting, you may simply revoke your previously submitted proxy and vote your shares at that time. If your shares are held by a broker or otherwise not registered in your name, you will need additional documentation from your record holder to vote your shares personally at the special meeting. If you hold your shares in certificate form, please indicate on the proxy card whether or not you expect to attend.

We appreciate your continuing support and look forward to seeing you at the special meeting.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER

This question and answer summary highlights selected information contained in other sections of this proxy statement/prospectus and is intended to answer questions that you, as a shareholder of Coast Bancorp, may have regarding the special meeting and the merger. Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp urge you to carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including all appendices and all other information incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Questions and Answers about the Special Meeting

Q: Why have you sent me this document?

A: This document is being delivered to you because it is serving as both a proxy statement for Coast Bancorp and a prospectus of Sierra Bancorp. It is a proxy statement because it is being used by the Coast Bancorp board of directors to solicit the proxies of its shareholders in connection with the special meeting of shareholders. It is a prospectus because Sierra Bancorp is offering shares of its common stock in exchange for shares of Coast Bancorp in the merger as described below.

This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information regarding the proposed merger, as well as information about Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp. It also contains important information about what Coast's board of directors and management considered when evaluating this proposed merger. We urge you to read this proxy statement/prospectus carefully, including the merger agreement which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A and is incorporated herein by reference, and the other appendices.

Q: When and where will the special meeting be held?

A: The special meeting will be held at the office of Coast Bancorp located at 500 Marsh Street, San Luis Obispo, California 93401, on June 20, 2016, at 5:30 p.m (local time).

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting?

A: Shareholders of record as of the close of business on May 2, 2016 will be entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on at the special meeting?

A: Coast Bancorp is holding the special meeting to ask its shareholders to consider and vote to:

· approve the merger agreement (and the plan of merger contemplated therein); and · approve any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger agreement or for any other legally permissible purpose.

Q: How does the Coast Bancorp board of directors recommend that I vote on each proposal?

A: The Coast Bancorp board of directors recommends that you vote “FOR” the approval of the following:

· the merger agreement and the merger; and
· the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger agreement or for any other legally permissible purpose.

Q: How many votes do I have and how do I vote at the special meeting?

A: You are entitled to one vote for each share that you owned as of the record date for the special meeting. You may vote “FOR,” “AGAINST” or “ABSTAIN” with respect to any of the proposals presented at the special meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, we urge you to vote by proxy to ensure your vote is counted. If you hold your shares in certificate form, you may still attend the special meeting and vote in person even if you have already voted by proxy.

To vote using the proxy card, simply complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it promptly in the envelope provided. If you return your signed proxy card before the special meeting, your shares will be voted as you direct.

You may also vote utilizing the Internet or telephone as set forth on the enclosed proxy card.

If you hold your shares in certificate form and wish to vote in person, simply attend the special meeting and you will be given a ballot when you arrive. If you hold your shares in street name, you will need to obtain a legal proxy from your broker to enable you to vote in person at the meeting.

Q: What if my shares are held in street name by my broker or other nominee?

A: If you hold your shares in “street name” through a broker or other nominee, you should have received a proxy card and voting instructions with these proxy materials from that organization rather than from Coast Bancorp. Your broker or nominee cannot vote your shares unless you provide instructions on how to vote them. To vote your shares, follow the voting instructions your broker or nominee provides when forwarding these proxy materials to you and complete and mail the proxy card to ensure that your vote is counted. Alternatively, you may vote by telephone or over the Internet as instructed by your broker or nominee. To vote in person at the special meeting, you must obtain a valid proxy from your broker or nominee. If you do not provide voting instructions to your broker, bank or agent, this will have the same effect as a vote “AGAINST” the merger agreement. Your abstention or non-vote will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal to adjourn and reconvene the special meeting. See “THE SPECIAL MEETING – Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes” beginning on page 27.

Q: May I revoke or change my vote after I have provided proxy instructions?

A: Yes. If you hold shares in certificate form, you may revoke or change your proxy at any time before the time your proxy is voted at the special meeting by: (i) filing with Coast Bancorp’s Corporate Secretary an instrument revoking it or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; (ii) appearing and voting in person at the special meeting or (iii) if you have voted your shares by Internet or telephone, recording a different vote, or by signing and returning a proxy card dated as of a date that is later than your last Internet or telephone vote. Your attendance alone at the special meeting will not revoke your proxy. If you have instructed a broker or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker or other nominee in order to change those instructions.

Q: What happens if I don't vote?

A: If you do not vote by either returning your proxy card, voting by phone or Internet, or attending the special meeting and voting in person, it will have the same effect as voting your shares "AGAINST" the merger agreement and the merger.

Q: What happens if I sign and return my proxy card without indicating how I wish to vote?

A: If you sign and return your proxy card without indicating how to vote on any particular proposal, your proxy will be voted "FOR" the merger and the adjournment proposal, as recommended by Coast's board of directors.

Questions and Answers About the Merger Agreement and the Merger

Q: What will Coast Bancorp shareholders receive in the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, each shareholder of Coast Bancorp will receive, subject to their stock and cash election and proration, their proportional share of the total merger consideration, which consists of (1) 581,753 shares of Sierra common stock (plus up to 46,565 additional shares if all outstanding Coast Bancorp options are exercised); and (2) $3,176,371 (subject to downward adjustment in certain circumstances as specified in the merger agreement). The aggregate amount of cash may be increased by up to an additional $254,250 if all outstanding Coast Bancorp stock options are exercised prior to the effective time of the merger.

Q: What will each Coast Bancorp shareholder receive in the merger?

A: A Coast Bancorp shareholder may elect to receive (i) all cash, (ii) all Sierra common stock, or (iii) a mix of cash and Sierra common stock. All elections are subject to the election, proration and allocation procedures described in this proxy statement/prospectus. If too many shareholders elect one form of consideration over the other, any given shareholder may not receive the form of merger consideration he or she elected. For a detailed description of these allocation procedures, please see "PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER — Allocation Calculation."

Q: What is the amount of cash and/or the number of shares of Sierra common stock that each Coast Bancorp shareholder will receive for his or her shares of Coast Bancorp common stock?

A: Subject to adjustment as described in the merger agreement, shares of Coast common stock converted into the right to receive cash will receive the sum of (i) $0.56 per share, and (ii) an amount equal to 0.10302 multiplied by the volume-weighted trading price for shares of Sierra common stock for the twenty trading days ending immediately prior to the fifth day preceding the effective time of the merger. Shares converted into Sierra common stock shall be determined by dividing the per share amount paid to Coast Bancorp shares converted into cash by the same volume-weighted average trading price. By way of example only, assuming no reduction in the aggregate cash consideration as provided in the merger agreement, if the per share merger consideration were calculated based on the closing price for shares of Sierra common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market on May 2, 2016 of $17.13 per share, each share of Coast Bancorp common stock for which all cash was elected and received would have received $2.32 in cash, and each share converted into all stock would have been converted into 0.13543 shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock with a market value of $2.32. The actual merger consideration will be calculated five business days before the closing of the merger based on the volume-weighted trading price as described in the first sentence of this paragraph, and the resulting per share merger consideration may be more or less than in the above example.

Q: Is the value of the per share consideration that a Coast Bancorp shareholder receives expected to be substantially equivalent regardless of which election he or she makes?

A: The formula that was used to calculate the per share consideration was designed to substantially equalize the value of the consideration to be received for each share of Coast Bancorp common stock that is exchanged in the merger, as measured during the 20 trading day period prior to the closing of the merger, regardless of whether a shareholder elects to receive cash, stock or a mix of cash and stock. Thus, the sample calculation contained in the answer to the preceding question, which shows the relative values of stock versus cash consideration based on a price for Sierra common stock of $17.13 per share, reflected per share merger consideration of $2.32 for both stock and cash. However, as the price per share of Sierra common stock used to calculate the per share merger consideration is based on a 20 day trading period average, such price will likely be different from the closing price of Sierra's common stock on the date of the close of the merger, or on the date the merger consideration is received by a Coast shareholder. Therefore, the value of the per share stock consideration Coast shareholders receive may be more or less than the value of the per share cash consideration.

Q: Will the value of the merger consideration change between the special meeting and the time the merger is completed?

A: Yes, in all likelihood the value of the merger consideration will fluctuate between the special meeting and the completion of the merger based upon the market value of Sierra common stock. Any fluctuation in the market price of Sierra common stock after the special meeting will change the value of the per share merger consideration that you will receive.

Q: Will the shares of Sierra common stock received by Coast Bancorp shareholders in the merger be listed on Nasdaq upon the completion of the merger?

A: Yes. The shares of Sierra common stock to be issued in connection with the merger have been registered under the Securities Act, and will be listed on The Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol “BSRR.”

Q: How do I elect the form of consideration I prefer to receive?

A: Each Coast Bancorp shareholder will be sent an election form and transmittal materials containing instructions for use in effecting the surrender of shares of Coast Bancorp common stock in exchange for the merger consideration, which will be mailed to Coast Bancorp shareholders no less than thirty-five (35) days prior to the anticipated effective time of the merger or on such other date as the Coast Bancorp and Sierra mutually agree, which we refer to as the “mailing date.” The election form will allow a Coast Bancorp shareholder to indicate whether the shareholder elects to receive (i) Sierra common stock for all of such shareholder’s shares, (ii) cash for all of such shareholder’s shares, or (iii) a prescribed mixture of Sierra common stock and cash for such shareholder’s shares, all subject to the proration provisions of the merger agreement. To make a valid election, a Coast Bancorp shareholder must submit a properly completed and signed election form and transmittal materials so that it is actually received by Computershare, Sierra Bancorp’s exchange agent, on or prior to the election deadline in accordance with the instructions on the election form. See “PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER — Election Procedure.”

Q: May I submit an election form if I vote against the merger?

A: Yes. You may submit an election form even if you vote against the merger. However, if you are a dissenting shareholder, your election will have no effect and you will instead receive the fair market value for your shares.

Q: May I change my election once it has been submitted?

A: Yes. You may revoke your election with respect to all or a portion of your shares of Coast Bancorp common stock by delivering written notice of your revocation to the exchange agent by the election deadline. If an election is properly revoked with respect to shares of Coast Bancorp common stock, the holder will be deemed to have made no election with respect to such shares unless and until a new election form is submitted, which must be received by the exchange agent by the election deadline. You will not be entitled to revoke or change your election after the election deadline.

Q: What happens if I do not make an election prior to the deadline?

A: If you fail to submit a valid election form to the exchange agent prior to the election deadline, then you will be deemed to have made no election and will receive either shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock, cash or a combination of shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock and cash for your shares, depending on the elections made by other shareholders.

Q: Will I receive the form of merger consideration that I elect?

A: Not necessarily. This will depend primarily on elections made by other shareholders. There is no way to predict what elections different shareholders will make, and the aggregate amounts of cash and stock to be issued in the merger are set by a predetermined formula in the merger agreement. As a result, there is no assurance that any given shareholder will receive the form of consideration he or she elects. If Coast Bancorp shareholders elect to receive more of one form of consideration than is available, we will allocate the available amount among the Coast Bancorp shareholders electing to receive that form of consideration, and those Coast Bancorp shareholders will receive the other form of consideration for the balance of their Coast Bancorp shares. For a detailed description of these allocation procedures, please see “PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER — Allocation Calculation.”

Q: What will holders of outstanding stock options and warrants receive in the merger?

A: Holders of outstanding stock options under the Coast Bancorp 2014 Equity Compensation Plan shall be entitled to exercise such options in connection with the merger. Any option holder electing to exercise outstanding stock options will receive the same merger consideration as any other Coast Bancorp shareholder. As of May 2, 2016, Coast Bancorp had options outstanding to purchase 452,000 shares of its common stock, and the exercise price of all outstanding options is $1.43 per share. The total number of shares issued and cash paid may be increased if outstanding stock options are exercised prior to the effective time of the merger. Any unexercised stock options shall be automatically converted into the right to receive the difference between $2.25 per share minus the exercise price, or $0.82 per share under the merger agreement.

Coast Bancorp has outstanding warrants to purchase 123,181 shares of Cost Bancorp common stock at an exercise price of $5.50 per share. Given the high exercise price in relation to the per share merger consideration, it appears unlikely that any of the warrants will be exercised. The warrants will expire if not exercised prior to completion of the merger.

Q: Will I receive any fractional shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock as part of the merger consideration?

A: No. Sierra Bancorp will not issue fractional shares in the merger. As a result, the total number of shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock that you will receive in the merger will be rounded down to the nearest whole number. You will receive a cash payment for the value of any remaining fraction of a share of Sierra Bancorp common stock that you would otherwise have been entitled to receive.

Q: Do Coast Bancorp shareholders have dissenters' rights with respect to approval of the merger agreement?

A: Yes. Holders of Coast Bancorp common stock have dissenters' rights in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 13 of the CGCL. In order to exercise dissenters' rights, a shareholder does not need to affirmatively vote against the merger agreement, but instead need only not vote in favor of the merger agreement. However, a shareholder choosing to exercise his or her dissenters' rights must also comply with the provisions of Chapter 13 of the CGCL. A copy of the applicable sections of Chapter 13 of the CGCL is included with this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix B. Please also read the section entitled "PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Dissenters' Rights of Coast Bancorp Shareholders" beginning on page 45.

Q: Why has the Coast Bancorp board of directors approved the merger?

A: The board of directors of Coast Bancorp has considered a number of available strategic options and in the board's opinion, none of these options, including remaining independent, is likely to create value for Coast Bancorp shareholders greater than that created by the proposed transaction with Sierra Bancorp. Please read the section entitled "PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Coast Bancorp's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Coast's Board of Directors" beginning on page 36.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp are working to complete the merger in July 2016. However, the merger is subject to various federal and state regulatory approvals and other conditions, including approval by the shareholders of Coast Bancorp. Due to possible factors outside our control, it is possible that the merger will be completed at a later time, or not at all. There may be a substantial amount of time between the special meeting and the completion of the merger.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares after the record date for the special meeting, but before the special meeting?

A: If you transfer your shares after the record date for the special meeting but before the date of the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting. However, you will not have the right to receive any shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock in exchange for your former shares of Coast Bancorp common stock if and when the merger is completed. In order to receive shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock in exchange for your shares of Coast Bancorp common stock, you must hold your Coast Bancorp common stock through the completion of the merger.

Q: Should I send in my certificates now?

A: No. Please do not send in your stock certificates at this time. If the merger is approved by the shareholders, you will be sent instructions regarding the surrender of your stock certificates and your election as to the type of consideration you would prefer to receive in the merger.

Q: What should I do now?

A: After reading this proxy statement/prospectus, you should vote on the proposals. Simply indicate on your proxy card how you want to vote, then sign and mail your proxy card in the enclosed return envelope in time to be represented at the special meeting. You may also vote by telephone or the Internet by following the instructions on your proxy card.

As soon as reasonably practicable after special meeting, the exchange agent for the merger will mail to each holder of record of a Coast Bancorp stock certificate a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in making an election. If you are a Coast Bancorp shareholder and do not own your shares through a brokerage firm which holds your shares in street name, you should immediately locate and make sure you have possession of the certificates evidencing your Coast Bancorp common stock as you will need to surrender them in order to receive the merger consideration. If your certificate(s) for Coast Bancorp common stock is/are lost, stolen, or destroyed, you are urged to immediately notify Broadridge Shareholder Services at 877-830-4933, so that a “stop transfer” instruction can be placed on your shares of Coast Bancorp stock underlying your lost certificate(s) to prevent transfer of ownership to another person. Broadridge will send you the forms to permit the issuance of a replacement certificate(s).

Q: When can I sell the shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock that I receive in the merger?

A: You may sell the shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock you receive in the merger without restriction unless you are considered an “affiliate” of Sierra Bancorp. See “PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Resale of Sierra Bancorp common stock” on page 47.

Q: Who can help answer my other questions?

Edgar Filing: SIERRA BANCORP - Form 424B3

A: If you have more questions about the merger or the special meeting, or if you need additional copies of this document or the enclosed proxy card, you may direct your questions to Anita M. Robinson, President, Coast Bancorp, 500 Marsh Street, San Luis Obispo, California 93401; (805) 541-0400 or (805) 547-6135 - Direct Line.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus. Because this is a summary, it does not contain all of the information that may be important to you. You should carefully read this entire document and the other documents we refer to in this proxy statement/prospectus before you decide how to vote. These references will give you a more complete description of the merger agreement and the merger and the other matters to be considered at the special meeting. We have included page references in this summary to direct you to more complete descriptions of the topics provided elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Parties to the Merger Agreement (See pages 63 to 84)

Sierra Bancorp is a California corporation headquartered in Porterville, California, and is a registered bank holding company under federal banking laws. Sierra Bancorp is the holding company for Bank of the Sierra, a California state-chartered bank also headquartered in Porterville. Founded in 1978, Bank of the Sierra is the largest independent bank headquartered in the South San Joaquin Valley, currently with 28 full service branch offices and approval to open two other branches. At December 31, 2015, Sierra Bancorp had total assets of $1.8 billion, total deposits of $1.5 billion and total shareholders' equity of $190.3 million.

Sierra Bancorp's principal executive offices are located at 86 North Main Street, Porterville, CA 93257, telephone: (559) 782-4900.

Coast Bancorp is a California-based bank holding company for Coast National Bank, a federally chartered commercial bank headquartered in San Luis Obispo, California. Coast National Bank received its bank charter and commenced banking operations on June 16, 1997. It maintains three full-service banking centers in San Luis Obispo, Arroyo Grande and Paso Robles, California. It also maintains a loan production office in Atascadero, California. As of December 31, 2015, Coast Bancorp had, on a consolidated basis, total assets of $146.8 million, total deposits of $126.4 million and total shareholders' equity of $10.3 million.

Coast Bancorp's principal executive offices are located at 500 Marsh Street, San Luis Obispo, California 93401; telephone: (805) 541-0400.

Special Meeting of Shareholders (See pages 25 to 29)

Coast Bancorp will hold a special meeting of shareholders at 500 Marsh Street, San Luis Obispo, California 93401, on June 20, 2016, at 5:30 p.m. (local time). The Coast Bancorp board of directors has set the close of business on May 2, 2016, as the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. On that date, there were 5,646,881 shares of Coast Bancorp common stock outstanding.

At the special meeting, holders of Coast Bancorp common stock will be asked to consider and vote on the following proposals:

- a proposal to approve the merger agreement and the merger of Coast Bancorp with and into Sierra Bancorp with Sierra Bancorp surviving the merger; and of the merger of Coast National Bank with and into Bank of the Sierra, with Bank of the Sierra surviving the merger and continuing the commercial bank operations of the combined bank under its California charter and as the wholly-owned bank subsidiary of Sierra Bancorp; as more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus;
- a proposal to approve any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger agreement or for any other legally permissible purpose;

The Merger Agreement (See pages 48 to 59)

The merger agreement is the legal document that contains the terms that govern the merger process, including the issuance of the merger consideration as a result of the merger. Please read the entire merger agreement which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

The Merger (See pages 30 to 48)

Under the terms of the merger agreement: (a) Sierra Bancorp will acquire Coast Bancorp by merging Coast Bancorp with and into Sierra Bancorp, with Sierra Bancorp surviving the merger; (b) immediately after, Coast National Bank will be merged with and into Bank of the Sierra and Bank of the Sierra will continue the commercial bank operations of the combined banks under its California charter and as the wholly-owned bank subsidiary of Sierra Bancorp, and (c) Sierra Bancorp will issue shares of its common stock and cash to Coast Bancorp shareholders pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. A copy of the merger agreement between Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

Consideration to be Paid to the Holders of Coast Bancorp Common Stock (See pages 30 to 31)

If the merger is completed, each shareholder of Coast Bancorp will receive, subject to their stock and cash election and proration, their proportional share of the total merger consideration, which consists of (1) 581,753 shares of Sierra common stock; and (2) $3,176,371 in cash (subject to downward adjustment in certain circumstances as discussed below). The total number of shares issued and cash paid may be increased if outstanding Coast Bancorp stock options are exercised prior to the effective time of the merger. This will not result in any change to the per share merger consideration payable to current shareholders. The cash portion of the merger consideration is subject to reduction if and to the extent that Coast Bancorp's adjusted shareholders' equity is less than $5.2 million or certain expenses of the merger exceed $2.4 million. As of March 31, 2016, Coast Bancorp's adjusted shareholders' equity was approximately $6.2 million. Adjusted shareholders' equity for this purpose is defined as total shareholders' equity calculated in accordance with GAAP, but excluding: all other comprehensive income or loss from the amount shown in Coast Bancorp's June 30, 2015 financial statements; positive changes in the valuation allowance for Coast Bancorp's deferred tax asset from the amount shown in Coast Bancorp's June 30, 2015 financial statements; the accrual or payment of certain transaction expenses in connection with the merger; amounts paid to retire Coast Bancorp's senior note; and any items, charges or accruals taken at Sierra Bancorp's request. Holders of in-the-money Coast Bancorp stock options who have not previously exercised their options will receive $2.25 minus the exercise price per share with respect to the corresponding Coast stock option. Outstanding warrants to purchase approximately 123,181 shares of Coast common stock at $5.50 per share shall be cancelled and become null and void unless exercised prior to the effective time of the merger.

The precise amount of the aggregate merger consideration and the resulting per share merger consideration will not be known until shortly before the closing of the merger. In addition, the merger consideration is set by a predetermined formula and it is impossible to predict what elections different shareholders will make. Therefore, there is no assurance that any given shareholder will receive the form of consideration he or she elects.

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences (See pages 59 to 62)

Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp intend that the merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and it is a condition to Sierra Bancorp’s obligation to complete the merger that it receive an opinion from its special tax counsel, Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, to the effect that the merger will so qualify. Accordingly, U.S. holders (as defined in the section entitled “PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger” beginning at page 59) of Coast Bancorp common stock generally will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the exchange of their shares of Coast Bancorp common stock for Sierra Bancorp common stock. U.S. holders who receive cash (other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Sierra Bancorp common stock) and Sierra Bancorp common stock will recognize gain, but will not recognize any loss, for U.S. federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of cash received (other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Sierra Bancorp common stock) and (2) the excess, if any, of (x) the sum of the amount of such cash and the fair market value of the Sierra Bancorp common stock received in the merger, over (y) the U.S. holder’s tax basis in the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock surrendered in the merger. In addition, U.S. holders will recognize gain or loss attributable to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Sierra Bancorp common stock. U.S. holders who receive only cash in the merger and U.S. holders who dissent and receive cash for their dissenting shares will recognize a taxable gain or loss. For a description of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, see “PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger” beginning on page 59. Coast Bancorp shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their tax advisors concerning the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to them, as well as the effects of state and local, foreign and other tax laws.

Regulatory Approvals Must Be Obtained Before the Merger Will Be Completed (See pages 46 to 47)

Sierra Bancorp has agreed to use its best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the approvals from the Federal Reserve Board, which we refer to as the Federal Reserve; the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which we refer to as the FDIC; and the California Department of Business Oversight, which we refer to as the CDBO. Sierra Bancorp and Bank of the Sierra have filed the requisite applications to obtain the required regulatory approvals. In obtaining the required regulatory approvals, Sierra Bancorp and Bank of the Sierra are not required to agree to any condition that (i) requires Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra to pay any amounts (other than customary filing fees), or divest any banking office, line of business or operations, or (ii) imposes any condition, requirement or restriction upon Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra, that individually or in the aggregate would reasonably be expected to impose a materially burdensome condition on Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra, as applicable, or otherwise would materially alter the economics of the merger for Sierra Bancorp. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, Sierra had received the required regulatory approvals of the merger from the FDIC and FRB, but the application for approval by the CDBO was still pending. While we do not know of any reason that we would not be able to obtain the approval of the CDBO, we cannot be certain when or if we will obtain it. The approval by our regulators does not constitute an endorsement of the merger or a determination that the terms of the merger are fair to Coast Bancorp shareholders.

Approval of a Majority of All Shares of Coast Bancorp Stock Entitled to Vote at the Special Meeting is Required for the Merger to be Consummated (See page 44)

The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock outstanding as of the record date for the special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Each share of Coast Bancorp stock outstanding on the record date for the special meeting will be entitled to one vote for each share held. As of May 2, 2016, which is the record date for the special meeting, there were 5,646,881 shares of Coast Bancorp common stock outstanding. Therefore, at least 2,823,441 shares of Coast Bancorp common stock must be affirmatively voted in favor of the merger agreement in order for Coast Bancorp shareholders to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes “AGAINST” approval of the merger agreement. As of the record date, Coast Bancorp’s directors and executive officers owned approximately 1,776,640 voting shares (not including vested option shares), or approximately 31.5%, of Coast Bancorp’s outstanding shares of common stock and have committed to vote these shares “FOR” the approval of the merger agreement and merger.

Recommendation of Coast Bancorp’s Board of Directors (See pages 36 to 37)

On January 4, 2016, all of Coast Bancorp’s directors, except for one director who abstained, approved the merger agreement and the merger. Director Greg Gersack abstained due to his relationship with FIG Partners, which acted as a financial advisor to Coast Bancorp with respect to the merger. Moreover, the directors believe that the merger agreement's terms are fair and in the best interests of Coast Bancorp's shareholders. Accordingly, they recommend a vote "FOR" the proposal to approve the principal terms of the merger agreement and the merger. The conclusions of Coast Bancorp's board of directors regarding the merger agreement are based upon a number of factors which are discussed more fully under the section entitled "PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Coast Bancorp's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Coast's Board of Directors" beginning on page 35.

Directors and Executive Officers of Coast Bancorp Have Entered into Voting Agreements (See page 26).

As of the record date, Coast Bancorp's directors and executive officers owned approximately 1,776,640 voting shares (not including vested option shares), or approximately 31.5%, of Coast Bancorp's outstanding shares of common stock. Coast Bancorp's directors and executive officers have entered into separate written agreements in which they have agreed, among other things, to vote their shares "FOR" the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein. A copy of the form of voting agreement separately executed by each of the Coast Bancorp directors is attached as Exhibit A and a copy of the form of voting agreement separately executed by each of the executive officers is attached as Exhibit B to the merger agreement which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus Appendix A and is incorporated herein by reference.

Opinion of Coast Bancorp's Financial Advisor (See pages 37 to 41)

In deciding to approve the merger, Coast Bancorp's board of directors considered, among other things, the opinion of Vining Sparks IBG, L.P., one of Coast Bancorp's financial advisors, regarding the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received by Coast Bancorp's shareholders as a result of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein. Vining Sparks' written opinion is attached as Appendix C. You should read it carefully to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by Vining Sparks in providing its opinion. Vining Sparks' written opinion is addressed to Coast Bancorp's board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of Coast Bancorp common stock should vote with respect to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein.

Coast Bancorp Directors and Executive Officers may have interests in the merger that differ from interests of Coast Bancorp Shareholders (See pages 43 to 44)

Coast Bancorp's directors and executive officers may have economic interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as Coast Bancorp shareholders. The Coast Bancorp board of directors considered these interests in its decision to adopt and approve the merger agreement and to recommend approval of the merger agreement and the merger to Coast Bancorp shareholders. Some of the interests of Coast Bancorp's directors and executive officers include:

Anita M. Robinson will not be retained in her current position of President and Chief Executive Officer by Sierra Bancorp after the merger, and therefore, Ms. Robinson will be entitled to change in control payments equal to the sum of 18 months' base salary plus an average bonus amount. In addition Ms. Robinson will be entitled to the continuation of her medical benefits for a period of 12 months, if applicable; and any shares of restricted stock she holds will immediately vest and will be exchanged for shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock in the merger. The aggregate change in control payment for Ms. Robinson will be $375,000.

Sierra Bancorp has agreed to retain Ms. Robinson to serve as Market President of Bank of the Sierra for the San Luis Obispo area following the merger and has agreed to pay compensation to Ms. Robinson for her service in this capacity of $170,000 per year, plus a bonus equal to 30% of her base salary under the Bank of the Sierra Bonus Plan. Coast Bancorp has adopted a retention plan pursuant to which it has offered retention incentives to executive officers Paul Cable and Brent Morgan in the amount of $30,000 each, to encourage them to remain employed with Coast Bancorp in order satisfy a condition to the completion of the merger and to remain employed with Sierra Bancorp and/or Bank of the Sierra after the merger closes and the conversion of the general ledger systems has been completed. Other than Messrs. Cable and Morgan, no other director and/or executive officer of Coast Bancorp will be entitled to any retention incentives under the retention plan.

Coast Bancorp has previously granted stock options to certain executive officers and directors under its 2014 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended. All of the options are now vested as a result of Coast Bancorp notifying option holders that the Coast Bancorp board had approved the merger agreement and merger. For a breakdown of Coast Bancorp options held by each Coast Bancorp director and executive officer and the consideration each will receive in connection with the merger, please see “PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger – Stock Options” beginning on page 43.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Sierra Bancorp has agreed to maintain and preserve the indemnification rights of Coast Bancorp directors and officers after the completion of the merger and has also agreed to allow Coast Bancorp to purchase “tail coverage,” for a period of six years, in order to continue providing liability insurance to the officers and directors of Coast Bancorp, subject to certain cost limits. See “PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger – Protection of Directors, Officers and Employees” beginning on page 43.

Coast Bancorp director Greg Gersack is a principal in the national investment banking firm of FIG Partners, LLC. FIG Partners, LLC, was approved to act as a financial advisor to Coast Bancorp in connection with this transaction, with Mr. Gersack abstaining from the vote to engage such firm. Mr. Gersack also abstained with respect to the Coast board’s vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger. When this transaction closes, FIG Partners, LLC, shall be entitled to receive a success fee from Coast Bancorp in the amount of $130,000.

Conditions that Must Be Satisfied Prior to Closing the Merger (See pages 54 to 56 for Sierra Bancorp and page 56 for Coast Bancorp)

In addition to obtaining the necessary approval of the shareholders of Coast Bancorp, the parties' obligations to close the merger depend on other conditions being met prior to the completion of the merger, including but not limited to:

As of five days prior to the closing, Coast Bancorp's allowance for loan losses, determined in accordance with GAAP, shall be no less than 1.40% of gross loans;

Coast Bancorp must have obtained an environmental report for certain owned real properties, which do not disclose any materials amount of hazardous materials, material adverse environmental conditions or material violations of environmental laws that have not been remediated;

Coast Bancorp's shareholder rights plan shall have been terminated, all rights issued thereunder shall have been redeemed, no "flip-in event" (as that term is defined in the shareholder rights plan) shall have occurred, and no shares of company preferred stock shall have been issued or be issuable thereunder, and Coast shall have delivered to Sierra written evidence of the same reasonably satisfactory to Sierra;

Coast Bancorp's senior note shall have been repaid in full, and the stock of Coast National Bank which is pledged as collateral therefor shall have been released, or, if Sierra Bancorp elects in its sole discretion to assume the senior note, the consent of the note holder to the assumption shall have been obtained.

Dissenters' rights have not been exercised and perfected by in excess of ten percent (10%) of Coast Bancorp's outstanding common stock;

Sierra Bancorp must have received an opinion dated as of the date of the closing of the merger, from its special tax counsel, Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;

At least 5 business days before the merger closes, Coast Bancorp shall have provided Sierra Bancorp with its financial statements presenting the financial condition of Coast Bancorp as of the close of business on the last day of the month ended prior to the effective time of the merger which accurately reflect the financial condition of Coast Bancorp in all material respects, including accruals for all fees and expenses incurred or expected to be incurred in connection with the merger; and

All holders of Coast Bancorp stock options shall have agreed that their options, except to the extent not otherwise exercised, will terminate at the effective time of the merger.

Closing the Merger (See page 59)

If shareholder approval is received as planned, and if the conditions to the merger have either been met or waived, we anticipate that the merger will close in July 2016. However, we cannot assure you whether or when the merger will actually close.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (See pages 56 to 57)

The obligations of the parties to consummate the merger are subject to certain closing conditions, some of which may not be waived by a party, including but not limited to the receipt of all required shareholder and regulatory approvals and other governmental consents, and some conditions which may be waived by a party in its discretion. The failure of a condition to the closing of the merger, to the extent not waived, may result in a termination of the merger agreement and the merger.

In addition, the parties can mutually agree to terminate or extend the merger agreement. Either party can terminate the merger agreement in the event of a material breach or the occurrence of certain other events.

Coast Bancorp has agreed to pay a termination fee of $700,000 to Sierra Bancorp if Coast Bancorp breaches its covenants relating to alternative acquisition proposals or Coast Bancorp consummates an alternative acquisition proposal within 12 months following a termination of the merger agreement due to the failure of Coast Bancorp shareholders to approve the merger agreement following any action taken by the Coast Bancorp Board constituting a change of its recommendation.

Accounting Treatment (See page 44)

Sierra Bancorp must account for the merger using the acquisition method of accounting. Under this method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of Coast Bancorp and Coast National Bank acquired are recorded at their respective fair value as of the completion of the merger, and are added to those of Sierra Bancorp and Bank of the Sierra.

Sierra Bancorp's and Bank of the Sierra's Management and Operations After the Merger (See page 41)

The directors and executive officers of Sierra Bancorp and Bank of the Sierra immediately prior to the merger will continue to be the directors and executive officers Sierra Bancorp and Bank of the Sierra, respectively, after the merger.

Differences in Your Rights as a Shareholder of Coast Bancorp (See pages 86 to 89)

As a Coast Bancorp shareholder, your rights are currently governed by Coast Bancorp's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and by the CGCL. If you do not exercise your dissenters' rights, your shares of Coast Bancorp common stock will be automatically converted into the right to receive the per share merger consideration for each share of Coast Bancorp common stock you hold at the closing of the merger. Consequently, for those shareholders who receive Sierra Bancorp common stock, your rights as a Sierra Bancorp shareholder will be thereafter governed by Sierra Bancorp's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and by the CGCL. The rights of Sierra Bancorp shareholders differ from those of Coast Bancorp shareholders in certain respects. Most of these differences will result from the provisions in Sierra Bancorp's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws that differ from those of Coast Bancorp.

Coast Bancorp Dissenters' Rights (See page 28)

Shares of Coast Bancorp common stock may qualify as "dissenting shares" under Chapter 13 of the CGCL and holders of shares of Coast Bancorp common stock may perfect their dissenters' rights by doing the following:

not vote "FOR" the merger agreement and the merger;

make a timely written demand upon Coast Bancorp for purchase in cash of his or her shares at their fair market value as of January 4, 2016 which demand includes: (i) the number and class of the shares held of record by him or her that he or she demands upon Coast Bancorp, and (ii) what he or she claims to be the fair market value of his or her shares as of January 4, 2016 and immediately prior to the first public announcement of the merger;

have his or her demand received by Coast Bancorp within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval by the outstanding shares is mailed to the shareholder;

submit certificates representing his or her shares for endorsement in accordance with Section 1302 of the CGCL; and comply with such other procedures as are required by the CGCL.

If dissenters' rights are properly perfected, such dissenter has the right to receive cash in the amount equal to the fair market value, as determined by Coast Bancorp, or, if required, by a court of law, of their shares of Coast Bancorp common stock as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger.

If dissenters' rights are perfected and exercised with respect to more than ten percent (10%) of Coast Bancorp's common stock outstanding, then Sierra Bancorp has the option to terminate the merger agreement. The text of the applicable sections of Chapter 13 of the CGCL governing dissenters' rights is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix B. We urge you to carefully read the procedures set forth in Appendix B, as failure to comply with these procedures will result in the loss of dissenters' rights under the CGCL.

SIERRA BANCORP SELECTED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL DATA

The following table presents selected historical financial information concerning Sierra Bancorp and its consolidated subsidiary, Bank of the Sierra. The selected financial data as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and for each of the years in the three year period ended December 31, 2015, is derived from Sierra Bancorp's audited consolidated financial statements and related notes which are included in Sierra Bancorp's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 as filed with the SEC, which is incorporated herein by reference. Dividends

Sierra Bancorp

Sierra Bancorp paid cash dividends totaling $5.7 million, or $0.42 per share in 2015 and $4.8 million, or $0.34 per share in 2014, which represents 31% of annual net earnings for both 2015 and 2014. Sierra Bancorp's general dividend policy is to pay cash dividends within the range of typical peer payout ratios, provided that such payments do not adversely affect Sierra Bancorp's financial condition and are not overly restrictive to its growth capacity. However, in the past when many of its peers elected to suspend dividend payments, Sierra Bancorp's Board determined that it should continue to pay a certain level of dividends as long as Sierra Bancorp's core operating performance was adequate and policy or regulatory restrictions did not preclude such payments, without regard to peer payout ratios. While Sierra Bancorp has paid a consistent level of quarterly dividends in the past few years, no assurance can be given that its financial performance in any given year will justify the continued payment of a certain level of cash dividend, or any cash dividend at all.

As a bank holding company that currently has no significant assets other than its equity interest in Bank of the Sierra, Sierra Bancorp's ability to declare dividends depends upon cash on hand as supplemented by dividends from Bank of the Sierra. Bank of the Sierra's dividend practices in turn depend upon its earnings, financial position, regulatory standing, the ability to meet current and anticipated regulatory capital requirements, and other factors deemed relevant by its Board of Directors. The authority of Bank of the Sierra's Board of Directors to declare cash dividends is also subject to statutory restrictions. Under California banking law, a California state-chartered bank may declare dividends in an amount not exceeding the lesser of its retained earnings or its net income for the last three years (reduced by dividends paid during such period) or, with the prior approval of the California Commissioner of Business Oversight, in an amount not exceeding the greatest of (i) the retained earnings of the bank, (ii) the net income of the bank for its last fiscal year, or (iii) the net income of the bank for its current fiscal year.

