PROXY STATEMENT

Annual Meeting of Stockholders

This Proxy Statement is being furnished to stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Board of Directors (the Board) of the Company for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Meeting) to be held at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the accompanying notice. This Proxy Statement is first being mailed to stockholders about May 14, 2003.

The close of business on April 17, 2003, has been fixed as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting or any adjournment thereof (the Record Date). As of the Record Date, there were 9,456,382 shares of the Company's Common Stock (Common Stock) outstanding, each of which is entitled to one vote.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as of the Record Date is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted towards a quorum. If a quorum is not present, the stockholders present may adjourn the Meeting from time to time, without notice, other than an announcement at the Meeting, until a quorum is present. At any such adjourned Meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the original Meeting.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the election.

All shares represented by properly executed proxies, unless previously revoked, will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the directions set forth on the proxies. IF NO DIRECTION IS GIVEN, THE SHARES WILL BE VOTED (i) FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES NAMED HEREIN, AND (ii) IN THE DISCRETION OF THE PROXY HOLDER WITH RESPECT TO OTHER BUSINESS AS MAY PROPERLY COME BEFORE THE MEETING.

A proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted by (a) the execution and submission of a revised proxy, (b) written notice to the Secretary of the Company, or (c) voting in person at the Meeting.

The Company will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies. In addition to the use of mail, proxies may be solicited by directors, officers and regular employees of the Company in person or by telephone or other means of communication. They will not be compensated for the solicitation, but may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses. Arrangements are also being made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation material to the beneficial owners of the Company's Common Stock, and the Company will reimburse them for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

Board Committees and Meetings

During 2002, the Board held five meetings. The Board maintains Audit and Compensation Committees that are both comprised solely of outside directors. The Board currently has an adhoc committee chaired by Peter F. Ricchiuti which is undertaking a search, and, if appropriate, overseeing the selection process for additional directors. The Audit Committee met six times during the year and the Compensation Committee met on two occasions, although on the first occasion the Board took up the issues originally on the agenda of the Compensation Committee. Each director attended at least 75% of the total number of Board and committee meetings held on which he served.

The Audit Committee is responsible to review, in consultation with the independent auditors, the Company's financial statements, accounting and other policies, accounting systems and system of internal controls. It also recommends the engagement of the Company's independent auditors and reviews other matters relating to the relationship of the Company with its auditors. The Audit Committee is comprised of Jake L. Netterville, Ronald A. LaBorde, David R. Pitts and Peter F. Ricchiuti. On February 25, 2003, Jake L. Netterville was appointed Chairman of the Audit Committee, replacing Ronald A. LaBorde.

The Compensation Committee is responsible to review and act on compensation levels and benefit plans for executives of the Company and the issuance of stock options under the Company's stock plans. The Compensation Committee is comprised of David R. Pitts and Peter F. Ricchiuti.

On February 25, 2003 the Board appointed Ronald A. LaBorde as Lead Director. It is intended that the Lead Director would undertake the following functions: consultations with the Chairman regarding the agenda for any Board meeting, general Board organization, annual evaluations of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer, dialogue with executive management and presiding over executive sessions with non-management directors. The Board may add additional duties to his role in the future.

Directors' Compensation

Effective March 1, the Chairman of the Audit Committee and the Lead Director each receive a monthly retainer of $2,000. All other directors, with the exception of Mr. Borne, receive a monthly retainer of $1,500. The Company does not pay a fee for each meeting attended by a director. Prior to that date, all directors, including Mr. Borne, received a monthly retainer of $1,000. In addition, all directors with the exception of Mr. Borne received a fee for each meeting attended.

Directors also receive stock options in amounts determined by the Compensation Committee. During 2002, each director, with the exception of Mr. Borne, was granted stock options for 10,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $9.95 per share, the fair market value on the date of the grant. All directors are also entitled to reimbursement for reasonable travel and lodging expenses incurred in attending meetings.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of its Common Stock to file reports of ownership and changes of ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Copies of all filed reports are required to be furnished to the Company. Based solely on the reports received by the Company, the Company believes all such persons complied with all applicable filing requirements during 2002.

Employment Agreements

Mr. Borne entered into a five-year employment agreement with the Company effective January 1, 1999, which provided for annual one-year renewals unless either party gives 30-day written notice of an election not to renew before the expiration of the term. The agreement provides for a base salary of $250,000 annually, with yearly increases of the greater of (i) 6%, (ii) the percentage increase, if any, of a specified consumer price index or (iii) $25,000. The agreement also provides for the issuance of stock and stock options, an annual bonus up to 100% of the base salary then in effect for the applicable year if the Company's operating income (loss) equals or exceeds the Company's budgeted projection for such year as approved by the Board, payment of an additional cash bonus sufficient to pay any taxes incurred as a result of the issuance of stock, stock grants or stock options, and payment of additional benefits such as an automobile allowance, education benefits, participation in Company benefit plans and life insurance benefits. The Board is permitted to defer the annual salary increase for up to three months.

