PROXY STATEMENT

For The Annual Meeting Of Stockholders

To Be Held May 29, 2008

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Phoenix Footwear Group, Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware (the Company or Phoenix Footwear), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held on Thursday, May 29, 2008, at 8:30 A.M. at Company headquarters, 5840 El Camino Real, Suite 106, Carlsbad, California 92008, together with any and all adjournments thereof. This Proxy Statement, Phoenix Footwear's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007 filed with the Securities Exchange Commission (the SEC) and the enclosed proxy will first be sent or given to stockholders on or about April 29, 2008. You may also obtain a copy of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K without charge upon written request submitted to Phoenix Footwear Group, Inc., c/o Scott Sporrer, Interim Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary, 5840 El Camino Real, Suite 106, Carlsbad, California 92008 or, without charge, at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>).

SOLICITATION AND VOTING

The close of business on April 24, 2008 has been fixed as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting and at any adjournment. Each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share held of record in his or her name on that date. The Company had outstanding on the record date 8,173,943 shares of common stock, $.01 par value per share, being the only class of stock of the Company issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting.

The enclosed proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company, which has designated the nominees for directors listed below. A stockholder giving such proxy has the right to revoke it at the meeting or at any time prior thereto. A stockholder may revoke such proxy by attending the meeting and voting in person or by filing an instrument in writing revoking the proxy or by filing another duly executed proxy bearing a later date with the Secretary. All shares represented by proxies in the form enclosed herewith will be voted at the meeting and at any adjournments in accordance with the terms of such proxies, provided such proxies appear to be valid and to have been executed by stockholders of record entitled to vote at the meeting and have not previously been revoked. If no contrary instructions are given, the persons named in the proxy will vote FOR the seven nominees described on the following pages.

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors does not know of any matters not specifically referred to in this Proxy Statement which may come before the meeting. The deadline under Phoenix Footwear's By-Laws for stockholders to notify the Company of any director nominations or proposals to be presented at the Annual Meeting has passed. If any other business should properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons appointed by the enclosed form of proxy shall have discretionary authority to vote all such proxies, as they shall decide.

In order to conduct any business at the Annual Meeting, a quorum must be present in person or represented by valid proxy. The By-Laws of the Company provide that a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting, constitutes a quorum. Directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting by a plurality of the votes cast. Accordingly, the seven nominees receiving the highest number of votes cast at the Annual Meeting shall be elected to the Board of Directors. A majority of the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present is required in order to approve any other matter submitted to a vote of the stockholders, except in the case where the vote of a greater number of shares is required by law or under the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws.

Table of Contents

Abstentions may not be specified on the proposal relating to the election of directors. Shares which abstain from voting on any other matter which is properly presented shall be included for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but shall be excluded in tabulating votes cast for or against any proposal to which the abstention pertains.

Votes that are withheld with respect to any proposal will be excluded entirely from the vote taken for the proposal and will not be counted as present for purposes of the vote on such matter.

If you hold your shares in street name through a broker or other nominee, your broker or nominee may not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to some of the matters to be acted upon. Thus, if you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions, your shares may not be voted on those matters and will not be counted in determining the number of shares necessary for approval. Shares represented by such broker non-votes, however, will be counted in determining whether there is a quorum.

All costs of preparing, assembling and mailing the enclosed proxy material, and any additional material which may hereafter be sent in connection with the solicitation and collection of the enclosed proxy, will be paid by the Company and no part will be paid directly or indirectly by any other person. Solicitation of proxies may be made by personal interview, mail, telephone or telecopier by officers and regular employees of the Company but no additional compensation will be paid them for the time so employed.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

During fiscal 2007, the Board of Directors held six meetings and acted by written consent three times. Each of the incumbent directors attended more than 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and any committee on which he served. The Company has no policy regarding the attendance of directors at annual stockholder meetings. At the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders, six of the incumbent directors attended the meeting.

The Board of Directors has affirmatively determined that Messrs. DePerrior, Harden, Kratzer, and Port, constituting a majority of the nominees, are independent, as defined in the corporate governance rules of the American Stock Exchange. Each of these directors has been nominated for re-election. Additionally, two other directors who served during fiscal 2007, Robert Gunst and John Robbins, were also determined by the Board to be independent under the corporate governance rules of the American Stock Exchange. Messrs. Gunst and Robbins resigned from the Board in November 2007.

The Board has an Executive Committee whose function is to act when the full Board of Directors is unavailable. It has the authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Company, except those powers that cannot be delegated by the Board of Directors by law. Messrs. Riedman, Harden and DePerrior are members of the Committee. The Executive Committee did not meet in 2007.