Sierra Bancorp's ability to pay dividends is also limited by state law. California law allows a California corporation to pay dividends if the company's retained earnings equal at least the amount of the proposed dividend. If a California corporation does not have sufficient retained earnings available for the proposed dividend, it may still pay a dividend to its shareholders if immediately after the dividend the sum of the company's assets (exclusive of goodwill and deferred charges) would be at least equal to 125% of its liabilities (not including deferred taxes, deferred income and other deferred liabilities) and the current assets of the company would be at least equal to its current liabilities, or, if the average of its earnings before income taxes and before interest expense for the two preceding fiscal years was less than the average of its interest expense for the two preceding fiscal years, at least equal to 125% of its current liabilities. In addition, during any period in which Sierra Bancorp has deferred payment of interest otherwise due and payable on its subordinated debt securities, it may not pay any dividends or make any distributions with respect to its capital stock. See "Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Capital Resources" in Sierra Bancorp's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 which is incorporated herein by reference.

Coast Bancorp

Shareholders are entitled to receive dividends when and if declared by the board of directors of Coast Bancorp. Coast Bancorp has not declared or issued any cash dividends on its common stock since commencing operations as a bank holding company and parent of wholly owned subsidiary Coast National Bank on June 1, 2001. Accordingly, Coast Bancorp does not anticipate paying any cash dividends for the foreseeable future on its common stock, and no assurance can be given that its earnings will permit the payment of dividends of any kind in the future.

California law also limits Coast Bancorp's ability to pay dividends. A corporation may make a distribution / dividend from retained earnings to the extent that the retained earnings exceed (a) the amount of the distribution plus (b) the amount, if any, of dividends in arrears on shares with preferential dividend rights. Alternatively, a corporation may make a distribution / dividend, if, immediately after the distribution, the value of its assets equals or exceeds the sum of (a) its total liabilities plus (b) the liquidation preference of any shares which have a preference upon dissolution over the rights of shareholders receiving the distribution / dividend.

Under federal law, at the bank level the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the “OCC”) must provide prior approval before the declaration of any dividends to be paid in anything other than cash (that is, dividends-in-kind) and dividends that exceed the limitations established by 12 USC 60. No dividend may be declared from permanent capital unless the bank follows procedures for decreasing permanent capital. Any payment, described as a dividend or otherwise, by a bank that results in a reduction of its permanent capital requires the OCC’s prior approval as a reduction of capital under 12 USC 59 and 12 CFR 5.46. A bank may obtain prior OCC approval to reduce permanent capital or pay dividends in advance of the period(s) in which the capital reduction or dividend would occur. Notwithstanding any such approval, a bank is prohibited from reducing permanent capital or declaring or paying a dividend if, following the action, it would become an undercapitalized institution as defined in 12 CFR 6.4.

Further, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Coast Bancorp has agreed that prior to the effective time of the merger, without the prior written consent of Sierra Bancorp, it will not make, declare, pay or set aside for payment any dividend in respect of any shares of its capital stock.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included in this proxy statement/prospectus and the matters addressed in “A WARNING ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS” beginning on page 24, you should carefully consider the matters described below in determining whether to approve the merger agreement. If the merger is consummated, Bank of the Sierra and Coast National Bank will operate as a combined bank and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sierra Bancorp in a market environment that cannot be predicted and that involves significant risks, many of which will be beyond the combined company’s control.

Risks Relating to the Merger

Because the market price of Sierra common stock will fluctuate, Coast shareholders cannot be certain of the market value of the merger consideration they will receive.

If the merger is completed, each shareholder of Coast Bancorp will receive, subject to their stock and cash election and proration, their proportional share of the total merger consideration, which consists of (1) 581,753 shares of Sierra common stock; and (2) $3,176,371 in cash (subject to downward adjustment in certain circumstances as specified in the merger agreement). The total number of shares issued and cash paid may be increased if outstanding stock options are exercised prior to the effective time of the merger. This will not result in any change to the per share merger consideration payable to current shareholders. The merger consideration calculation uses a formula based on the volume weighted average trading price of Sierra common stock for a period of time shortly before the close of the merger, and the price of Sierra common stock has fluctuated since the signing of the merger agreement and will likely continue to fluctuate until the close of the merger and until Coast shareholders receive their merger consideration. As a result, it is not currently possible to determine the precise value of the merger consideration shareholders will receive.

Coast Bancorp shareholders may receive a form of consideration different from what they elect.

Although each Coast Bancorp shareholder may elect to receive all cash or all Sierra Bancorp common stock in the merger, or a prescribed mix of cash and stock, the aggregate amounts of cash and stock to be issued in the merger are set by a predetermined formula in the merger agreement and there is no way to predict what elections different shareholders will make. As a result, if either the aggregate cash or stock elections exceed the maximum available, and you choose the form of consideration that exceeds the maximum available, some or all of your consideration may be in a form that you did not choose.

The fairness opinion obtained by Coast Bancorp from its financial advisors will not reflect changes in the value of Sierra Bancorp common stock or Coast Bancorp common stock between the signing of the merger agreement and completion of the merger.

On January 4, 2016, one of Coast Bancorp's financial advisors, Vining Sparks IBG, L.P., presented its opinion to the Coast Bancorp board of directors as to the fairness of the merger consideration to the shareholders of Coast Bancorp from a financial point of view. As of January 4, 2016, in the opinion of Vining Sparks, the merger consideration was fair to the shareholders of Coast Bancorp from a financial point of view. The merger agreement does not require that Coast Bancorp obtain an updated fairness opinion as a condition to the completion of the merger, and Coast Bancorp does not intend to request that its opinion be updated.

As such, the fairness opinion does not reflect any changes that may occur or may have already occurred after January 4, 2016 to the operations and prospects of Sierra Bancorp or Coast Bancorp, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp, and on which the respective original fairness opinion was based. As a result, the current value of the common stock of Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp may not be reflected in the fairness opinion. The opinion does not speak as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date set forth in the fairness opinion. Because Coast Bancorp does not currently intend to request an updated fairness opinion, the fairness opinion will not address the fairness of the merger consideration or the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, at the time the merger is completed. As a result, the board of directors of Coast Bancorp will not have the benefit of an updated fairness opinion in making its recommendations to shareholders. For a description of the fairness opinion the Coast Bancorp received from Vining Sparks, see “– Opinion of Coast Bancorp’s Financial Advisor” beginning on page 37. For a description of the other factors considered by Coast Bancorp’s board of directors in determining whether to approve the merger, see “– Coast Bancorp’s Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Coast’s Board of Directors” beginning on page 36. The full text of Vining Sparks’ fairness opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Coast Bancorp shareholders will experience a significant reduction in percentage ownership and voting power of their shares as a result of the merger.

If you elect, or otherwise receive, shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock as part or all of your merger consideration, you will experience a substantial reduction in your percentage ownership interest and effective voting power after the merger in Sierra Bancorp compared to your ownership interest and voting power in Coast Bancorp prior to the merger. If the merger is consummated is currently estimated that former Coast shareholders will own slightly less than 5% of Sierra Bancorp's outstanding shares.

Coast Bancorp will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending that could adversely affect its business.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Coast Bancorp and consequently, if the merger occurs, on Sierra Bancorp. These uncertainties may impair Coast Bancorp's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with Coast Bancorp to seek to change existing business relationships with Coast Bancorp, which could negatively affect its results of operations. Retention of certain employees may be challenging while the merger is pending, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with Sierra Bancorp. If key employees depart, Sierra Bancorp's business following the merger could be harmed and/or Coast Bancorp's business would be harmed if the merger is not completed and Coast Bancorp then continues as an independent bank. In addition, the merger agreement restricts Coast Bancorp from making certain acquisitions and loans and taking other specified actions until the merger occurs without the consent of Sierra Bancorp. These restrictions may prevent Coast Bancorp from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger. See the section entitled "THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Conduct of Coast Bancorp's Businesses Until Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 49 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a description of the restrictive covenants to which Coast Bancorp is subject.

The merger will not be completed unless important conditions are satisfied.

Specified conditions set forth in the merger agreement must be satisfied or waived to complete the merger. If the conditions are not satisfied or waived, to the extent permitted by law or Nasdaq rules, the merger will not occur or will be delayed, and each of Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp may lose some or all of the intended benefits of the merger. The following conditions must be satisfied or, with respect to conditions other than shareholder and regulatory approval, waived, if permissible, before Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp are obligated to complete the merger:

The merger agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock outstanding as of the record date for the special meeting;

All required regulatory approvals and consents must be obtained, including approvals from the Federal Reserve, the FDIC and the CDBO, and no materially burdensome regulatory conditions may be imposed on Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra;

The absence of any law or order by a court or regulatory authority that would prohibit, restrict or make illegal the merger;

The number of shares of Coast Bancorp common stock for which dissenters' rights have been properly asserted shall not be more than 10% of the total issued and outstanding shares of Coast Bancorp common stock;

As of five days prior to the closing, Coast Bancorp's allowance for loan losses, determined in accordance with GAAP, shall be no less than 1.40% of gross loans;

Coast Bancorp shall have obtained an environmental report for certain owned real properties, which do not disclose any materials amount of hazardous materials, material adverse environmental conditions or material violations of environmental laws that have not been remediated;

Coast Bancorp's shareholder rights plan shall have been terminated, all rights issued thereunder shall have been redeemed, no "flip-in event" (as that term is defined in the shareholder rights plan) shall have occurred, and no shares of Coast Bancorp preferred stock shall have been issued or be issuable thereunder, and Coast Bancorp shall have delivered to Sierra Bancorp written evidence of the same reasonably satisfactory to Sierra Bancorp;
Coast Bancorp's senior note shall have been repaid in full, and the stock of Coast National Bank which is pledged as collateral therefor shall have been released, or, if Sierra Bancorp elects in its sole discretion to assume the senior note, the consent of the note holder to the assumption shall have been obtained; and Special tax counsel to Sierra Bancorp shall have rendered certain tax opinions.

Failure to complete the merger could negatively impact Coast Bancorp's business, financial condition, results of operations and/or stock price.

If the merger agreement is terminated and the merger is not completed, the ongoing businesses of Coast Bancorp may be adversely affected. For example:

The expenses of Coast Bancorp incurred in connection with the merger, such as legal and accounting fees, must be paid even if the merger is not completed, and such expenses may not be recovered from Sierra Bancorp;
Coast Bancorp may be required to pay a termination fee of $700,000 to Sierra Bancorp if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances;
While Coast Bancorp's management is focused on completing the merger, Coast Bancorp could fail to pursue other beneficial opportunities;
Pursuant to the merger agreement, Coast Bancorp is subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to completing the merger, which restrictions could adversely affect its ability to realize certain of its respective business strategies;
Coast Bancorp may experience negative reactions to the termination of the merger from customers, depositors, investors, vendors and others; and
The market price of Coast Bancorp's common stock may decline to the extent that the current market price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed.

In addition, any delay in the consummation of the merger, or any uncertainty about the consummation of the merger, may adversely affect Coast Bancorp's future business, growth, revenue and results of operations. Further, if the merger agreement is terminated and Coast Bancorp's board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, shareholders cannot be certain that Coast Bancorp will be able to find a party willing to pay the equivalent or greater consideration than that which Sierra Bancorp has agreed to pay in the merger.

The merger agreement contains provisions that could discourage or make it difficult for a third party to acquire Coast Bancorp prior to completion of the merger.

The merger agreement contains provisions that make it difficult for Coast Bancorp to entertain a third-party proposal for an acquisition of Coast Bancorp. These provisions include the general prohibition on Coast Bancorp's soliciting, initiating, encouraging or participating in discussions or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal with any person or entity. The members of the board of directors of Coast Bancorp and certain executive officers have agreed to vote their shares of Coast Bancorp common stock in favor of the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal and against any alternative transaction. In addition, Coast Bancorp may be required to pay Sierra Bancorp a termination fee of $700,000 if the merger agreement is terminated in specified circumstances. See "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – The Merger Agreement – Termination; Effect of Termination" beginning on page 56. These provisions could discourage an otherwise interested third party from trying to acquire Coast Bancorp, even one that might be willing to offer greater value to Coast Bancorp's shareholders than Sierra Bancorp has offered in the merger. Furthermore, even if a third party elects to propose an acquisition, the termination fee could result in that third party's offer being of lower value to Coast Bancorp's shareholders than such third party might have otherwise offered.

Certain officers and directors of Coast Bancorp may have interests that are different from, or in addition to, interests of Coast Bancorp's shareholders generally.

Certain of Coast Bancorp's officers and directors have conflicts of interest in the merger that may influence them to support or approve the merger without regard to the interests of Coast Bancorp shareholders. As more fully described in "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 43, these interests include:

- Change of control payments totaling $375,000 payable to Coast Bancorp's President, Ms. Robinson; Sierra Bancorp's agreement to employ Ms. Robinson as Market President for the San Luis Obispo area for which she will receive an annual salary of $170,000, and be eligible to receive a discretionary bonus equal to 30% of her base salary, plus other benefits.

- Retention incentives offered to Messrs. Cable and Morgan in the amounts of $30,000 each
- Continued indemnification and insurance coverage for Coast Bancorp's current and past officers and directors.

A success fee in the amount of $130,000 payable to one of Coast Bancorp's financial advisors, FIG Partners, LLC., of which Coast Bancorp director Greg Gersack is a principal.

You should consider these interests in conjunction with the recommendation of the board of directors of Coast Bancorp with respect to approval of the merger.

We may fail to realize all of the anticipated benefits of the merger if the combined company does not achieve certain cost savings and other benefits or if Bank of the Sierra and Coast National Bank do not successfully integrate.

Sierra Bancorp's belief that the cost savings and revenue enhancements are achievable is a forward-looking statement that is inherently uncertain. The combined company's actual cost savings and revenue enhancements, if any, cannot be quantified at this time. Actual cost savings and revenue enhancements will depend on future expense levels and operating levels, the timing of certain events and general industry, regulatory and business conditions. Many of these events will be beyond the control of the combined company.

Further, if Sierra Bancorp is unable to successfully integrate the businesses of Bank of the Sierra and Coast National Bank, operating results may suffer. Bank of the Sierra and Coast National Bank have operated and, until completion of the merger, will continue to operate independently of one another. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, disruption of their ongoing businesses, or inconsistencies in standards, controls, policies or procedures. These could negatively affect both Bank of the Sierra's and Coast National Bank's ability to maintain relationships with customers and employees, or achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. As with any completed merger of financial institutions, there may also be disruptions that cause customers, both deposit and loan, to take their business to competitors.

Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp will incur significant transaction and merger-related integration costs in connection with the merger, and these costs may not be offset by the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp expect to incur significant costs associated with completing the merger and integrating the operations of Bank of the Sierra and Coast National Bank. Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp are in the process of assessing the impact of these costs. Although Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp believe that the elimination of duplicate costs and the realization of other efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses will offset incremental transition and merger-related costs over time, this net benefit may not be achieved in the near term, or at all.

A WARNING ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained in this proxy statement/prospectus or in documents incorporated by reference, including, without limitation, statements containing the words “believes,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “expects,” and words of similar import, constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. These forward-looking statements, including among others those found in “QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER,” “SUMMARY,” and “PROPOSAL NO. 1 - THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER” involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the combined companies to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements.

In addition to factors previously disclosed in Sierra Bancorp’s reports filed with the SEC and those identified elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus (including the section entitled “RISK FACTORS” beginning on page 20), the following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from forward-looking statements or historical performance:

- The ability of Bank of the Sierra to successfully integrate Coast National Bank, or achieve expected beneficial synergies and/or operating efficiencies;
- Customer acceptance of Bank of the Sierra's and Coast National Bank's products and services and efforts by competitor institutions to lure away such customers;
- Increased competitive pressures generally;
- Possible business disruption following the merger or difficulty retaining key managers and employees;
- Changes in customer borrowing, repayment, investment and deposit practices;
- Changes in market factors that may affect the value of traded instruments in "mark-to-market" portfolios;
- Potential volatility and deterioration in the credit and financial markets or adverse changes in general economic conditions leading to increased loan losses;
- The potential impact on our net interest margin and funding sources from interest rate fluctuations;
- Greater than expected noninterest expenses including potential increases in deposit insurance premiums;
- Fluctuations in the demand for loans, the number of unsold homes, land and other properties and fluctuations in real estate values in our market areas;
- Secondary market conditions for loans and our ability to sell loans in the secondary market;
- The use of estimates in determining fair value of certain of our assets, which estimates may prove to be incorrect and result in significant declines in valuation;
- Possible acquisitions of other financial institutions and/or expansion into new market areas;
- The availability of capital;
- The failure or security breach of computer systems on which we depend;
- Unanticipated regulatory or legal proceedings; and
- Our ability to manage the risks involved in the foregoing.

Given these uncertainties, you are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp disclaim any obligation to update any such factors or to publicly announce the results of any revisions to any of the forward-looking statements contained in this proxy statement/prospectus to reflect future events or developments, except as required by law.

“FOR” the approval of any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger agreement or for any other legally permissible purpose.

All of Coast Bancorp's directors, except for director Gersack who abstained due to a conflict of interest, approved the merger agreement and the merger and determined that the merger is in the best interests of Coast Bancorp and its shareholders. See "PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Coast Bancorp's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Coast's Board of Directors" beginning on page 36.

In considering the recommendation of Coast Bancorp's board of directors with respect to the merger, Coast Bancorp shareholders should be aware that some of Coast Bancorp's directors and executive officers may have interests that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Coast Bancorp shareholders more generally. See "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 43.

Number of Votes

Each Coast Bancorp shareholder is entitled to cast one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share held in that shareholder's name on the books of Coast Bancorp as of the record date on the matter to be submitted to the vote of the shareholders.

Votes Required; Voting Agreements

The votes required for each proposal are as follows:

Approval of the merger agreement and the merger. The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock is required to approve this proposal.

Adjournment. The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock outstanding, present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to approve this proposal.

As of the record date, Coast Bancorp's directors and executive officers owned 1,776,640 voting shares (not including vested option shares), representing approximately 31.5% of Coast Bancorp's issued and outstanding shares of common stock. A copy of the form of voting agreement separately executed by each of the Coast Bancorp directors is attached as Exhibit A and a copy of the form of voting agreement separately executed by each of the executive officers is attached as Exhibit B to the merger agreement which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A and is incorporated herein by reference.

Voting of Proxies

Submitting Proxies

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, we urge you to complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and to return it promptly in the envelope provided. Returning the proxy card will not affect your right to attend the special meeting and vote. You may also vote over the Internet or by telephone. Instructions for all voting can be found on the proxy card included with this proxy statement/prospectus.

If you properly fill in your proxy card and send it to us in time to vote, or vote by Internet or telephone, your “proxy” (the individual named on your proxy card) will vote your shares as you have directed. If you sign the proxy card but do not make specific choices, your proxy will vote your shares as recommended by the Coast Bancorp board of directors as follows:

“FOR” the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein.

“FOR” the approval of any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger agreement or for any other legally permissible purpose.

If any other matter is presented, your proxy will vote in accordance with the recommendation of the Coast Bancorp board of directors. At the time this proxy statement/prospectus went to press, we knew of no matters which needed to be acted on at the special meeting, other than those discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Voting by Telephone or Over the Internet

In addition to voting in person or by proxy at the special meeting, Coast Bancorp shareholders also have the option to vote by telephone or over the Internet. Instructions to vote by telephone or over the Internet can be found on the proxy card included with this proxy statement/prospectus. The Internet and telephone voting procedures are designed to authenticate a shareholder's identity and to allow shareholders to vote their shares and confirm that their voting instructions have been properly recorded.

Revoking Proxies

Coast Bancorp shareholders who hold their shares in certificate form may revoke their proxies at any time before the time their proxies are voted at the special meeting by: (i) filing with the Corporate Secretary of Coast Bancorp, an instrument revoking it or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; (ii) appearing and voting in person at the special meeting or (iii) if a Coast Bancorp shareholder has voted such Coast Bancorp shareholder's shares by Internet or telephone, recording a different vote, or by signing and returning a proxy card dated as of a date that is later than such Coast Bancorp shareholder's last Internet or telephone vote. Subject to such revocation, shares represented by a properly executed proxy received in time for the special meeting will be voted by the proxy holder thereof in accordance with the instructions on the proxy. If no instruction is specified with respect to a matter to be acted upon, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted in favor of the proposals listed on the proxy. If any other business is properly presented at the meeting, the proxy will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of Coast Bancorp's board of directors.

Written notices of proxy revocations must be sent so that they will be received before the taking of the vote at the special meeting as follows:

Coast Bancorp

500 Marsh Street

San Luis Obispo, California 93401

Attention: Corporate Secretary

If you have instructed a broker or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker or other nominee in order to change those instructions.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

If you hold your shares of Coast Bancorp common stock in “street name” (that is, through a broker or other nominee), you must vote your shares through your broker. You should receive a form from your broker asking how you want to vote your shares. Follow the instructions on that form to give voting instructions to your broker. Under the rules that govern brokers who are voting with respect to shares held in street name, brokers have the discretion to vote such shares on routine, but not on non-routine matters. At the special meeting, none of the matters is a routine matter.

Therefore, if you fail to instruct your broker or nominee as to how to vote your shares of Coast Bancorp common stock, your broker or nominee may not vote your shares “for” any of the proposals set forth in this proxy statement-prospectus, including the approval of the merger agreement and the merger, without your specific direction. A “broker non-vote” occurs when your broker does not vote on a particular proposal because the broker does not receive instructions from the beneficial owner and does not have discretionary authority. It is VERY IMPORTANT that you return the instructions to your broker or nominee. Therefore if you wish to be represented you must vote by completing the information which is sent to you by your broker or nominee.

Dissenters' Rights

Holders of Coast Bancorp common stock will have dissenters' rights with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the merger. In order to perfect dissenters' rights, a shareholder of Coast Bancorp stock must do the following:

- not vote "FOR" the merger agreement and the merger;
- make a timely written demand upon Coast Bancorp for purchase in cash of his or her shares at their fair market value as of January 4, 2016, and immediately prior to the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger, which demand includes:
 - the number and class of the shares held of record by him or her that he or she demands upon Coast Bancorp, and what he or she claims to be the fair market value of his or her shares as of January 4, 2016 and immediately prior to the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger;
 - have his or her demand received by Coast Bancorp within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval by the outstanding shares is mailed to the shareholder;
- submit certificates representing his or her shares for endorsement in accordance with Section 1302 of the CGCL; and
 - comply with such other procedures as are required by the CGCL.

If dissenters' rights are properly perfected, such dissenter has the right to receive cash in the amount equal to the fair market value, as determined by Coast Bancorp, or, if required, by a court of law, of their shares of Coast Bancorp common stock as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger. Please read the section entitled "PROPOSAL NO. 1 - THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER—Dissenters' Rights of Coast Bancorp Shareholders" and Appendix B for additional information.

If dissenters' rights are perfected and exercised with respect to more than ten percent (10%) of Coast Bancorp's outstanding shares of common stock, then Sierra Bancorp has the option to terminate the merger agreement. Please see "PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND MERGER – Dissenter's Rights of Coast Bancorp Shareholders" herein.

Other Matters

Coast Bancorp management is not aware of any other business that will be conducted at the special meeting.

Solicitation of Proxies

Coast Bancorp's board of directors is soliciting the proxies for the special meeting. Coast Bancorp will pay for the cost of solicitation of proxies. In addition to solicitation by mail, Coast Bancorp's directors, officers and employees may also solicit proxies from shareholders by telephone, facsimile, or in person. Coast Bancorp will not pay any additional compensation to these directors, officers or employees for these activities, but may reimburse them for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

If Coast Bancorp's management deems it advisable, the services of individuals or companies that are not regularly employed by Coast Bancorp may be used in connection with the solicitation of proxies. Arrangements will also be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to send the proxy materials to beneficial owners. Coast Bancorp will, upon request, reimburse those brokerage houses and custodians for their reasonable expenses in so doing.

Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management

The following table sets forth certain information as of May 2, 2016, concerning the beneficial ownership of Coast Bancorp's outstanding common stock: (i) by each of the directors of Coast Bancorp; (ii) by each of Coast National Bank's executive officers; and (iii) by all directors and executive officers of Coast Bancorp as a group. Management is not aware of any change in control of Coast Bancorp that has occurred since January 1, 2014 or of any arrangement that may, at a subsequent date, result in a change in control of Coast Bancorp. As used throughout this section, the term "executive officer" means Coast National Bank's Chief Executive Officer and President, the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, the Executive Vice President and Chief Credit Officer. Coast National Bank's other executive vice presidents and other vice presidents are not considered to be executive officers of Coast Bancorp and are specifically excluded from participation in policy-making by resolution of the Coast Bancorp board of directors.

PROPOSAL NO. 1
THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER

This section describes certain aspects of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein pursuant to which Coast Bancorp will be merged with and into Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp's bank subsidiary, Coast National Bank will be merged with and into Sierra Bancorp's bank subsidiary, Bank of the Sierra. Because this is a summary, it does not contain all the information that may be important to you. You should read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the appendices. A copy of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger, dated January 4, 2016, referred to herein as the merger agreement, is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein. The following discussion describes important aspects and the material terms of the merger agreement and the merger. These descriptions are qualified in their entirety by reference to Appendix A.

Structure of the Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of Coast Bancorp with and into Sierra Bancorp, with Sierra Bancorp as the surviving entity after the merger. As a result of the merger, Coast Bancorp will cease to exist as a separate entity.

Immediately after the merger, Coast Bancorp's wholly owned bank subsidiary, Coast National Bank, will merge with and into Sierra Bancorp's wholly owned bank subsidiary, Bank of the Sierra, with Bank of the Sierra as the surviving entity after the bank merger. As a result of the bank merger, Coast National Bank will cease to exist as a separate entity.

The merger agreement is attached as Appendix A to this document. We encourage you to read the merger agreement in its entirety.

Merger Consideration

The merger agreement provides that each share of the common stock of Coast Bancorp will be entitled to receive, at the holder's election subject to proration, (1) per share cash consideration, without interest, equal to the sum of (a) the number which is obtained by dividing $3,176,371 (subject to adjustment as described below) by the number of shares of Coast common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, rounded up or down to the nearest cent plus (b) the product of 0.10302 multiplied by the volume-weighted average daily closing price of Sierra common stock for the twenty (20) trading days ending on the fifth day preceding the closing of the merger; (2) shares of Sierra common stock equal to the per share cash consideration divided by such weighted average daily closing price, or (3) a combination thereof. The precise amount of the aggregate merger consideration and the resulting per share merger consideration will not be known until shortly before the closing of the merger.

The aggregate cash consideration is subject to reduction if and to the extent that Coast Bancorp's adjusted shareholders' equity is less than $5.2 million or certain expenses of the merger exceed $2.4 million. For a definition of the term "adjusted shareholders' equity" and a description of such expenses, see "- Adjustments to the Merger Consideration" immediately below. Under the terms of the merger agreement, the aggregate stock consideration will be approximately 581,753 shares of Sierra common stock. The total number of shares issued and cash paid may be increased if outstanding stock options are exercised prior to the effective time of the merger.

Holders of in-the-money Coast Bancorp stock options who do not exercise their options prior to the merger will receive $2.25 minus the exercise price per share with respect to the corresponding Coast stock option. Outstanding warrants to purchase approximately 123,181 shares of Coast common stock at $5.50 per share shall be cancelled and become null and void unless exercised prior to the effective time of the merger. Given the high exercise price in relation to the per share merger consideration, it appears unlikely that any of the warrants will be exercised.

Because the merger consideration calculation is based on a formula based on the volume weighted average trading price of Sierra common stock for a period of time shortly before the close of the merger, the precise merger consideration, both in the aggregate and per share, will not be known until shortly before the closing of the merger. However, by way of example only, assuming no reduction in the aggregate cash consideration as provided in the merger agreement, if the per share merger consideration were calculated based on the closing price for shares of Sierra common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market on May 2, 2016 of $17.13 per share, the value of the aggregate merger consideration (excluding payments in respect of dissenting shares) would have been approximately $13.1 million. On a per share basis using the same assumptions, each share of Coast Bancorp common stock for which all cash was elected and received would have received $2.32 in cash, and each share converted into all stock would have been converted into 0.13543 shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock with a market value of $2.32. The actual merger consideration will be calculated five business days before the closing of the merger based on the volume-weighted trading price as described in the first paragraph of this section, and the resulting aggregate and per share merger consideration may be more or less than in the above examples. In addition, because the merger consideration is set by a predetermined formula and it is impossible to predict what elections different shareholders will make, there is no assurance that any given shareholder will receive the form of consideration he or she elects.

Adjustments to the Merger Consideration

The aggregate merger consideration will be reduced by (x) the amount, if any, by which the amount of certain expenses of Coast Bancorp related to the transaction exceed $2.4 million plus (y) the amount, if any, by which the closing adjusted shareholders' equity of Coast Bancorp exceeds target adjusted shareholders' equity of $5.2 million. Adjusted shareholders' equity for this purpose is defined as total shareholders' equity calculated in accordance with GAAP, but excluding: all other comprehensive income or loss from the amount shown in Coast Bancorp's June 30, 2015 financial statements; positive changes in the valuation allowance for Coast Bancorp's deferred tax asset from the amount shown in Coast Bancorp's June 30, 2015 financial statements; the accrual or payment of certain transaction expenses in connection with the merger; amounts paid to retire Coast Bancorp's senior note; and any items, charges or accruals taken at Sierra Bancorp's request. To the extent that shareholders' equity calculated as above is below the target shareholders' equity of $5.2 million, the shortfall will reduce the aggregate cash consideration. See "– Allocation Calculation" below for a discussion of the potential effects of such a reduction on individual shareholder elections.

Expenses of the transaction that will be calculated for purposes of determining adjusted shareholders' equity include: severance or change of control payments, the value of employee benefits for which vesting is accelerated as a result of the merger, costs of attorneys, accountants and investment bankers, premiums for the purchase of directors' and officers' tail coverage, contract termination fees payable to vendors and the costs of printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus). To the extent that these expenses exceed $2.4 million, such excess amount will reduce the aggregate cash consideration.

Election Procedure

Election Right

Subject to the allocation mechanism described in the next section, each Coast Bancorp shareholder will have the right to elect to receive with respect to such shareholder's shares of Coast Bancorp common stock:

Sierra common stock for all of such shareholder's shares;

Cash for all of such shareholder's shares; or

Sierra common stock for shares in an amount equal to the stock percentage and cash for shares in an amount equal to the cash percentage, which we refer to as a mixed election.

Shares of Coast Bancorp common stock with respect to which the shareholder fails to make an effective election prior to the election deadline, or with respect to which the exchange agent does not receive an effective election prior to the election deadline, will be deemed to be "no election shares," as explained below. Any dissenting shares as to which dissenters' rights are not properly exercised will be treated as no election shares.

As used herein, "cash percentage" means the percentage derived by dividing the aggregate cash consideration by the aggregate merger consideration, and "stock percentage" is the reciprocal of the cash percentage. The cash percentage will adjust to reflect changes in Sierra Bancorp's stock price.

As described above under “– Merger Consideration,” because the merger consideration is set by a predetermined formula and it is impossible to predict what elections different shareholders will make, there is no assurance that any given shareholder will receive the form of consideration he or she elects.

Election Form

An election form and customary transmittal materials containing instructions for use in making an election as to the form of merger consideration that a shareholder prefers will be mailed to Coast Bancorp shareholders no less than thirty-five (35) days prior to the anticipated effective time of the merger, or on such other date as the Coast Bancorp and Sierra mutually agree, which we refer to as the mailing date, to shareholders of record as of five business days prior to the mailing date. The election form allows a Coast Bancorp shareholder to indicate whether the shareholder elects to make a stock election, a cash election, a mixed election or no election. Coast Bancorp will also make election forms available to persons who become holders of Coast Bancorp common stock between the record date for mailing election forms and the business day prior to the election deadline (as defined below).

Shareholders of Coast Bancorp common stock who wish to elect the type of merger consideration they will receive in the merger should carefully review and follow the instructions set forth in the election form. Shares as to which the shareholder has not made or as to which the exchange agent has not received a valid election prior to 5:00 p.m., Pacific time, on the date that is the thirtieth day following the mailing date of the election forms, or such later time as the parties may mutually agree, which we refer to as the “election deadline,” will be deemed to be no election shares.

To make a valid election, a Coast Bancorp shareholder must submit a properly completed and signed election form so that it is actually received by Computershare, Sierra Bancorp’s exchange agent, on or prior to the election deadline in accordance with the instructions on the election form. An election form will be deemed properly completed only if an election is indicated for each share of Coast Bancorp common stock covered by such election form. Any shareholder who fails to deliver a properly completed election form to the exchange agent on or before the election deadline, or who fails to redeliver a properly completed election form after an election has been revoked on or before the election deadline, will not have made a valid election, and the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock owned by such shareholder will be deemed to be no election shares.

An election may be revoked or changed by the shareholder submitting the election form at or prior to the election deadline. The exchange agent will have reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation, withdrawal or change has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in the election forms, and any decisions of Sierra Bancorp required by the exchange agent and made in good faith in determining such matters will be binding and conclusive. Neither Sierra Bancorp nor the exchange agent will be under any obligation to notify any shareholder of any defect in any election form. If an election is revoked and any certificates have been transmitted to the exchange agent, Sierra Bancorp will cause such certificates to be promptly returned without charge to the person submitting the revoked election form upon written request to that effect from the shareholder who submitted such election form.

Allocation Calculation

In the following discussion, “stock election shares” means shares of Coast Bancorp common stock with respect to which the shareholder has elected to receive shares of Sierra common stock; “cash election shares” means shares of Coast Bancorp common stock with respect to which the shareholder has elected to receive cash; and “mixed election shares” means shares of Coast Bancorp common stock with respect to which the shareholder has elected to receive the prescribed mix of cash and stock. With respect to mixed election shares, the ratio of cash and stock consideration a shareholder will receive is limited to the ratios equal to the aggregate cash consideration divided by the aggregate merger consideration, and the reciprocal of the cash percentage, respectively. The aggregate cash consideration is subject to reduction under certain circumstances. See “– Adjustments to the Merger Consideration.”

If a shareholder makes no election with respect to his or her shares of Coast common stock, or if there are any shares of Coast common stock with respect to which the exchange agent has not otherwise received an effective, properly completed election form on or before the election deadline, such shares will be deemed to be no election shares.

A shareholder who perfects his or her dissenters' rights under the CGCL will receive the fair market value for his or her shares in cash, as determined pursuant to the procedures under the CGCL, and will not receive any merger consideration. See “– Dissenters' Rights of Coast Bancorp Shareholders” below. Any dissenting shares as to which dissenters’ rights are not properly exercised will be treated as no election shares solely for purposes of the allocation calculation.

If the aggregate cash amount that would be paid upon conversion in the merger of the cash election shares, dissenting shares and the mixed cash shares is equal or nearly equal (as determined by the exchange agent) to the aggregate cash consideration to be issued in the merger, then all cash election shares and mixed cash shares will be converted into the right to receive the per share cash consideration, and all stock election shares, mixed stock shares and no election shares will be converted into the right to receive the per share stock consideration.

Oversubscription of Cash Consideration.

If the aggregate cash amount that would be paid upon the conversion in the merger of the cash election shares, dissenting shares and the mixed cash shares is more than the aggregate cash consideration, then:

all mixed stock shares, stock election shares and no election shares will be converted into the right to receive the per share stock consideration;
all dissenting shares will be deemed, solely for purposes of the allocation procedures, to be converted into the right to receive the per share cash consideration;
the exchange agent shall then select from among the cash election shares, by a pro rata selection process, a sufficient number of shares, which we refer to as stock designated shares, such that the aggregate cash amount that will be paid in the merger equals as closely as practicable the aggregate cash consideration, and all stock designated shares will be converted into the right to receive the per share stock consideration; and the cash election shares that are not stock designated shares and all mixed cash shares will be converted into the right to receive the per share cash consideration.

Undersubscription of Cash Consideration

If the aggregate cash amount that would be paid upon conversion in the merger of the cash election shares, dissenting shares and the mixed cash shares is less than the aggregate cash consideration, then:

all cash election shares and mixed cash shares will be converted into the right to receive the per share cash consideration;

all dissenting shares will be deemed, solely for purposes of the allocation procedures, to be converted into the right to receive the per share cash consideration;

the exchange agent shall then select first from among the no election shares and then (if necessary) from among the stock election shares, by a pro rata selection process, a sufficient number of shares, which we refer to as cash designated shares, such that the aggregate cash amount that will be paid in the merger equals as closely as practicable the aggregate cash consideration, and all cash designated shares will be converted into the right to receive the per share cash consideration; and the stock election shares and the no election shares that are not cash designated shares and all mixed stock shares will be converted into the right to receive the per share stock consideration.

The allocation calculations described above will be prepared by the exchange agent within ten business days after the election deadline, unless the effective time has not yet occurred, in which case as soon thereafter as practicable. Any calculation resulting in a holder receiving a portion of a share of Sierra Bancorp common stock shall be rounded to the nearest whole share, and any cash payment shall be rounded to the nearest cent.

Background of the Merger

Coast Bancorp was founded in 2001 as the holding company for Coast National Bank, which was established in 1997 as a locally owned community bank serving consumers and businesses in San Luis Obispo County. As of December 31, 2015, Coast Bancorp had assets of almost $150 million across three branches and a loan production office. As the result of the economic downturn in 2007 and regulatory challenges facing Coast Bancorp and Coast National Bank, the Board of Directors and management have been focused on addressing credit quality and operational issues, and infusing the institution with needed capital. In 2014, Coast Bancorp raised $4.8 million in equity capital, through the sale of 4.8 million shares of common stock at $1.00 per share, and $2.0 million in senior debt to successfully recapitalize the holding company and bank. This capital raise resulted in a significant restructuring of the board with the addition of four (4) new directors and resignation of two (2) then existing directors. Since that time, Coast Bancorp has been consistently evaluating its strategic alternatives to preserve and enhance shareholder value. Furthermore, over the past few years Coast was periodically approached by various banks to discuss the potential of combining organizations, including informally by Sierra Bancorp.