If Mr. Borne's employment is terminated due to death, disability, without cause, upon Company default of the agreement, following a change of control of the Company, upon termination by the Company relating to automatic extensions of the agreement, or upon termination by Mr. Borne for failing to be elected to the Board, he will be entitled to receive the greater of the base salary he would have received had his employment continued for the remaining term of the agreement or an amount equal to one month's base salary for each $10,000 of total compensation he received in either (i) the highest of the last five years of the agreement or (ii) an amount equal to 150% of the total base salary for the previous fiscal year, whichever is greater. Compensation includes all salary, bonuses, stock, benefits, and personal perquisites, whether in cash or property. In addition, he will be entitled to receive all of the benefits and personal perquisites provided under the agreement, including but not limited to, automobile expenses, health and life insurance premiums and benefits, stock grants, and stock options during the period of time which is the greater of the remaining term of the agreement, or the number of months calculated by dividing $10,000 into his total compensation.

Graham and Browne each have employment agreements with the Company of indefinite duration, providing for an annual base salary ($180,000 for Mr. Graham, $165,000 for Mr. Browne) with minimum yearly increases, annual stock options and an annual bonus ($90,000 for Mr. Graham and $82,500 for Mr. Browne) if the Company's operating income (loss) equals or exceeds the Company's budgeted projection for such year as approved by the Board, and potentially higher amounts upon the attainment of certain performance criteria. The agreements also provide for additional benefits such as participation in employee health plans. If Mr. Graham is terminated without cause or following a change of control of the Company, he is entitled to severance compensation in an amount equal to eighteen months of his base salary. If Mr. Browne is terminated without cause he is entitled to severance compensation in an amount equal to six months base salary, or in the case of a termination following a change of control of the Company, twelve months base salary.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Company's executive compensation is supervised by the Compensation Committee of the Board. The Committee seeks to provide executive compensation that will support the achievement of the Company's financial goals while attracting and retaining talented executives and rewarding superior performance. In performing this function, the Committee reviews executive compensation surveys and other available information and may from time to time consult with independent compensation consultants.

The Committee seeks to provide an overall level of compensation to executives that is competitive within the healthcare industry and other companies of comparable size and complexity. Compensation in any particular case may vary from an industry average on the basis of annual and long-term Company performance, as well as individual performance. The Committee will exercise its discretion to set compensation based on its judgement and where external, internal or individual circumstances warrant.

Edgar Filing: AMEDISYS INC - Form DEF 14A

In general, the Company compensates its executive officers through a combination of base salary, annual incentive compensation in the form of cash and non-cash bonuses and long-term incentive compensation in the form of stock options.

Base Salary

Base salary levels for the Company's executive officers are set generally to be competitive in relation to the salary levels of executive officers in other companies within the healthcare industry or other companies of comparable size, taking into consideration the position's complexity, responsibility and need for special expertise. In reviewing salaries in individual cases, the Committee also takes into account individual experience and performance.

Annual Incentive Compensation

The Committee has historically structured employment arrangements with incentive compensation. Payment of bonuses has generally depended upon the Company's achievement of budgeted operating income (loss) targets established at the beginning of each fiscal year, or other significant corporate objectives. Individual performance is also considered in determining bonuses.

Other Compensation

In addition to cash and equity compensation programs, the executive officers participate in various other employee benefit plans. Executive officer participation in various clubs, organizations, and associations may also be funded by the Company.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation

The Company provides long-term incentive compensation through its stock option plan. The number of common shares covered by any grant is generally determined by the then-current stock price, subject in certain circumstances to vesting requirements. In special cases, however, grants may be made to reflect increased responsibilities or reward extraordinary performance.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Mr. Borne has served as chief executive officer since 1982. Mr. Borne's annual base salary for fiscal year 2002 was $325,000 pursuant to his employment agreement described herein.

Edgar Filing: AMEDISYS INC - Form DEF 14A

On February 25, 2003 the Compensation Committee approved amendments to Mr. Borne's contract. The Compensation Committee considered these changes to be minor in nature, are to the benefit of the Company, and were agreed to after consideration of the totality of the contract.

The overall goal of the Compensation Committee is to ensure that compensation policies are established that are consistent with the Company's strategic business objectives and that provide incentives for the attainment of those objectives. This is effected in the context of a compensation program that includes base pay, annual incentive compensation, and stock ownership.

accounting issues. Management advised the Committee that all financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the Committee discussed the statements with both management and the outside auditors. The Committee's review included discussion with the outside auditors of matters required to be discussed pursuant to Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees). With respect to the Company's outside auditors, the Committee, among other things, discussed with KPMG matters relating to its independence, including the disclosures made to the Committee as required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). On the basis of these reviews and discussions, the Committee recommended to the Board that they approve the inclusion of the Company's audited financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 for filing with the SEC.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

The firm of KPMG LLP ("KPMG") audited the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002, and has been selected as auditors for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered by KPMG in connection with the audit of the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002 and the reviews of the quarterly financial statements for 2002 were $146,700. In addition, aggregate fees of $227,800 were paid to KPMG during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 for other professional services. These professional services consisted primarily of tax return preparation fees of $75,000, tax planning and restructuring fees of $60,900, and audit fees on acquisition targets of $30,000. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, KPMG rendered no professional services in connection with the design and implementation of financial information systems. The Audit Committee has discussed the non-audit services provided by KPMG and the related fees and has concluded that these services and fees are compatible with maintaining auditor independence.

Representatives of KPMG will attend the stockholder meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement, and will be available to respond to questions.

The Company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 were audited by Arthur Andersen LLP ("Andersen"), our former independent accountants. On April 30, 2002, the Board of Directors of the Company, upon recommendation of the Audit Committee, dismissed Arthur Andersen LLP ("Andersen") as the Company's independent auditors.
