ASCENDIA BRANDS, INC.

Attachment A

As preparation of the Company's financial statements are not yet complete, as described in Part III, all amounts and percentages described below are estimates as of the date of the filing of the attached Form 12b-25.

THIRTEEN WEEKS ENDED AUGUST 26, 2006 COMPARED TO THE THIRTEEN WEEKS ENDED AUGUST 27, 2005

GENERAL

The brand portfolio has grown through acquisition of well-recognized brands from a larger consumer products company, which at the time of acquisition were considered non-core by their previous owner and did not benefit from the focus of senior level management or strong marketing and sales support. After acquiring a brand, the focus is to increase its sales, market share and distribution in both existing and new channels. This growth will be driven by new marketing and sales strategies, improved packaging and formulations, innovative new products and line extensions.

REVENUES

Consolidated net revenues for the thirteen weeks ended August 26, 2006 increased $7.6 million (44.9%) when compared to net revenues for the thirteen weeks ended August 27, 2005. This quarter's volume was favorably impacted by the Company's acquisition of the former Playtex Brands, which resulted in an additional $9.5 million in revenue this quarter, compared to prior year.

U.S. revenues from the core Lander branded products decreased during the quarter by $1.5 million, primarily related to the strategic shift to premium value higher margin products and the planned decline of extreme value products. Sales of Lander Premium Value products, which include Lander Kids 1.5 liter bubble bath and Lander Essential Bath Products, increased by $1.4 million. In addition, net revenues of extreme value products (i.e. those retailing for $1.00) and private label products decreased by $2.9 million versus prior year, reflecting the Company's strategic shift to enhanced value, higher margin products.

Net sales derived from Lander Canada decreased by $0.4 million (10.1%) this quarter versus the same period last year. There was a decrease in extreme value products of $0.7 million, consistent with the trends previously discussed for the U.S. market. This decrease was partially offset by a positive impact from exchange rate gains of $0.3 million.

Net sales for the Wireless Application Division ( WAD ) division are not material for the thirteen weeks ended August 26, 2006 and August 27, 2005.

GROSS PROFIT

Consolidated gross profit increased to $4.5 million for the thirteen weeks ended August 26, 2006 compared to $1.2 million for the thirteen weeks ended August 27, 2005. The current quarter was favorably impacted by the Company's acquisition of the former Playtex brands which contributed $3.1 million to gross profit. The current quarter was impacted by an additional $.7 million inventory obsolescence reserve established against acquired Playtex products. The previously described mix shift to higher margin products more than offset higher material costs compared to prior year.

Gross profit for the Company's WAD division was not material for the thirteen weeks ended August 26, 2006 and August 27, 2005.

SELLING, GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Selling, general and administrative expenses were $5.8 million for the thirteen weeks ended August 26, 2006 compared to $3.5 million for the thirteen weeks ended August 27, 2005. The increase of $2.3 million is mainly attributable to factors associated with company's acquisition of the Playtex brands in November 2005 and the May 2005 merger with Cenuco, Inc. The Playtex asset acquisition accounts for $1.5 million of the increase specifically, $0.7 million relating to the amortization of intangibles assets, $0.6 million in increased sales and marketing expenses and $0.2 million for additional patent and registration costs. The balance of the increase of $0.8 million primarily relates to incremental salary, benefits and professional fees associated with being a public entity. Operating expenses in the Company's WAD division remained unchanged as compared to prior year.

OTHER INCOME (EXPENSE)

Interest expense was $3.0 million for the thirteen weeks ended August 26, 2006 compared to $0.3 million for the thirteen weeks ended August 27, 2005. The increase of $2.7 million over the thirteen weeks ended August 27, 2005 is primarily due to both the $80 million Bridge Loan used to fund the Playtex asset acquisition and the convertible notes totaling $91.0 million issued on August 2, 2006. This Bridge Loan was liquidated against the convertible notes.

The issuance of the Convertible Notes on August 2, 2006, triggered the establishment of warrant derivative liabilities, a convertible option liability, debt discount and deferred finance fees. This resulted in an increase in other income of $13.2 million. None of this applies to the thirteen weeks ended August 27, 2005.