On June 20, 2015, Sierra Bancorp CEO Kevin McPhaill and Vice Chairman James Holly informally met with Coast Bancorp Chairman Robb Evans to discuss a potential business combination. Prior to the meeting, Coast Bancorp board member Greg Gersack, who is a principal in the nationally recognized investment bank, FIG Partners LLC, had prepared merger analyses to help the board of directors and management better understand a realistic valuation of Coast Bancorp in a potential sale. Following the June 20th contact, Chairman Evans and board member Gersack began informal discussions with Sierra Bancorp and its financial advisor, Keefe Bruyette & Woods, A Stifel Company (referred to as “KBW”). On July 29, 2015 the companies entered into a mutual nondisclosure agreement to facilitate the exchange of confidential information to better gauge the viability of a strategic combination. On August 7, 2015, Chairman Evans and board member Gersack met with Sierra Bancorp CEO Kevin McPhaill and CFO Ken Taylor along with Jeff Wishner of KBW to formally discuss a business combination.

On August the 20th, Sierra Bancorp submitted an initial Letter of Interest (referred to as the “LOI”) to Chairman Evans and board member Gersack through its advisor, KBW. In this proposal, Sierra Bancorp offered to acquire Coast Bancorp for 480,177 Sierra Bancorp common shares and $2.8 million of cash, which equated to a mixture of consideration of 75% stock and 25% cash based on the trading price of Sierra Bancorp common shares at that time. Sierra Bancorp also proposed to cash out existing Coast Bancorp stock options for $266,000. The total consideration was approximately $11.6 million. The offer also contemplated Coast Bancorp having (a) total shareholders' equity at closing of at least $5.2 million without giving effect to purchase accounting adjustments and excluding transaction costs, (b) a loan loss reserve of 1.5% of total loan at closing, (c) confirmation that the fair market value of all real estate owned by Coast Bancorp exceeded its book value by at least $2.0 million, (d) a valuation confirming a purchase accounting credit adjustment to the loan portfolio of less than 1.5%, and (e) verification of a post-closing Coast Bancorp deferred tax asset of at least $2.5 million. After receiving the LOI, Chairman Evans and Board member Gersack met with Coast Bancorp's CEO, Anita Robinson, on Friday, August 21st in San Luis Obispo to discuss the terms presented. Messrs. Evans and Gersack and Ms. Robinson determined the LOI should be presented to the full Coast Bancorp board of directors at their strategic planning session scheduled for August 24, 2015.

On August 24, 2015, the Coast Bancorp board met for its strategic planning session to discuss strategic alternatives. Among other topics discussed, the board of directors considered the terms of the LOI. The board voted to engage FIG Partners, LLC, to act as a financial advisor and to represent Coast Bancorp in further discussions and negotiations with Sierra Bancorp. Due to his position with FIG Partners, LLC, board member Gersack abstained from the vote on engaging FIG Partners, LLC, and continued to abstain from formal board votes on matters relating to a possible merger with Sierra Bancorp. On August 25, 2015, Coast Bancorp signed an engagement letter with FIG Partners, LLC, to act as its exclusive financial advisor in connection with the potential transaction. Mr. Gersack was charged with communicating to KBW that the price proposed was insufficient and to determine if the consideration offered and other terms presented were negotiable.

Through a series of discussions with his counterpart at KBW, Mr. Gersack assisted KBW in Sierra Bancorp's due diligence process and continued discussions regarding Sierra Bancorp increasing the pricing to a level which would be acceptable to Coast Bancorp. Additionally, Coast Bancorp formally engaged its outside counsel, Stuart I Moore, to advise it with respect to the potential transaction with Sierra Bancorp

After Sierra Bancorp conducted some due diligence, on September 14, 2015, KBW delivered to FIG Partners, LLC, a revised LOI reflecting a higher transaction price of 581,753 shares of Sierra common stock, $3.2 million in cash and an additional $383,000 to cash out existing option holders. Sierra Bancorp valued its offer at the time at $13.1 million. In its revised offer Sierra Bancorp also proposed an increased minimum post-closing deferred tax asset of $2.8 million and a cap on Coast Bancorp's transaction related expenses of $2.8 million. Over the next several weeks, the parties through their financial advisors FIG Partners, LLC and KBW negotiated various aspects of the LOI. The Coast Bancorp board met on September 25, 2016, to receive an update on the progress of discussions with Sierra Bancorp. At that meeting, Stuart I Moore made a formal presentation to the board about its fiduciary duties in the context of potential transaction with Sierra Bancorp. Additionally, Mr. Gersack, Chairman Evans, and Ms. Robinson provided updates on the progress in discussions with Sierra Bancorp. Following this meeting, negotiations between the parties continued resulting with KBW delivering to FIG Partners, LLC, on September 29, 2015, a revised LOI containing Sierra Bancorp's final offer.

The final LOI reflected the same general pricing terms as the September 14, 2015 LOI, but capped transaction expenses at $2.4 million, and reduced the minimum loan loss reserve at closing from 1.5% to 1.4%.

At the September 25 board meeting, Mr. Gersack was directed to conduct a confidential market check to confirm the terms of the Sierra Bancorp offer and determine if there was any interest from another financial institution at a higher price and better terms. FIG Partners, LLC, contacted six financial institutions that were potential acquirers to gauge whether there was any party willing to present an offer competitive with the terms then proposed by Sierra Bancorp. Of the six banks contacted in this effort, only two banks were willing to sign nondisclosure agreements to pursue the opportunity further. The two institutions that signed nondisclosure agreements were provided due diligence information in order to evaluate a potential combination. Although the terms of the Sierra Bancorp offer were not disclosed, a minimum pricing range was provided to the two institutions. After evaluation, neither company submitted an offer.

On October 12, 2015, the Coast Board of Directors met, with FIG Partners, LLC and StuartI Moore present, and thoroughly discussed both the results of the market check and the pending LOI. The board voted unanimously, authorizing Chairman Evans to sign the LOI on behalf of Coast Bancorp, with Mr. Gersack abstaining from the vote. Among other general terms and conditions, the LOI included a period of exclusivity during which the parties would conduct due diligence and negotiate a definitive agreement.

The initial draft of the definitive agreement was received from Sierra Bancorp's counsel on November 11, 2015. Over the next several weeks, details of the Agreement were negotiated and both parties completed their due diligence reviews of the other. On November 30, 2015, Coast Bancorp retained Vining Sparks IBG, L.P. to provide an opinion as to the fairness from a financial standpoint to the Coast Bancorp shareholders of the consideration to be received by the Coast Bancorp shareholders in the transaction. Due diligence on Sierra Bancorp was conducted on December 3, 2015 by Chairman Evans, CEO Robinson, and Mr. Gersack, which included meetings with Sierra Bancorp Vice Chairman Holley and CEO McPhaill and the balance of the Sierra Executive team. There were no adverse findings.

On January 4, 2016, the Coast Bancorp board of directors met to consider the definitive agreement and proposed transaction with Sierra Bancorp. StuartlMoore again reviewed the fiduciary duties of the Coast Bancorp board of directors. Vining Sparks delivered its fairness opinion to the Coast Bancorp board, and Mr. Gersack presented FIG Partners, LLC's analysis of the transaction. Vining Sparks presented its analysis of the transaction including its opinion that that the consideration to be received by the Coast Bancorp shareholders was fair from a financial point of view. Following presentations from StuartlMoore, Vining Sparks and FIG Partners, and with Mr. Gersack abstaining from the vote, the Coast Bancorp board of directors then unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger.

On January 4, 2016, Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp executed the merger agreement and all related documents. Prior to the opening of the stock market on January 5, 2016, both companies issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement and the terms of the proposed merger.

Coast Bancorp's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Coast's Board of Directors

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and related transactions, the Board of Directors of Coast Bancorp consulted with senior management, its financial advisors, and its legal counsel and considered a number of factors, including, among others, the following, which are not presented in order of priority:

- its knowledge of Coast Bancorp's, and its subsidiaries, business, markets, financial condition, results of operations and prospects;
- a review of Sierra Bancorp's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects, taking into account the results of its due diligence review of Sierra Bancorp;
- the strategic alternatives believed to be reasonably available to Coast Bancorp;
- results that could be expected to be obtained by Coast Bancorp if it continued to operate independently, and the likely benefits to shareholders of such course, as compared with the value of the merger consideration being offered by Sierra Bancorp;
- the enhanced future prospects of the combined institution compared to those that Coast Bancorp was likely to achieve on a stand-alone basis, including the projected market position and the increased lending limit of the combined bank, increased capital available for strategic growth, and the compatibility of Sierra Bancorp's and Coast Bancorp's business activities and strong credit structures;
- the possible effects of the proposed merger on Coast Bancorp's employees and customers, as well as on the communities in which Coast Bancorp operates;
- the structure of the merger and the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, including the value of the consideration;
- the presentations of management regarding the strategic advantages and disadvantages of combining with Sierra Bancorp, including Sierra Bancorp's desired entry into the markets in which Coast Bancorp operates and its decision to retain Ms. Robinson who has a deep knowledge of those markets, Sierra Bancorp's expertise in commercial lending, the opportunities for cost savings in the transaction, and Sierra Bancorp's commitment to the communities in which it operates;
- the merger consideration offered and the belief of the Coast Bancorp Board of Directors that Sierra Bancorp stock represents an investment in a well-capitalized and Nasdaq listed institution which should result in long-term value and increased liquidity for shareholders;
- the terms of the merger agreement and related transactions, including the representations and warranties of the parties, the covenants, the consideration, the benefits to Coast Bancorp's employees, and the termination fee and/or cost reimbursement to be paid by Coast Bancorp under certain circumstances;
- that the transaction is expected to be tax-free to Coast Bancorp shareholders to the extent that they receive Sierra Bancorp common stock in exchange for their shares of Coast Bancorp common stock;
- the opinion of Vining Sparks, financial advisor to the Coast Bancorp Board of Directors, that, as of the date of such opinion, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in the written opinion, the merger consideration to be received by the Coast Bancorp shareholders was fair to the Coast Bancorp shareholders from a financial point of view, as more fully described under "— Opinion of Coast Bancorp's Financial Advisor," below;
- the ability of Sierra Bancorp to pay the merger consideration without needing to condition the merger on obtaining additional sources of financing; the challenges of combining the two banks generally, including the likelihood of a successful integration of the companies and differences in cultures and business management philosophies, and Sierra Bancorp's past experience in this regard;

the ability of both institutions to complete the merger and the likelihood of receiving necessary regulatory approvals in a timely manner;

- the possible effects on Coast Bancorp should the parties fail to complete the merger; and that Coast Bancorp officers and directors may have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of Beneficiaries. See “Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger,” below.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Board of Directors of Coast Bancorp is not intended to be exhaustive, but does set forth the principal factors considered by the board. Based on the factors described above, the Board of Directors of Coast Bancorp determined that the merger with Sierra Bancorp would be advisable and in the best interests of Coast Bancorp and its shareholders and approved the merger agreement and related transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. In view of the wide variety and complexity of factors considered by the Board of Directors of Coast Bancorp in connection with its evaluation of the merger, the board did not consider it practical, and did not attempt, to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision and did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any factor, was favorable or unfavorable to the ultimate determination of the board. Rather, the Board of Directors of Coast Bancorp made its recommendation based on the totality of information presented to, and the investigation conducted by, it. In considering the factors discussed above, individual directors may have given different weights to different factors.

All of Coast Bancorp’s directors, except for director Gersack who abstained due to a conflict of interest, approved the merger agreement and recommend that Coast’s shareholders vote “FOR” approval of the principal terms of the merger agreement and the merger.

Opinion of Coast Bancorp’s Financial Advisor

Coast Bancorp’s board of directors retained Vining Sparks IBG, L.P., which we sometimes refer to as Vining Sparks, to render financial advisory and investment banking services. Vining Sparks is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial expertise in transactions similar to the proposed transaction and is familiar with Coast Bancorp and its business. As part of its investment banking business, Vining Sparks is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial services companies and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes.

On January 4, 2016, Vining Sparks delivered its opinion to Coast Bancorp that the merger consideration to be received by Coast Bancorp common shareholders in the proposed transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to Coast Bancorp’s common shareholders. The full text of Vining Sparks’ opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus and should be read in its entirety.

Vining Sparks’ opinion was directed to Coast Bancorp’s board of directors and is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by Coast Bancorp common shareholders in the proposed transaction. It did not address Coast Bancorp's underlying business decision to proceed with the proposed transaction or constitute a recommendation to the Coast Bancorp board of directors as to how it should vote on the merger, and does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Coast Bancorp common stock as to how such shareholder should vote in connection with the merger.

For purposes of Vining Sparks' opinion and in connection with its review of the proposed transaction, Vining Sparks has, among other things:

- reviewed the terms of the most recent draft of the merger agreement made available to Vining Sparks;
- reviewed certain publicly available financial statements, both audited (where available) and un-audited, and related financial information of Coast Bancorp and Sierra Bancorp, including those included in their respective annual reports for the past two years and their respective quarterly reports for the past two years;
- reviewed certain internal financial information and financial forecasts relating to the business, earnings, cash flows, assets and prospects of Coast Bancorp furnished to them by Coast Bancorp management;

· reviewed the publicly available consensus "street estimates" of Sierra Bancorp for 2015 through 2017, which information was discussed with Sierra Bancorp's management and used and relied upon by Vining Sparks, without independent verification, at the direction of such management with the consent of the Sierra Bancorp board of directors;

- held discussions with members of executive and senior management of Coast Bancorp and Sierra Bancorp concerning the past and current results of operations of Coast Bancorp and Sierra Bancorp, their respective current financial condition and managements' opinion of their respective future prospects;

- reviewed reported market prices and historical trading activity of Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp common stock;
- reviewed certain aspects of the financial performance of Sierra Bancorp and compared such financial performance of Sierra Bancorp, with stock market data relating to Sierra Bancorp common stock, with similar data available for certain other financial institutions the securities of which are publicly traded;
- reviewed the financial terms of merger and acquisition transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving financial institutions and financial institution holding companies that Vining Sparks deemed to be relevant;
- reviewed the pro form financial impact of the merger on Coast Bancorp; and
- reviewed such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations, as Vining Sparks considered appropriate under the circumstances.

In conducting its review and arriving at its opinion, Vining Sparks has assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that has been provided to it by Coast Bancorp and Sierra Bancorp, and their respective representatives, and of the publicly available information that was reviewed by Vining Sparks. Vining Sparks is not an expert in the evaluation of the adequacy of allowances for loan losses and it did not independently verify the adequacy of such allowances. Vining Sparks assumed that the allowance for loan losses set forth in the financial statements of Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp were adequate to cover such losses and complied fully with applicable law, regulatory policy and sound banking practice as of the date of such financial statements. Vining Sparks did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of Coast Bancorp or Sierra Bancorp, did not make any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets, liabilities or prospects of Coast Bancorp or Sierra Bancorp, were not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal, and did not review any individual credit files.

Vining Sparks relied upon the management of Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp as to the reasonableness of the financial and operating forecasts, and projections (and the assumptions and bases therefore) provided to or reviewed by Vining Sparks, and Vining Sparks assumed that such forecasts and projections reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp management. Coast Bancorp and Sierra Bancorp do not publicly disclose internal management forecasts, projections or estimates of the type furnished to or reviewed by Vining Sparks in connection with its analysis of the financial terms of the proposed transaction, and such forecasts and estimates were not prepared with a view towards public disclosure. These forecasts and estimates were based on numerous variables and assumptions which are inherently uncertain and which may not be within the control of the management of Coast Bancorp or Sierra Bancorp, including without limitation to, the general economic, regulatory and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary materially from those set forth in such forecasts and estimates.

Vining Sparks' opinion is necessarily based on economic, market, and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date of its opinion. Events occurring after the date thereof, including but not limited to, changes affecting the securities markets, the results of operations or material changes in the assets or liabilities of Sierra Bancorp or Coast Bancorp could materially affect the assumptions used in preparing the opinion. Vining Sparks assumed that there were no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of either Coast Bancorp or Sierra Bancorp since the date of the last financial statements of each such entity were made available to Vining Sparks. Vining Sparks assumed that all of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to such agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in the merger agreement are not waived.

In delivering its opinion to the board of directors of Coast Bancorp, Vining Sparks prepared and delivered to Coast Bancorp's board of directors written materials containing various analyses and other information. The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Vining Sparks in connection with the preparation of its opinion and does not purport to be a complete description of all the analyses performed by Vining Sparks. The summary includes information presented in tabular format, which should be read together with the text that accompanies those tables. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, an opinion is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Vining Sparks believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of such analyses and the factors considered therein, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the analyses and the processes underlying its opinion. In its analyses, Vining Sparks made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Coast Bancorp and Vining Sparks. Any estimates contained in Vining Sparks' analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than such estimates. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold.

Summary of Proposal. Vining Sparks reviewed the financial terms of the proposed transaction. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Coast Bancorp shareholders will receive aggregate cash consideration equal to $3,176,371, plus aggregate stock consideration of 581,753 shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock.

Based on cash consideration of $3,176,371 and based on a stock price of $17.65 per share for Sierra Bancorp (based on the closing price on December 31, 2015), the aggregate merger consideration would equal $13,444,311 or $2.38 per share. A per share purchase price of $2.38 represents a price to September 30, 2015 equity of 1.30x, a price to tangible equity of 1.32x, a price to estimated 2015 core earnings of 44.86x, a price to September 30, 2015 assets of 9.18% and a tangible premium on core deposits at September 30, 2015 of 2.89%.

Sierra Bancorp Selected Company Analysis. Vining Sparks used publicly available information to compare selected financial information for Sierra Bancorp and a selected group of financial institutions. The Sierra Bancorp peer group consisted of publicly traded California banks with total assets between $1 billion and $3 billion, excluding merger targets. While Vining Sparks believes that the banks listed below are similar to Sierra Bancorp, none of these banks have the same composition, operations, size or financial profile as Sierra Bancorp.

Vining Sparks reviewed the multiples of transaction value to stated book value, transaction value to tangible book, transaction value to last twelve months earnings, transaction value to assets and tangible book premium to core deposits and calculated high, low, mean and median multiples for the Comparable Transactions. The median multiples were then applied to Coast Bancorp’s balance sheet information as of September 30, 2015, earnings for 2014 and estimated core earnings for 2015, to derive an implied range of values of Coast Bancorp. The following table sets forth the median multiples as well as the implied values based upon those median multiples.

	Comparable Transaction Median Multiple		Implied Value (Per Share)
Transaction Value / Book Value	1.20	x	$ 2.20
Transaction Value / Tangible Book Value	1.23	x	$ 2.21
Transaction Value / 2014 Earnings	40.72	x	$ 2.04
Transaction Value / Estimated 2015 Core Earnings	40.72	x	$ 2.16
Transaction Value / Total Assets	14.01	%	$ 3.63
Tangible Premium / Core Deposits	4.56	%	$ 2.72

The transaction value of $2.38 per share is within the range of implied values computed in using the Comparable Transactions, which supports the fairness of the transaction.

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to Coast Bancorp or the proposed transaction. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not strictly mathematical. An analysis of the results of the foregoing involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of Coast Bancorp and the companies included in the Comparable Transactions.

Present Value Analysis. Vining Sparks calculated the present value of theoretical future earnings of Coast Bancorp and compared the transaction value to the calculated present value of Coast Bancorp's common stock on a stand-alone basis. Based on projected earnings for Coast Bancorp for 2016 through 2020, a discount rate of 14%, and including a residual value, the stand-alone present value of Coast Bancorp equaled $1.97 per share. The transaction value of $2.38 per share is above this value, which supports the fairness of the transaction.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Using a discounted cash flow analysis, Vining Sparks estimated the net present value of the future streams of after-tax cash flow that Coast Bancorp could produce to benefit a potential acquirer, referred to as dividendable net income, and added a terminal value. Based on projected earnings for Coast Bancorp for 2016 through 2020, Vining Sparks assumed after-tax distributions to a potential acquirer such that its tier 1 leverage ratio would be maintained at 8.00%. The terminal value for Coast Bancorp was calculated based on Coast Bancorp's projected 2020 equity, the median price to book multiple paid in the Comparable Transactions and utilized discount rate of 14%. This discounted cash flow analysis indicated an implied value of $1.90 per share. The transaction value of $2.38 per share is above this value, which supports the fairness of the transaction.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Vining Sparks performed a pro forma merger analysis to calculate the financial implications of the merger to Coast Bancorp shareholders. This analysis assumed, among other things, the terms of the transaction as indicated above, that the merger closes at April 30, 2016 and cost savings and revenue enhancement opportunities of $1.2 million in 2016 and $2.0 million in 2017. This analysis utilized earnings estimates of $1.31 per share in 2016 and $1.35 per share in 2017 for Sierra Bancorp and $0.11 per share and $0.16 per share, respectively, for Coast Bancorp. This analysis indicated that the merger would be accretive to Coast Bancorp's projected earnings per share and accretive to Coast Bancorp's tangible book value per share in 2016 and 2017.

In the two years prior to the issuance of this opinion, Vining Sparks has not had a material relationship with Sierra Bancorp where compensation was received or that it contemplates will be received after closing of the transaction. In the two years prior to the issuance of this opinion, Vining Sparks engaged in securities and loan sales and trading activity with Coast and/or its subsidiary bank for which Vining Sparks was paid commissions or other fees, which may include mark-ups on the purchase or sale of loans and securities. Pursuant to the terms of an engagement letter with Coast Bancorp, Vining Sparks will receive a fee of $20,000 plus expenses up to $1,000 upon delivery of its opinion. Vining Sparks' fee is not contingent upon consummation of the proposed transaction. In addition, Coast Bancorp has agreed to indemnify Vining Sparks against certain liabilities and expenses arising out of or incurred in connection with its engagement, including liabilities and expenses which may arise under the federal securities laws.

Board of Directors, Management and Operations After the Merger

At the effective time of the merger, Coast Bancorp will merge with and into Sierra Bancorp. As a result, Coast Bancorp will cease to exist as a separate entity, and all of its assets, liabilities and operations will be held and managed by Sierra Bancorp as the surviving entity in the merger. Coast Bancorp's directors will cease to hold board positions at the effective time of the merger. Sierra Bancorp's board of directors and principal executive officers will not change as result of the merger.

At the effective time of the bank merger, Coast National Bank will merge with and into Bank of the Sierra. As a result, Coast National Bank will cease to exist as a separate bank, and all of its assets, liabilities and operations will be held and managed by Bank of the Sierra as the surviving bank. Pursuant to Section 4888 of the California Financial Code, at the close of the bank merger, all banking offices and, subject to regulatory approval, the loan production office of Coast National Bank, will become branch banking offices of Bank of the Sierra, and all safe deposit, deposit and loan customers of Coast National Bank will, by operation of law, become customers of Bank of the Sierra. Coast National Bank's directors will cease to hold board positions at the effective time of the bank merger. Bank of the Sierra's board of directors and principal executive officers will not change as result of the bank merger.

Director and Executive Officer Voting, Non-Solicitation and Non-Competition Agreements

In connection with entering into the merger agreement, Sierra Bancorp entered into a voting, non-competition and non-solicitation agreement with each of the current directors of Coast Bancorp, which we refer to collectively as the director voting agreements. Also in connection with the merger agreement, Sierra Bancorp entered into a voting and non-solicitation agreement with Anita M. Robinson, Paul Cable and Brent Morgan, each of whom is an executive officer of Coast Bancorp, which we refer to collectively as the officer voting agreements and, collectively with the director voting agreements, the voting agreements. The following summary of the director and officer voting agreements is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the form of director and officer agreements attached as Exhibits A and B, respectively, to the merger agreement which is appended to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

Pursuant to the voting agreements, each shareholder party to a voting agreement agreed to vote his or her shares of Coast Bancorp common stock:

- in favor of approval of the merger agreement;
- in favor of each of the other actions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- in favor of any proposal to adjourn or postpone any shareholder meeting to a later date if there are not sufficient votes for approval of the merger agreement on the date on which such shareholder meeting is held;
- in favor of any action in furtherance of any of the foregoing;
- against any action or agreement that is intended, or could be reasonably expected to, result in a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or obligation of Coast Bancorp in the merger agreement or impair the ability of Coast Bancorp to complete the merger or that would otherwise be inconsistent with, prevent, impede or delay the completion of the merger;
- against any agreement, transaction or proposal that relates to an acquisition proposal or alternative transaction, other than the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and
- against any reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution or liquidation of Coast Bancorp or any of its subsidiaries or any amendment or other change in its governing documents, except to the extent specifically provided in the merger agreement or approved in writing by Sierra Bancorp.

The voting agreements provide that each shareholder party to a voting agreement will not, other than pursuant to the merger, directly or indirectly:

- sell (including short sell), transfer, pledge, assign, tender, encumber, grant a participation interest in, hypothecate or otherwise dispose of (including by gift) any of such shareholder's shares of Coast Bancorp common stock; or
- enter into any contract or understanding providing for any action described in the preceding bullet.

In addition, the director voting agreements provide that the director shall not, for a period of 18 months after the effective time of the merger :

solicit the banking business of any Coast Bancorp customer; acquire, charter, operate or enter into any management agreement with any financial institution located in Tulare, Kern, Fresno, Kings, San Luis Obispo or Ventura counties, or in the cities of Santa Clarita or Valencia, California; or hire, recruit or discuss employment with any person who was a Coast Bancorp employee in the six months prior to the date of the merger agreement.

The director voting agreements do not require any director to divest any passive interest in a covered financial institution, refrain from becoming a shareholder of no more than 24.9% of any covered financial institution, resign from any board position held as of the date of merger agreement, refrain from providing investment banking, financial advisory or acting as a placement agent or underwriter for any covered financial institution, or acting as an asset manager, receiver, trustee or similar asset management business, provided the director is currently engaged in that business.

In addition, the officer voting agreements provide that for a period of one year after the executive ceases to be employed by Coast Bancorp or Sierra Bancorp, the executive will not hire, recruit or discuss employment with any person who was a Coast Bancorp or Sierra Bancorp employee in the three months prior to such executive's termination date.

Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger

Coast Bancorp executive officers and directors who are also shareholders of Coast Bancorp will participate as shareholders in the merger consideration in the same manner and to the same extent as all of the other shareholders of Coast Bancorp. However, in considering the recommendation of the Coast Bancorp board of directors that shareholders vote in favor of approving the merger agreement, shareholders should be aware that Coast Bancorp executive officers and directors may have interests in the merger as individuals that are in addition to, or different from, their interests as shareholders of Coast Bancorp generally. The Coast Bancorp board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement. These interests are detailed below.

Protection of Directors, Officers and Employees Against Claims

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Sierra Bancorp has agreed to maintain and preserve the indemnification rights of Coast Bancorp directors and officers after the completion of the merger as provided in Coast Bancorp's articles of incorporation and bylaws as in effect as of the date of the merger agreement. Sierra Bancorp has also agreed to allow Coast Bancorp to purchase "tail coverage" for a period of six years in order to continue providing liability insurance, including directors' and officers' liability insurance, to the officers and directors of Coast Bancorp, subject to certain cost limits.

Change in Control Payments

Because the merger will constitute a "change in control" of Coast Bancorp, Anita M. Robinson, President and Chief Executive Officer of Coast Bancorp, will be entitled to change in control payments under the terms of her employment agreement. Specifically, Ms. Robinson will be entitled to change in control payments equal to the sum of 18 months' base salary plus an average bonus amount. In addition Ms. Robinson will be entitled to the continuation of her medical benefits for a period of 12 months, if applicable. The aggregate change in control payment for Ms. Robinson will be $375,000.

Retention Incentives

Coast Bancorp has adopted a retention plan pursuant to which it has offered retention incentives to, among other employees, Paul Cable and Brent Morgan in the amount of $30,000 each, to encourage them to remain employed with Coast Bancorp in order satisfy a condition to the completion of the merger and to remain employed with Sierra Bancorp and/or Bank of the Sierra after the merger closes and the conversion of the general ledger systems has been completed. Other than Messrs. Cable and Morgan, no other director and/or executive officer of Coast Bancorp will be entitled to any retention incentives under the new retention plan.

Sierra Bancorp has entered into a letter of intent with Ms. Robison pursuant to which, subject to and effective as of the closing of the merger, she will be hired as Market President of Bank of the Sierra for the San Luis Obispo area. In this capacity, Ms. Robinson will be responsible for the overall conduct of activities at all the branches located in the San Luis Obispo County area and will oversee the management of the current loan portfolios at the branches and develop new business in the area. Ms. Robinson will be paid an annual salary of $170,000. In addition, she will be eligible to receive a discretionary bonus equal 30% of her base salary, based upon bank performance, area performance, and her personal performance in 2016, four weeks' vacation and health and welfare benefits. Ms. Robinson is also entitled to reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of her duties.

Retention of FIG Partners, LLC

Coast Bancorp director Greg Gersack is a principal in the national investment banking firm of FIG Partners, LLC. FIG Partners, LLC, was approved to act as one of Coast Bancorp's financial advisors in connection with this transaction, with Mr. Gersack abstaining from the vote to engage such firm. When this transaction closes, FIG Partners, LLC, shall be entitled to receive a success fee in the amount of $130,000.

Stock Options

Coast Bancorp has previously granted stock options to certain executive officers and directors under its 2014 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended. All such stock options are now fully vested as a result of Coast Bancorp notifying option holders that the Coast Bancorp board had approved the merger agreement and merger. Directors and executive officers of Coast Bancorp hold, in the aggregate, options to purchase 292,000 shares of Coast Bancorp common stock. Holders of in-the-money Coast Bancorp stock options who do not exercise their options prior to the merger will receive $2.25 minus the exercise price per share with respect to the corresponding Coast Bancorp stock option.

The following sets forth the amount of cash that each Coast Bancorp director and executive officer holding Coast Bancorp stock options would receive in the merger, if not exercised:

Name	Position	Stock Options	Exercise Price	Cash Consideration for Stock Options
Evans, Robb	Director	30,000	$ 1.43	$ 24,600.00
Gersack, Gregory	Director	20,000	$ 1.43	$ 16,400.00

Wixom, Dan	Director	16,000	$ 1.43	$ 13,120.00
Karmin, Kenneth	Director	20,000	$ 1.43	$ 16,400.00

Robinson, Anita	President and CEO	100,000	$ 1.43	$ 82,000.00

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

Sierra Bancorp will account for the merger using the acquisition method of accounting for financial reporting purposes, which follows accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under this method, Sierra Bancorp will recognize Coast Bancorp's assets acquired and liabilities assumed based upon their estimated fair values as of the date Sierra Bancorp obtains control of Coast Bancorp, which is expected to be upon completion of the merger. Deferred tax assets and liabilities will be established for the difference between the tax basis of the assets and liabilities and their basis under the acquisition method. The excess, if any, of the total purchase consideration over the net assets acquired will be recognized as goodwill and periodically evaluated for impairment. Sierra Bancorp's financial statements issued after completion of the merger will reflect these values, but historical data are not restated retroactively to reflect the combined historical financial position or results of operations of Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp.

Shareholder Approval

The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock outstanding as of the record date for the special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Each holder of shares of Coast Bancorp stock outstanding on the record date for the special meeting will be entitled to one vote for each share held. As of May 2, 2016, the record date for the special meeting, there were 5,646,881 shares of Coast Bancorp common stock outstanding. Therefore, at least 2,823,441 shares of Coast Bancorp common stock must be affirmatively voted in favor of the merger agreement in order for Coast Bancorp shareholders to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against approval of the merger agreement.

Dissenters' Rights of Coast Bancorp Shareholders

The holders of Coast Bancorp common stock will be given the opportunity to exercise dissenters' rights in accordance with certain procedures specified in Chapter 13 of the CGCL. Please note that the description below does not purport to be a complete statement of the law relating to dissenters' rights and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Sections 1300, 1301, 1302, 1303 and 1304 of the CGCL, which sections are attached hereto as Appendix B and incorporated herein by reference.

Holders of Coast Bancorp stock who do not vote in favor of the merger may demand, in accordance with Chapter 13 of the CGCL, that Coast Bancorp acquire their shares for cash at their fair market value as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger.

If dissenters' rights are perfected and exercised with respect to more than ten percent (10%) of Coast Bancorp's outstanding shares as of the record date, then Sierra Bancorp has the option to terminate the merger agreement. Please see "PROPOSAL NO. 1 - THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER - Conditions to Sierra Bancorp's Obligations Under the Merger Agreement" beginning on page 55.

Submit a Written Demand

In order to exercise dissenters' rights, a Coast Bancorp shareholder must not vote in favor of the merger agreement and must make a written demand that Coast Bancorp purchase his or her shares in cash for the fair market value and have the demand received by Coast Bancorp within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein is mailed to the shareholder. The written demand must state the number of shares held of record by such Coast Bancorp shareholder for which demand for purchase for cash is being made and must contain a statement of the amount which such Coast Bancorp shareholder claims to be the fair market value of the shares as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger. That statement will constitute an offer by the Coast Bancorp shareholder to sell his or her shares to Coast Bancorp at that price. Once submitted, a Coast Bancorp shareholder may not withdraw such demand unless Coast Bancorp consents thereto.

Surrender Stock Certificates

Thereafter, in order to perfect dissenters' rights, a Coast Bancorp shareholder must also deliver his or her share certificate(s) for receipt by Coast Bancorp within 30 days after the date on which notice of the closing of the merger was mailed. Coast Bancorp will stamp or endorse the certificate(s) with a statement that the shares are dissenting shares and return the certificate(s) to such Coast Bancorp shareholder.

Any demands, notices, certificates or other documents delivered to Coast Bancorp in connection with the exercise of dissenters' rights should be sent to Sierra Bancorp, Attention: Diane L. Renois, 86 Main Street, Porterville, CA 93257, telephone: (559) 782-4900.

Determination of Value of Coast Bancorp Common Stock

The purchase price for the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock that dissent to the merger agreement will be the fair market value for such shares as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger. The board of directors of Coast Bancorp has determined that the fair market value of a share of Coast Bancorp common stock as of January 4, 2016 and immediately prior to the first public announcement of the merger was $1.75. If there is a disagreement between the shareholder and Coast Bancorp regarding the proposed purchase price or if Coast Bancorp denies that such shares constitute dissenting shares, the shareholder and Coast Bancorp each have the right, for six (6) months following the date on which notice of the closing of the merger was mailed, to file a lawsuit in the Superior Court of the County of San Luis Obispo to have the fair market value determined by a court or to determine whether such shares are dissenting shares or both, as the case may be.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

Sierra and Coast Bancorp have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals include approval from the Federal Reserve, the CDBO and the FDIC. Sierra and Coast Bancorp have filed the applications to obtain the required regulatory approvals. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, Sierra had received the required regulatory approvals of the merger from the FDIC and FRB, but the application for approval by the CDBO was still pending. While we do not know of any reason that we would not be able to obtain the approval of the CDBO, we cannot be certain when or if we will obtain it. The approval by our regulators does not constitute an endorsement of the merger or a determination that the terms of the merger are fair to Coast shareholders.

Federal Reserve. The transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are subject to approval by the Federal Reserve pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, which we refer to as the “BHC Act.” Sierra has submitted an application pursuant to the BHC Act and Regulation Y seeking the prior approval of the Federal Reserve Board for Coast Bancorp to merge with and into Sierra Bancorp. The Federal Reserve Board takes into consideration a number of factors when acting on such applications. These factors include the financial and managerial resources (including consideration of the competence, experience, and integrity of the officers, directors, and principal shareholders, as well as the pro forma capital ratios) and future prospects of the combined organization. The Federal Reserve Board also considers the effectiveness of the applicant in combatting money laundering, the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, as well as the extent to which the proposal would result in greater or more concentrated risks to the stability of the U.S. banking or financial system. The Federal Reserve Board may not approve a proposal that would have significant adverse effects on competition or on the concentration of resources in any banking market.

FDIC Approval. The merger of Coast National Bank with and into Bank of the Sierra is subject to approval by the FDIC pursuant to the Bank Merger Act. Bank of the Sierra has submitted an application pursuant to the Bank Merger Act seeking the prior approval of the FDIC for Coast National Bank to merge with and into Bank of the Sierra. The FDIC takes into consideration a number of factors when acting on applications under the Bank Merger Act. These factors include the financial and managerial resources (including consideration of the competence, experience, and integrity of the officers, directors, and principal shareholders) and future prospects of the combined organization. The FDIC also considers the effectiveness of the applicant in combatting money laundering, the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, as well as the extent to which the proposal would result in greater or more concentrated risks to the stability of the U.S. banking or financial system. The FDIC may not approve a proposal that would have significant adverse effects on competition or on the concentration of resources in any banking market.

In reviewing the convenience and needs of the communities to be serviced, the Federal Reserve and the FDIC will consider the records of performance of the relevant insured depository institutions under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, which we refer to as the “CRA.” Furthermore, the Bank Merger Act, the BHC Act and applicable regulations require published notice of, and the opportunity for public comment on, these applications. The Federal Reserve and the FDIC take into account the views of third party commenters, particularly on the subject of the merging parties' service to their respective communities, and any comments provided by third parties could prolong the period during which the applications are under review by the Federal Reserve and the FDIC.