The Board Compensation Committee oversees and administers the Company's compensation program for its executive officers and directors. The Compensation Committee bases its decisions on both individual performance and the Company's financial results. All compensation decisions are made solely by the Compensation Committee; however, the Compensation Committee may consult with the Chairman of the Board and the Company's Chief Executive Officer as part of its decision making process when examining their respective compensation packages. However, the Chief Executive Officer, as required by the AMEX, may not be present during voting or deliberations as to his or her compensation. The members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Kratzer, DePerrior and Port, each of whom is independent as defined in AMEX listing standards. The Compensation Committee met three times during 2007. The Compensation Committee has a charter, a current copy of which is available at the Company's website, www.phoenixfootwear.com.

The Board has a Retirement Plan Committee to administer its Retirement Savings Partnership Plan, or 401(k) Plan. Messrs. Riedman and DePerrior are members of the Committee, which met two times during 2007.

The Board has a Nominating and Governance Committee whose function is to make recommendations to the Board in identifying individuals qualified to become Board members and to recommend to the Board nominees for election to the Board; to assist the Board in establishing and implementing an effective corporate governance policy; to recommend appropriate committee charters; to lead the Board in its annual review of the Board's performance, and to recommend to the Board director nominees for each committee. Messrs. Kratzer, Harden, DePerrior and Port are members of the Committee, each of whom is independent as defined in AMEX listing standards. A current copy of the Nominating and Governance Committee Charter is posted at the Company's website, www.phoenixfootwear.com.

The Nominating and Governance Committee met several times informally during fiscal 2007 and acted by written consent on one occasion. The Committee ratified the nomination of the seven director candidates for election at the Annual Meeting by the Board of Directors, including a majority of the directors, all of whom are independent under the AMEX listing standards.

The Committee believes that persons nominated to serve as a director should possess certain minimum qualifications including, integrity, absence of conflicts of interest, demonstrated achievement in one or more fields, management or policy-making experience, business understanding and available time. These are only threshold criteria, however, and the Committee may also consider the contributions that a candidate can be expected to make to the collective functioning of the Board based on the totality of the candidate's credentials, experience and expertise, the composition of the board at the time, and other relevant circumstances. The Committee may also approve the candidacy of a nominee who does not satisfy all of these requirements if it believes the service of such nominee is in the best interests of the Company. Generally, the Committee will first consider current Board members because they meet the criteria listed above and possess an in depth knowledge of the Company, its history, strengths, weaknesses, goals and objectives. Before nominating a sitting director for re-election at the Annual Meeting, however, the Committee will consider the director's performance on the Board.

When seeking candidates for director, the Committee may solicit suggestions from incumbent directors, management or others. After conducting an initial evaluation and considering the candidate suitable, the Committee will interview the candidate and will ask the candidate to meet with other directors and management. If the Committee believes the candidate would be a valuable addition to the Board, it will recommend to the full Board that candidate's election.

The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider director candidates recommended by stockholders who comply with the timing, procedures and information requirements of Section 1.11 of the Company's By-laws, the text of which is set forth in Appendix A to this Proxy Statement. Stockholder nominees that meet the criteria outlined above will receive the same consideration that the Committee's nominees receive.

The Board also has an Audit Committee whose function is providing oversight of the Company's accounting and financial reporting functions and internal controls, retaining the Company's independent registered public accountants, reviewing their independence, reviewing and pre-approving any non-audit services that they may perform, reviewing the adequacy of accounting and financial controls, reviewing the Company's critical accounting policies and reviewing and approving any related party transactions. Committee members at the end of 2007 were Messrs. Harden, DePerrior and Port, each of whom was determined by the Board to be independent as defined in AMEX listing standards. A current copy of the Audit Committee Charter is posted on the Company's website, www.phoenixfootwear.com. The Audit Committee met fourteen times during fiscal 2007.

The Board has designated Gregory Harden, Chairman of the Audit Committee, as audit committee financial expert. However, as specified by the SEC, such designation does not impose on him any duties, obligations or liabilities that are greater than the duties, obligations and liability imposed on him as a member of the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors in the absence of such designation; nor does it affect the duties, obligations or liability of any other member of the Audit Committee or the Board.

The Company has adopted policies on ethical behavior ( Code of Ethics ), a copy of which is provided on the Company's web site, www.phoenixfootwear.com. The Code of Ethics applies to all employees, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Accounting Officer.

Pension Benefits.

