Competition Commission recommends approval for Harmony-Gold Fields merger

Harmony has today received notice from the Competition Commission that it is recommending approval for Harmony's proposed merger with Gold Fields to the Competition Tribunal. The recommendation comes with a condition that no more than 1500 employees at a managerial or supervisory level be retrenched as a result of the proposed merger.

Chief Executive Bernard Swanepoel said he was pleased that the recommendation had come through within the regulated time period. We are comfortable with the principle behind the condition that the Competition Commission has recommended since we've said all along that no more than 1500 retrenchments at a managerial or supervisory level were envisaged as part of the cost savings and synergies we plan to extract from Gold Fields' operations. We are now approaching the final hurdle in our plans to merge Harmony and Gold Fields. We remain convinced that a merger between the two companies will deliver a value proposition to all stakeholders, i.e. shareholders, employees and the various communities in which we will be operating.

According to the Competition Act of 1998, the Competition Tribunal is required to set a date for a pre-hearing or a hearing within ten business days of referral by the Competition Commission.