CDBO. The prior approval of the CDBO will be required under the California Financial Code to merge Coast National Bank with and into Bank of the Sierra. In reviewing the merger of Coast National Bank with Bank of the Sierra, the CDBO will take competitive considerations into account, as well as capital adequacy, quality of management and earnings prospects, in terms of both quality and quantity. The CDBO will also take into account the record of performance of the companies and depository institutions concerned in meeting the credit needs of the entire community, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods, served by such companies and depository institutions. The CDBO will take into account CRA ratings when considering approval of the proposed transaction. In considering the merger, the California Financial Code also requires the CDBO to determine that the proposed transaction is fair, just and equitable to the bank being acquired or to its depositors, creditors or shareholders.

Waiting Period. Under federal banking laws, a 30-day waiting period must expire following the Federal Reserve's or the FDIC's approval of the merger. Within that 30-day waiting period, the U.S. Department of Justice may file objections to the merger under federal antitrust laws. This 30-day waiting period may be shortened to not less than 15 days. Until the expiration of the applicable waiting period, the U.S. Department of Justice could take such action under antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the merger unless divestiture of an acceptable number of branches to a competitively suitable purchaser can be made. If the U.S. Department of Justice commences an action challenging the merger on antitrust grounds during the applicable waiting period, commencement of that action would stay the effectiveness of the regulatory approvals, unless a court of competent jurisdiction specifically orders otherwise. The merger cannot proceed until the expiration of the statutory waiting period.

We cannot assure you that all of the regulatory approvals described above will be obtained and, if obtained, we cannot assure you as to the timing of such approvals, our ability to obtain the approvals on satisfactory terms, or the absence of litigation challenging such approvals. We also cannot assure you that the DOJ will not attempt to challenge the transactions on antitrust grounds or for other reasons and, if such a challenge is made, we cannot assure you as to its result. The parties' obligation to complete the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of all required regulatory approvals.

Nasdaq Listing

Sierra Bancorp has agreed in the merger agreement to use its commercially reasonable efforts to list the shares to be issued in the merger on the Nasdaq Global Select Market prior to the effective time of the merger.

Resale of Sierra Bancorp Common Stock

Sierra Bancorp has registered its common stock to be issued in the merger with the SEC under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. No restrictions on the sale or other transfer of Sierra Bancorp' common stock issued in the merger will be imposed solely as a result of the merger, except for restrictions on the transfer of Sierra Bancorp common stock issued to any Coast Bancorp shareholder who may become an "affiliate" of Sierra Bancorp for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. The term "affiliate" is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act and generally includes executive officers, directors and shareholders beneficially owning 10% or more of the outstanding Sierra Bancorp common stock.

Exchange of Certificates

Surrender of Shares

No later than five business days after the effective time, Computershare will mail each shareholder of record at the effective time, a customary transmittal letter and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of certificates representing the shareholders of Coast Bancorp shares. As of the effective time, there will be no further transfers on the stock transfer books of Coast Bancorp of any shares of Coast Bancorp common stock. If certificates representing shares of Coast Bancorp common stock are presented to Sierra for any reason after the completion of the merger, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration into which the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock represented by those certificates shall have been converted.

All shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock issued to shareholders of Coast Bancorp in the merger will be deemed issued as of the effective time of the merger, but until Coast Bancorp stock certificates are surrendered for exchange, a shareholder will not receive any dividends or other distributions that may be declared after the effective time with respect to the shares of Sierra common stock into which the Coast Bancorp shares may have been converted. Such dividends or other distributions will accrue, however, and when the Coast Bancorp certificates are surrendered, Sierra will pay any such unpaid dividends or other distributions, as well as any cash into which any of the shares may have been converted, without interest.

The Exchange Agent

The parties have agreed that Sierra Bancorp shall designate Computershare, or another person reasonably acceptable to Coast Bancorp, to act as exchange agent in the merger with respect to the payment of the merger consideration to Coast Bancorp shareholders.

At any time following the six-month anniversary of the effective time, Sierra will be entitled to require the exchange agent to deliver to it any portion of the merger consideration not disbursed to shareholders of Coast Bancorp common stock, and thereafter such holders shall be entitled to look only to Sierra (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar laws) as general creditors with respect to the merger consideration payable upon due surrender of their Coast Bancorp common stock, without interest. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Sierra nor the exchange agent will be liable to any Coast Bancorp shareholder for merger consideration delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

If your certificate for shares of Coast Bancorp common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, please contact Coast Bancorp's transfer agent, Broadridge Shareholder Services, at 877-830-4933 for a replacement certificate.

After the merger, if any certificate for Coast Bancorp common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent or Sierra Bancorp, as applicable, will issue the merger consideration to the holder of such certificate upon the making of an affidavit of such fact by such holder, provided that the exchange agent, in its reasonable discretion and as a condition to such payment, may require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate to deliver a customary indemnity agreement or provide a bond in a customary amount.

Rights of Holders of Coast Bancorp Stock Certificates Until Surrender

If a dividend or other distribution on Sierra Bancorp common stock is declared by Sierra Bancorp with a record date after the effective time of the merger, you will not receive that dividend or distribution until you surrender your Coast Bancorp stock certificate(s). If your stock certificates are lost or destroyed, you must submit documentation to the exchange agent that is acceptable to Sierra Bancorp and to the exchange agent of your ownership of Coast Bancorp stock. Agreements of Coast Bancorp Relating to Alternative Acquisition Proposals

Coast Bancorp has agreed not to (i) solicit, initiate, endorse, encourage or facilitate any inquiry, proposal or offer with respect to, or the making or completion of, any “acquisition proposal,” or any inquiry, proposal or offer that is reasonably likely to lead to any acquisition proposal; (ii) engage in any discussions or negotiations with or provide any nonpublic information to any person concerning an acquisition proposal, or knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an acquisition proposal, or (iii) approve, endorse or recommend (including by resolution or otherwise of the Coast Bancorp board), or propose to approve, endorse or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, memorandum of understanding, term sheet, merger agreement, asset purchase, share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement (whether binding or not) related to any acquisition proposal (other than an acceptable confidentiality agreement) or (iv) propose or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, an “acquisition proposal” means any inquiry, proposal or offer with respect to any transaction contemplating a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Coast Bancorp or any purchase or sale of 10% or more of its consolidated assets taken as a whole, or any purchase or sale of, or tender or exchange offer for, its voting securities that, if consummated, would result in any person (or the shareholders of such person) beneficially owning securities representing 10% or more of its total voting power (or of the surviving parent entity in such transaction).

Coast Bancorp may, prior to obtaining shareholder approval of the merger agreement and the merger, engage in discussions or negotiations with, and provide confidential information to, a person who has submitted an acquisition proposal only if the Coast Bancorp board determines, after consultation with outside counsel and its financial advisors that the acquisition proposal is likely to lead to a “superior proposal.” In such case, Coast Bancorp must enter into a confidentiality agreement that is at least as restrictive as the one entered into with Sierra Bancorp in connection with the merger and provide Sierra Bancorp with prior notice before engaging in such discussions or negotiations, or providing such confidential information, and thereafter must keep Sierra Bancorp informed on a current basis of the status of such discussions and negotiations. Coast Bancorp must notify Sierra Bancorp promptly upon receiving any acquisition proposal, inquiry or request for information, including the identity of the third party and the material terms and conditions of any expressions of interest, offers, proposals, request or inquiries.

Coast Bancorp’s board is not permitted to withdraw, modify, amend or qualify its recommendation in a manner adverse to Sierra Bancorp; adopt a resolution to that effect; publicly announce its intention to do so; approve, endorse or recommend any acquisition proposal with respect to Coast Bancorp, or cause, authorize or permit Coast Bancorp to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement-in-principle, merger agreement, asset purchase or share exchange agreement, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement relating to any acquisition proposal except a confidentiality agreement that is at least as restrictive as that entered into with Sierra Bancorp or a definitive agreement providing for a superior proposal; or publicly propose or announce an intention to do so.

Notwithstanding the agreements set forth in the preceding paragraph, the Coast Bancorp board may, prior to receiving shareholder approval of the merger agreement and the merger proposal, change its recommendation that the shareholders approve the merger agreement and merger proposal if it determines in good faith and after consulting with its outside attorneys and financial advisor, that it would be a breach of its fiduciary duties if it were not to do so, which we refer to as a “change in recommendation.”

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, the Coast Bancorp board may not make a change in recommendation (and may not terminate the merger agreement in the case of a “superior proposal”), unless: (A) an unsolicited, bona fide written offer to effect an acquisition proposal is made to Coast Bancorp; (B) the unsolicited, bona fide, written offer was not obtained or made in violation of Coast Bancorp’s non-solicitation obligations; (C) Coast Bancorp has complied in all material respects with its obligations to notify Sierra Bancorp regarding any acquisition proposal; (D) Coast Bancorp notifies Sierra Bancorp at least three business days in advance of any intended board meeting at which the board of directors intends to consider and determine whether to make a change in recommendation, including the date and time, reasons and material terms and conditions of the acquisition proposal being considered, and the identity of the person making the competing offer; (E) Coast Bancorp permits Sierra Bancorp the opportunity engage in good faith negotiations to amend the merger agreement in order to match the competing proposal; (F) after such negotiations, the Coast Bancorp board nevertheless concludes that the alternative proposal is a superior proposal and that the failure to make a change in recommendation would constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties to its shareholders under applicable law, and Coast Bancorp thereafter enters into a definitive agreement for the superior proposal and concurrently terminates the merger agreement and pays Sierra Bancorp a termination fee of $700,000.

A “superior proposal” is defined in the merger agreement to mean an unsolicited, bona fide written acquisition proposal for 100% of the Coast Bancorp common stock, which the Coast Bancorp board concludes in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel or its financial advisor, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of such acquisition proposal and the person making such acquisition proposal (including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation), (i) is more favorable to the shareholders of Coast Bancorp, from a financial point of view, than the transactions contemplated by this agreement, and (ii) in the case of any acquisition proposal contemplating cash consideration, is not subject to any financing contingencies, and (iii) is reasonably likely to receive all required governmental approvals on a timely basis and otherwise reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed without unreasonable delay in relation to what is customary for a transaction of the nature so proposed.

- not pay any dividends or distributions on its common stock other than customary quarterly dividends in like kind and amounts, and stock buybacks consistent with past practice.

Termination; Effect of Termination

The obligations of the parties to consummate the merger are subject to certain closing conditions, some of which may not be waived by a party, including but not limited to the receipt of all required shareholder and regulatory approvals and other governmental consents, and some conditions which may be waived by a party in its discretion. The failure of a condition to the closing of the merger, to the extent not waived, may result in a termination of the merger agreement and the merger. For a more detailed discussion of the conditions to the closing of the merger, please see “PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Conditions to Both Parties’ Obligations Under the Merger Agreement,” “— Conditions to Sierra Bancorp’s Obligations Under the Merger Agreement,” and “— Conditions to Coast Bancorp’s Obligations Under the Merger Agreement.”

Further, the merger agreement permits the parties to terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger: (i) by mutual agreement in writing; (ii) if a governmental entity has denied approval of the merger or the bank merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable, or takes final and nonappealable action to enjoin, restrain or prohibit the merger or the bank merger; or (iii) if the merger is not consummated by May 31, 2016, which date may be extended one or more times, but not to a date any later than July 31, 2016, by notice from either party to the other on or before May 31, 2016 (or the date to which the agreement has been then been most recently extended), if the only condition to the closing that has not been satisfied or is not capable of being satisfied as of the date such notice is delivered is receipt of any required regulatory approval and the satisfaction of such condition remains reasonably possible, as determined by the parties in good faith.

Either party to the merger agreement may terminate the merger agreement if the other party materially breaches any of its representations or warranties or fails to perform any of its covenants or agreements, which breach or failure would result in the failure of a closing condition that has not been (or cannot by its nature be) cured within 30 days following written notice thereof to the breaching party.

Either party may also terminate the merger agreement if any regulator requests the withdrawal of any application or any application is approved with commitments, conditions or understandings, contained in an approval letter or otherwise, which imposes a materially burdensome condition, on Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra, otherwise materially alter the economics of the merger for Sierra Bancorp.

Either party may also terminate the merger agreement if the other party breaches any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in the merger agreement that individually or in the aggregate would result in a material adverse effect on that party, or if such breach continued through the closing date and would cause the failure of a fundamental closing condition that has not been (or cannot by its nature be) cured within 30 days following written notice thereof to the breaching party.

Sierra Bancorp may terminate the merger agreement and merger if Coast Bancorp does not receive the required shareholder vote and one or more Coast Bancorp directors or officers that is a party to a Coast Bancorp support agreement shall have voted their shares against approval of the merger or the merger agreement, or if Coast Bancorp fails to hold its shareholder meeting before April 30, 2016, unless the delay is due to regulatory action or inaction. Sierra Bancorp has agreed to waive its termination right concerning the date of the Coast shareholders' meeting provided the meeting is held on or before June 30, 2016. Sierra Bancorp may also terminate the merger agreement if a material adverse effect shall have occurred with respect to Coast Bancorp.

Sierra Bancorp, upon written notice to Coast Bancorp, may also terminate the merger agreement if (i) the Coast Bancorp board effects a change in recommendation or fails to recommend approval of the merger agreement and the merger; (ii) Coast Bancorp enters into a definitive agreement providing for a superior proposal, (iii) if the Coast Bancorp board of directors fails to unanimously and unqualifiedly reaffirm its recommendation that shareholders approve the merger agreement and merger within two (2) business days (or such longer period of time that the Coast Bancorp board determines in good faith is reasonably necessary to comply with its fiduciary duties) of a written request by Sierra to do so following the date any acquisition proposal or any material change thereto is first publicly announced, published or sent to Coast Bancorp's shareholders; (iv) a tender offer or exchange offer (whether or not conditional) relating to shares of Coast Bancorp's capital stock shall have been commenced and the Coast Bancorp board (or any committee thereof) fails to affirmatively recommend against such tender offer or exchange offer within 10 business days after the commencement of such tender offer or exchange offer, or (v) Coast Bancorp intentionally breaches its non-solicitation obligations.

Coast Bancorp may terminate the merger agreement if it enters into a definitive agreement providing for a superior acquisition proposal prior to the receipt shareholder approval of the merger agreement and merger; provided, it not in breach of the merger agreement. Coast Bancorp may terminate the merger agreement if Sierra enters into any agreement with any that (i) would restrict Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra's ability to comply with any of the terms of the merger agreement, (ii) relates to any acquisition proposal that would materially impair Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra's ability to consummate the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, or (iii) relates to any acquisition proposal, unless such acquisition proposal requires the completion of the merger and payment of the merger consideration to the Coast Bancorp shareholders as provided in the merger agreement prior to completion of any other acquisition proposal respecting Sierra Bancorp.

Coast Bancorp may also terminate the agreement if Sierra Bancorp enters into an agreement for an alternative acquisition that (i) would restrict Bank of the Sierra and/or Sierra Bancorp's ability to comply with any of the terms of the merger agreement, (ii) relates to any acquisition proposal that would materially impair Bank of the Sierra's and/or Sierra Bancorp's ability to consummate the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, or (iii) relates to any acquisition proposal, unless such acquisition proposal requires the completion of the merger and payment of the merger consideration to the Coast Bancorp shareholders as provided in the merger agreement prior to completion of any other acquisition proposal respecting Sierra Bancorp.

Coast Bancorp has agreed to pay a termination fee of $700,000 to Sierra Bancorp if: (i) the merger agreement is terminated by Coast Bancorp in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for a superior acquisition proposal; (ii) Sierra Bancorp terminates the merger agreement due to no Coast Bancorp recommendation; or (iii) any person has made an acquisition proposal, which proposal has been publicly announced, disclosed or proposed and not withdrawn, and (a) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated (I) by either party because the Coast Bancorp shareholders have not approved the merger agreement and merger; or (II) by Sierra Bancorp pursuant to the termination provision for breach provision and (b) within 12 months after such termination of the merger agreement, Coast Bancorp consummates an acquisition proposal or any definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal is entered into (provided that an “acquisition proposal” for this purpose is the acquisition of 50%, rather than 10%, of the total voting power of the surviving entity).

Amendment, Extension and Waiver

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger (whether before or after approval thereof by the shareholders of Coast Bancorp), the board of directors of the parties may: (i) amend the merger agreement, (ii) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of any other party thereto, (iii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant thereto, or (iv) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement; provided, however, that no amendment shall be made without the approval of the shareholders of the parties, if such approval is required by law.

Employee Benefits

Coast Bancorp has adopted, and the board of directors of Bank of the Sierra has approved, a retention and severance plan, which we refer to as the new retention plan, to replace any existing employee severance policies of Coast Bancorp in order to encourage Coast employees to remain employed with Coast Bancorp in order to assist in the successful completion of the merger and to continue to contribute meaningfully to the future success of Sierra Bancorp following the merger. All payments under the new retention plan provide for the execution of an agreement reasonably satisfactory to Sierra Bancorp as a condition to receipt of payments, which shall provide for (i) release of claims, and (ii) confidentiality of information. Employees of Coast Bancorp or Sierra Bancorp who receive retention bonuses under the new retention plan will not be entitled to receive any severance payments unless the parties to the merger agreement shall otherwise mutually agree. See “PROPOSAL NO. 1 The Merger Agreement and The Merger – Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger – Retention Incentives” at page 43 for a description of benefits under the new retention plan for certain executive officers.

In addition, prior to the effective time of the merger, Coast Bancorp will take all action necessary to terminate all other compensation or benefit plan identified by Sierra Bancorp. Termination of any such plans is subject to compliance with applicable law, and will not reduce any benefits already accrued thereunder. Coast Bancorp will accrue any and all obligations with respect to the termination of such plans before the effective time of the merger. The employees of Coast Bancorp who are employed by Bank of the Sierra after the effective time or who are offered and who accept employment with Bank of the Sierra shall be eligible to participate in Bank of the Sierra' employee benefit plans in which, and to the same extent as, similarly situated employees of Bank of the Sierra participate. Former Coast Bancorp employees' service with Coast Bancorp shall be treated as service with Bank of the Sierra for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, vesting and benefits.

Expenses

Except as specifically set forth in the merger agreement, all expenses incurred by Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp in connection with or related to the authorization, preparation and execution of the merger agreement, the solicitation of shareholder approvals and all other matters related to the closing of the transactions contemplated therein, will be borne solely and entirely by the party which incurred such expense.

Closing; Effective Time of the Merger

The closing for the merger will occur on the last day of the month that is a business day following the latest to occur of: (i) the receipt of all regulatory approvals required to complete the merger; (ii) the receipt of all shareholder approvals, (iii) the satisfaction or waiver of all closing conditions, or (iv) the passing of any applicable waiting periods; or at such other date or time upon which the parties hereto will mutually agree. The merger will be effected by the filing of an Agreement of Merger in the form attached as Exhibit A-1 to the merger agreement with the California Secretary of State on the day of the closing in accordance with Section 1200 of the CGCL. The “effective time” of the merger will be the date and time upon which the Agreement of Merger is filed with the California Secretary of State.

The parties are working to complete the merger in July 2016. However, no assurances can be provided as to whether or when the merger will actually close.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

This section describes the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders of Coast Bancorp common stock who exchange shares of Coast Bancorp common stock for shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock, cash, or a combination of shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock and cash pursuant to the merger. For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. holder” is a beneficial owner of Coast Bancorp common stock that for U.S. federal income tax purposes is:

- a citizen or individual resident of the United States;
- a corporation, or an entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof;
- a trust that (1) is subject to (A) the primary supervision of a court within the United States and (B) the authority of one or more United States persons to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person; or
- an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds Coast Bancorp common stock, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. A Coast Bancorp shareholder which is a partnership should consult its tax advisor concerning the tax consequences of the merger.

Coast Bancorp shareholders that are not U.S. holders may have different tax consequences than those described below, and are urged to consult their tax advisors about the tax treatment of the merger to them under U.S. and non-U.S. laws.

This discussion addresses only those Coast Bancorp shareholders that hold their Coast Bancorp common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code, and does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular Coast Bancorp shareholders in light of their individual circumstances or to Coast Bancorp shareholders that are subject to special rules, such as:

- financial institutions;

- pass-through entities or investors in pass-through entities;

- insurance companies;

- tax-exempt organizations;

- dealers in securities;

- traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting;

- persons owning 5% or more of Coast Bancorp common stock or that are affiliates of Coast Bancorp;

- persons that hold Coast Bancorp common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction;

- certain expatriates or persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;

persons who are not U.S. holders; and shareholders who acquired their shares of Coast Bancorp common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan.

In addition, the discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax.

The following discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations, thereunder, and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

The obligation of Sierra Bancorp to complete the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of an opinion from its special tax counsel, Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, to the effect that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Such opinion will be based on certain assumptions and representations as to factual matters by Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp. Sierra Bancorp does not currently intend to waive this opinion condition to its obligation to complete the merger. If Sierra Bancorp does waive this condition, Coast Bancorp shareholders will be informed of this decision prior to being asked to vote on the merger.

The following discussion, subject to the limitations and qualifications described herein, constitutes the opinion of Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP as to the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger applicable to a U.S. holder of Coast Bancorp common stock that exchanges Coast Bancorp common stock in the merger, to the extent such discussion sets forth statements of U.S. federal income tax law or legal conclusions with respect thereto. The opinion of counsel does not address any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger. It is based on certain assumptions and representations as to factual matters by Sierra Bancorp and Coast Bancorp, and cannot be relied upon if any of the assumptions or representations are inaccurate as of the date hereof or the effective time of the merger. In addition, the opinion is based on current law and cannot be relied upon if current law changes with retroactive effect. An opinion of counsel is not binding upon the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, and there is no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service or a court will not take a contrary position. Sierra Bancorp has not requested and does not intend to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger.

A Coast Bancorp shareholder may not necessarily receive cash and/or shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock in the proportion(s) that such shareholder has elected. Accordingly, it will not be possible for holders of Coast Bancorp common stock to determine the specific tax consequences of the merger to them at the time they submit their election form.

Coast Bancorp shareholders are urged to consult their tax advisors as to the particular U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to them, as well as any tax consequences arising under any state, local and non-U.S. tax laws or any other U.S. federal tax laws.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, the following material U.S. federal income tax consequences will result to a U.S. holder of Coast Bancorp common stock that elects to exchange its Coast Bancorp common stock in the merger:

A U.S. holder receiving only cash in the merger will recognize gain or loss, determined separately for each identifiable block of shares of Coast Bancorp common stock (generally, Coast Bancorp common stock acquired at the same cost in a single transaction) exchanged by the U.S. holder in the merger, equal to the difference between the amount of cash received in the merger with respect to such block and the U.S. holder's tax basis in the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock in such block. Such gain or loss generally will be capital gain, and will be long-term capital gain if, as of the effective date of the merger, the applicable shares of Coast Bancorp common stock were held for more than one year (unless the receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, discussed below, as to which U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors).

Ignoring any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Sierra Bancorp common stock (which is discussed below), a U.S. holder receiving only shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock in the merger will not recognize gain or loss in the merger.

A U.S. holder receiving cash and shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock in exchange for each identifiable block of Coast Bancorp common stock exchanged by the U.S. holder in the merger generally will recognize gain (but not loss), in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of cash received with respect to such block, excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Sierra Bancorp common stock (which is discussed below), and (ii) the excess, if any, of (a) the sum of the amount of such cash and the fair market value of the Sierra Bancorp common stock received with respect to such block over (b) the U.S. holder's tax basis in the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock in such block. Any gain recognized generally will be capital gain, and will be long-term capital gain if, as of the effective date of the merger, the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock in such block were held for more than one year, unless the receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, in which case such gain will be treated as dividend income rather than capital gain. The Internal Revenue Service has indicated in rulings that any reduction in the interest of a shareholder that owns a small number of shares in a publicly and widely held corporation and that exercises no control over corporate affairs would result in capital gains as opposed to dividend treatment. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon a U.S. holder's particular circumstances, including the application of constructive ownership rules, U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the applicability to them of this possibility.

A U.S. holder generally will have an aggregate tax basis in the shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock (if any) received by the U.S. holder with respect to each identifiable block of shares of Coast Bancorp common stock exchanged by the U.S. holder in the merger (including any fractional share of Sierra Bancorp common stock deemed received and redeemed for cash, as discussed below) equal to the U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock in such block, reduced by the amount of cash (if any) received with respect to such block (other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Sierra Bancorp common stock) and increased by the amount of any gain recognized by the U.S. holder (including, but not limited to, any portion of such gain that is treated as a dividend, but excluding any gain recognized with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Sierra Bancorp common stock) with respect to such block.

The holding period of the shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock (if any) received by a U.S. holder with respect to each identifiable block of shares of Coast Bancorp common stock exchanged in the merger (including any fractional share of Sierra Bancorp common stock deemed received and redeemed for cash, as discussed below) will include the holding period of the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock in such block.

Cash received by a U.S. holder in lieu of a fractional share of Sierra Bancorp common stock in the merger will be treated as if such fractional share had been issued and then redeemed by Sierra Bancorp. Subject to the discussion above regarding possible dividend treatment, a U.S. holder generally will recognize capital gain or loss with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share, measured by the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received and the tax basis in such fractional share (determined as described above). Any gain or loss recognized generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the shares of Coast Bancorp common stock in the block of shares of Coast Bancorp common stock exchanged in the merger were held for more than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting.

U.S. holders may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding on any cash payments they receive in the merger, including cash in lieu of fractional shares of Sierra Bancorp common stock. Payments will not be subject to backup withholding if the U.S. holder (i) is a corporation or comes within certain other exempt categories and, when required, demonstrates this fact or (ii) provides Sierra Bancorp or the exchange agent, as appropriate, with a properly completed Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or its successor form) certifying that the U.S. holder is a U.S. person, the taxpayer identification number provided is correct and the U.S. holder is not subject to backup withholding. The taxpayer identification number of an individual is his or her Social Security number. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished by the U.S. holder to the Internal Revenue Service.

The discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences set forth above is intended to provide only a general summary, and is not intended to be a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Moreover, the discussion set forth above does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are dependent on, individual circumstances. In addition, the discussion set forth above does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger and does not address the tax consequences of any transaction other than the merger.

We offer a full range of credit and depository services, with special emphasis on superior customer service, sophisticated cash management services and direct access to bank decision makers. Coast National Bank customers work directly with a dedicated Relationship Manager, a seasoned professional who understands their unique challenges serving as a sounding board and an active participant in their client's success.

Our key executives as well as our relationship managers have all served customers in this market for many years and through their experience and extensive connections throughout the Central Coast are in a unique position to facilitate Coast Bancorp's organic growth.

Our Business

Coast Bancorp has grown to $146.9 million in total assets as of December 31, 2015 through organic customer growth, with almost its entire deposit base coming from core customer relationships that are primarily from the local Central Coast market. Our customers are generally small- to medium-sized privately-held businesses. The majority of our customers are located on the Central Coast of California, and we provide them service through 35.5 full-time equivalent employees located at one of our three full service banking offices.

Coast Bancorp successfully weathered the financial storm of the great recession which plagued much of the financial industry. In February 2011, Coast Bancorp's subsidiary, Coast National Bank, entered into a Consent Order with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency. This Consent Order was terminated in April of 2014 as a result of the diligent efforts of the board, management and employees. In June of 2014, Coast Bancorp completed $6.8 million debt and equity capital raise. These funds were used to bring current the company's accrued interest on its Trust Preferred subordinate debt, to augment capital at the bank level, and for other general corporate purposes. Once the credit quality issues had significantly improved, the focus at the Bank then shifted to operational efficiencies and profitability.

Coast National Bank provides deposit, cash management and payment processing services to support business customers and their owners. We offer a wide range of deposit products for businesses and their owners including checking accounts, savings accounts, money market demand accounts, time deposits, and sweep accounts. Coast Bancorp maintains state of the art technology products including business Internet banking, consumer Internet banking, and remote deposit service. We also provide merchant card and foreign exchange services. Our customers come from a diversified group of industries and can be serviced from any of our three offices as a result of electronic banking, remote deposit and courier service. As a result of our primary focus on supporting the cash management needs of our business customers, Coast Bancorp has a high level of non-maturity deposits (88% as of December 31, 2015).

In supporting the credit needs of our customer base, we generally provide primarily the following types of credit: Commercial and Industrial lines of credit and term loans; Commercial Real Estate term loans; and Letters of Credit. It is common for our business customers to have a commercial line of credit and an owner-occupied commercial real estate loan with us.

Our Employees

As of December 31, 2015, Coast National Bank employed 35.5 full-time equivalent employees. Coast National Bank's employees are not represented by any union or other collective bargaining agreement.

Competition

All phases of Coast National Bank's business have been, since inception, and will continue to be, subject to significant competitive forces. Although Coast National Bank has a solid foothold in the San Luis Obispo County banking community, it nevertheless has to compete with other independent local banking institutions, including commercial banks and savings and loan associations, as well as branch offices of regional and national commercial banks, which have assets, capital and lending limits substantially larger than Coast National Bank. Coast National Bank competes with respect to its lending activities, as well as in attracting demand deposits, with savings banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, regulated small loan companies and credit unions, as well as securities brokerage offices which can issue commercial paper and other securities (such as shares in money market funds).

Among the advantages such institutions have over Coast National Bank are their ability to finance wide ranging advertising campaigns and to allocate their investment assets to regions of highest yields and demand. Many institutions offer certain services, such as trust services, which Coast National Bank does not currently offer or plan to offer. By virtue of their greater total capital, such institutions have substantially higher lending limits than Coast National Bank (legal lending limits to an individual customer being limited to a percentage of a bank's total capital accounts). These competitors may intensify their advertising and marketing activities to counter any efforts by Coast National Bank to further attract new business as a commercial bank. In addition, as a result of recent legislation, there is increased competition between banks, savings and loan associations and credit unions for the deposit and loan business of individuals. These activities may hinder Coast National Bank's ability to capture a comparatively significant market share.

To compete with the financial institutions in its primary service area, Coast National Bank uses the flexibility which its independent status permits. Its activities in this regard include an ability and intention to respond quickly to changes in the interest rates paid on time and savings deposits and charged on loans, and to charges imposed on depository accounts, so as to remain competitive in the market place. Coast National Bank also emphasizes specialized services for the small business person and professional and personal contacts by our officers and employees. For customers whose loan demands exceed Coast National Bank's lending limits, Coast National Bank has the ability to arrange for such loans on a participation basis with other financial institutions. No assurances can be given, however, that Coast National Bank's efforts to compete with other financial institutions in its primary service area will be successful.

Properties

Coast National Bank currently operates out of its full-service headquarters in San Luis Obispo and from two branch offices located in Arroyo Grande and Paso Robles and a loan production office located in Atascadero, California. The San Luis Obispo location is owned and the other facilities are leased. Management believes that all of Coast National Bank's properties are adequately covered by insurance. For additional information on properties, see Note 4 to Coast Bancorp's audited Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere herein.

Legal Proceedings

From time to time, Coast National Bank is subject to various pending and threatened legal actions which arise out of the normal course of its business. There are currently no pending legal actions.

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, there are no material proceedings adverse to Coast Bancorp to which any director, officer, affiliate of Coast Bancorp or a 5% shareholder of Coast Bancorp or any associate of such director, officer, affiliate or 5% shareholder is a party and none of the above persons has a material interest adverse to Coast Bancorp.

Management's Discussion And Analysis Of Financial Condition And Results Of Operations

This discussion presents Management's analysis of Coast Bancorp and its subsidiary bank Coast National Bank's financial condition as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the results of operations for each of the years in the two-year period ended December 31, 2015. The discussion should be read in conjunction with Coast Bancorp's consolidated financial statements and the notes related thereto presented elsewhere herein. Although financial condition and results of operations are reported by Coast Bancorp, they relate primarily to its wholly owned subsidiary, Coast National Bank, which is the entity through which most business operations occur.

Statements contained in this report or incorporated by reference that are not purely historical are forward looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended, including Coast Bancorp's expectations, intentions, beliefs, or strategies regarding the future. All forward-looking statements concerning economic conditions, growth rates, income, expenses, or other values which are included in this document are based on information available to Coast Bancorp on the date noted, and Coast Bancorp assumes no obligation to update any such forward-looking statements. It is important to note that Coast Bancorp's actual results could materially differ from those in such forward-looking statements. Risk factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in forward-looking statements include but are not limited to those outlined previously. See "RISK FACTORS."

Critical Accounting Policies

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, or GAAP, requires management to make a number of judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets, liabilities, income and expenses in Coast Bancorp's financial statements and accompanying notes. Coast Bancorp's management believes that the judgments, estimates and assumptions used in preparation of Coast Bancorp's financial statements are appropriate given the factual circumstances as of December 31, 2015.

Various elements of Coast Bancorp's accounting policies, by their nature, are inherently subject to estimation techniques, valuation assumptions and other subjective assessments. Critical accounting policies are those that involve the most complex and subjective decisions and assessments and have the greatest potential impact on Coast Bancorp's results of operation. Material estimates that are particularly susceptible to significant change in the near term relate to the determination of the allowance for loan losses, the valuation of investment securities, and the valuation of deferred tax assets. Coast Bancorp's management has identified the accounting policies related to these three areas as critical to an understanding of Coast Bancorp's financial statements due to judgments, estimates and assumptions inherent in these policies, and the sensitivity of Coast Bancorp's financial statements to those judgments, estimates and assumptions.

Allowance for Loan Losses

The provision for loan losses charged to operations is an amount sufficient to bring the allowance for loan losses to an estimated balance considered adequate to absorb probable losses inherent in the portfolio at the date of the financial statements. The allowance for loan losses is established as losses are estimated to have occurred through a provision for loan losses charged to results of operations. Loan losses are charged against the allowance when management believes the collection of a loan balance will not occur. Subsequent recoveries, if any, are credited to the allowance. The allowance for loan losses is evaluated on a regular basis by management and the estimate is based upon management's periodic review of the collectability of the loans that considers historical experience, the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, adverse situations that may affect the borrower's ability to repay, estimated value of any underlying collateral, and prevailing economic conditions. The evaluation is inherently subjective as it requires estimates that are susceptible to significant revision as more information becomes available.

The allowance consists of specific, general, and qualitative components. The specific component relates to loans that are considered impaired for which an allowance is established when the discounted cash flows (or collateral value or observable market price) of the impaired loan is lower than the carrying value of that loan. For such loans that are also classified as impaired, an allowance is established when the discounted cash flows (or collateral value or observable market price) of the impaired loan is lower than the carrying value of that loan. Although Management believes the level of the allowance at December 31, 2015 is adequate to absorb losses inherent in the loan portfolio, a further decline in the regional economy may result in increasing losses that cannot reasonably be predicted at this time. For further information regarding the allowance for loan losses and related methodology see “Financial Condition – Allowance for Loan Losses” included elsewhere herein.

Investment Securities

Coast Bancorp currently classifies its investment securities under both available-for-sale and held-to-maturity classifications. Securities that Coast Bancorp has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity are classified as “held-to-maturity securities” and reported at amortized cost. Securities not classified as held-to-maturity securities are classified as “investment securities available-for-sale” and reported at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses excluded from results of operations and reported as a separate component of accumulated other comprehensive income included in shareholders’ equity. Under the available-for-sale classification, securities can be sold due to changing conditions. Coast Bancorp does not have any investment securities classified as trading securities. Investment transactions are recorded on the trade date. Gains and losses on investment securities are recognized at the time of sale based upon the specific identification method. Management performs regular impairment analyses on the securities portfolio. If it is probable that Coast Bancorp will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the contractual terms of the debt security, an other-than-temporary impairment (“OTTI”) is considered to have occurred. When an other-than-temporary impairment occurs, the cost basis of the security is written down to its fair value (as the new cost basis) and the write-down is accounted for as a realized loss if it is credit related. In assessing whether impairment represents other-than-temporary impairment (“OTTI”), Coast Bancorp must consider whether it intends to sell a security or if it is likely that they would be required to sell the security before recovery of the amortized cost basis of the investment, which may be maturity. If Coast Bancorp intends to sell the security or it is likely that a sale of the security may be required before recovering the cost basis, the entire impairment loss would be recognized in earnings as an OTTI. If Coast Bancorp does not intend to sell the security and it is not likely the sale of the security is required by Coast Bancorp, and Coast Bancorp does not expect to recover the entire amortized cost basis of the security, only the portion of the impairment loss representing credit losses would be recognized in earnings. The credit loss on a security is measured as the difference between the amortized cost basis and the present value of the cash flows to be expected to be collected. Projected cash flows are discounted by the original or current effective interest rate depending on the nature of the security being measured for potential OTTI. The remaining impairment related to other factors, the difference between the present value of cash flows expected to be collected and fair value, is recognized as a charge to other comprehensive income (“OCI”). Impairment losses related to all other factors are presented as separate categories within OCI. Purchase premiums and discounts are recognized in interest income using the interest method over the expected life of the security. For certain securities such as mortgage-backed securities, the average life can fluctuate based on the amount of prepayments received on the collateral underlying the securities.