The Company does not maintain any plans that provide pension benefits primarily at or following retirement for named executive officers. Payments to named executive officers under the Company's 401(k) Plan are described above under the heading "Summary Compensation Table."

Nonqualified Deferred Compensation.

The Company does not provide any defined contribution or other plans for named executive officers for the deferral of compensation that is not tax qualified.

Employment Contracts and Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change of Control

The Company and James R. Riedman, our Chairman, are parties to a three-year employment agreement effective January 1, 2004. The agreement provides for an annual base salary of $325,000 and participation in executive bonus plans as may be established. The agreement also provides for confidentiality, employee non-solicitation and customer non-solicitation covenants that extend for one year after the termination of his employment. The agreement renews automatically for one year terms unless either party gives ninety day written notice of their intent not to renew.

Mr. Riedman's employment may be terminated by us at any time without cause, effective upon one month written notice of termination. In such an event, we are obligated to continue to pay him as severance an amount equal to his salary and benefits (other than incentive compensation amounts) for 18 months, payable under the same terms as provided while he was an employee. For cause is defined in the agreement and includes (i) repeated and persistent neglect or refusal to substantially perform his duties other than any such failure resulting from incapacity due to physical or mental illness; (ii) the engaging in criminal conduct; (iii) the commission of a felony, or a misdemeanor which impairs his ability substantially to perform his duties with the Company; (iv) any material misappropriation of funds or intentional material damage to the property or business of the Company; or (v) the material breach of the employment agreement other than as specified above.

The employment agreement also provides that if his employment is terminated by us without cause in connection with a change of control, we would be obligated to make a severance payment to him in lieu of other payments under the employment agreement. Additionally, under his performance-based deferred stock award agreement with us, the shares of common stock under the agreement immediately vest in connection with a change in control. Under his employment agreement, the severance payment is reduced in an amount sufficient to render the aggregate of the remaining payments not an excess parachute payment as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 280G.

We entered into an employment agreement with Cathy Taylor, effective April 23, 2007, in connection with her appointment as Chief Executive Officer. The term of employment is five years which, if not earlier terminated, will renew in successive one-year increments. The annual base salary is $550,000, with increases subject to the sole discretion of the Board of Directors based on performance and salary review. Ms. Taylor is entitled to an annual bonus of up to 120% of annual salary, based on the financial performance targets for five of the Company's brands: Tommy Bahama, H.S. Trask, Trotters, SoftWalk and Chambers Belt Company. Ms. Taylor received moving and temporary livings expenses, and as specified in the agreement, is entitled to receive a monthly housing stipend, and also is entitled to receive paid vacations and medical insurance and other benefits, commensurate with other senior-level executives. Ms. Taylor was awarded performance-based deferred stock awards under the Company's 2001 Long Term Incentive Plan, covering up to 420,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The performance criteria provide for the vesting of these shares based upon the Company and certain of its brands meeting financial performance measures on a trailing 12 month basis and Ms. Taylor implementing organizational development initiatives during her employment term, or, as an alternative, the vesting upon the Company's stock price closing above $23 per share for 60 consecutive trading days. Ms. Taylor is obligated to abide by non-competition, non-solicitation and confidentiality provisions. She is also entitled to be appointed to our Board of Directors and thereafter nominated annually for continued election to the Board of Directors.

Ms. Taylor's employment is terminable for any reason by the Company, with or without cause, at any time. Upon termination without cause or at any time by Ms. Taylor for good reason, Ms. Taylor is entitled severance of continued annual salary payments for 18 months for termination prior to April 15, 2008, and 12 months for termination thereafter. She is also entitled to a pro rated portion of any bonus earned, if terminated during the last four months of a fiscal year. Additionally, if the termination is by her with good reason, or by the Company without cause, following a change of control, as defined in the agreement, all unvested performance-based deferred stock awards not previously forfeited vest. Lastly, she is entitled to severance of six months of continued salary payments if either party fails to renew the agreement following the initial five year term, or the successive one year terms thereafter.

In connection with the resignation of our former Chief Financial Officer, Kenneth E. Wolf, we entered into a Severance and Release Agreement with him. Under the agreement, Mr. Wolf will receive, among other things (i) his salary of $225,000 payable bi-weekly through July 23, 2008 and (ii) continued payment by the Company of premiums for his health, life and disability insurance benefits through July 23, 2008.

If the Company experienced a change in control on December 29, 2007, the named executive officers would have been entitled to receive the following number of shares of common stock:

	Shares of Common Stock	Market Value <sup>(1)</sup>
James R. Riedman	75,000	$ 127,500
