(together with its affiliates, “DSM”) for the issuance and sale of 25,000 shares of the Company’s Series B 17.38% Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the “Series B Preferred Stock”), which Series B Preferred Stock is convertible into the Company’s common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the “Common Stock”) as described below, at a price of $1,000 per share of Series B Preferred Stock, and a DSM Cash Warrant (as defined below) to purchase 3,968,116 shares of Common Stock and a DSM Dilution Warrant (as defined below) (collectively, the “DSM Warrants” and the shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the DSM Warrants, the “DSM Warrant Shares”) in a private placement pursuant to the exemption from registration under Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) and Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act (the “DSM Offering”). The net proceeds to the Company from the DSM Offering are expected to be approximately $24.8 million after payment of estimated offering expenses.

The DSM Purchase Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants of the parties. In addition, pursuant to the DSM Purchase Agreement, the Company, subject to certain exceptions, (i) may not issue, enter into any agreement to issue or announce the issuance or proposed issuance of any shares of Common Stock or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Common Stock until October 31, 2017, (ii) may not enter into an agreement to effect any issuance by the Company involving a Variable Rate Transaction (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) until May 11, 2018 and (iii) may not issue any shares of Common Stock or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Common Stock at a price below the Dilution Floor (as defined below) without DSM’s consent.

Upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Company, DSM shall be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Company the same amount that a holder of Common Stock would receive if the Series B Preferred Stock were fully converted to Common Stock immediately prior to such liquidation, dissolution or winding-up (without regard to whether such Series B Preferred Stock is convertible at such time), which amount shall be paid pari passu with all holders of Common Stock.

The foregoing description of the Series B Preferred Stock is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Form of Certificate of Designation of Preferences, Rights and Limitations of Series B 17.38% Convertible Preferred Stock,

The effectiveness of the anti-dilution adjustment provision of the DSM Cash Warrant and the exercise of the DSM Dilution Warrant will be subject to the Stockholder Approval (as defined below). Vivo Stockholder Agreement

In connection with, and as a condition to, the Vivo Closing, the Company and Vivo will enter into a Stockholder Agreement (the “Vivo Stockholder Agreement”) that sets forth certain rights and obligations of Vivo and the Company. Pursuant to the Vivo Stockholder Agreement, Vivo will have the right to designate one director selected by Vivo (the “Vivo Director”), subject to certain restrictions, to the Board. The Company will agree to appoint the Vivo Director and to use reasonable efforts, consistent with the Board’s fiduciary duties, to cause the Vivo Director to be re-nominated in the future; provided, that Vivo will no longer have the right to designate any Vivo Director at such time as Vivo beneficially owns less than 4.5% of the Company’s outstanding voting securities. In addition, for so long as Vivo beneficially owns at least 4.5% of the Company’s outstanding voting securities, a representative of Vivo shall be entitled to attend all Board meetings in a nonvoting observer capacity and to receive copies of all materials that the Company provides to its directors, at the same time and in the same manner, subject to certain exceptions. Furthermore, Vivo will have the right to purchase additional shares of capital stock of the Company in connection with a sale of equity or equity-linked securities by the Company in a capital raising transaction for cash, subject to certain exceptions, to maintain its proportionate ownership percentage in the Company (“Pre-Emptive Rights”).

Pursuant to the Vivo Stockholder Agreement, Vivo will agree not to sell or transfer any of the shares of Common Stock, Series D Preferred Stock or Warrants purchased by Vivo in the Vivo Offering, or any shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion or exercise thereof (the “Transfer Restricted Shares”), other than to its affiliates, without the consent of the Company during the one-year period following the Vivo Closing. Thereafter, Vivo will have the right to sell or transfer the Transfer Restricted Shares to any third party, other than a competitor of the Company or any controlled affiliate of a competitor of the Company; provided, that the Company will have a limited right of first offer with respect to any such sale or transfer other than to affiliates of Vivo. In addition, Vivo will agree that, other than in connection with the purchase, conversion or exercise of (i) the Series D Preferred Stock or Warrants purchased by Vivo pursuant to the Vivo Purchase Agreement or (ii) the exercise of Pre-Emptive Rights, until the later of (i) three years from the Vivo Closing and (ii) three months after there is no Vivo Director on the Board, Vivo will not, without the prior consent of the Board, among other things, purchase any Common Stock, any options or other rights to acquire Common Stock or any indebtedness of the Company, or make any public offer to acquire Common Stock, options or other rights to acquire Common Stock or indebtedness of the Company, that would result in Vivo and its affiliates beneficially owning more than 33% of the Company’s outstanding voting securities at the time of acquisition (assuming the exercise or conversion, whether then exercisable or convertible, of any shares of Series D Preferred Stock or Warrants beneficially owned by Vivo and/or its affiliates), join in any solicitation of proxies for any matter not previously approved by the Board, or join any “group” (as such term is defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) with respect to any of the foregoing.

In addition, the Company has agreed to register, via one or more registration statements (each, a “Registration Statement”) filed with the SEC under the Securities Act, the shares of Common Stock purchased in the Vivo Offering, as well as the Series D Conversion Shares and Vivo Warrant Shares. Under the terms of the Vivo Stockholder Agreement, the Company is required to use its reasonable efforts to prepare and file such Registration Statement as soon as practicable and no later than November 7, 2017, and to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Registration Statement to be declared effective by the SEC as soon as practicable and no later than December 22, 2017. In addition, Vivo may request that up to three of such registrations provide for an underwritten offering of such shares. In addition, if the Company registers any of its securities for public sale under the Securities Act, Vivo will have the right to include their shares in the registration statement, subject to certain exceptions. The managing underwriter of any underwritten offering will have the right to limit, due to marketing reasons, the number of shares registered by Vivo to 25% of the total shares covered by the Registration Statement. The Company will agree to pay all expenses incurred in connection with the exercise of such demand and piggyback registration rights, except for legal costs of Vivo, stock transfer taxes and underwriting discounts and commissions.

The foregoing description of the Vivo Stockholder Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Form of Vivo Stockholder Agreement filed as Exhibit 4.6 hereto, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Stockholder Approval

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreements, the Company has agreed to solicit from the Company’s stockholders such approval as may be required by the applicable rules and regulations of the NASDAQ Stock Market with respect to the anti-dilution provisions of the DSM Warrants and the Vivo Warrants (the “Stockholder Approval”) at an annual or special meeting of stockholders to be held on or prior to the date of the Company's 2018 annual meeting of stockholders (the "Stockholder Meeting"), and to use commercially reasonable efforts to secure the Stockholder Approval. DSM and Vivo may, at their option, upon at least 90 days' prior written notice, require the Company to hold the Stockholder Meeting prior to the Company's 2018 annual meeting of stockholders. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreements, if the Company does not obtain Stockholder Approval at the Stockholder Meeting, the Company will call a stockholder meeting every four months thereafter to seek the Stockholder Approval until the earlier of the date Stockholder Approval is obtained or the DSM Warrants and the Vivo Warrants are no longer outstanding. In addition, pursuant to the Purchase Agreements, until the Stockholder Approval has been obtained and deemed effective, the Company may not issue any shares of Common Stock or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Common Stock if such issuance would have triggered the anti-dilution adjustment provisions in the DSM Warrants or the Vivo Warrants (if the Stockholder Approval had been obtained prior to such issuance) without the prior written consent of DSM and Vivo, respectively.

This Current Report on Form 8-K shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy the securities discussed herein, nor shall there be any offer, solicitation or sale of the securities in any state in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of such state.