Income Taxes

Coast Bancorp uses the asset and liability method to account for income taxes. The objective of the asset and liability method is to establish deferred tax assets and liabilities for the temporary differences between the financial reporting basis and the income tax basis of Coast Bancorp's assets and liabilities at enacted tax rates expected to be in effect when such amounts are realized or settled. Coast Bancorp's annual tax rate is based on its income, statutory tax rates and tax planning opportunities available in which it operates. Tax laws are complex and subject to different interpretations by the taxpayer and respective governmental taxing authorities. Significant judgment is required in determining tax expense and in evaluating tax positions, including evaluating uncertainties. Benefits from tax positions are recognized in the financial statements only when it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained upon examination by the appropriate taxing authority that would have full knowledge of all relevant information. Coast Bancorp reviews its tax positions periodically and adjusts the balances as new information becomes available. Deferred income tax assets represent amounts available to reduce income taxes payable on taxable income in future years. Such assets arise because of temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities, as well as from net operating loss and tax credit carry-forwards. Coast Bancorp evaluates the recoverability of these future tax deductions by assessing the adequacy of future expected taxable income from all sources, including reversal of taxable temporary differences, forecasted operating earnings and available tax planning strategies. These sources of income inherently rely heavily on estimates. Coast Bancorp uses historical experience and short and long-range business forecasts to provide insight. Although realization is not assured for the remaining deferred income tax assets, Coast Bancorp believes it is more likely than not the deferred tax assets will be fully recoverable within the applicable statutory expiration periods. However, deferred tax assets could be reduced in the near term if estimates of taxable income are significantly reduced or available tax planning strategies are no longer viable.

As of and for the Year Ended December 31, 2015 Compared to the Years Ended December 31, 2014

Summary of Performance

Coast Bancorp had net income of $6,757,000 in 2015 or $1.20 per dilutive common share, compared to $183,000 or $0.05 per dilutive common share in 2014. The increase in net income was primarily the result of three significant events that occurred during the third quarter of 2015. First, both Coast Bancorp and Coast National Bank reversed deferred tax asset valuation allowances during the third quarter resulting in a combined tax benefit of $4.3 million. In addition, the Bank sold two buildings, an OREO property and a surplus administrative office building for a combined gain on sale of approximately $1.5 million. Lastly, a reverse provision for loan losses of $500,000 reduced the Allowance for Loan Losses based on management's analysis of the level of probable loan losses. Noninterest income, excluding the gain on sale of the real estate of $1.5 million, declined $131,000 primarily due to lower gain on sale of the guaranteed portion of SBA loans. Noninterest expense increased $44,000 mainly as a result of higher salary and benefit costs and technology expenses. Coast Bancorp's return on average assets and return on average equity were 4.85% and 174.60%, heavily influenced by the non-recurring items mentioned above, respectively, in 2015, as compared to 0.15% and 11.66%, respectively, in 2014. Aside from the significant events of 2015, Coast Bancorp's core financial performance improved in 2015 compared to recent years due, in part, to increased lending activity, strong core deposit growth, reductions in nonperforming assets and expense controls. Those trends were evident to a lesser extent in 2014.

The following are some of the major factors impacting Coast Bancorp's results of operations for the years presented in the consolidated financial statements.

Coast Bancorp and Coast National Bank reversed deferred tax asset valuation allowances during the third quarter of 2015 resulting in a combined tax benefit of $4.3 million for the year. Coast Bancorp has net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $8.5 million for federal income and $15.0 million for California Franchise tax purposes. Based on an analysis of its present and future earnings, Coast Bancorp deemed it more likely than not that these loss carryforwards would be fully realized from future taxable income. Accordingly, the valuation allowances were reversed and the tax benefits recognized in 2015.

Coast National Bank was able to take advantage of improving real estate values and sold two buildings in 2015, an OREO property and a surplus administrative office building, for a combined gain on sale of $1.5 million. The OREO property was a former bank facility not used for bank purposes for a number of years. The administrative office building was also underutilized in recent years. Both buildings were acquired in 2000 when Coast Bancorp had plans for expansion.

Net interest income increased 22% in 2015 due to growth in average loans and investments. Average interest-earning assets were higher in 2015 due to growth in loans and investments that were funded primarily by low-cost non-maturing demand deposits. In 2015, net loans increased $19.4 million or 26.6% and total investment securities increased $3.2 million or 15.0%. Noninterest bearing deposits increased $7.9 million or 16.3% in 2015 and yields on interest-bearing deposits decreased to 0.26% in 2015 from 0.31% in 2014. Coast Bancorp's net interest margin increased to 3.66% in 2015 from 3.51% in 2014.

Non-interest income increased in 2015 from the sale of the buildings, but gains on sale of SBA loans and other non-interest income categories were lower. Excluding the gain on sale of the buildings for $1.5 million, noninterest income declined $131,000 due primarily to lower gains on the sale of the guaranteed portion of SBA loans and net servicing revenues. Gains on sale of SBA loans were 31.2% lower in 2015 compared to 2014 due to smaller transaction size in 2015 and lower premiums. Net servicing revenue was lower due to servicing costs related to several older loans. Deposit service charge income was 4.5% lower in 2015 due to depositors maintaining higher average balances, and lower fees earned from nonsufficient funds. These declines were partially offset by $90,000 in gains on the sale of investment securities in 2015 compared to $32,000 in 2014. In 2014 Coast Bancorp incurred losses on sale of OREO of $255,000, but received funds from an insurance claim on a charged-off loan that resulted in other income of $231,000.

Non-interest expense was 1% higher in 2015. Total noninterest expense was $44,000 or approximately 1.0% higher in 2015 compared to 2014. Salaries and benefits increased $87,000 or 3.2% in 2015, but full-time equivalent staff decreased to 35.5 from 40.0 between December 31, 2015 and 2014. Net occupancy expense increased approximately $36,000 or 9.6% in 2015 due to reduced rental income from the sale of OREO. Other professional services were approximately $93,000 or 17.4% higher in 2015 due to higher third-party audit fees. Stock-based compensation was approximately $36,000 in 2015 compared to no stock-based compensation in 2014. Offsetting these increases, regulatory assessments, OREO, and general office expenses were lower in 2015 compared to 2014. Noninterest expense as a percentage of average earning assets declined from 4.5% in 2014 to 3.9% in 2015.

Balance Sheet Highlights

As of December 31, 2015, Coast Bancorp had total assets of $146.9 million compared to $128.3 million at the end of 2014 for an increase of 14.4%. Net loans grew 26.6% to $92.4 million and investment securities increased 15.0% to $24.2 million during 2015. Total deposits increased to $126.4 million at December 31, 2015, or 9.9% over year end 2014. Senior notes payable were refinanced from $2.0 million at a rate of 10% per annum to $2.5 million at a rate of 6% per annum. Stockholders' equity increased $6.7 million to $10.3 million, or 184.9% at December 31, 2015 compared to December 31, 2014. The following is a summary of key balance sheet changes during 2015.

Total assets increased by $18.5 million, or 14.4%. The increase in total assets resulted from increased loans, investment securities and reversal of deferred taxes, but offset by reductions in cash and cash equivalents, fixed assets, and other real estate owned.

Net loans increased $19.4 million, or 26.6% in 2015. The Bank experienced strong organic growth in a number of loan categories. Commercial real estate increased $10.2 million or 21.0% in 2015 compared to an increase of $4.7 million or 10.8% in 2014. Construction loans increased $5.8 million in 2015 compared to an increase of $1.6 million in 2014. Commercial and industrial loans were $3.1 million higher in 2015 compared to an increase of $2.5 million in 2014. Part of this growth, however, was offset by lower yields on average loans outstanding, which decreased from 5.71% in 2014 to 5.58% in 2015.

Nonperforming assets were 80.8% lower at the end of 2015 compared to 2014. Nonperforming loans of $279,000 at December 31, 2015, reflect a decrease of $417,000 from December 31, 2014. There was no other real estate owned at December 31, 2015 compared to $761,000 at December 31, 2014.

Allowance for loan losses reduced to 1.51% of loans at year-end 2015 compared to 2.33% at year-end 2014. In 2015 and 2014 Coast Bancorp reduced the allowance for loan losses by $500,000 each year based on its analysis of past and current loan loss experience, the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, specific borrower situations, collateral values, economic conditions, and other factors. During this period, both credit quality improvement in the existing portfolio and net recoveries enabled us to make these reductions. Nonperforming assets, as noted above, were significantly lower in 2015 compared to 2014. Loan recoveries, net of charge-offs were $168,000 in 2015 and $628,000 in 2014.

Deposits reflect an increase of $11.4 million or 9.9% in 2015 compared to $3.4 million or 3.1% in 2014. In the past two years, Coast Bancorp experienced strong organic growth in core deposits. In 2015 non-interest bearing demand deposits increased $7.9 million or 16.3%. Money market and NOW accounts increased $7.1 million or 18.3% while time deposits decreased $4.2 million or 22.0%. In 2014 non-interest bearing demand increased $5.5 million, money market and NOW accounts increased $1.4 million and time deposits declined $3.8 million.

Total capital increased by $6.7 million or 184.9% to $10.3 million at December 31, 2015. The level of capital is well above regulatory minimum requirements. Coast National Bank's Tier 1 leverage capital ratio increased to 10.3% at December 31, 2015 compared to 9.4% at December 31, 2014. Total capital to risk-weighted assets was 14.0% at year-end 2015 compared to 15.3% at the end of 2014 due to the growth of higher risk-weighted loans and investments in 2015.

Results of Operations

Net Interest Income and Net Interest Margin

Net interest income before provision for loan losses increased $868,000 for the year ended December 31, 2015, or 21.9% over 2014, to $4,835,000, as a result of the growth of the loan portfolio and investments. Average loans outstanding increased $14.7 million or 21.0% in 2015 to $84.7 million. The low rate environment and competitive market place affected loan yields in both 2015 and 2014. The average yield on loans outstanding declined to 5.58% in 2015 from 5.71% in 2014. In 2014 average loans outstanding increased $4.9 million, or 7.6%, to $70.0 million, and the overall average loan yield declined from 6.13% in 2013 to 5.71% in 2014. In 2015 average investment securities increased $11.0 million or 91.6% to $23.1 million, compared to an average balance of $12.1 million in 2014. The average yield on the investment portfolio also increased 5 basis points to 1.85% in 2015 from 1.80% in 2014 as a result of purchases of higher yielding corporate and taxable municipal securities. Average interest-bearing deposits with other banks decreased from $9.7 million in 2014 to $7.5 million in 2015 as funds were allocated to investment securities. The average yield on interest-bearing deposits with other banks increased to 1.89% in 2015 from 1.71% in 2014 due to reinvestments at longer terms.

Interest expense increased in 2015 primarily as a result of the 10% per annum senior notes issued in mid-2014. These notes were paid off in June 2015 in exchange for $2.5 million of senior notes payable at 6% per annum. Interest expense on interest-bearing deposits was lower due to the decline in average time deposits of $100,000 or more. Interest expense on junior subordinated debt (“TRUPS”) was lower in 2015 due to the low rate environment and from the payoff of the first interest deferral balance in mid-2014. The net interest margin increased from 3.51% in 2014 to 3.66% in 2015 due to the increase in outstanding loans and investments together with declines in time deposits of $100,000 or more and the reduction in long term borrowing costs. Interest income to earning assets increased to 4.05% in 2015 from 3.92% in 2014. Interest expense to earning assets decreased to 0.39% in 2015 from 0.41% in 2014.

The following table shows, for each of the past three years, the annual average balance for each principal balance sheet category, and the amount of interest income or expense associated with that category. This table also shows the yields earned on each major component of Coast Bancorp’s investment and loan portfolio, the average rates paid on each key segment of Coast Bancorp’s interest bearing liabilities, and the net interest margin.

Loan fees have been included in the calculation of interest income. Loan fees were approximately $97,000, $16,000, and $83,000 for the years ended December 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively. Loans are net of deferred fees and related direct costs.

2. Yields on tax-exempt income have not been computed on a tax equivalent basis.

3. Represents the weighted average yield on interest-earning assets less the weighted average cost of interest-bearing liabilities.

4. Represents net interest income (before provision for loan losses) as a percentage of average interest-earning assets.

The Volume and Rate Variances table below sets forth the dollar difference in interest earned and paid for each major category of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities for the noted periods, and the amount of such change attributable to changes in average balances (volume) or changes in average interest rates. Volume variances are equal to the increase or decrease in average balance multiplied by prior period rates, and rate variances are equal to the increase or decrease in rate multiplied by prior period average balances. Variances attributable to both rate and volume changes are calculated by multiplying the change in rate by the change in average balance, and are allocated to the rate variance.

Interest income increased $919,000 to $5,350,000 in 2015 and $220,000 to $4,431,000 in 2014 primarily as a result of the volume growth of loans and investments. Declining yields on loans resulted in lower interest revenue of approximately $72,000 and $173,000 in 2015 and 2014, respectively. The decline in loan yield in 2015, and more so in 2014, resulted from a combination of lower yields on new loans along with the payoff of existing loans accruing at higher rates. The interest income from investment securities increased $210,000 to $427,000 in 2015 and $208,000 to $217,000 in 2014 primarily due to higher volume in 2015 and higher yields in 2014. Interest income from investments was also impacted by a change in the composition of the portfolio. Higher yielding corporate securities were added in the latter half of 2014 and in 2015 along with taxable municipals in the second half of 2015. Interest income from interest-bearing deposits with other banks declined $24,000 in 2015 to $141,000 compared to an increase of $24,000 in 2014 due to lower average volume in 2015 together with higher yields. In 2014 the increase in interest income was largely due to higher volume. Interest-bearing demand accounts also declined in average volume in both 2015 and 2014, as funds were invested in loans and investment securities. Higher yields in 2015 offset the decline in volume, but not in 2014.

Interest expense on interest-bearing deposits decreased in 2015 and 2014 as a result of declines in the average rates paid; especially for NOW and money market deposits. A further reduction in interest expense on interest-bearing deposits in both years was due to the decline in the volume of average time deposits. Interest expense on long term debt increased in 2015 due to the $500,000 increase in outstanding debt beginning in June 2015. The increase in interest expense on long term debt in 2014 resulted from Coast Bancorp obtaining $2.0 million of new debt in June 2014 at the rate of 10% per annum. This debt was repaid in full in June 2015 and replaced with $2.5 million of new debt at the rate of 6% per annum. Interest expense on trust preferred junior subordinated debt decreased in both 2015 and 2014 as a result of lower interest rates and from the payoff of the first interest deferral balance in June 2014. Interest accrued on the unpaid deferral balance compounds on a quarterly basis so the repayment of the first interest deferral balance reduced interest expense beginning in July 2014.

Provision for Loan Losses

Coast Bancorp posted a reverse provision for loan losses of $500,000 in both 2015 and 2014 based on management's analysis of loan loss experience, the size and composition of the loan portfolio, the level of specific borrower delinquencies, collateral valuations, economic conditions, and other factors that affect the allowance for loan losses. The amount of loan charge-offs and recoveries also played a significant role in the decision to lower the allowance for loan losses in 2015 and 2014. Recoveries, net of loan charge-offs, were $168,000 in 2015 and $628,000 in 2014. Coast Bancorp's allowance for loan losses, in management's judgment, is at a level that is sufficient to absorb probable losses related to specifically identified impairment loans, as well as the probable incurred losses on the remaining loan portfolio. The process to establish an appropriate allowance for loan loss is discussed further below under "Allowance for Loan Losses."

Non-interest Income

Noninterest income rose significantly in 2015 as a result of the sale of two buildings, one classified other real estate owned ("OREO") and the other an administrative office building generating a combined gain on sale of approximately $1.5 million. In 2014, by comparison, one OREO property was sold for a loss of $255,000. Service charges on deposit accounts were lower in 2015 as a result of accountholders maintaining higher average balances and fewer fees collected from depositors with nonsufficient funds. Servicing revenue, net of costs, was lower in 2015 compared to 2014 due to the increased expense of a number of older loans. Gain on sale of the guaranteed portion of SBA loans was lower in 2015 generally due to shorter-term, smaller loans sold, generating lower sale premiums. Other income was lower in 2015 compared to 2014 as a result of monies collected in 2014 from an insurance claim associated with a charged-off loan that exceeded the charged-off loan amount, plus all interest and fees due, with the excess amount posted to other income.

The following table sets forth the various components of Coast Bancorp's non-interest income for the periods indicated:

Non-interest Expense

Noninterest expense was $44,000 higher in 2015 compared to 2014. The largest component of non-interest expense is salaries and benefits, which increased by approximately $87,000 or 3% in 2015 due to cost-of-living and promotional salary adjustments, as well as higher stock-based compensation and group health insurance costs. The number of full-time equivalent staff decreased from 40.0 as of December 31, 2014 to 35.5 at the end of 2015. Net occupancy expense increased approximately $36,000 in 2015 due to the loss of rental income from sold OREO properties. Other professional services were approximately $93,000 higher in 2015 compared to 2014 as a result of higher third-party audit and review fees. In 2015 the Bank incurred an unanticipated expense related to the review of its Small Business Administration 7(a) guaranteed loan program that totaled approximately $41,000. In 2015 compared to 2014, regulatory assessments declined by $90,000, OREO expenses declined $36,000 and director and officer liability insurance costs declined $21,000 due to the improved financial condition of Coast Bancorp. Office expenses and other expenses were $33,000 and $28,000 lower in 2015 compared to 2014, respectively, generally as a result of greater operating efficiencies. Noninterest expense as a percentage of average earnings assets declined from 4.54% in 2014 to 3.92% in 2015.

Provision for Income Taxes

In 2015 Coast Bancorp reversed deferred tax asset valuation allowances and received a tax benefit of approximately $4.3 million. At December 31, 2015 Coast Bancorp had net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $8.5 million for federal income and $15.0 million for California Franchise tax purposes. Based on an analysis of its present and future earnings, Coast Bancorp deemed it more likely than not that these loss carryforwards would be fully realized from future taxable income. In 2014 the minimum California Franchise tax of $2,000 was paid.

Financial Condition

Total assets grew by $18.5 million to $146.9 million as of December 31, 2015, compared to $128.3 million as of December 31, 2014. The increase in total assets over the past two years was primarily due to loan growth, and net of allowance for loan losses, of $19.4 million or 26.6% in 2015 and $8.5 million or 13.3% in 2014. In 2015, investment securities increased $3.2 million or 15.0% and in 2014 investment securities increased $14.1 million or 203.8%. In 2015, interest-bearing deposits with other banks decreased by $245,000 or 3.0%, to $7.8 million and in 2014 decreased by $2.0 million or 19.5% to $8.1 million. Substantially all of Coast Bancorp's funding comes from deposits maintained by core customer relationships. In 2015, deposits grew by $11.4 million or 9.9% to $126.4 million, of which $7.9 million was growth from non-interest bearing demand accounts. In 2014, deposits grew by $3.4 million or 3.1% to $115.0 million, of which $5.5 million was growth from non-interest bearing demand accounts. In 2015 Coast Bancorp refinanced its long-term debt, reducing the interest rate from 10% per annum to 6% per annum, and increased the balance outstanding to $2.5 million. Coast Bancorp's capital grew by $6.7 million in 2015, as the accumulated deficit was reduced by approximately the same amount due largely to the reversal of deferred tax asset valuation allocations, gains on sale of real property, and a $500,000 reversal from the allowance for loan and lease losses. Additional paid-in capital increased $36,000 from stock-based compensation. Due to the change in the unrealized gains and losses on available for sale investments, accumulated other comprehensive income declined by approximately $89,000. In 2014, total shareholders' equity grew by $4.5 million to $3.6 million, including a $4.2 million increase in common stock resulting from the sale of 4.8 million common shares through a private stock placement in June 2014. The accumulated deficit was reduced by net income of $183,000 and due to the change in the unrealized gains and losses on available for sale investments, accumulated other comprehensive income increased by approximately $93,000.

Loan Portfolio

The largest percentage of the loan portfolio is represented by real estate loans. Real estate construction represents 14.3% of the loan portfolio. The real estate other category is comprised of commercial real estate, 1 to 4 family residential real estate, including home equity lines of credit, which together represents 62.2% of the loan portfolio. Commercial real estate loans are the largest group within the real estate category. As of December 31, 2015 approximately 45.6% of commercial real estate loans were owner occupied, down from 55.7% at the end of 2014. The second largest category of loans is commercial and industrial comprising approximately 23.3% and 25.0% of total loans as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. Coast Bancorp's senior management is actively involved in its lending, underwriting, and collateral valuation processes. Higher dollar loans or loan commitments are also approved through a director's loan committee comprised of executives and outside board members.

The following tables set forth the composition of Coast Bancorp's loan portfolio as of the dates indicated:

The following table shows the maturity distribution for total loans outstanding as of December 31, 2015. The maturity distribution is grouped by remaining scheduled principal payments that are due within one year, after one but within five years, or after five years. The principal balance of loans due after one year is indicated by both fixed and floating rate categories.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

In the normal course of business, Coast Bancorp makes commitments to extend credit to its customers as long as there are no violations of any conditions established in contractual arrangements. These commitments are obligations that represent a potential credit risk to Coast Bancorp, and a $32,000 reserve for unfunded commitments is reflected as a liability in Coast Bancorp's balance sheet at December 31, 2015. Total unused commitments to extend credit were $26.1 million at December 31, 2015, as compared to $18.9 million at December 31, 2014. Unused commitments represented 27.7% and 25.1% of gross loans outstanding at December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. In addition, Coast Bancorp had $340,000 and $734,000 in standby letters of credit at December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

The effect on Coast Bancorp’s revenues, expenses, cash flows and liquidity from the unused portion of the commitments to provide credit cannot be reasonably predicted, because there is no certainty that lines of credit will ever be fully utilized. For more information regarding Coast Bancorp’s off-balance sheet arrangements, see Note 11 to the financial statements.

Contractual Obligations

At the end of 2015, Coast Bancorp had contractual obligations for the following payments, by type and period due:

	Payments Due by Period		Total
	2016	2017 and Thereafter
Operating lease obligations	$ 117,000	$ 42,000	$ 159,000

Non-performing Assets

Non-performing assets are comprised of loans on non-accrual status, loans 90 days or more past due and still accruing interest, and other real estate owned (“OREO”). Coast Bancorp currently has no loans 90 days or more past due and still accruing interest, and no OREO. A loan is placed in non-accrual status if there is concern that principal and interest may not be fully collected or if the loan has been past due for a period of 90 days or more, unless the obligation is both well secured and in process of legal collection. When loans are placed on non-accrual status, all interest previously accrued but not collected is reversed against current period interest income. Income on non-accrual loans is subsequently recognized only to the extent that cash is received and the loan’s principal balance is deemed collectible. Loans are returned to accrual status when they are brought current with respect to principal and interest payments and future payments are reasonably assured. Loans in which the borrower is encountering financial difficulties and Coast Bancorp has modified the terms of the original loan are evaluated for impairment and classified as troubled debt restructured loans (“TDR”).

The following table presents information concerning Coast Bancorp’s nonperforming and restructured loans as of the dates indicated:

Allowance for Loan Losses

Coast Bancorp establishes an allowance for loan loss, through a provision for loan losses, for both specific losses on impaired loans and the inherent risk of probable loss for non-impaired loans based on loan grades, loan characteristics, and economic trends. The allowance consists of specific, general, and qualitative components. The allowance for loan losses is evaluated on a regular basis by management and the estimate is based upon management's periodic review of the collectability of the loans that considers historical experience, the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, adverse situations that may affect the borrower's ability to repay, estimated value of any underlying collateral, and prevailing economic conditions. The specific component relates to loans that are considered impaired for which an allowance is established when the discounted cash flows (or collateral value or observable market price) of the impaired loan is lower than the carrying value of that loan. The evaluation is inherently subjective as it requires estimates that are susceptible to significant revision as more information becomes available. Coast Bancorp's allowance for loan loss was $1.4 million and $1.7 million, as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. In 2015 and 2014 Coast Bancorp reduced the allowance for loan losses by means of a $500,000 reverse provision based on our analysis of past and current loan loss experience, credit quality factors, the size and composition of the loan portfolio, and other factors including net recoveries in 2015 and 2014 of $168,000 and $628,000, respectively. The allowance for loan losses to net loans as of December 31, 2015 was 1.51% and 2.33% as of December 31, 2014, which is consistent with banks of similar size. The allowance for loan loss is maintained at a level that management believes is adequate to provide for loan losses based on currently available information. A comprehensive discussion concerning Coast Bancorp's allowance for loan loss is included in Note 3 of the accompanying Financial Statements.

As of December 31, 2015, the allowance for loan losses includes $22,000 of specific reserves for impaired loans, representing an increase from $12,000 at December 31, 2014. A loan is considered impaired when, based on current information and/or events, it is probable Coast Bancorp will be unable to collect all amounts due (principal and interest) according to the original contractual terms of the loan agreement. Factors considered by management in determining impairment include payment status, collateral value, and probability of collecting scheduled principal and interest payments. Measurement of impairment is based on the present value of expected future cash flows of the impaired loan, which are discounted at the loan's effective interest rate. For collateral-dependent loans, Coast Bancorp uses the fair value of the collateral for the impaired loan to measure impairment. An impairment allowance is established to record the difference between the carrying amount of the loan and the present value, or in the case of a collateral-dependent loan, the fair value of the collateral.

The following table summarizes the activity in the allowance for loan losses for the periods indicated:

Investment Portfolio

Coast Bancorp uses two classifications for its investment portfolio: available-for-sale (AFS) and held-to-maturity (HTM). Securities that Coast has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity are classified as “held-to-maturity securities” and reported at amortized cost. Securities not classified as held-to-maturity securities are classified as “investment securities available-for-sale” and reported at fair value. At December 31, 2015 and 2014, Coast Bancorp’s held-to-maturity investments totaled $2.9 million and $4.4 million, respectively. Available-for sale securities had a total fair value of $21.3 million and $16.6 million at the end of 2015 and 2014, respectively. Coast Bancorp also maintains surplus liquidity in interest bearing deposits with other banks. As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, these assets totaled approximately $7.8 million and $8.1 million, respectively. Coast Bancorp’s investments provide a substantial source of liquidity as they can be pledged to support borrowed funds or can be liquidated to generate cash proceeds. The investment portfolio is also a significant resource to Coast Bancorp in managing interest rate risk, as the maturity and interest rate characteristics of this asset class can be readily changed to match changes in the loan and deposit portfolios. The majority of Coast Bancorp’s available-for-sale investment portfolio is comprised of short-term investment grade corporate securities, taxable municipal securities and mortgage-backed securities (MBSs) with average lives of less than five years. During 2015, Coast Bancorp increased its allocation of corporate and taxable municipal securities to increase yield while reducing the portfolios average life. Mortgage-backed securities were sold to generate gains and increase the predictability of cash flows from the security portfolio. During 2015, Coast Bancorp purchased $10.8 million in AFS securities, primarily corporate and taxable municipal securities, and sold $4.9 million, primarily mortgage-backed securities realizing gains of $90,000 on those sales. For 2014 AFS security purchases totaled $13.3 million, while sales of AFS mortgage-backed securities totaled $1.9 million generating realized gains of $32,000. As a result of rising short term rates in late 2015, the unrealized loss, before taxes, on the available-for-sale portfolio was approximately $107,000 at December 31, 2015. The unrealized gain, before taxes, on the available-for-sale portfolio was $43,000 at December 31, 2014. The HTM portfolio is comprised mostly of short term redeemable U.S. Government Agency securities, of which $4.5 million were redeemed prior to maturity in 2015.

The following Investment Portfolio table reflects the amortized cost and fair market values for the total portfolio for each category of investments for the past three years:

Deposits

Coast National Bank deposits are primarily generated through local core customer relationships, predominantly made up of local small businesses, non-profit organizations and senior individuals who are attracted by Coast Bancorp's attention to personal service. These customers maintain a large percentage of their available liquid assets in core demand, savings and money market accounts. As of December 31, 2015 and 2014 noninterest bearing demand deposits represented 44.4% and 41.9% of total deposits, respectively. Furthermore, at December 31, 2015, 36.5% of total deposits were held in NOW and money market accounts, and 33.9% at December 31, 2014. Total core deposits, excluding time deposits of $100,000 or more, were 90.9% and 87.2% of total deposits at December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. In 2015 total deposits grew $11.4 million to $126.4 million, with noninterest-bearing demand deposits increasing $7.9 million, NOW and money market accounts increasing $7.1 million and time deposits decreasing $4.2 million. In 2014 the same trend occurred, but to a lesser extent with total deposit growth of $3.4 million to $115.0 million, including noninterest-bearing demand deposits growth of $5.5 million, NOW and money market growth of $1.4 million and time deposits declining by approximately $3.8 million.

Information concerning average balances and rates paid on deposits by deposit type for the past three fiscal years is contained in the Distribution, Yield and Rate Analysis of Net Income table located in the previous section on Results of Operations – Net Interest Income and Net Interest Margin. The following table provides a comparative distribution of Coast Bancorp’s deposits by outstanding balance as well as by percentage of total deposits at the dates indicated:

Other Borrowings

As of December 31, 2015 Coast Bancorp had unsecured overnight lines of credit with two correspondent banks totaling $4.5 million with no amounts outstanding under these arrangements.

Coast Bancorp is a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco ("FHLBSF") and has financing availability of approximately $14.7 million as of December 31, 2015, which was secured by specific loans and investment securities. The amount of funds available to borrow is determined by the collateral value of the assets pledged, which amounted to $10.5 million in loans and $7.1 million of investment securities at December 31, 2015. As of December 31, 2015, there were no outstanding borrowings with FHLBSF.

As of December 31, 2015, Coast Bancorp has financing availability of approximately $3.7 million from the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco ("Federal Reserve"). The amount of funds borrowed from the Federal Reserve is determined by the collateral value of the assets pledged to Federal Reserve. As of December 31, 2015, the Bank had $8.9 million in loans pledged as collateral to the Federal Reserve with no outstanding borrowings.

On September 20, 2007 Coast Bancorp issued $7,217,000 of junior subordinated debt securities (the "debt securities") to Coast Bancorp Statutory Trust II, a statutory trust created under the laws of the State of Delaware. These debt securities are subordinated to effectively all borrowings of Coast Bancorp and are due and payable on September 20, 2037. The debt securities can be redeemed in whole or in part, without penalty, at the option of Coast Bancorp after five years. The debt securities can also be redeemed at par if certain events occur that impact the tax treatment or the capital treatment of the issuance.

Interest is payable quarterly on these debt securities at a fixed rate of 6.388% per annum for the first five years and thereafter at a variable rate which will reset quarterly at the three-month LIBOR plus 1.5% per annum. As of December 31, 2015, the rate was 2.012%. Pursuant to its right under the indenture agreement, Coast Bancorp has elected to defer interest payments on the debt securities and may continue this election for up to twenty consecutive quarterly periods without defaulting on the instrument. The last quarter that Coast Bancorp can defer interest is March 15, 2019 payable on June 16, 2019. Coast Bancorp paid the interest for the first deferral period ended June 15, 2014 of approximately $2.2 million.

Coast Bancorp also purchased a 3% minority interest, or $217,000, in Coast Bancorp Statutory Trust II. The balance of the equity of Coast Bancorp Statutory Trust II is comprised of mandatorily redeemable preferred securities. Coast Bancorp does not consolidate Coast Bancorp Statutory Trust II into Coast Bancorp financial statements. As of December 31, 2015, Coast Bancorp has included the net junior subordinated debt in its Tier 1 Capital for regulatory capital purposes.

On June 11, 2014 Coast Bancorp issued $2,000,000 of senior secured notes, due June 11, 2016 with interest payable annually, in arrears, at the fixed rate of 10% per annum through June 10, 2015 and thereafter at a fixed rate of 12% per annum. Net proceeds were used to pay the accrued and unpaid interest for the first deferral period on the debt securities. The senior secured notes were refinanced on June 5, 2015.

On June 5, 2015 Coast Bancorp issued a senior secured note for $2,500,000, due June 5, 2018 with interest payable quarterly, in arrears, at the fixed rate of 6% per annum. Under the terms of the note agreement, the sum of $300,000 is held by the lender in a reserve account to pay the interest on the note for the first two years. The principal may be prepaid in whole or in part at any time provided, however, that if any prepayment is made within the first twelve months after the date of the note, then a prepayment fee of one and one-half percent (1.5%) of the principal outstanding is immediately due and payable. The notes are secured by 100% of the common stock of Coast National Bank.

Capital Resources

As of December 31, 2015 Coast Bancorp had total shareholders' equity of $10.3 million, compared to $3.6 million at the end of 2014. The $6.7 million increase during 2015 was the result of net income of $6.8 million. Also, during 2015 additional paid-in capital increased $36,000 from stock-based compensation expense and accumulated other comprehensive income decreased $89,000 resulting from net unrealized losses on available-for-sale securities.

On June 16, 2014 Coast Bancorp issued 4,800,000 common shares with net proceeds of $4.2 million under a private placement offering. Net proceeds from the offering and the senior note described above were used to invest $3.5 million in Coast National Bank, satisfy the accrued and unpaid interest on the junior subordinated debt securities and for working capital for Coast Bancorp. Shareholders' equity also increased in 2014 from net income of $183,000 and accumulated other comprehensive income of $93,000 resulting from net unrealized gains on available-for-sale securities.

Under a 2009 private placement stock offering, Coast Bancorp issued one warrant to purchase an additional one share of common stock for every one share purchased. These warrants may be exercised at any time for ten years from the date of issuance, which was December 31, 2009; the exercise price is $5.50 per share. There were 123,181 warrants outstanding as of December 31, 2015 and 2014. No warrants have been exercised.

In July, 2013, the federal bank regulatory agencies approved the final rules implementing the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision's capital guidelines for U.S. banks. The phase-in period for the final rules began on January 1, 2015, with full compliance with all of the final rule's requirements phased in over a multi-year schedule. Under the final rules, minimum requirements increased for both the quantity and quality of capital held by Coast Bancorp and Coast National Bank. The rules include a new common equity Tier 1 capital to risk-weighted assets ratio of 4.5% and a capital conservation buffer of 2.5% of risk-weighted assets. The final rules also raise the minimum ratio of Tier 1 capital to risk-weighted assets from 4.0% to 6.0% and require a minimum leverage ratio of 4.0%. The final rules also implement strict eligibility criteria for regulatory capital instruments.

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System has adopted final amendments to the Small Bank Holding Company Policy Statement (Regulation Y, Appendix C) (the “Policy Statement”) that , among other things, raised from $500 million to $1 billion the asset threshold to qualify for the Policy Statement. Coast Bancorp qualifies for treatment under the Policy Statement and is no longer subject to consolidated capital rules at the bank holding company level.

The following table sets forth Coast National Bank's actual capital amount and ratios for the periods indicated:

Coast National Bank's current capital position exceeds all current guidelines established by the regulatory agencies. For additional details on risk-based and leverage capital guidelines, requirements, and calculations and for a summary of recent changes to risk-based capital calculations, see Note #14 to Coast Bancorp's audited financial statements which are included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Liquidity and Market Risk Management

Liquidity

Coast Bancorp's primary source of funding is deposits from its core banking relationships. The majority of Coast Bancorp's deposits are transaction, NOW or money market accounts that are payable on demand. Coast Bancorp manages its liquidity in a manner that enables it to meet expected and unexpected liquidity needs under both normal and adverse conditions. Coast Bancorp maintains significant on-balance sheet and off-balance liquidity sources, including a marketable securities portfolio and borrowing capacity through various secured and unsecured sources. Coast Bancorp maintains overnight federal funds borrowing lines of $4.5 million, in addition to its secured borrowing capacities with the FHLB and Federal Reserve, which had unused capacity of $14.7 million and $3.7 million at December 31, 2015, respectively. As of December 31, 2015, Coast Bancorp had no borrowings under its lines with the FHLB, Federal Reserve or with correspondent banks. The board of directors reviews the liquidity position and key liquidity measurements on a monthly basis. As of December 31, 2015, Coast Bancorp had sufficient liquidity with a ratio of cash and cash equivalents, interest-bearing balances with other banks and AFS securities equal to 33% of core deposits, down from 44% at December 31, 2014 as a result of loan growth during 2015.

Interest Rate Risk Management

Market risk can arise from changes in interest rates, exchange rates, commodity prices, or equity prices. Coast Bancorp does not engage in any trading of financial instruments and does not have any exposure to currency exchange rates, or price changes for commodities or equities. Interest rate risk arises from the maturity and re-pricing characteristics of its loans and deposits. Coast Bancorp is able to balance its interest rate sensitivity through the composition of its security portfolio.

Coast Bancorp measures its interest rate sensitivity through the use of a simulation model. The model incorporates the contractual cash flows and re-pricing characteristics from each financial instrument, as well as certain management assumptions. The model also captures the estimated impacts of optionality and duration and their expected change due to changes in interest rates and the shape of the yield curve. Coast Bancorp manages its interest rate risk through established policies and procedures. Coast Bancorp measures both the potential short term change in earnings (“earnings at risk”) and the long term change in market value of equity (“EVE”) on a quarterly basis. Both measurements use immediate rate shocks that assume parallel shifts in interest rates up and down the yield curve in 100 basis point increments. There are eight scenarios comprised of rate changes up or down to 400 basis points. Coast Bancorp has established policy thresholds for each of these eight scenarios. In the current interest rate environment, however, Coast Bancorp does not consider a decrease in interest rates that is greater than 200 basis points to be realistic and therefore only evaluates rate declines of 100 and 200 basis points.

Policy thresholds for earnings at risk for one year are limited to a change of no more than 10% for rate changes of 100 basis points, no more than 15% for changes of 200 basis points, 17.5% for changes of 300 basis points and no more than 20% for rate changes of 400 basis points. Policy thresholds for the change in EVE are limited to a change of no more than 10% for rate changes of 100 basis points, no more than 15% for changes of 200 basis points, and no more than 20% for rate changes of 300 and 400 basis points.

