Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On January 17, 2007, Ascendia Brands, Inc. (the Registrant) and its subsidiaries Ascendia Brands Co., Inc. and Lander Intangibles Corporation entered into an agreement (the Asset Purchase Agreement) with Coty Inc. and certain of its affiliates (collectively, Coty) to acquire Calgon[®] and the healing garden[®] brands and certain brand-related assets from Coty. The amount due at closing will be $125 million, consisting of $95 million in cash, a $20 million subordinated note and the balance in the Registrant's common stock. In addition, the Asset Purchase Agreement includes earn-out provisions under which the Registrant could become obligated to pay Coty up to an additional $15 million in cash and to issue up to an additional $5 million in subordinated debt in July 2009, subject to the attainment of specified revenue targets. The purchase price will also be increased or decreased dollar for dollar to the extent that the book value of the inventory purchased as of the closing date is five percent less than or more than, respectively, the value of the inventory after a post-closing physical inventory count. In connection with the issuance of the stock, Coty and the Registrant will enter into a two-year Lock-Up Agreement and a Registration Rights Agreement in customary form.

The Asset Purchase Agreement provides that, at closing, the Registrant will enter into a Transition Services Agreement, pursuant to which Coty will perform certain transition services for the Registrant for a period of up to 120 days, in consideration of the payment of specified monthly fees. The Asset Purchase Agreement also provides that, at closing, the Registrant will enter into a Manufacturing Agreement with Coty, pursuant to which Coty will manufacture certain Calgon and the healing garden products for the Registrant for a period of up to one year (or such other period as the parties may agree).

The transaction, which is subject to customary closing conditions, is expected to close prior to March 1, 2007. In addition to the closing conditions in the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Registrant must obtain acquisition financing in order to close the transactions.

The above description does not purport to be a complete statement of the parties' rights and obligations under the Asset Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1.

Except for its status as the contractual document between the parties with respect to the transactions described therein, the above-referenced agreement is not intended to provide factual information about the parties and the representations and warranties contained in such document are made only for purposes of the agreement and as of specific dates, are intended solely for the benefit of the parties to the agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed by the parties, including being qualified by disclosures between the parties. These representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, they should not be relied on by investors as statements of factual information.