TWENTY-SIX WEEKS ENDED AUGUST 26, 2006 COMPARED TO THE TWENTY-SIX WEEKS ENDED AUGUST 27, 2005

GENERAL

The brand portfolio has grown through acquisition of well-recognized brands from a larger consumer products company, which at the time of acquisition were considered non-core by their previous owner and did not benefit from the focus of senior level management or strong marketing and sales support. After acquiring a brand, the focus is to increase its sales, market share and distribution in both existing and new channels. This growth will be driven by new marketing and sales strategies, improved packaging and formulations, innovative new products and line extensions.

REVENUES

Consolidated net revenues for the twenty-six weeks ended August 26, 2006 increased $15.1 million (44.3%) when compared to net revenues for the twenty-six weeks ended August 27, 2005. This half's volume was favorably impacted by the Company's acquisition of the former Playtex Brands, which resulted in an additional $18.9 million in revenue this half, compared to prior year.

U.S. revenues from the core Lander branded products decreased during the half by $3.0 million, primarily related to the strategic shift to premium value higher margin products and the planned decline of extreme value products. Sales of Lander Premium Value products, which include Lander Kids 1.5 liter bubble bath and Lander Essential Bath Products, increased by $1.8 million, partially offset by a decrease of $1.0 million in Lander 64 ounce Adult Bubble Bath attributable to a prior year promotion at a major retailer. In addition, net revenues of extreme value products (i.e. those retailing for $1.00) and private label products decreased by $4.8 million versus prior year, reflecting the Company's strategic shift to enhanced value, higher margin products.

Net sales derived from Lander Canada decreased by $0.8 million (10.4%) this half versus the same period last year. There was a decrease in extreme value products of $1.4 million, consistent with the trends previously discussed for the U.S. market. This decrease was partially offset by a positive impact from exchange rate gains of $0.6 million.

Net sales for WAD division are not material for the twenty-six weeks ended August 26, 2006 and August 27, 2005.

GROSS PROFIT

Consolidated gross profit increased to $9.2 million for the twenty-six weeks ended August 26, 2006 compared to $2.3 million for the twenty-six weeks ended August 27, 2005. The current year was favorably impacted by the Company's acquisition of the former Playtex brands which contributed $7.2 million to gross profit. The current year was impacted by the additional $.7 million inventory obsolescence reserve established against acquired Playtex products. The strategic shift to higher margin products partially offset increased material costs and decreased factory utilization compared to prior year.

Gross profit for the Company's WAD division was not material for the twenty-six weeks ended August 26, 2006 and August 27, 2005.

SELLING, GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Selling, general and administrative expenses were $10.6 million for the twenty-six weeks ended August 26, 2006 compared to $6.2 million for the twenty-six weeks ended August 27, 2005. The increase of $4.4 is mainly attributable to factors associated with company's acquisition of the Playtex brands in November 2005 and the May 2005 merger with Cenuco. The Playtex asset acquisition accounts for $2.7 million of the increase specifically, $1.5 million relating to the amortization of intangibles assets, $1.0 million in increased sales and marketing expenses and $0.2 million for additional patent and registration costs. An increase of $0.9 million primarily for incremental salary, benefits and professional fees associated with being a public entity. The balance of the increase of $0.8 million relates to the Company's WAD division in which $0.3 million is attributed to the amortization of intangibles assets and remaining $0.5 million for general operating expenses as compared to prior year.

OTHER INCOME (EXPENSE)

Interest expense, net increased to $5.5 million for the twenty-six weeks ended August 26, 2006. The increase of $4.8 million over the twenty-six weeks ended August 27, 2005 is primarily due to both the $80 million Bridge Loan used to fund the Playtex asset acquisition and the convertible notes totaling $91.0 million issued on August 2, 2006. This Bridge Loan was liquidated against the convertible notes.

The issuance of the Convertible Notes on August 2, 2006, triggered the establishment of warrant derivative liabilities, a convertible option liability, debt discount and deferred finance fees. This resulted in an increase in other income of approximately $13.2 million for the twenty-six weeks ended August 26, 2006. None of this applies to the twenty-six weeks ended August 27, 2005.