In addition Coast Bancorp performs a dynamic simulation of forecasted earnings for two years forward. This simulation entails a variety of assumptions comprising changes in growth rates, changes in the composition of the balance sheet, and various changes to interest rates over periods of time. The objective of these various simulation scenarios is to optimize the risk/reward equation for Coast Bancorp's future earnings and capital. Based upon the results of these various simulations and evaluations, Coast Bancorp is positioned to be asset sensitive, with earnings increasing in a rising rate environment. If interest rates were to increase by 100 basis points on an immediate, parallel and sustained basis, its net interest income would increase by $143,000 or 2.3% over the next 12 months. The following reflects the estimated net interest income sensitivity as of December 31, 2015:

Immediate Change in Rate

	-200 b.p.	-100 b.p.	+100 b.p.	+200 b.p.	+300 b.p.	+400 b.p.
	(Dollars in thousands)
Change in net interest income	$(555)	$ (281)	$ 143	$ 344	$ 542	$ 641
Percentage (%) change	(8.96)%	(4.54)%	2.30 %	5.56 %	8.74 %	10.35 %

In an effort to measure the long-term impact of interest rate risk, Coast Bancorp uses a technique called the economic value of equity (EVE), which calculates the net present value of Coast Bancorp's assets and liabilities, based on a discount rate derived from current replacement rates. The market value of equity is obtained by subtracting the market value of liabilities from the market value of assets. The change in market value of equity will differ based on the characteristics of each financial instrument and type of deposit. The longer the duration of a financial instrument, the greater the impact a rate change will have on its market value. As Coast Bancorp has minimal deposits with contractual maturities, the decay rate assumptions used for non-maturity deposits can have a significant impact on the market value of equity. The following reflects the estimated changes in EVE as of December 31, 2015: the CGCL, subject to certain exceptions. Sierra Bancorp's articles of incorporation also provide for the elimination of director liability for monetary damages to the maximum extent allowed by California law.

Immediate Change in Rate

	-200 b.p.	-100 b.p.	+100 b.p.	+200 b.p.	+300 b.p.	+400 b.p.

Cumulative Voting for Election of Directors Sierra Bancorp shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights with respect to the election of directors.

Shareholders are entitled to cumulate votes with respect to the election of directors at a shareholders' meeting for any candidate or candidates' whose names have been placed in nomination prior to the voting if the shareholder has given notice prior to the voting of the shareholder's intention to cumulate votes. If any shareholder has given such notice, then every shareholder entitled to vote may cumulate such shareholder's votes for candidates in nomination and give one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of votes to which such shareholder's shares are entitled, or distribute the shareholder's votes on the same principle among any or all of the candidates, as the shareholder thinks fit.

Same, except that Coast Bancorp's board of directors is elected annually to one-year terms of office.
Removal of Directors	Any or all of the directors may be removed without cause if such removal is approved by a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote; provided, however, that no director may be removed if the votes cast against removal of the director would be sufficient to elect the director if voted cumulatively (without regard to whether shares may otherwise be voted cumulatively) at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast (or, if the action is taken by written consent, all shares entitled to vote were voted) and either the number of directors elected at the most recent annual meeting of shareholders, or if greater, the number of directors for whom removal is being sought, were then being elected.	Same, except that for Coast Bancorp these provisions apply only through the CGCL and not through the Bylaws as well; and the caveat about whether shares may otherwise be voted cumulatively does not apply since Coast shareholders have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.
Notice of Shareholder Proposals and Director Nominations	In order for a shareholder of Sierra Bancorp to make a proposal for action or nominate a director, notice by such shareholder must be received by Sierra Bancorp not less than 120 days before the date corresponding to that on which Sierra Bancorp's proxy statement was released to the shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting of shareholders. If the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or after the anniversary date of the previous annual meeting, notice by the shareholder must be received by Sierra Bancorp not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which notice of the meeting is sent to shareholders.	Notice of intention to make any nominations shall be made to the President of Coast Bancorp not less than not less than 14 days nor more than 50 days prior to any meeting of shareholders called for the election of directors; provided, however, that if less than 21 days' notice of the meeting is given to shareholders, the time period is seven days after the notice of the meeting is sent to shareholders. 	Sierra Bancorp	Coast Bancorp
Payment of Dividends	The shareholders of Sierra Bancorp will be entitled to receive dividends when and as declared by its board of directors, out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends, as provided in the CGCL. For additional information on legal restrictions on the ability to pay dividends if this requirement is not met, as well as concerning Sierra Bancorp’s dividend policy, see “COMPARATIVE MARKET PRICE DATA AND DIVIDEND INFORMATION – Dividends” above.	Same, but see information concerning Coast rather than Sierra referenced in “Dividends” section.
Dissenters’ Rights	Under the CGCL, because Sierra Bancorp’s common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, which is a “national securities exchange” under the CGCL, Sierra Bancorp shareholders do not have dissenters’ rights with respect to a business combination or other reorganization requiring their vote unless their shares are subject to transfer restrictions.	Since Coast Bancorp common stock is not listed on a national securities exchange, Coast Bancorp shareholders generally have dissenters’ rights with respect to a business combination or other reorganization requiring their vote.
Amendment of Articles of Incorporation	Generally the CGCL requires a vote of the majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote to amend the articles of incorporation.	Same.

Anti-takeover Provisions	The CGCL does not provide for any specific anti-takeover provisions. Sierra Bancorp’s Articles of Incorporation provide for staggered terms of office for members of the board of directors; no cumulative voting in the election of directors; and the requirement that its board of directors consider the potential social and economic effects on our employees, depositors, customers and the communities we serve as well as certain other factors, when evaluating a possible tender offer, merger or other acquisition of Sierra Bancorp. These provisions make it more difficult for another company to acquire Sierra Bancorp, which could cause shareholders to lose an opportunity to be paid a premium for their shares in an acquisition transaction and reduce the current and future market price of Sierra Bancorp common stock.	The CGCL does not provide for any specific anti-takeover provisions, and Coast Bancorp’s Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws do not contain any provisions that make it more difficult for another company to acquire Coast Bancorp.

DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY TO ADJOURN

General

If there are not sufficient shares of Coast Bancorp stock represented to constitute a quorum at the special meeting or the number of shares of Coast Bancorp common stock voting "FOR" approval of the merger proposal is not sufficient to approve that proposal at the meeting, then the person(s) designated as the proxy holder stated in the proxy card of Coast Bancorp intends to move to adjourn the special meeting in order to enable the Coast Bancorp board of directors to solicit additional proxies for approval of the merger proposal.

In this proposal, Coast Bancorp is asking its shareholders to grant discretionary authority to the person(s) designated as the proxy holder stated in the proxy card to move to adjourn the special meeting if there are not sufficient shares represented to constitute a quorum at the meeting or if the number of shares voting for approval of the merger proposal is not sufficient to approve that proposal at the meeting. If the shareholders of Coast Bancorp approve the adjournment proposal, Coast Bancorp could adjourn the special meeting to another time and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from shareholders that have previously voted on the merger proposal. Among other things, approval of the adjournment proposal could mean that, even if Coast Bancorp has received proxies representing a sufficient number of votes against approval and adoption of the merger proposal, Coast Bancorp could adjourn the special meeting without a vote on the merger proposal and seek to convince the holders of those shares to change their votes to votes in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger proposal.

If the special meeting is adjourned so that the board can solicit additional proxies to approve the merger proposal, Coast Bancorp is not required to give any notice of the adjourned meeting other than an announcement of the place, date and time provided at the special meeting.

Vote Required

At the special meeting, the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of Coast Bancorp stock voted in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the adjournment proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, but will be treated as present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum.

Brokers may not vote on the adjournment proposal without specific instructions from the person who beneficially owns the shares. However, shares held by a broker to whom you do not give instructions on how to vote will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the adjournment proposal.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Coast Bancorp

The Coast Bancorp board of directors recommends a vote “FOR” adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger proposal.

The validity of the Sierra Bancorp common stock to be issued in the merger will be passed upon by King, Holmes, Paterno & Soriano, LLP, Los Angeles, California, legal counsel to Sierra Bancorp.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Coast Bancorp and Subsidiary as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2015 and 2014

NOTE #1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of Consolidation

The financial statements include the accounts of Coast Bancorp and its wholly owned subsidiary, Coast National Bank (“Bank”), collectively referred to herein as the “Company.” All significant intercompany transactions have been eliminated.

Nature of Operations

Coast Bancorp operates Coast National Bank. The Bank has been organized as a single operating segment and operates three full service branches in San Luis Obispo, Arroyo Grande, and Paso Robles, California. The Bank's primary source of revenue is providing loans to customers, who are predominantly small and middle-market businesses and individuals.

Subsequent Events

The Bank has evaluated subsequent events for recognition and disclosure through February 26, 2016, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Presentation of Cash Flows

For the purposes of reporting cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash, non-interest-earning deposits and federal funds sold. Generally, federal funds are sold for one day periods.

Cash and Due From Banks

Banking regulations require that all banks maintain a percentage of their deposits as reserves in cash or on deposit with the Federal Reserve Bank. The Bank complied with the reserve requirements as of December 31, 2015 and 2014.

The Company for the most part, does not maintain amounts due from banks which exceed federally insured limits. As such, the Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts.

Investment Securities

Bonds, notes, and debentures for which the Company has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity are reported at cost, and adjusted for premiums and discounts that are recognized in interest income using the interest method over the period to maturity.

Investments not classified as trading securities nor as held to maturity securities are classified as available-for-sale securities and recorded at fair value. Unrealized gains or losses on available-for-sale securities are excluded from net income (loss) and reported as an amount net of taxes as a separate component of other comprehensive income included in stockholders' equity. Premiums or discounts on held-to-maturity and available-for-sale securities are amortized or accreted into income using the interest method. Realized gains or losses on sales of held-to-maturity or available-for-sale securities are recorded using the specific identification method.

Declines in the fair value of individual held-to-maturity and available-for-sale securities below their cost, which are other than temporary, result in write-downs of the individual securities to their fair value. The related write-downs are included in earnings as realized losses. In estimating other than temporary impairment losses, management considers the length of time and the extent to which the fair value has been less than cost, the financial condition and near-term prospects of the issuer, and the intent and ability of the Bank to retain its investment in the issuer for a period of time sufficient to allow for any anticipated recovery in fair value. Management evaluates securities for other-than-temporary impairment ("OTTI") on at least a quarterly basis, and more frequently when economic or market conditions warrant such an evaluation. For securities in an unrealized loss position, management considers the extent and duration of the unrealized loss, and the financial condition and near-term prospects of the issuer. Management also assesses whether it intends to sell, or it is more likely than not that it will be required to sell, a security in an unrealized loss position before recovery of its amortized cost basis. If either of the criteria regarding intent or requirement to sell is met, the entire difference between amortized cost and fair value is recognized as impairment through earnings. For debt securities that do not meet the aforementioned criteria, the amount of impairment is split into two components as follows; OTTI related to credit loss, which must be recognized in the income statement and; OTTI related to other factors, which is recognized in other comprehensive income. The credit loss is defined as the difference between the present value of the cash flows expected to be collected and the amortized cost basis. For equity securities, the entire amount of impairment is recognized through earnings.

Loans

Loans receivable that management has the intent and ability to hold for the foreseeable future or until maturity or payoff are reported at their outstanding unpaid principal balances reduced by any charge-offs or specific valuation accounts and net of any deferred fees or costs on originated loans, or unamortized premiums or discounts on purchased loans. Loan origination fees and certain direct origination costs are capitalized and recognized as an adjustment of the yield of the related loan.

Interest income is accrued daily as earned on all loans. Loans on which the accrual of interest has been discontinued are designated as non-accrual loans. The accrual of interest on loans is discontinued when principal or interest is past due 90 days based on contractual terms of the loan or when, in the opinion of management, there is reasonable doubt as to collectibility. When loans are placed on non-accrual status, all interest previously accrued but not collected is reversed against current period interest income. Income on non-accrual loans is subsequently recognized only to the extent that cash is received and the loan's principal balance is deemed collectible. Interest accruals are resumed on such loans only when they are brought current with respect to interest and principal and when, in the judgment of management, the loans are estimated to be fully collectible as to all principal and interest.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE #1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES - Continued

Provision and Allowance for Credit Losses

The allowance for loan losses is a valuation allowance for probable incurred credit losses. Loan losses are charged against the allowance when management believes the uncollectibility of a loan balance is confirmed. Subsequent recoveries, if any, are credited to the allowance. Management estimates the allowance balance required using past loan loss experience, the nature and volume of the portfolio, information about specific borrower situations and estimated collateral values, economic conditions, and other factors. Allocations of the allowance may be made for specific loans, but the entire allowance is available for any loan that, in management's judgment, should be charged off. Amounts are charged-off when available information confirms that specific loans or portions thereof, are uncollectible. This methodology for determining charge-offs is consistently applied to each segment.

The Company determines a separate allowance for each portfolio segment. The allowance consists of specific and general reserves. Specific reserves relate to loans that are individually classified as impaired. The Company considers a loan to be impaired when it is probable that the Company will be unable to collect all amounts due (principal and interest) according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. Factors considered in determining impairment include payment status, collateral value and the probability of collecting all amounts when due. Measurement of impairment is based on the expected future cash flows of an impaired loan which are to be discounted at the loan's effective interest rate, or measured by reference to an observable market value, if one exists, or the fair value of the collateral for a collateral-dependent loan. The Company selects the measurement method on a loan-by-loan basis except when collateral-dependent loans for which foreclosure is probable are measured at the fair value of the collateral.

The Company recognizes interest income on impaired loans based on its existing methods of recognizing interest income on non-accrual loans. Loans, for which the terms have been modified resulting in a concession, and for which the borrower is experiencing financial difficulties, are generally considered troubled debt restructurings and classified as impaired with measurement of impairment as described above. Troubled debt restructurings are separately identified for impairment disclosures and are measured at the present value of estimated future cash flows using the loan's effective rate at inception. If a troubled debt restructuring is considered to be a collateral dependent loan, the loan is reported, net, at the fair value of the collateral. For troubled debt restructurings that subsequently default, the Company determines the amount of reserve in accordance with the accounting policy for the allowance for loan losses.

If a loan is impaired, a portion of the allowance is allocated so that the loan is reported, net, at the present value of estimated future cash flows using the loan's existing rate or at the fair value of collateral if repayment is expected solely from the collateral.

General reserves cover non-impaired loans and are based on historical loss rates for each portfolio segment, adjusted for the effects of qualitative or environmental factors that are likely to cause estimated credit losses as of the evaluation date to differ from the portfolio segment's historical loss experience. Qualitative factors include consideration of the following: changes in lending policies and procedures; changes in economic conditions, changes in the nature and volume of the portfolio; changes in the experience, ability and depth of lending management and other relevant staff; changes in the volume and severity of past due, nonaccrual and other adversely graded loans; changes in the loan review system; changes in the value of the underlying collateral for collateral-dependent loans; concentrations of credit and the effect of other external factors such as competition and legal and regulatory requirements.

Portfolio segments identified by the Company include real estate - construction and land development, real estate - other, commercial and consumer loans. Relevant risk characteristics for these portfolio segments generally include debt service coverage, loan-to-value ratios and financial performance on non-consumer loans and credit scores, debt-to income, collateral type and loan-to-value ratios for consumer loans.

There have been no significant changes to the Company's methodology or policies in the periods presented.

Transfers of Financial Assets

Transfers of financial assets are accounted for as sales when control over the assets has been surrendered. Control over transferred assets is deemed to be surrendered when the assets have been isolated from the Company, the transferee obtains the right (free of conditions that constrain it from taking advantage of that right) to pledge or exchange the transferred assets, and the Company does not maintain effective control over the transferred assets through an agreement to repurchase them before their maturity.

SBA Loans Sold and Other Government Loans

Small Business Administration (“SBA”) loans originated and intended for sale in the secondary market are carried at the lower of cost or estimated market value in the aggregate. Net unrealized losses are recognized through a valuation allowance by charges to income. Gains or losses realized on the sales of loans are recognized at the time of sale and are determined by the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying value of the loans sold, adjusted for any servicing asset or liability. Gains and losses on sales of loans are included in non-interest income.

Servicing Rights

Servicing rights are recognized separately when they are acquired through sale of loans. Servicing rights are initially recorded at fair value with the income statement effect recorded in gain on sale of loans. Fair value is based on a valuation model that calculates the present value of estimated future cash flows from the servicing assets. The valuation model uses assumptions that market participants would use in estimating cash flows from servicing assets, such as the cost to service, discount rates and prepayment speeds. The Company compares the valuation model inputs and results to published industry data in order to validate the model results and assumptions. All classes of servicing assets are subsequently measured using the amortization method which requires servicing rights to be amortized into non-interest income in proportion to, and over the period of, the estimated future net servicing income of the underlying loans.

Servicing assets are evaluated for impairment based upon the fair value of the rights as compared to the carrying amount. Impairment is determined by stratifying rights into groupings based on predominant risk characteristics, such as interest rate, loan type and investor type. For purposes of measuring impairment, the Company has identified each servicing asset with the underlying loan being serviced. A valuation allowance is recorded where the fair value is below the carrying amount of the asset. If the Company later determines that all or a portion of the impairment no longer exists for a particular grouping, a reduction of the allowance may be recorded as an increase to income. The fair values of servicing rights are subject to significant fluctuations as a result of changes in estimated and actual prepayment speeds and changes in the discount rates.

Servicing fee income which is reported on the income statement with service charges on deposits and other non-interest income is recorded for fees earned for servicing loans. The fees are based on a contractual percentage of the outstanding principal and recorded as income when earned. The amortization of servicing rights and changes in the valuation allowance are netted against loan servicing income.

Federal Home Loan Bank ("FHLB") Stock

The Bank is a member of the FHLB system. Members are required to own a certain amount of stock based on the level of borrowings and other factors, and may invest in additional amounts. FHLB stock is carried at cost, classified as a restricted security, and periodically evaluated for impairment based on the ultimate recovery of par value. Both cash and stock dividends are reported as income.

Other Real Estate Owned ("OREO")

Real estate acquired by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure is recorded at fair value at the date of the foreclosure, establishing a new cost basis by a charge to the allowance for loan losses, if necessary. Other real estate owned is carried at the lower of the Bank's carrying value of the property or its fair value, less estimated carrying costs and costs of disposition. Fair value is based on current appraisals less estimated selling costs. Any subsequent write-downs are charged against operating expenses and recognized as a valuation allowance. Operating expenses of such properties, net of related income, and gains and losses on their disposition are included in other operating expense.

Premises and Equipment

Land is carried at cost. Premises and equipment are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives, which ranges from three to ten years for furniture and fixtures and forty years for buildings. Leasehold improvements are amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the improvements or the remaining lease term, whichever is shorter. Expenditures for betterments or major repairs are capitalized and those for ordinary repairs and maintenance are charged to operations as incurred.

Advertising Costs

The Company expenses the costs of advertising in the period incurred.

Income Taxes

Deferred income taxes are computed using the asset and liability method, which recognizes a liability or asset representing the tax effects, based on current tax law, of future deductible or taxable amounts attributable to events that have been recognized in the consolidated financial statements. A valuation allowance is established to reduce the deferred tax asset to the level at which it is “more likely than not” that the tax asset or benefits will be realized. Realization of tax benefits of deductible temporary differences and operating loss carry forwards depend on having sufficient taxable income of an appropriate character within the carry forward periods.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Income Taxes – Continued

The Bank has adopted guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return and provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can be recognized in the financial statements only if, based on its merits, the position is more likely than not to be sustained on audit by the taxing authorities. Interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions are recorded as part of income tax expense.

Comprehensive Income

Changes in unrealized gain or loss on available-for-sale securities are the only components of accumulated other comprehensive income for the Company. The amount reclassified out of other accumulated comprehensive income relates to realized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities

Financial Instruments

In the ordinary course of business, the Company has entered into off-balance sheet financial instruments consisting of commitments to extend credit, commitments under credit card arrangements, commercial letters of credit, and standby letters of credit, as described in Note #12. Such financial instruments are recorded in the consolidated financial statements when they are funded or related fees are incurred or received.

Earnings per Share (“EPS”)

Basic EPS excludes dilution and is computed by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution that could occur if options or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted into common stock or resulted in the issuance of common stock that then shared in the earnings of the entity. The outstanding stock options and warrants were not considered in computing diluted income per share for 2015 and 2014 because they were antidilutive.

Weighted average common shares outstanding	5,646,881	3,503,319
Weighted average diluted shares outstanding	5,646,881	3,503,319

Stock-based Compensation

The Company recognizes the cost of employee services received in exchange for awards of stock options, or other equity instruments, based on the grant-date fair value of those awards. This cost is recognized over the period which an employee is required to provide services in exchange for the award, generally the vesting period. See Note #9 for additional information on the Company’s stock option plan.

Fair Value Measurement

Fair values is the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. Current accounting guidance establishes a fair value hierarchy, which requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The guidance describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the entity has the ability to access as of the measurement date.

Level 2: Significant other observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs that reflect the Bank's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability.

See Note #13 for more information and disclosures relating to the Bank's fair value measurements.

Reclassification

Certain reclassifications have been made in the 2014 consolidated financial statements to conform to the presentation used in 2015. These classifications are of a normal recurring nature and had no material impact of the Bank's previously reported financial statements.

Adoption of New Accounting Standards

In January 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-04, Receivables—Troubled Debt Restructurings by Creditors (Subtopic 310-40): Reclassification of Residential Real Estate Collateralized Consumer Mortgage Loans upon Foreclosure, a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force. This Update provides clarification as to when an in-substance repossession or foreclosure has occurred, i.e., the creditor is considered to have received physical possession of residential real estate property collateralizing a consumer mortgage loan and, therefore, the loan receivable should be derecognized and the real estate property should be recognized. Under ASU No. 2014-04, a creditor has received physical possession of residential real estate property collateralizing a consumer mortgage loan upon either (1) the creditor obtaining legal title to the property upon completion of a foreclosure or (2) the borrower conveying all interest in the property to the creditor to satisfy the loan through completion of a deed in lieu of foreclosure or a similar legal agreement. The Update also will require disclosure in annual and interim financial statements of both (1) the amount of foreclosed residential real estate property held by the creditor and (2) the recorded investment in consumer mortgage loans collateralized by residential real estate property that are in the process of foreclosure according to local requirements of the applicable jurisdiction. The amendments in this Update are effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2014. Adoption of this Update did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Recent Accounting Guidance Not Yet Effective

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). This Update requires an entity to recognize revenue as performance obligations are met, in order to reflect the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration the entity is entitled to receive for those goods or services. The following steps are applied in the updated guidance: (1) identify the contract(s) with a customer; (2) identify the performance obligations in the contract; (3) determine the transaction price; (4) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract; and (5) recognize revenue when, or as, the entity satisfies a performance obligation. These amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within that reporting period. Early adoption is permitted only as of annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016, including interim reporting periods within that period. The Company is currently evaluating the effects of ASU 2014-09 on its financial statements and disclosures, if any.

Recent Accounting Guidance Not Yet Effective – Continued

On January 5, 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-01, Financial Instruments-Overall: Recognition and Measurement of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities. Changes made to the current measurement model primarily affect the accounting for equity securities with readily determinable fair values, where changes in fair value will impact earnings instead of other comprehensive income. The accounting for other financial instruments, such as loans, investments in debt securities, and financial liabilities is largely unchanged. The Update also changes the presentation and disclosure requirements for financial instruments including a requirement that public business entities use exit price when measuring the fair value of financial instruments measured at amortized cost for disclosure purposes. This Update is generally effective for public business entities in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company is currently evaluating the effects of ASU 2016-01 on its financial statements and disclosures, if any.

On February 25, 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). The most significant change for lessees is the requirement under the new guidance to recognize right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for all leases not considered short-term leases, which is generally defined as a lease term of less than 12 months. This change will result in lessees recognizing right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for most leases currently accounted for as operating leases under current lease accounting guidance. The amendments in this Update are effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018 for public business entities and one year later for all other entities. The Company is currently evaluating the effects of ASU 2016-02 on its financial statements and disclosures.

NOTE #3 - LOANS

The Company's loan portfolio consists primarily of loans to borrowers within San Luis Obispo County and surrounding communities. Although the Company seeks to avoid concentrations of loans to a single industry or based upon a single class of collateral, real estate and real estate associated businesses are among the principal industries in the Company's market area and, as a result, the Company's loan and collateral portfolios are, to some degree, concentrated in those industries.

The Company also originates SBA loans and other governmental guaranteed loans which it periodically sells to governmental agencies and institutional investors. Revenues generated from the origination of loans guaranteed by the Small Business Administration under its various programs and sale of the guaranteed portions of those loans contribute to the Company's income. Funding for these SBA programs depends on annual appropriations by the U.S. Congress.

At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company was servicing approximately $16,314,000 and $17,130,000 respectively, in loans previously sold. The gain on sale of SBA and other loans was $293,000 and $426,000 for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

The following tables presents the activity in the allowance for loan losses and the loan losses for the year 2015 and 2014 and the recorded investment in loans and impairment method as of December 31, 2015 and 2014 by portfolio segment:

The Company categorizes loans into risk categories based on relevant information about the ability of borrowers to service their debt such as current financial information, historical payment experience, collateral adequacy, credit documentation, and current economic trends, among other factors. The Company analyzes loans individually by classifying the loans as to credit risk. This analysis typically includes larger, non-homogeneous loans such as commercial real estate and commercial and industrial loans. This analysis is performed on an ongoing basis as new information is obtained. The Company uses the following definitions for risk ratings:

Pass: Loans classified as pass include loans not meeting the risk rating definitions below.

Special Mention: Loans classified as special mention have a potential weakness that deserves management's close attention. If left uncorrected, these potential weaknesses may result in deterioration of the repayment prospects for the loan or of the institution's credit position at some future date.

Substandard: Loans classified as substandard are inadequately protected by the current net worth and paying capacity of the obligor or of the collateral pledged, if any. Loans so classified have a well-defined weakness or weaknesses that jeopardize the liquidation of the debt. They are characterized by the distinct possibility that the institution will sustain some loss if the deficiencies are not corrected.

Doubtful: An asset classified Doubtful has all the weaknesses inherent in one classified substandard with the added characteristic that the weaknesses make collection or liquidation in full, on the basis of currently existing facts, conditions, and values, highly questionable and improbable

NOTE #7 - JUNIOR SUBORDINATED DEBT SECURITIES AND SENIOR NOTE

On September 20, 2007, the Company issued $7,217,000 of junior subordinated debt securities (the “debt securities”) to Coast Bancorp Statutory Trust II, a statutory trust created under the laws of the State of Delaware. These debt securities are subordinated to effectively all borrowings of the Company and are due and payable on September 20, 2037. The debt securities can be redeemed in whole or in part, without penalty, at the option of the Company after five years. The debt securities can also be redeemed at par if certain events occur that impact the tax treatment or the capital treatment of the issuance.

Interest is payable quarterly on these debt securities at a fixed rate of 6.388% per annum for the first five years and thereafter at a variable rate which will reset quarterly at the three-month LIBOR plus 1.5% per annum. As of December 31, 2015, the rate was 2.012%. Pursuant to its right under the indenture agreement, the Company has elected to defer interest payments on the Trust Securities and may continue this election for up to twenty consecutive quarterly periods without defaulting on the instrument. The last quarter that the Company can defer interest is March 15, 2019 payable on June 16, 2019. The Company paid the interest for the first deferral period ended June 15, 2014 of approximately $2.2 million.

The Company also purchased a 3% minority interest in Coast Bancorp Statutory Trust II. The balance of the equity of Coast Bancorp Statutory Trust II is comprised of mandatorily redeemable preferred securities. The Company does not consolidate Coast Bancorp Statutory Trust II into the Company financial statements. As of December 31, 2015, the Company has included the net junior subordinated debt in its Tier 1 Capital for regulatory capital purposes.

On June 11, 2014 the Company issued $2,000,000 of senior secured notes, due June 11, 2016 with interest payable annually, in arrears, at the fixed rate of 10% per annum through June 10, 2015 and thereafter at a fixed rate of 12% per annum. On June 5, 2015 the Company issued a senior secured note for $2,500,000, due June 5, 2018 with interest payable quarterly, in arrears, at the fixed rate of 6% per annum. Under the terms of the note agreement, the sum of $300,000 is held by the lender in a reserve account to pay the interest on the note for the first two years. The principal may be prepaid in whole or in part at any time provided, however, that if any prepayment is made within the first twelve (12) months after the date of the note, then a prepayment fee of one and one-half percent (1.5%) of the principal outstanding is immediately due and payable. The notes are secured by 100% of the common stock of Coast National Bank.

The Company has net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $8.5 million for federal income tax purposes and $15.0 million for California Franchise tax purposes. Federal and California net operating loss carryforwards, to the extent not used will expire in 2034.

NOTE #10 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

In the ordinary course of business, certain officers, directors, shareholders, and employees of the Company have deposits with the Company. The balance of director and executive officer deposits at December 31, 2015 and 2014 was approximately $1,612,000 and $892,000 respectively.

The Company leased a branch location from a rental company, which includes a director as a partner. Refer to Note #4 – Premises and Equipment, for additional information regarding this lease.

NOTE #11 - COMMITMENTS

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into financial commitments to meet the financing needs of its customers. These financial commitments include commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit. Those instruments involve to varying degrees, elements of credit and interest rate risk not recognized in the statement of financial position.

The Company's exposure to loan loss in the event of nonperformance on commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit is represented by the contractual amount of those instruments. The Company uses the same credit policies in making commitments as it does for loans reflected in the consolidated financial statements.

As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company had the following outstanding financial commitments whose contractual amount represents credit risk:

	2015	2014
Commitments to extend credit	$26,087,000	$18,884,000
Standby letters of credit	340,000	734,000
	$26,427,000	$19,618,000

Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Standby letters of credit are conditional commitments to guarantee the performance of a Company customer to a third party. Since many of the commitments and standby letters of credit are expected to expire without being drawn upon, the total amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. The Company evaluates each customer's credit worthiness on a case-by-case basis. The amount of collateral obtained if deemed necessary by the Company is based on management's credit evaluation of the customer.

The Company is involved in various matters of litigation, which has arisen in the ordinary course of its business. In the opinion of management, the disposition of such pending litigation will not have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

NOTE #12 - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

Fair value is the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. The fair value hierarchy prioritizes inputs to valuation techniques used in fair value calculations. The three levels of inputs are defined as follows:

Level 1 – unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets accessible by the Company

Level 2 – inputs that are observable in the marketplace other than those inputs classified as Level 1

Level 3 – inputs that are unobservable in the marketplace and significant to the valuation

The Company maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs. If a financial instrument uses inputs that fall in different levels of the hierarchy, the instrument will be categorized based upon the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value calculation.

The majority of the Company's financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis include securities available for sale. The Company may be required, from time to time, to measure certain assets and liabilities on a non-recurring basis. Loans held for sale are measured at the lower of cost or fair value. Loans held for sale include the guarantee portion of our saleable SBA loans.

The following is a description of valuation methodologies used for assets and liabilities recorded at fair value.

Securities: The fair values of securities available-for-sale and held-to-maturity are determined by obtaining quoted prices on nationally recognized securities exchanges (Level 1) or matrix pricing, which is a mathematical technique used widely in the industry to value debt securities without relying exclusively on quoted prices for specific securities but rather by relying on the securities' relationship to other benchmark quoted securities resulting in a level 2 classification.

Collateral-Dependent Impaired Loans: A loan is considered impaired when it is probable that payment of interest and principal will not be made in accordance with the contractual terms of the loan agreement. Impairment is measured based on the fair value of the underlying collateral or the discounted expected future cash flows. The Company measures impairment on all non-accrual loans for which it has reduced the principal balance to the value of the underlying collateral less the anticipated selling cost. As such, the Company records impaired loans as non-recurring Level 2 when the fair value of the underlying collateral is based on an observable market price or current appraised value. When current market prices are not available or the Company determines that the fair value of the underlying collateral is further impaired below appraised values, the Company records impaired loans as Level 3. At December 31, 2015, the majority of all the Company's impaired loans were evaluated based on the fair value of their underlying collateral based upon the most recent appraisal available to management.

Other Real Estate Owned: Nonrecurring adjustment to certain commercial and residential real estate properties classified as other real estate owned are measured at fair value, less costs to sell. Fair values are generally based on recent third party appraisals of the property. These appraisals may use a single valuation approach or a combination of approaches including comparable sales and the income approach. Adjustments are routinely made in the appraisal process by the independent appraisers to adjust for differences between the comparable sales and income data available. Such adjustments are usually significant and typically result in a Level 3 classification of the inputs for determining fair value.

NOTE #12 - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT – Continued

Appraisals for other real estate owned are performed by certified general appraisers whose qualifications and licenses have been reviewed and verified by the Bank. Once received, a member of the Bank's credit administration department reviews the assumptions and approaches utilized in the appraisal as well as the overall resulting fair value. The Bank also determines what additional adjustments, if any, should be made to the appraisal values on any remaining other real estate owned to arrive at fair value. No significant adjustments to appraised values have been made as a result of this comparison process as of December 31, 2015.

The following table provides the hierarchy and fair value for each major category of assets and liabilities measured at fair value at December 31:

	Fair Value Measurement Using

Other real estate owned	$ -	$ -	$ 761,000	$ 761,000

Other real estate owned, which is carried at fair value less costs to sell, was approximately $761,000 as of December 31, 2014. OREO write-downs of approximately $201,000 are included in earnings for the period ended December 31, 2014.

COAST BANCORP AND SUBSIDIARYNOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*December 31, 2015 and 2014*NOTE #12 - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT – Continued

There were no Level 3 assets at December 31, 2015. Quantitative information about the Company's nonrecurring Level 3 fair value measurements as of December 31, 2014 is as follows:

December 31, 2014	Fair Value Amount	Valuation Technique	Unobservable Input
Other Real Estate Owned	$ 761,000	Appraisals/Purchase Offers	Selling Costs

The Company generally applies an 8% adjustment for applicable selling costs to its fair value determination for both collateral-dependent impaired loans and OREO

The Company's estimated fair value amounts have been determined using available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. However, considerable judgment is required to develop the estimates of fair value. Accordingly, the estimates are not necessarily indicative of the amounts the Company could have realized in a current market exchange. The use of different market assumptions and/or estimation methodologies may have a material effect on the estimated fair value amounts.

NOTE #13 - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Because no market exists for a significant portion of the Company's financial instruments, fair value estimates are based on judgments regarding current economic conditions, risk characteristics of various financial instruments, and other factors. These estimates are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment and therefore cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the fair values presented. The following methods and assumptions were used by the Company to estimate the fair value of its financial instruments at December 31, 2015 and 2014:

Cash and Cash Equivalents and Interest-Bearing Deposits in Other Banks: The carrying amount reported in the balances sheets approximate fair values due to their short-term repricing characteristics and are classified as Level 1.

Loans Held for Investment: Fair value is estimated by discounting expected future cash flows at a market rate of interest for loans of similar credit risk and maturity and are classified as Level 2.

FRB and FHLB Stock: The carrying amount approximates fair market value, as the stock may be sold back to the FHLB at carrying value and no other market exists for the sale of this stock and is classified as Level 1.

Accrued Interest Receivable and Payable: The recorded carrying value approximates the estimated fair value due to the short-term nature of the asset/liability and is classified as a Level 1.

NOTE #13 - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS - Continued

Deposits: The fair values of certificates of deposit are estimated by discounting the expected cash flows at current rates for instruments with similar maturities. The carrying values of transaction accounts are deemed to be fair value since they are payable on demand and are classified as a Level 1.

Senior Notes Payable: The fair value of senior notes payable is estimated by discounting expected future cash flows at a market rate of interest for instruments with similar maturities and is classified as a Level 2.

Subordinated Debentures: The fair value of subordinated debentures is estimated by discounting expected future cash flows at a market rate of interest for instruments with similar maturities and is classified as a Level 2.

Off-balance sheet commitments and standby letters of credit: The notional amount disclosed for off-balance sheet commitments and standby letters of credit is the amount available to be drawn down on all lines and letters of credit. The fair value of these financial instruments is not material.

NOTE #14- REGULATORY MATTERS

The Consent Order effective February 2011 with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (“OCC”) was terminated on April 9, 2014. The OCC terminated the Consent Order provided the following conditions be met: (1) By July 31, 2014 the Bank shall achieve and maintain Tier 1 capital of at least nine percent (9%) of adjusted total assets, and total risk-based capital of at least twelve percent (12%) of risk-weighted assets; (2) By July 31, 2014, and annually thereafter, the Bank shall submit an updated capital plan, which covers a minimum three year period, and includes specific growth and performance measurement criteria, and; (3) Prior to making any changes that will cause a significant deviation from the Bank’s operations or approved capital plan, the Bank will provide the OCC with a 60 day advance written notice, and must receive the OCC’s prior written determination of no supervisory objection prior to undertaking such changes. The Bank is in compliance with each of these conditions.

Effective April 22, 2010, the Company entered into an agreement with the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. The agreement sought to maintain the financial soundness of Coast Bancorp so that Coast Bancorp may serve as a source of strength to the Bank. The provisions in the agreement include: (1) Ensuring that the Bank complies with its agreement with the OCC; (2) No payments of dividends without prior Federal Reserve approval; (3) No receipt of dividends from the Bank without prior approval of the Federal Reserve; (4) No principal or interest payments for trust preferred securities without prior Federal Reserve approval; (5) No increase of debt without prior approval of the Federal Reserve; (6) No redemption of stock without prior Federal Reserve approval; and (7) Submission of regular progress reports and annual cash flow projections. Effective March 26, 2015, the Federal Reserve Board terminated the written enforcement agreement dated April 22, 2010.

In July, 2013, the federal bank regulatory agencies approved the final rules implementing the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision’s capital guidelines for U.S. banks. The phase-in period for the final rules began on January 1, 2015, with full compliance with all of the final rule’s requirements phased in over a multi-year schedule. Under the final rules, minimum requirements increased for both the quantity and quality of capital held by Coast Bancorp and Coast National Bank. The rules include a new common equity Tier 1 capital to risk-weighted assets ratio of 4.5% and a capital conservation buffer of 2.5% of risk-weighted assets. The final rules raise the minimum ratio of Tier 1 capital to risk-weighted assets from 4.0% to 6.0% and require a minimum leverage ratio of 4.0%. The final rules implement strict eligibility criteria for regulatory capital instruments. The final rules allow non-advanced approaches banks a one-time option to elect not to include certain components of accumulated other comprehensive income in regulatory capital, including unrealized gains or losses on available-for-sale securities.

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System has adopted final amendments to the Small Bank Holding Company Policy Statement (Regulation Y, Appendix C) (the "Policy Statement") that , among other things, raised from $500 million to $1 billion the asset threshold to qualify for the Policy Statement. Coast Bancorp qualifies for treatment under the Policy Statement and is no longer subject to consolidated capital rules at the bank holding company level.

The Bank is restricted as to the amount of dividends which can be paid. Dividends declared by national banks that exceed the net income (as defined) for the current year plus retained net income for the preceding two years must be approved by the OCC. The Bank may not pay dividends that would result in its capital levels being reduced below the minimum requirements stipulated above.

With certain exceptions, the Company may not pay a dividend to its shareholders unless its retained earnings equal at least the amount of the proposed dividend.

NOTE #15 - WARRANTS

In connection with the Company's 2009 private placement stock offering, the Company issued one warrant to purchase an additional one share of common stock for every one share purchased. These warrants may be exercised at any time for ten years from the date of issuance, which was December 31, 2009; the exercise price is $5.50 per share. NOTE #16 – PREFERRED STOCK RIGHTS

On June 12, 2014, the Company's Board of Directors adopted the Tax Benefit Preservation Plan (the "Plan"). The Plan is intended to preserve the tax benefits related to the future use of the Company's net operating loss carryforwards, which would be substantially diminished due to a change of ownership, as defined in Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code. On May 28, 2014, the Company's Board of Directors authorized and declared a dividend of one preferred share purchase right (a "Right") for each share of common stock of the Company outstanding as of the close of business on June 12, 2014. Each Right represents the right to purchase one one-thousandth (subject to adjustment) of a share of Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock and further authorizes and directs the issuance of one Right (subject to adjustment) with respect to each share of the Company's common stock that shall become outstanding between June 12, 2014 and the earlier of the "Distribution Date" or December 31, 2017. In accordance with the terms of the Plan, Rights may be issued with respect to shares of the Company's common stock that shall become outstanding after the Distribution Date and prior to December 31, 2017. The Distribution Date, as defined by the Plan, is the earlier of (i) the tenth day following the public announcement that an acquiring person has acquired 5% or more of the Company's outstanding stock, or (ii) the tenth day after the date (or such later date as may be determined by the Board) of the commencement of a tender or exchange offer that would result in the acquisition of 5% or more of the Company's outstanding stock.

Rights shall become exercisable, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, on the Distribution Date. The purchase price of the Rights shall initially be $10.00 for each one one-thousandth of a share of Preferred Stock, subject to adjustment. Upon the occurrence of certain events, the exercise price of the Rights would be adjusted and holders of the Rights (other than Rights owned by an acquiring person) would be entitled to purchase common stock at a significant discount to the current per share market price, which could cause substantial dilution to an acquiring person not approved by the Company's Board of Directors.

(b) No Effect on Stock of Parent. The Merger shall have no effect on the outstanding capital stock of Parent.

(c) Company Stock Options. Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each Company Stock Option that has not previously been exercised nor subject to a binding indication in writing from the option holder of their intent to exercise prior to the Determination Date (the "Option Exercise Notice Deadline"), whether or not then vested and whether or not then exercisable, shall terminate and be of no further effect and any rights thereunder to purchase shares of Company Common Stock shall also terminate and be of no further force or effect. Each holder of such terminated Company Stock Options that are in-the-money shall be entitled to receive, in lieu of each share of Company Common Stock that would otherwise have been issuable upon exercise thereof, an amount in cash without interest equal to (i) $2.25 minus (ii) the exercise price per share with respect to the corresponding Company Stock Option in question (such amount, the "Option Consideration"). Any payments pursuant to this Section 2.4(c) shall take place only after the satisfaction or fulfillment or waiver of the conditions of Closing contained in Article 6. Company Bank shall collect in cash (and timely pay) all applicable withholding and payroll taxes with respect to such options and shall comply with all payroll reporting requirements with respect thereto.

(d) Company Warrants. Each Warrant to purchase shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Closing Date shall be cancelled and become null and void.

(d) Any such election shall have been properly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have actually received a properly completed Election Form by the Election Deadline, and such election is not revoked or changed prior to the Election Deadline. Any Election Form may be revoked or changed by the person submitting such Election Form at or prior to the Election Deadline. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and of the Election Form, the Exchange Agent shall have reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation or change has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in the Election Forms, and any good faith decisions of Parent regarding such matters shall be binding and conclusive. Neither Parent nor the Exchange Agent shall be under any obligation to notify any person of any defect in an Election Form. To the extent the holder of Dissenting Shares submits an Election Form, such holder's election shall have no effect, the Exchange Agent will disregard such Election Form, and the Dissenting Shares shall be converted in accordance with Section 2.5(f).

(e) Within ten (10) Business Days after the Election Deadline, unless the Effective Time has not yet occurred, in which case as soon thereafter as practicable, Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to effect the allocation among the holders of Company Common Stock of rights to receive Parent Common Stock or cash in the Merger in accordance with the Election Forms as follows:

(i) Cash Election Shares, Dissenting Shares and Mixed Cash Shares More Than Aggregate Cash Consideration.

(C) the Exchange Agent shall then select from among the Cash Election Shares, by a pro rata selection process, a sufficient number of shares ("Stock Designated Shares") such that the aggregate cash amount that will be paid in the Merger equals as closely as practicable the Aggregate Cash Consideration, and all Stock Designated Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration; and

(D) the Cash Election Shares that are not Stock Designated Shares and all Mixed Cash Shares will be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration.

(ii) Cash Election Shares, Dissenting Shares and Mixed Cash Shares Less Than Aggregate Cash Consideration. If the aggregate cash amount that would be paid upon conversion in the Merger of the Cash Election Shares, Dissenting Shares and the Mixed Cash Shares is less than the Aggregate Cash Consideration, then:

(A) all Cash Election Shares and Mixed Cash Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration;

(B) all Dissenting Shares shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Section 2.4(e)(ii), to be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration;

(C) the Exchange Agent shall then select first from among the No Election Shares and then (if necessary) from among the Stock Election Shares, by a pro rata selection process, a sufficient number of shares ("Cash Designated Shares") such that the aggregate cash amount that will be paid in the Merger equals as closely as practicable the Aggregate Cash Consideration, and all Cash Designated Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration; and

(D) the Stock Election Shares and the No Election Shares that are not Cash Designated Shares and all Mixed Stock Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration.

(f) Cash Election Shares, Dissenting Shares and Mixed Cash Shares Equal to Aggregate Cash Consideration. If the aggregate cash amount that would be paid upon conversion in the Merger of the Cash Election Shares, Dissenting Shares and the Mixed Cash Shares is equal or nearly equal (as determined by the Exchange Agent) to the Aggregate Cash Consideration, then subparagraphs (i) and (ii) above shall not apply, and all Cash Election Shares and Mixed Cash Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration, and all Stock Election Shares, Mixed Stock Shares and No Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration, and all Dissenting Shares shall be converted in accordance with Section 2.6(f).

No dividends or other distributions with respect to Parent Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock represented thereby, and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder, and all such dividends, other distributions and cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be paid by Parent to the Exchange Agent and shall be included in the Exchange Fund, in each case until the surrender of such Certificate in accordance with the procedures set forth herein.

(e) Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificates shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Exchange Agent shall issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificates, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder thereof, and, if required by Parent or the Exchange Agent, the posting of a bond in such sum as Parent may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it or the Surviving Corporation with respect to such Certificates, the Merger Consideration in respect of the shares represented by those Certificates required pursuant to Section 2.6 at the times set forth in Article 2.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Party shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use all reasonable best efforts (i) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary to comply promptly with all Applicable Legal Requirements which may be imposed on such Party with respect to the Merger and the Bank Merger and to consummate the Merger and the Bank Merger, and (ii) to obtain (and to cooperate with the other Party to obtain) any consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any Governmental Entity and/or any other public or private third party which is required to be obtained or made by such Party or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to Applicable Legal Requirements or any contract or other obligation in connection with the Merger, the Bank Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that a Party shall not be obligated to take any action pursuant to the foregoing if the taking of such action or such compliance or the obtaining of such consent, authorization, order, approval or exemption shall result in a condition or restriction on such Party or on the Surviving Bank having an effect of the type referred to in Section 6.3(d). In furtherance and not in limitation of the Parties' obligations under this Section 5.3, each of the Parties further agrees as follows:

(a) Within forty five (45) days of the execution of this Agreement, Parent shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use all reasonable best efforts to prepare all necessary documentation and effect all necessary filings in order to obtain the Requisite Regulatory Approvals.

(b) The Parties shall cooperate with each other and shall each furnish the other and the other's counsel with all information concerning themselves, their Subsidiaries, directors, officers and stockholders and such other matters as may be necessary or advisable in connection with any application, petition or any other statement or application made by or on behalf of any Party to any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and Bank Merger. Company, Parent shall have the right to review in advance all filings made in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement with any Governmental Entity (other than with regard to information reasonably considered confidential by the providing Party). In addition, Company, Parent shall each furnish to the other a final copy of each such filing made in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement with any Governmental Entity (other than any part of such filings reasonably considered confidential by the providing Party).

(c) Subject to Applicable Legal Requirements, Company, Parent shall permit each other to review and discuss in advance, and consider in good faith the views of the other in connection with, any proposed written or material oral communication (or other correspondence or memoranda) between it and any Governmental Entity (except for any confidential portions thereof).

(d) Company, Parent shall promptly inform each other of and supply to each other any substantive communication (or other correspondence or memoranda) received by them from, or given by them to, any Governmental Entity, in each case, regarding any of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(e) Company, Parent shall provide that representatives of Company, Parent shall have the right to attend and participate in any hearing, proceeding, meeting, conference or similar event before or with any Governmental Entity or other organization relating to any Requisite Regulatory Approval or otherwise relating to any transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except as may otherwise be requested or required by such Governmental Entity. In furtherance of the foregoing, Company, Parent shall provide each other reasonable advance notice of any such hearing, proceeding, meeting, conference or similar event.

(f) Each of Company, Parent and their respective boards of directors shall, if any state takeover statute or similar statute becomes applicable to this Agreement, the Merger or any other transactions contemplated hereby, use all reasonable best efforts to provide that the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as reasonably practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise to minimize the effect of such statute or regulation on this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby.

5.4. Acquisition Proposals of Company.

(a) Company agrees that neither it nor any of its officers and directors shall, and that it shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, attorney or accountant retained by it) (collectively, “Representatives”) not to, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit or knowingly encourage (including by way of providing nonpublic information) the making of any inquiry, proposal or offer with respect to any transaction contemplating a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving it or any purchase or sale of 10% or more of its consolidated assets taken as a whole, or any purchase or sale of, or tender or exchange offer for, its voting securities that, if consummated, would result in any Person (or the stockholders of such Person) beneficially owning securities representing 10% or more of its total voting power (or of the surviving parent entity in such transaction) (any such proposal, offer or transaction (other than a proposal or offer made by Parent or an affiliate thereof or other than any transaction regarding a transfer of any Company Common Stock or any Company Preferred Stock by and among any principal shareholder of Company) being hereinafter referred to as an “Acquisition Proposal”), (ii) engage in any discussions or negotiations with or provide any nonpublic information to any Person concerning an Acquisition Proposal, or knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an Acquisition Proposal, or (iii) approve, endorse or recommend (including by resolution or otherwise of the Company Board), or propose to approve, endorse or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, memorandum of understanding, term sheet, merger agreement, asset purchase, share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement (whether binding or not) related to any Acquisition Proposal (other than an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement) or propose or agree to do any of the foregoing. Company shall be responsible for any actions taken by its Representatives that are inconsistent with this Section 5.4.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 5.4(a), prior to obtaining the Required Company Vote, Company shall be permitted, and subject to compliance in all material respects by Company with the other terms of this Section 5.4, to engage in discussions or negotiations with, and provide nonpublic information to, any Person who has submitted and not withdrawn an unsolicited, bona fide written Acquisition Proposal after the date of this Agreement that did not result from a breach of Section 5.4(a) if the Company Board concludes in good faith, After Consultation, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal; provided, however, that such Party (i) first enters into an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement, (ii) provides Parent at least one (1) Business Day prior written notice before engaging in any such discussions or negotiations or providing information to such Person and (iii) thereafter keeps Parent promptly and fully informed on a current basis of the status of all discussions and negotiations with such Person.

(c) Company shall notify Parent promptly (but in no event later than one (1) Business Day) after receipt of any Acquisition Proposal or any inquiry, request for nonpublic information or request for discussions or negotiations that relates to or might reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Company. Such notice shall be made orally and confirmed in writing, and shall indicate the identity of the Person making the Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry and the material terms and conditions of any expressions of interest, offers, proposals, requests or inquiries.

(d) Company agrees that (i) it shall, and shall instruct and use its reasonable best efforts to cause its Representatives to, cease immediately and terminate any and all existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any third parties conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, and shall promptly request each Person, if any, that has heretofore executed a confidentiality agreement with such Party in connection with the consideration of any Acquisition Proposal, to return or destroy all confidential information or data heretofore furnished to such Person, (ii) it shall enforce (and not release any third party from or waive) any provisions of, any confidentiality, standstill, non-solicitation or similar agreement to which it is a party with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, and (iii) it shall not take any action to render inapplicable or to exempt any Person from any antitakeover statute, charter provision or bylaw. Company agrees that it shall use its reasonable best efforts to inform its Representatives of the obligations undertaken in this Section 5.4.

5.5. Termination of Employee Benefit Plans and Employee Matters.

(a) Company agrees that the Company Benefit Plans may be terminated, modified or merged into Parent Bank' Benefit Plans on or after the Closing Date, as determined by Parent Bank in its sole discretion, subject to compliance with applicable law so long as any such action does not reduce any benefits already accrued thereunder. At the request of Parent Bank, Company agrees to terminate no later than immediately before the Closing Date any Company Benefit Plans for which Company may have liability, to the extent such Company Benefit Plans permit termination so that Company will have no liability from and after the Closing Date, and Company will accrue any and all obligations with respect to the termination of such plans before the Closing Date. Parent Bank acknowledges that any termination or modification at the direction of Parent Bank will not (a) be deemed to cause the Company Financial Statements to have been prepared other than in accordance with GAAP, or (b) constitute a breach of any provision of this Agreement by Company.

(b) Parent agrees that as of and following the Effective Time, the employees of Company as of the Effective Time who are employed by Parent Bank after the Effective Time or who are offered and who accept employment with Parent Bank (collectively, the "Former Company Employees") shall be eligible to participate in Parent Bank' employee benefit plans in which similarly situated employees of Parent Bank participate, to the same extent as such similarly situated employees of Parent Bank participate.

(c) With respect to each employee benefit plan, program, policy or arrangement maintained by Parent Bank or Parent for the benefit of current employees of Parent Bank (each such plan, program, policy or arrangement, a "Parent Bank Plan"), Parent agree that for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, vesting and benefits (other than benefit accruals under any defined benefit pension plan), service with Company shall be treated as service with Parent Bank; provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits.

(d) Parent Bank shall have the right but not the obligation to offer employment immediately following the Effective Time to any and all persons who are expected to be officers and employees of Company immediately before the Effective Time. Company will provide Parent Bank with information regarding such persons' current employment arrangements with Company and will otherwise assist Parent Bank in making such offers.

(e) Company has adopted, and the board of directors of Parent Bank has approved, a retention and severance plan as described in Disclosure Schedule 5.5(e) ("New Plan"). The New Plan shall replace and be in lieu of any existing employee severance policies of Company. All payments under the New Plan shall provide for the execution of an agreement reasonably satisfactory to Parent as a condition to receipt of payments, which shall provide for (i) release of claims, and (ii) confidentiality of information. Employees of Company or Parent who receive retention bonuses under the New Plan will not be entitled to receive any severance payments unless the Parties shall otherwise mutually agree.

5.6. Fees and Expenses. Whether or not the Merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the Party incurring such expense, except as otherwise provided in Section 7.2 hereof.

5.7. Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Legal Requirements, indemnify, defend and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date hereof or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, an officer, director or employee of Company or any of its Subsidiaries (the "Indemnified Parties") against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation based in whole or in part on or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of Company or any Subsidiary of Company, and pertaining to any matter existing or occurring, or any acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, whether asserted or claimed prior to, or at or after, the Effective Time (including matters, acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby) ("Indemnified Liabilities").

(b) For a period of six years after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by Company (provided that Parent may substitute therefor policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous to the insured) with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred at or before the Effective Time; provided, however, that Parent Bank shall not be obligated to make annual premium payments for such insurance to the extent such premiums exceed 200% of the premiums paid as of the date hereof by Company for such insurance ("Company's Current Premium"), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed 200% of Company's Current Premium, then Parent shall cause to be maintained policies of insurance which, in Parent's good faith determination, provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to 200% of Company's Current Premium. In lieu of the foregoing, Company, in consultation with, but only upon the consent of Parent, which consent shall not unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed may obtain on or prior to the Effective Time a six-year "tail" policy or "extended discovery period" under Company's existing directors and officers insurance policy providing equivalent coverage to that described in the preceding sentence if and to the extent that the same may be obtained for an amount that does not exceed 200% of Company's Current Premium.

(c) Parent and Parent Bank shall indemnify an Indemnified Party for all expenses, including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel, that an Indemnified Party may incur in successfully enforcing the indemnity and other obligations provided for in this Section 5.7.

(d) If Parent or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger, or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 5.7.

(e) The provisions of this Section 5.7 (i) are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party, his or her heirs and representatives and (ii) are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such Person may have by contract or otherwise.

5.8. Public Announcements. Except to the extent required by Applicable Legal Requirements or the requirements of any listing agreement with or rules or regulations of Nasdaq, Parent and Company shall use reasonable best efforts (a) to develop a joint communications plan, and (b) to provide that all press releases and other public statements with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby shall be consistent with such joint communications plan, and (c) to consult with each other before issuing any press release or, to the extent practical, otherwise making any public statement with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. In addition to the foregoing, except to the extent required by Applicable Legal Requirements or the requirements of any listing agreement with or rules of Nasdaq, none of Parent or Company shall issue any press release or otherwise make any public statement or disclosure concerning the other or the other's Subsidiaries, business, financial condition or results of operations without the consent of the other, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

5.9. Listing on Nasdaq. Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the shares of Parent Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger to be authorized for listing on the Nasdaq Global Select Market ("Nasdaq") as of the Effective Time.

5.10. Untrue Representations. Each party shall promptly notify the other party in writing if such party becomes aware of any fact or condition that makes untrue, or shows to have been untrue, any schedule or any other information furnished to the other party or any representation or warranty made in or pursuant to this Agreement or that results in such party's failure to comply with any covenant, condition or agreement contained in this Agreement.

5.11. Litigation and Claims. Each of Parent, on the one hand, or Company, on the other hand, shall promptly notify the other of any legal action, suit or proceeding or judicial, administrative or governmental investigation, pending or, to the knowledge of the notifying Person, threatened against the notifying Person that questions or might question the validity of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, or any actions taken or to be taken by the notifying Person pursuant hereto or seeks to enjoin, materially delay or otherwise restrain the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. Company shall give Parent the opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any stockholder litigation against Company or its directors or officers relating to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Company shall not enter into any settlement agreement in respect of any stockholder litigation against Company or its directors or officers relating to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement without the prior written consent of Parent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

5.12. Additional Agreements. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement or to vest the Surviving Bank with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of either of the Constituent Corporations, the proper officers and directors of each Party shall take all such necessary action, including the execution of all necessary and desirable agreements, certificates, instruments and documents.

5.13. Company Support Agreements. Simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, each of the directors of Company, other than its chief executive officer, shall enter into a Voting Agreement, Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation Agreement and each of the executive officers of Company shall enter into a Non-Solicitation Agreement.

The form of the Option Holder Agreement is attached as Exhibit D hereto.

Company shall update Disclosure Schedule 4.2(gg) at least three (3) Business Days prior to the Closing to reflect the final Transaction Expenses and Parent shall have received written evidence of such expenses prior to the Effective Time.

5.16. Disclosure Schedules. At least ten (10) days prior to the projected Closing, Company agrees to provide Parent and Parent agree to provide Company, with supplemental disclosure schedules reflecting any material changes thereto between the date of this Agreement and the delivery date. Delivery of such supplemental disclosure schedules shall not cure a breach or modify a representation or warranty of this Agreement. Any information set forth in any one section of the Company or Parent disclosure schedules shall be deemed to apply to each other applicable section or subsection of the Company or Parent disclosure schedules, respectively, if its relevance to the information called for in such section or subsection is reasonably apparent on its face notwithstanding the omission of any cross-reference to such other section.

5.17. Acquisition Proposals of Parent Bank and/or Parent. Parent shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and Representatives not to, enter, into any agreement with any Person subsequent to the Agreement Date that (i) would restrict Parent Bank' and/or Parent 's ability to comply with any of the terms of this Agreement, (ii) relates to any Acquisition Proposal that would materially impair Parent Bank' and/or Parent's ability to consummate the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or (iii) relates to any Acquisition Proposal, unless such Acquisition Proposal requires the completion of the Merger and payment of the Merger Consideration to the Company shareholders as provided in this Agreement prior to completion of any other Acquisition Proposal respecting Parent.

5.18. Observer Rights. One representative of Parent (the "Observer") may attend all meetings of the board of directors and the committees of the Company Board in a non-voting, non-participatory observer capacity. Parent shall bear all costs of the Observer. Company shall provide Observer with copies of all notices, minutes, consents and other board of directors or committee materials that it provides to all of its directors or to its committee members at the same time that such materials are provided to the members of the board of directors or committees; provided, however, that Company may withhold any information and exclude the Observer from any meeting, or any portion thereof, that relates to the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or that is reasonably determined by the chairman of the board or by a majority of the members of the board of directors or the applicable committee to be necessary for purposes of attorney client privilege. The Observer shall be subject to, and comply with, all Company policies concerning notes and other written communications concerning board or committee deliberations or actions. Parent agree, and Parent shall cause any Observer to agree to hold in confidence all information provided to Observer pursuant to this Section 5.18 and not to use or disclose any confidential information provided to or learned by Observer pursuant to this Section 5.18 other than to Parent Bank or Parent for purposes directly related to the interest of Parent Bank or Parent in the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5.19. Capital Trust and Junior Subordinated Debentures. In connection with the Closing, and with any required consent of the trustee for the Capital Trust, Parent shall assume all payment obligations of Company respecting the Fixed/Floating Rate Junior Subordinated Deferrable Interest Debentures due 2037 ("Junior Subordinated Debentures") and acquire all outstanding equity interests of Company in the Capital Trust all pursuant to agreements satisfactory to Parent in its sole discretion (the "Debt Assumption").

5.20. Redemption of Rights Termination of Shareholder Rights Plan. (b) by Parent or Company, upon written notice to the other Party, if (i) a Governmental Entity from which a Requisite Regulatory Approval is required has denied approval of the Merger or the Bank Merger and such denial has become final and non-appealable, or (ii) any Governmental Entity shall have issued an order, writ, decree or ruling or taken any other action permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger or the Bank Merger, and such order, writ, decree, ruling or other action has become final and nonappealable; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(b) shall not be available to any Party whose failure to comply with Section 5.3 or any other provision of this Agreement primarily shall have resulted in, or materially contributed to, such action;

(c) by either Parent or Company, upon written notice to the other Party, if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before the End Date; provided, however, that (i) such date may be extended one or more times, but not to a date any later than July 31, 2016, by notice from either Party delivered to the other Party on or before the End Date, or the later date to which such date has then been most recently extended as provided herein, if the only condition to the Closing that has not been satisfied or is not capable of being satisfied as of the date such notice is delivered is receipt of any Requisite Regulatory Approval and the satisfaction of such condition remains reasonably possible, as determined by the Parties in good faith, and (ii) the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(c) shall not be available to any Party whose failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement primarily shall have resulted in, or materially contributed to, the failure of the Effective Time to occur on or before such date;

(d) by Parent, upon written notice to Company, if (i) the Company Board effects a Company Change in Recommendation or fails to include the Company Board Recommendation in the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, (ii) Company enters into a definitive agreement providing for a Superior Proposal, (iii) within two (2) Business Days (or such longer period of time that the Company Board determines in good faith is reasonably necessary to comply with its fiduciary duties) of a written request by Parent for the Company Board to reaffirm the Company Board Recommendation following the date any Acquisition Proposal or any material change thereto is first publicly announced, published or sent to Company's stockholders, Company fails to issue a press release that reaffirms, unanimously and without qualification, the Company Board Recommendation (provided that such request may only be made once with respect to such Acquisition Proposal absent further material changes thereto), (iv) a tender offer or exchange offer (whether or not conditional) relating to shares of Company's capital stock shall have been commenced and the Company Board (or any committee thereof) fails to recommend against such tender offer or exchange offer within ten (10) Business Days after the commencement of such tender offer or exchange offer (including, for these purposes, by taking no position with respect to the acceptance by the Company's stockholders of any such tender offer or exchange offer within such period, which shall constitute a failure to recommend against such offer), or (v) Company intentionally breaches Section 5.1(c), Section 5.1(d) or Section 5.4;

(e) by Company, upon written notice to Parent, if (i) Company enters into a definitive agreement providing for a Superior Proposal prior to the receipt of the Required Company Vote not in violation of Section 5.1 or Section 5.4, and (ii) concurrently with such termination, Company pays the Company Termination Fee to Parent by wire transfer of immediately available funds;

(f) by Parent or Company, upon written notice to the other Party, if any application for Requisite Regulatory Approval shall have been denied or withdrawn at the request or recommendation of the Governmental Entity from which a Requisite Regulatory Approval is required, or by Parent if any such application is approved with commitments, conditions or understandings, contained in an approval letter or otherwise, which imposes a materially burdensome condition, as determined by Parent under Section 6.3(d), on Parent or the Surviving Bank, as applicable, or would otherwise materially alter the economics of the Merger for Parent.

(g) by Parent or Company, upon written notice to the other Party, if there shall have been a breach by the other Party (for purposes of this Section 7.1(g), Parent constitute one Party) of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of such Party, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate, would result in, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of a condition set forth in one of Sections 6.2(a), 6.2(b), 6.3(a) or 6.3(b), as the case may be, and which breach has not been cured within 30 days following written notice thereof to the breaching Party or, by its nature, cannot be cured within such time period;

(h) (i) by Parent or Company, upon written notice to the other Party, if a vote shall have been taken at the duly convened Company Shareholders Meeting (including any adjournments thereof) and the Required Company Vote shall not have been obtained, and one or more Directors or officers of Company that is a party to a Company Support Agreement shall have voted their shares against approval of the Merger or this Agreement, or (ii) by Parent if the Company Shareholders Meeting is not held on or before April 30, 2016, unless such delay results directly from any action or inaction by a Governmental Entity;

(i) by Parent, upon written notice to Company, if, since the date of this Agreement, there shall have occurred a Material Adverse Effect with respect to Company; or

(j) by Company, upon written notice to Parent, if there shall have been a breach by Parent or any of their Subsidiaries of Section 5.17.

7.2. Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by Company, Parent as provided in Section 7.1, this Agreement shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Legal Requirements, forthwith become void and of no effect and there shall be no liability or obligation on the part of Parent or Company or their respective officers or directors, except with respect to Sections 4.2(ff), 4.3(d), 5.2(b), 5.6, 7.1, and 7.2 and Article 8, which shall survive such termination, and, except that as otherwise provided herein, no Party shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its own fraud or willful and material breach of this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 7.2, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement, the Merger, and the other transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the Party incurring such fees or expenses, whether or not the Merger is consummated.

(b) Company shall pay Parent, by wire transfer of immediately available funds, the sum of $700,000 (the "Company Termination Fee") if this Agreement is terminated as follows:

(i) if Parent shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to clause (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) or (v) of Section 7.1(d), in which case, Company shall pay the Company Termination Fee to Parent within three (3) Business Days of Company's receipt of written notice of such termination; or

(ii) if Company shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(e), then Company shall pay the Company Termination Fee concurrently with such termination; or

(iii) if (A) any Party shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(c) following Company having taken action that constitutes a breach of Section 5.1(c) or if a third party has made an Acquisition Proposal prior to such termination, or Parent shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(h) following Company having taken action that constitutes a breach of Section 5.1(c) or if a third party has made an Acquisition Proposal prior to such termination, (B) at any time after the date of this Agreement and at or before such termination, Company shall have received an Acquisition Proposal, and (C) within twelve (12) months of the date of such termination of this Agreement, Company executes any definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, any such Acquisition Proposal (provided that for purposes of this clause (iii) only, the term "Acquisition Proposal" shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Section 5.4(a), except that the reference to "20% or more" in the definition of "Acquisition Proposal" shall be deemed to be a reference to "more than 50%"), then Company shall pay Parent the Termination Fee upon the date of such execution or consummation; or

(iv) if any Party entitled to terminate the Agreement under Section 7.1(h) shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(h), in which case, Company shall pay the Company Termination Fee to Parent within three Business Days.

(c) In the event of a material breach by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or Representatives of any of its or their covenants or agreements contained herein (including failing to take such actions as are required of it or them hereunder to consummate the Merger), Parent acknowledges and agrees that Company would be irreparably harmed, that monetary damages would not provide an adequate remedy, and that Company shall be entitled, without terminating this Agreement, to specifically enforce the terms hereof against Parent. Each Party acknowledges that there is not an adequate remedy at law to compensate Company relating to the non-consummation of the Merger. To this end, Parent, to the extent permitted by law, irrevocably waives any defense it might have based on the adequacy of a remedy at law which might be asserted as a bar to specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable relief. Parent further agrees that none of Company or any other Person shall be required to obtain, furnish or post any bond or similar instrument in connection with or as a condition to obtaining any remedy referred to in this Section 7.2(c), and Parent irrevocably waives any right it may have to require the obtaining, furnishing, or posting of any such bond or similar instrument.

(d) COMPANY AND PARENT ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THE AGREEMENTS CONTAINED IN SECTIONS 7.2(B) AND 7.2(C) ARE AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT, AND THAT, WITHOUT THESE AGREEMENTS, NEITHER PARTY WOULD ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT. THE AMOUNTS PAYABLE BY COMPANY PURSUANT TO SECTION 7.2(B) CONSTITUTE LIQUIDATED DAMAGES AND NOT A PENALTY AND SHALL BE THE SOLE MONETARY REMEDY OF PARENT, OR ANY OF ITS SUBSIDIARIES, IN THE EVENT OF TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT BY SUCH PARTY UNDER SUCH APPLICABLE SECTION GIVING RISE TO THE PAYMENT OF SUCH COMPANY TERMINATION FEE. IF COMPANY FAILS TO PAY WHEN DUE ANY AMOUNTS REQUIRED TO BE PAID BY IT PURSUANT TO SECTION 7.2(B) AND IN ORDER TO OBTAIN SUCH PAYMENT, PARENT COMMENCES AN ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING, THEN IN ADDITION TO THE AMOUNT OF SUCH JUDGMENT, THEN COMPANY SHALL PAY TO PARENT AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE FEES, COSTS AND EXPENSES (INCLUDING REASONABLE ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS AND EXPENSES) INCURRED BY THEM IN CONNECTION WITH SUCH ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING, TOGETHER WITH INTEREST ON ALL UNPAID AMOUNTS FROM THE DATE SUCH AMOUNTS WERE REQUIRED TO BE PAID UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AT THE PRIME LENDING RATE PREVAILING AT SUCH TIME, AS PUBLISHED IN THE WALL STREET JOURNAL, PLUS 3%. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL COMPANY BE OBLIGATED TO ACTUALLY PAY MORE THAN ONE (1) COMPANY TERMINATION FEE PURSUANT TO SECTION 7.2(B).

ARTICLE 8

MISCELLANEOUS

8.1. Nonsurvival of Representations, Warranties and Agreements. None of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement, including any rights arising out of any breach of such representations, warranties, covenants, and agreements, shall survive the Effective Time, except for those covenants and agreements contained herein and therein that by their terms apply or are to be performed in whole or in part after the Effective Time.

8.2. Amendment, Extension, Waiver.

(a) This Agreement may be amended by the Parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, at any time prior to the Effective Time, but, after any such approval, no amendment shall be made which by law requires further approval by stockholders without such further approval. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the Parties.

(b) At any time prior to the Effective Time, the Parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective board of directors, may, to the extent legally allowed, (iii) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other Party, (ii) waive any breaches in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements, covenants or conditions contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a Party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such Party. The failure of a Party to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights. No single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. Any waiver shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given and shall not constitute a waiver to any subsequent or other exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder.

8.3. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties, it being understood that each party need not sign the same counterpart.

8.4. Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction; Interpretation.

(a) This Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein, and all disputes between the Parties under or related to this Agreement or the facts and circumstances leading to its execution or performance, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without reference to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

(b) Each of the Parties (i) irrevocably submits itself to the personal jurisdiction of all state and federal courts sitting in the State of California, including to the jurisdiction of all courts to which an appeal may be taken from such courts, in any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any facts and circumstances leading to its execution or performance, (ii) agrees that all claims in respect of any such action, suit or proceeding must be brought, heard and determined exclusively in the State of California, (iii) agrees that it shall not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from such courts, (iv) agrees not to bring any action, suit or proceeding against the other Party or its Affiliates arising out of or relating to this Agreement, any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any facts and circumstances leading to its execution or performance in any other courts and (v) waives any defense of inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any action, suit or proceeding so brought. Each of the Parties agrees to waive any bond, surety or other security that might be required of any other Party with respect to any such action, suit or proceeding, including any appeal thereof.

(c) Each of the Parties agrees that service of any process, summons, notice or document in accordance with Section 8.4 shall be effective service of process for any action, suit or proceeding brought against it by the other Party in connection with Section 8.4(b), provided that nothing contained herein shall affect the right of any Party to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by applicable law.

(d) When a reference is made in this Agreement to Sections, Exhibits or Schedules, such reference shall be to a Section of or Exhibit or Schedule to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. The table of contents and headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.” The phrase “made available” or “furnished” in this Agreement shall mean that the information referred to has been made available if requested by the Party to whom such information is to be made available or access has been provided to (and print capabilities enabled on) a virtual data room containing such information. The phrases “herein,” “hereof,” “hereunder” and words of similar import shall be deemed to refer to this Agreement as a whole, including the Exhibits and Schedules hereto, and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. Any pronoun shall include the corresponding masculine, feminine and neuter forms. When a reference is made in this Agreement to “stockholder” or “stockholders,” such terms shall be interchangeable with “shareholder” or “shareholders” as it relates to the Parties or is applicable under California law. Each Party has been represented and advised by independent counsel of its choice in connection with the execution of this Agreement and has cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement and the documents delivered in connection herewith. Accordingly, any Applicable Legal Requirement that would require interpretation of this Agreement or any document delivered in connection herewith, including any ambiguous, vague or conflicting term herein or therein, against the drafter should not apply and is expressly waived.

8.5. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY DISPUTE WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LEGAL REQUIREMENTS, ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ARISING OUT OF, OR RELATING TO, THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF THE OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (B) EACH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (C) EACH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (D) EACH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 8.5.

8.6. Expenses. Except as otherwise provided for in Section 7.2, each party hereto will bear all expenses incurred by it in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including fees and expenses of its own financial consultants, accountants and counsel, provided that nothing contained herein shall limit either party’s rights to recover any liabilities or damages arising out of the other party’s fraud or willful breach of any provision of this Agreement.

8.7. Notices. All notices, requests and other communications hereunder to a party shall be in writing and shall be deemed given if personally delivered, telecopied (with confirmation) or mailed by registered or certified mail (return receipt requested) or delivered by an overnight courier (with confirmation) to such party at its address set forth below or such other address as such party may specify by notice to the parties hereto.

8.8. Entire Agreement; No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement (including the exhibits and schedules to this Agreement and the Confidentiality Agreement) constitute the entire agreement of the Parties and supersede all other prior agreements, understandings, representations and warranties, both written and oral, among the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. No representation, warranty, inducement, promise, understanding or condition not set forth in this Agreement has been relied upon or made by any of the Parties. Except as provided in Section 5.7, this Agreement is not intended to confer upon any Person other than the Parties any rights or remedies hereunder. The representations and warranties in this Agreement are the product of negotiations among the Parties and are for the sole benefit of the Parties. Any breaches in such representations and warranties are subject to waiver by the Parties in accordance with the terms of this Agreement without notice or liability to any other Person. The representations and warranties in this Agreement may represent an allocation among the Parties of risks associated with particular matters regardless of the knowledge of any of the Parties and may have been qualified by certain disclosures not reflected in the text of this Agreement. Accordingly, Persons other than the Parties may not rely upon the representations and warranties in this Agreement as characterizations of actual facts or circumstances as of the date of this Agreement or as of any other date. In no event shall the terms of this Agreement be deemed to (i) establish, amend or modify any employee benefit plan of Company or Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries or any other benefit plan, program, agreement or arrangement maintained or sponsored by any of them, (ii) alter or limit the ability of Company or Parent, or any of their respective Subsidiaries to amend, modify or terminate any employee benefit plan maintained by any of them, (iii) confer upon any current or former employee, officer, director or consultant, any right to employment or continued employment or continued service with Company or Parent or the Surviving Corporation or any of their Subsidiaries, or constitute or create an employment agreement with or for any individual, or (iv) alter or limit the ability of Company or Parent or the Surviving Corporation or any of their Subsidiaries to make necessary or appropriate changes to their respective businesses in response to changed circumstances, unforeseen events or the like. The disclosure in any correspondingly identified subsection of the disclosure schedules delivered by Company or Parent, as applicable, shall qualify (i) the corresponding subsection of this Agreement and (ii) the other Sections or subsections of this Agreement, to the extent that it is reasonably apparent from a reading of such disclosure that it also qualifies or applies to such other Sections or subsections.

8.9. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions, or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it has been held invalid or unenforceable, will remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated thereby, so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party hereto. Upon such determination, the parties will negotiate in good faith in an effort to agree upon a suitable and equitable substitute provision to effect the original intent of the parties.

8.10. Enforcement of the Agreement. The Parties agree that irreparable injury, for which damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms on a timely basis or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the Parties shall be entitled to an injunction or other equitable relief, without the necessity of proving actual monetary loss or posting any bond or other security, to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in any court identified in Section 8.10, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

8.11. Waiver of Conditions. The conditions to each of the parties' obligations to consummate the Merger are for the sole benefit of such party and may be waived by such party in whole or in part to the extent permitted by applicable laws.

8.12. Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to Sections, Exhibits or Schedules, such reference shall be to a Section of, or Exhibit or Schedule to, this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. The table of contents and headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not part of this Agreement. Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation." Whenever the words "as of the date hereof" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to mean the day and year first above written.

8.13. Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations of the Parties hereunder shall be assigned by either of the Parties (whether by operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other Party, and any attempt to make any such assignment without such consent shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Legal Requirements, be null and void. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

8.14. Alternative Structure. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Parent may at any time modify the structure of the acquisition of Company set forth herein, including to provide for a merger of a newly formed Subsidiary of Parent with and into Company, followed by the merger of Company with and into Parent as part of an integrated transaction, provided that the consideration to be paid to the holders of Company Common Stock and Company Stock Options is not thereby changed in kind or reduced in amount as a result of such modification and that such modification creates no additional adverse tax consequences for the holders of Company Common Stock or Company Stock Options. In the event Parent elects to make such a change, the parties agree to execute appropriate documents to reflect the change.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed in counterparts by their duly authorized officers, all as of the day and year first above written.

EXHIBIT A

VOTING AND NON-COMPETITION AND

NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT

This VOTING, NON-COMPETITION AND NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of the __ day of January, 2016, by and among SIERRA BANCORP, a California corporation and registered bank holding company ("Parent"), BANK OF THE SIERRA, a California corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent ("Parent Bank"), COAST BANCORP, a California corporation and registered bank holding company, ("Company"), COAST NATIONAL BANK, a national banking association and wholly-owned subsidiary of Company ("Company Bank") and the undersigned director of Company and Company Bank ("Director").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Parent and Company have entered into that certain Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger dated as of January __, 2016 (the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which Company will be merged with and into Parent, with Parent surviving the Merger (the "Merger"), and Company Bank thereafter merging with and into Parent Bank, with Parent Bank surviving such secondary merger (the "Bank Merger"). Terms with their initial letter capitalized and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given them in the Merger Agreement;

WHEREAS, Director understands and acknowledges that Director's execution and delivery of this Agreement is a material inducement to Parent and Company to enter into the Merger Agreement and a condition to the obligation of Parent to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual covenants contained herein and intending to be legally bound hereby, Parent, Company, Parent Bank, Company Bank and Director agree as follows:

1. Director Support. Director agrees that for a period of eighteen (18) months from the Effective Time, to use his/her commercially reasonable efforts to support and refrain from (a) disparaging the goodwill of Parent and Parent Bank, (b) harming their respective customer and client relationships, and (c) disparaging the business or banking reputation of Parent or Parent Bank.

2. Director Covenants. Director agrees that for a period of eighteen (18) months from the Effective Time, Director shall not, directly or indirectly, individually or as an employee, partner, officer, director, promoter or shareholder or in any other capacity whatsoever, except in the performance of customary legal, accounting, insurance, asset management, or investment or investment management services as performed at the time of execution of the Agreement or of a similar nature:

(a) solicit the banking business of any current customers of Company Bank or customers who are customers at the Effective Time;

Exhibit A - 1

[Name of Director]

(b) subject to the exceptions set forth in Section 2(f) below, (i) acquire, charter, operate or enter into any franchise or other management agreement with any “Financial Institution,” as defined below, in which Director shall be involved in activities competitive with Parent or Parent Bank, or Company or Company Bank, in each case as in existence as of the date hereof, (ii) serve as an officer, director, employee, agent, promoter, or consultant to any Financial Institution (whether in existence or in organization) in connection with activities that are competitive with Parent or Parent Bank, or Company or Company Bank, in each case as in existence as of the date hereof, or (iii) establish or operate a branch or other office of a Financial Institution, provided that the restrictions in clauses (i) though (iii) above shall apply only to any Financial Institution which has its principal California office located in Tulare, Kern, Fresno, Kings, San Luis Obispo or Ventura Counties in California or the cities of Santa Clarita or Valencia (“Covered Financial Institution”). For purposes of this Agreement, “Financial Institution” means a “depository institution” as that term is defined in 12 C.F.R. Section 348.2 and any parent or subsidiary thereof.

(c) Director further agrees that Director shall not:

(i) prior to the Effective Time, recruit, hire, assist others in recruiting or hiring, discuss employment with, or refer others concerning employment, any person who is, or within the preceding six (6) months was, an employee of Company or Company Bank; and

(ii) after the Effective Time and until the eighteen (18) month thereafter, recruit, hire, assist others in recruiting or hiring, any person who is an employee of Parent or Parent Bank at the date of the recruitment or hire or who was an employee of Parent or Parent Bank or Company or Company Bank within the six (6) months immediately preceding the date of the recruitment or hire; provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply to general recruitment, solicitations and/or hires through employment agencies or advertisements that are placed in publications of general circulations or trade journals whether on the internet or otherwise.

(d) If any court of competent jurisdiction should determine that any term or terms of this covenant are too broad with respect to time, geographic area, lines of commerce or otherwise, such court shall modify and revise any such term or terms so that they comply with applicable law.

(e) Director agrees that (i) this Agreement is entered into in connection with the conveyance to Parent and Parent Bank of the goodwill of the business of Company and Company Bank; (ii) Director is receiving valuable consideration in this Agreement and in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement; (iii) the restrictions imposed upon Director by this Agreement are essential and necessary to ensure that Parent and Parent Bank receive the goodwill of Company and Company Bank; and (iv) all the restrictions (including particularly the time and geographical limitations) set forth in this Agreement are fair and reasonable.

(f) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall require the Director to (i) divest any passive investment in any Covered Financial Institution existing as of the date of this Agreement, (ii) refrain from becoming a shareholder of no more than 24.9% of any class of equity security or other class of ownership interest or debt security of any Covered Financial Institution, (iii) resign from any board position held at any Covered Financial Institution as of the date of this Agreement, (iv) refrain from providing investment banking, financial advisory services or acting as a placement agent or underwriter, or similar business ("Financial Advisory Business") for any Covered Financial Institution if Director is currently actively engaged in the Financial Advisory Business, or (v) acting as an asset manager, receiver, trustee or in a similar capacity ("Asset Management Business") on behalf of any Covered Financial Institution if Director is currently actively engaged in the Asset Management Business.

Exhibit A - 2

[Name of Director]

(g) Director agrees, following the date hereof until this Agreement terminates, not to take any action that would make any representation or warranty of Director contained herein untrue or incorrect or have or would reasonably be expected to have the effect of preventing, impeding or interfering with or adversely affecting the performance by Director of his or her obligations under this Agreement.

(h) Director agrees to permit Parent and/or Company Bank to publish and disclose in any proxy statement or securities filing, Director's identity and ownership of shares of Company Bank's or Parent's capital stock and the nature of Director's commitments, arrangements and understandings under this Agreement.

(i) From time to time, at the request of Parent or Parent Bank and without further consideration, Director shall execute and deliver such additional documents and take all such further action as may be reasonably necessary or desirable to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

3. Release.

(a) Director acknowledges that he is aware of no existing claim or defense, personal or otherwise, or rights of set off whatsoever against Company or Company Bank, except as expressly provided herein. For and in consideration of the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, Director, for himself/herself and on behalf of his/her heirs and assigns (the "Director Releasing Parties"), releases, acquits and forever discharges Company and Company Bank and their predecessors, successors, assigns, officers, directors, employees, agents and servants, and all persons, natural or corporate, in privity with them or any of them, from any and all known claims or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, at common law, statutory or otherwise, which the Director Releasing Parties, or any of them, has now existing or that may hereafter arise in respect of any and all agreements and obligations incurred on or prior to the date hereof, or in respect of any event occurring or circumstances existing on or prior to the date hereof; provided, however, that Company and Company Bank shall not be released from any written contractual obligations or accrued benefits of Company or Company Bank to Director as set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto or any potential claim for indemnification under Company or Company Bank's articles of incorporation or association or bylaws (in each case as in existence on the date hereof) for any matters arising in connection with the Director's service as a director or officer or employee of Company or Company Bank relating to acts, circumstances, actions or omissions arising on or prior to the date hereof to the extent such claims have not been asserted or are not known to Director.

[Name of Director]

(b) It is expressly understood and agreed that the terms hereof are contractual and not merely recitals, and that the agreements herein contained and the consideration herein transferred is to compromise doubtful and disputed claims, and that no releases made or other consideration given hereby or in connection herewith shall be construed as an admission of liability, all liability being expressly denied by Company and Company Bank. Director hereby represents and warrants that the consideration hereby acknowledged for entering into this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby is greater than the value of all claims, demands, actions and causes of action herein relinquished, released, renounced, abandoned, acquitted, waived and/or discharged, and that this Agreement is in full settlement, satisfaction and discharge of any and all such claims, demands, actions, and causes of action that Director may have or be entitled to against Company and Company Bank and their predecessors, assigns, legal representatives, officers, directors, employees, attorneys and agents other than obligations or liabilities to Director in connection with any written contractual obligations or accrued benefits of Company or Company Bank to Director as set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto.

4. Termination. Subject to the second sentence of Section 5, and excluding the release provided in Section 3, this Agreement shall terminate following the end of all restrictive covenant periods described in Section 2 above, except for liabilities or claims that shall have arisen or accrued on or before such termination.

5. Effective Time. This Agreement shall become effective on the date of execution of this Agreement. If the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, then this Agreement shall become null and void as of the date of the termination of the Merger Agreement and shall be of no further force and effect.

6. Specific Performance/Injunctive Relief. Director acknowledges that performance of the terms of this Agreement constitute valuable, special and unique property of Parent and Parent Bank critical to the business of Parent and Parent Bank and that any breach of this Agreement by Director will give rise to irreparable injury that is not compensable with money damages. Accordingly, Director agrees that Parent and Parent Bank shall be entitled to obtain specific performance and/or injunctive relief against the breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by Director. Parent, Parent Bank and Director hereby acknowledge and agree that Parent, Parent Bank, Company and Company Bank will be irreparably damaged if the provisions of this Agreement are not specifically enforced. Director further agrees to waive any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond or other security or the proof of actual damages in connection with such remedies. Such remedies shall not be exclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedy that Parent or Parent Bank may have at law or in equity.

7. Extension of Term of Restrictive Covenant. If Director violates any restrictive covenant contained in Section 2, and if any action to specifically enforce or enjoin the violation of a restrictive covenant contained in Section 2 is pending in a court of competent jurisdiction, then the term of such restrictive covenant will be extended by adding to it the number of days that Director's violation continues and the number of days during which such court action is pending only if and when the court grants specific performance or injunctive relief to the party seeking such relief; provided however, that the maximum aggregate number of days which may be added to the term of the restrictive covenant as a result of the foregoing is 365 days. If there are both a violation and a pending court action, then the number of days that each continues will be added to the term of such restrictive covenants, but days on which both continue will be counted only once.

8. Voting Agreement. From the date hereof until the earlier of (i) the Effective Time and (ii) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (the "Support Period"), Director agrees that at any shareholder meeting of Company to approve the Merger or any related transaction, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, the Director shall be present (in person or by proxy) and shall vote (or cause to be voted) all of his or her voting shares of capital stock of Company entitled to vote at such meeting, including all voting shares listed on Attachment A, and all voting shares of Company subsequently acquired by Director (together, "Owned Shares"): (a) in favor of approval of (i) the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, (ii) any other matter that is required to facilitate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and (iii) any proposal to adjourn or postpone such meeting to a later date if there are not sufficient votes to approve the Merger Agreement; and (b) against any action or agreement that would impair the ability of Parent or Parent Bank to complete the Merger or Bank Merger, the ability of Company and Company Bank to complete the Merger or Bank Merger, or that would otherwise be inconsistent with, prevent, impede or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; provided, that the foregoing applies solely to Director in his or her capacity as a shareholder and nothing in this Agreement shall prevent Director from discharging his or her fiduciary duties with respect to his or her role on the board of directors of Company or Company Bank. Director covenants and agrees that, except for this Agreement, he or she (c) has not entered into, and shall not enter during the Support Period any other voting agreement or voting trust with respect to the Owned Shares and (d) has not granted, and shall not grant during the Support Period a proxy, consent or power of attorney with respect to the Owned Shares except any proxy to carry out the intent of this Agreement.

9. Transfer Restrictions Prior to Merger. The Director will not, during the Support Period, except in respect of the Merger and receiving the Merger Consideration: (a) sell, transfer, assign, tender in any tender or exchange offer, pledge, encumber, hypothecate or similarly dispose of (by merger, by testamentary disposition, by operation of law or otherwise), either voluntarily or involuntarily, enter into any swap or other arrangements that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of, enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, lien, hypothecation or other disposition of (by merger, by testamentary disposition, by operation of law or otherwise) or otherwise convey or dispose of, any of the Owned Shares, or any interest therein, including the right to vote any Owned Shares, as applicable (a "Transfer"), or (b) grant any proxies, or enter into any contract, arrangement or understanding with respect to a Transfer of the Owned Shares, as applicable; provided that, Director may Transfer Owned Shares (i) for estate planning or philanthropic purposes, (ii) by operation of law, by will or pursuant to the laws of descent and distribution, provided that in the case of any action covered by clause (i) or (ii) the transferee shall agree in writing to be bound by the provisions of Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement.

10. Director Representations and Warranties. Director hereby represents and warrants to Parent, Parent Bank, Company and Company Bank as follows:

[Name of Director]

(a) Director has full legal right and capacity to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform Director's obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Director and the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Director and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of Director and no other actions or proceedings on the part of Director are necessary to authorize this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Director does not, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and the compliance with the provisions hereof will not (i) require Director to obtain the consent or approval of, or make any filing with or notification to, any governmental or regulatory authority, domestic or foreign, (ii) require the consent or approval of any other person pursuant to any agreement, obligation or instrument binding on Director or its properties and assets, (iii) conflict with or violate any organizational document or law, rule, regulation, order, judgment or decree applicable to Director or pursuant to which any of its or its affiliates' respective properties or assets are bound or (iv) violate any other agreement to which Director or any of its affiliates is a party including, without limitation, any voting agreement, shareholders agreement, irrevocable proxy or voting trust. The Owned Shares are not, with respect to the voting or transfer thereof, subject to any other agreement, including any voting agreement, shareholders agreement, irrevocable proxy or voting trust.

(d) On the date hereof, the Owned Shares set forth on Attachment A hereto are owned of record or beneficially by Director in the manner reflected thereon, include all of the owned of record or beneficially by Director, and are free and clear of any proxy or voting restriction, claims, liens, encumbrances and security interests, except (if applicable) as set forth on Attachment A hereto, which encumbrances or other items do not affect in any respect the ability of Director to perform Director's obligations hereunder. As of the date hereof Director has, and at the Company Bank Stockholders Meeting or any other shareholder meeting of Company Bank in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, Director (together with any such entity) will have (except as otherwise permitted by this Agreement), sole voting power (to the extent such securities have voting power) and sole dispositive power with respect to all of the Owned Shares, except as otherwise reflected on Attachment A.

(e) Director understands and acknowledges that each of Parent, Parent Bank, Company and Company Bank is entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon Director's execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement.

11. Resignation from Company Bank Board. Each Director hereby tenders his or her resignation from the Board of Directors of Company and Company Bank subject to and effective upon the Effective Time.

THE PARTIES CONSENT TO THE VENUE AND JURISDICTION OF ANY FEDERAL OR STATE COURT SITTING IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT TO ENFORCE THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY SUBMIT TO THE JURISDICTION (BOTH SUBJECT MATTER AND PERSONAL) OF ANY SUCH COURT AND IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVE (a) ANY OBJECTION ANY PARTY MIGHT NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE VENUE IN ANY SUCH COURT, AND (b) ANY CLAIM THAT ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM.

15. Legal Construction. If any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, any provision shall be fully severable, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision hereof, and this Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Agreement. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision, there shall be added automatically as a part of this Agreement, a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be valid and enforceable.

16. Notice. Unless otherwise provided herein, any and all notices, requests, instructions and other communications required or permitted to be given under this Agreement after the date hereof by any party hereto to any other party may be delivered personally or by nationally recognized overnight courier service or sent by mail or by facsimile transmission, at the respective addresses or transmission numbers set forth below and shall be effective (a) in the case of personal delivery or facsimile transmission, when received; (b) in the case of mail, upon the earlier of actual receipt or three (3) business days after deposit in the United States Postal Service, first class certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested; and (c) in the case of nationally-recognized overnight courier service, one (1) business day after delivery to such courier service together with all appropriate fees or charges and instructions for such overnight delivery. EXHIBIT B
VOTING AND NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT

This VOTING AND NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of the ___ day of January, 2016, by and among SIERRA BANCORP, a California corporation and registered bank holding company ("Parent"), BANK OF THE SIERRA, a California corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent ("Parent Bank"), COAST BANCORP, a California corporation and registered bank holding company ("Company"), COAST NATIONAL BANK, a national banking association and wholly-owned subsidiary of Company ("Company Bank"), and the undersigned executive officer of Company Bank and/or Company ("Executive Officer").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Parent and Company have entered into that certain Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger dated as of January 4, 2016 (the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which Company will be merged with and into Parent, with Parent surviving the Merger (the "Merger"), and Company Bank thereafter merging with and into Parent Bank, with Parent Bank surviving such secondary merger (the "Bank Merger"). Terms with their initial letter capitalized and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given them in the Merger Agreement; and

WHEREAS, Executive Officer understands and acknowledges that Executive Officer's execution and delivery of this Agreement is a material inducement to Parent and Company to enter into the Merger Agreement and a condition to the obligation of Parent and Parent Bank to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual covenants contained herein and intending to be legally bound hereby, Parent, Parent Bank, Company, Company Bank and Executive Officer agree as follows:

1. Executive Officer Support. Executive Officer agrees that for a period of one (1) year following the cessation of his or her service as an officer, consultant or employee of Company, Company Bank, Parent, Parent Bank or any other affiliate of Parent, to use his or her commercially reasonable efforts to refrain from (a) disparaging the goodwill of Parent and Parent Bank and Company and Company Bank and (b) intentionally disparaging the business or banking reputation of Parent or Parent Bank.

2. Executive Officer Covenants.

(a) Executive Officer agrees that Executive Officer shall not:

(i) prior to the Effective Time, recruit, hire, assist others in recruiting or hiring, discuss employment with, or refer others concerning employment, any person who is, or within the preceding three (3) months was, an employee of Company or Company Bank; provided, however, Executive Officer may assist any person who is or was an employee of Company or Company Bank within the preceding three (3) months seek employment elsewhere if that employee is not being offered employment after the Effective Time on the condition that any such employment not commence until after termination by Company or Company Bank; and

B-1

[Officer Name]

(ii) until the one (1) year anniversary of the later of (A) cessation of the service of Executive Officer as an officer, director, consultant or employee of Parent or Parent Bank, Company, or Company Bank, or any other affiliate of Parent and Company, and (B) the Effective Time, recruit, hire, assist others in recruiting or hiring, any person who is an employee of Parent or Parent Bank at the date of the recruitment or hire or who was an employee of Company or Company Bank within the preceding three (3) months immediately preceding the date of the recruitment or hire; provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply to general recruitment, solicitations and/or hires through employment agencies or advertisements that are placed in publications of general circulations or trade journals whether on the internet or otherwise.

(b) Executive Officer agrees that (i) this Agreement is entered into in connection with the conveyance to Parent and Parent Bank of the goodwill of the business of Company and Company Bank; (ii) Executive Officer is receiving valuable consideration in this Agreement and in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement; (iii) the restrictions imposed upon Executive Officer by this Agreement are essential and necessary to ensure that Parent and Parent Bank receive the goodwill of Company and Company Bank; and (iv) all the restrictions (including particularly the time and geographical limitations) set forth in this Agreement are fair and reasonable.

(c) Executive Officer agrees, following the date hereof until this Agreement terminates, not to take any action that would make any representation or warranty of Executive Officer contained herein untrue or incorrect or have or would reasonably be expected to have the effect of preventing, impeding or interfering with or adversely affecting the performance by Executive Officer of his or her obligations under this Agreement.

(d) Executive Officer agrees to permit Parent and/or Company to publish and disclose in any proxy statement or securities filing, Executive Officer's identity and ownership of shares of Company's or Parent's capital stock and the nature of Executive Officer's commitments, arrangements and understandings under this Agreement.

(e) From time to time, at the request of Parent or Parent Bank and without further consideration, Executive Officer shall execute and deliver such additional documents and take all such further action as may be reasonably necessary or desirable to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

3. Reserved

4. Termination. Subject to the second sentence of Section 5, this Agreement shall terminate following the end of the nonsolicitation period described in Section 2(a) above, except for liabilities or claims that shall have arisen or accrued on or before such termination.

B-2

[Officer Name]

5. Effective Time. This Agreement shall become effective on the date of execution of this Agreement. If the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, then this Agreement shall become null and void as of the date of the termination of the Merger Agreement and shall be of no further force and effect.
6. Specific Performance/Injunctive Relief. Executive Officer acknowledges that performance of the terms of this Agreement constitute valuable, special and unique property of Parent and Parent Bank critical to the business of Parent and Parent Bank and that any breach of this Agreement by Executive Officer will give rise to irreparable injury that is not compensable with money damages. Accordingly, Executive Officer agrees that Parent and Parent Bank shall be entitled to obtain specific performance and/or injunctive relief against the breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by Executive Officer. Parent, Parent Bank and Executive Officer hereby acknowledge and agree that Parent, Parent Bank, Company and Company Bank will be irreparably damaged if the provisions of this Agreement are not specifically enforced. Such remedies shall not be exclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedy that Parent may have at law or in equity.
7. Voting Agreement. From the date hereof until the earlier of (i) the Effective Time and (ii) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (the "Support Period"), Executive Officer agrees that at any shareholder meeting of Company to approve the Merger or any related transaction, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, the Executive Officer shall be present (in person or by proxy) and shall vote (or cause to be voted) all of his or her voting shares of capital stock of Company entitled to vote at such meeting, including all voting shares listed on Attachment A, and all voting shares subsequently acquired by Executive Officer (together, "Owned Shares"): (a) in favor of approval of (i) the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, (ii) any other matter that is required to facilitate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and (iii) any proposal to adjourn or postpone such meeting to a later date if there are not sufficient votes to approve the Merger Agreement; and (b) against any action or agreement that would impair the ability of Parent or Parent Bank to complete the Merger, the ability of Company and Company Bank to complete the Merger, or that would otherwise be inconsistent with, prevent, impede or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; provided, that the foregoing applies solely to Executive Officer in his or her capacity as a shareholder and nothing in this Agreement shall prevent Executive Officer from discharging his or her fiduciary duties with respect to his or her role as an officer or on the board of directors of Company or Company Bank. Executive Officer covenants and agrees that, except for this Agreement, he or she (c) has not entered into, and shall not enter during the Support Period any other voting agreement or voting trust with respect to the Owned Shares and (d) has not granted, and shall not grant during the Support Period a proxy, consent or power of attorney with respect to the Owned Shares except any proxy to carry out the intent of this Agreement.

[Officer Name]

8. Transfer Restrictions Prior to Merger. The Executive Officer will not, during the Support Period, except in respect of the Merger and receiving the Merger Consideration: (a) sell, transfer, assign, tender in any tender or exchange offer, pledge, encumber, hypothecate or similarly dispose of (by merger, by testamentary disposition, by operation of law or otherwise), either voluntarily or involuntarily, enter into any swap or other arrangements that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of, enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, lien, hypothecation or other disposition of (by merger, by testamentary disposition, by operation of law or otherwise) or otherwise convey or dispose of, any of the Owned Shares, or any interest therein, including the right to vote any Owned Shares, as applicable (a “Transfer”), or (b) grant any proxies, or enter into any contract, arrangement or understanding with respect to a Transfer of the Owned Shares, as applicable; provided that, Executive Officer may Transfer Owned Shares (i) for estate planning or philanthropic purposes, (ii) by operation of law, by will or pursuant to the laws of descent and distribution, provided that in the case of any action covered by clause (i) or (ii) the transferee shall agree in writing to be bound by the provisions of Sections 7 and 8 of this Agreement.

9. Extension of Term of Restrictive Covenant. If Executive Officer violates the non-solicitation covenant contained in Section 2(a), and if any action to specifically enforce or enjoin the violation of the covenant contained in Section 2 is pending in a court of competent jurisdiction, then the term of such restrictive covenant will be extended by adding to it the number of days that Executive Officer’s violation continues and the number of days during which such court action is pending only if and when the court grants specific performance or injunctive relief to the party seeking such relief; provided, however, that the maximum aggregate number of days which may be added to the term of the restrictive covenant as a result of the foregoing is 365 days. If there are both a violation and a pending court action, then the number of days that each continues will be added to the term of such restrictive covenants, but days on which both continue will be counted only once.

10. Executive Officer Representations and Warranties. Executive Officer hereby represents and warrants to Parent and Parent Bank and Company and Company Bank as follows:

(a) Executive Officer has full legal right and capacity to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform Executive Officer’s obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Executive Officer and the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Executive Officer and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of Executive Officer and no other actions or proceedings on the part of Executive Officer are necessary to authorize this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

14. Legal Construction. If any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, any provision shall be fully severable, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision hereof, and this Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Agreement. Re: Options to Purchase Stock

Ladies/Gentlemen:

Reference is hereby made to that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger ("Merger Agreement") dated January 4, 2016 by and between Sierra Bancorp ("Sierra") and Coast Bancorp ("Company") pursuant to which the Company will be merged with and into Sierra ("Merger") and the separate corporate existence of the Company shall cease.

I previously have been granted options to acquire shares of Company Common Stock, pursuant to one or more stock option agreements (the "Option Agreements") between Company and me, each of every one of which are listed on the attachment to this letter. With respect to the number of shares of Company Common Stock for which I have unexercised options under the Option Agreements to purchase such shares, which number of shares is set forth below my signature (the "Covered Options"), I acknowledge and agree that immediately prior to consummation of the Merger described above (the "Effective Time"), my Covered Options shall be terminated with no further action necessary on my part.

In consideration therefor, I shall receive, in lieu of the Covered Options and any and all shares of Company Common Stock that otherwise would have been issuable upon exercise of the Covered Options, an amount in cash without interest equal to (i) $2.25 minus (ii) the exercise price per share with respect to the Covered Option in question (such amount, the "Option Termination Consideration"). If the Termination Consideration determined for any Covered Option is less than zero, such Covered Option shall be cancelled without payment of any Termination Consideration. I acknowledge that the Option Termination Consideration to be received by me pursuant to this letter agreement, and the agreement of Sierra and Coast to complete the Merger, are adequate consideration for my agreement to the terms and conditions of this letter agreement, including, without limitation, the cancelation of the Option Agreements and the Covered Options and the release set forth below.

I hereby agree not to exercise any of my Covered Options before the Effective Time. I further agree (a) to accept the Option Termination Consideration for all of my Covered Options in full satisfaction of all my rights under the Covered Options, and (b) that, without limitation, subject to receipt of the Option Termination Consideration for the Covered Options, such Covered Options and the Option Agreements will be cancelled and will terminate at the Effective Time.

I acknowledge that receipt of the Option Termination Consideration is subject to the satisfaction or fulfillment or waiver of the conditions of Closing contained in the Merger Agreement, and that the Company may collect in cash (and timely pay) all applicable withholding and payroll taxes with respect to such options and shall comply with all payroll reporting requirements with respect thereto.

Upon receipt of any Option Termination Consideration or the cancellation of my Covered Options, I hereby release Company, Sierra and their respective subsidiaries, boards of directors, agents, attorneys, stockholders, successors and assigns from any and all obligations to me relating to the Covered Options and the Option Agreements. With respect to this release, I expressly waive and relinquish all rights and benefits afforded me by Section 1542 of the Civil Code of California and do so understanding and acknowledging the significance and consequence of such specific waiver of Section 1542. Section 1542 of the Civil Code of California states as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

Thus, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542, I expressly acknowledge that this release is intended to include in its effect, without limitation, all claims relating to the Covered Options and the Option Agreements that I do not now know or suspect to exist, and that this letter contemplates the extinguishment of any such claim or claims. I further agree to take such additional actions and deliver such additional documents and certificates as may be reasonably requested by Company and/or Sierra to effect the transactions described in this Agreement.

In the event the Merger Agreement is terminated by Company or Sierra in accordance with its terms, this letter agreement shall automatically terminate and none of the parties hereto shall have any further liability or obligation to the other(s) with respect to the subject matter hereof in connection with the Covered Options.

Very truly yours,

Appendix B

Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code

1300. Right to Require Purchase—“Dissenting Shares” and “Dissenting Shareholders” Defined.

(a) If the approval of the outstanding shares (Section 152) of a corporation is required for a reorganization under subdivisions (a) and (b) or subdivision (e) or (f) of Section 1201, each shareholder of the corporation entitled to vote on the transaction and each shareholder of a subsidiary corporation in a short-form merger may, by complying with this chapter, require the corporation in which the shareholder holds shares to purchase for cash at their fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder which are dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b). The fair market value shall be determined as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first announcement of the terms of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in consequence of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, as adjusted for any stock split, reverse stock split, or share dividend that becomes effective thereafter.

(b) As used in this chapter, “dissenting shares” means shares to which all of the following apply:

(1) That were not, immediately prior to the reorganization or short-form merger, listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100, and the notice of meeting of shareholders to act upon the reorganization summarizes this section and Sections 1301, 1302, 1303 and 1304; provided, however, that this provision does not apply to any shares with respect to which there exists any restriction on transfer imposed by the corporation or by any law or regulation; and provided, further, that this provision does not apply to any shares where the holder of those shares is required, by the terms of the reorganization or short-form merger, to accept for the shares anything except: (A) shares of any other corporation, which shares, at the time the reorganization or short-form merger is effective, are listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100; (B) cash in lieu of fractional shares described in the foregoing subparagraph (A); or (C) any combination of the shares and cash in lieu of fractional shares described in the foregoing subparagraphs (A) and (B).

(2) That were outstanding on the date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote on the reorganization and (A) were not voted in favor of the reorganization or, (B) if described in paragraph (1), were voted against the reorganization, or were held of record on the effective date of a short-form merger; provided, however, that subparagraph (A) rather than subparagraph (B) of this paragraph applies in any case where the approval required by Section 1201 is sought by written consent rather than at a meeting.

(3) That the dissenting shareholder has demanded that the corporation purchase at their fair market value, in accordance with Section 1301.

(4) That the dissenting shareholder has submitted for endorsement, in accordance with Section 1302.

(c) As used in this chapter, “dissenting shareholder” means the recordholder of dissenting shares and includes a transferee of record.

1301. Demand for Purchase.

(a) If, in the case of a reorganization, any shareholders of a corporation have a right under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, to require the corporation to purchase their shares for cash, that corporation shall mail to each of those shareholders a notice of the approval of the reorganization by its outstanding shares (Section 152) within 10 days after the date of that approval, accompanied by a copy of Sections 1300, 1302, 1303, and 1304 and this section, a statement of the price determined by the corporation to represent the fair market value of the dissenting shares, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed if the shareholder desires to exercise the shareholder’s right under those sections. The statement of price constitutes an offer by the corporation to purchase at the price stated any dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, unless they lose their status as dissenting shares under Section 1309.

(b) Any shareholder who has a right to require the corporation to purchase the shareholder’s shares for cash under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, and who desires the corporation to purchase shares shall make written demand upon the corporation for the purchase of those shares and payment to the shareholder in cash of their fair market value. The demand is not effective for any purpose unless it is received by the corporation or any transfer agent thereof (1) in the case of shares described in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, not later than the date of the shareholders’ meeting to vote upon the reorganization, or (2) in any other case, within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval by the outstanding shares pursuant to subdivision (a) or the notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.

(c) The demand shall state the number and class of the shares held of record by the shareholder which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase and shall contain a statement of what the shareholder claims to be the fair market value of those shares as determined pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1300. The statement of fair market value constitutes an offer by the shareholder to sell the shares at that price.

1302. Endorsement of Shares.

Within 30 days after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or the notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, the shareholder shall submit to the corporation at its principal office or at the office of any transfer agent thereof, (a) if the shares are certificated securities, the shareholder's certificates representing any shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase, to be stamped or endorsed with a statement that the shares are dissenting shares or to be exchanged for certificates of appropriate denomination so stamped or endorsed or (b) if the shares are uncertificated securities, written notice of the number of shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase. Upon subsequent transfers of the dissenting shares on the books of the corporation, the new certificates, initial transaction statement, and other written statements issued therefor shall bear a like statement, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares.

§ 1303. Payment of agreed price with interest; agreement fixing fair market value; filing; time of payment

(a) If the corporation and the shareholder agree that the shares are dissenting shares and agree upon the price of the shares, the dissenting shareholder is entitled to the agreed price with interest thereon at the legal rate on judgments from the date of the agreement. Any agreements fixing the fair market value of any dissenting shares as between the corporation and the holders thereof shall be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, payment of the fair market value of dissenting shares shall be made within 30 days after the amount thereof has been agreed or within 30 days after any statutory or contractual conditions to the reorganization are satisfied, whichever is later, and in the case of certificated securities, subject to surrender of the certificates therefor, unless provided otherwise by agreement.

1304. Dissenter's Action to Enforce Payment

(a) If the corporation denies that the shares are dissenting shares, or the corporation and the shareholder fail to agree upon the fair market value of the shares, then the shareholder demanding purchase of such shares as dissenting shares or any interested corporation, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares (Section 152) or notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, but not thereafter, may file a complaint in the superior court of the proper county praying the court to determine whether the shares are dissenting shares or the fair market value of the dissenting shares or both or may intervene in any action pending on such a complaint.

(b) Two or more dissenting shareholders may join as plaintiffs or be joined as defendants in any such action and two or more such actions may be consolidated.

(c) On the trial of the action, the court shall determine the issues. If the status of the shares as dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall first determine that issue. If the fair market value of the dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall determine, or shall appoint one or more impartial appraisers to determine, the fair market value of the shares.

In giving our opinion, we have assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that has been provided to us by Coast and Sierra, and their respective representatives, and of the publicly available information that was reviewed by us. We are not experts in the evaluation of allowances for loan losses and have not independently verified such allowances. We assumed that the aggregate allowance for loan losses set forth in the financial statements of Sierra and Coast is adequate to cover such losses and complied fully with applicable law, regulatory policy and sound banking practice as of the date of such financial statements. We were not retained to and we did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of Coast or Sierra, did not make any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets, liabilities or prospects of Coast or Sierra, were not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal, and did not review any individual credit files. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market, and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Accordingly, it is important to understand that although subsequent developments may affect its opinion, we do not have any obligation to further update, revise, or reaffirm our opinion. We express no opinion on matters of a legal, regulatory, tax or accounting nature or the ability of the Merger, as set forth in the Agreement, to be consummated. No opinion is expressed as to whether any alternative transaction might be more favorable to holders of Coast's common stock than the Merger.

Vining Sparks IBG, L.P. ("Vining Sparks"), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of banks and bank holding companies, thrifts and thrift holding companies, and various other financial Vining Sparks' opinion as expressed herein is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of Coast common stock in the Merger and does not address Coast's underlying business decision to proceed with the Merger. We have been retained on behalf of the Board of Directors of Coast, and our opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any director of Coast as to how such director should vote with respect to the Agreement. In rendering this opinion, we express no opinions with respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of Coast or Sierra, or any class of such persons relative to the consideration to be received by the holders of the common stock of Coast in the transaction or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation.

In the two years prior to the issuance of this opinion, Vining Sparks engaged in securities and loan sales and trading activity with Coast and/or its subsidiary bank for which Vining Sparks was paid commissions or other fees, which may include mark-ups on the purchase or sale of loans and securities. In the two years prior to the issuance of this opinion, Vining Sparks has not had a material relationship with Sierra where compensation was received or that we contemplate will be received after closing of the transaction.

Except as hereinafter provided, this opinion may not be disclosed, communicated, reproduced, disseminated, quoted or referred to at any time, to any third party or in any manner or for any purpose whatsoever without our prior written consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, based upon review by us of the content of any such public reference, which shall be satisfactory to us in our reasonable judgment. This letter is addressed and directed to the Board of Directors of Coast in your consideration of the Merger and is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the Merger. This opinion was approved by the fairness opinion committee of Vining Sparks.
