The Underwriters were also granted a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 600,000 Common Units to cover over-allotments, if any. The material terms of the offering of the Common Units are described in the prospectus supplement, dated March 24, 2009, as filed by the Partnership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission). The Underwriting Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and agreements of the Partnership and certain affiliates, and customary conditions to closing, indemnification rights, obligations of the parties and termination provisions.

Some of the Underwriters and their affiliates have performed investment and commercial banking and advisory services for the Partnership and its affiliates from time to time for which they have received customary fees and expenses. The Underwriters and their affiliates may, from time to time, engage in transactions with and perform services for the Partnership in the ordinary course of their business. Affiliates of Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC (including Wachovia Bank, National Association and Wells Fargo Bank, NA) and Raymond James & Associates, Inc. are lenders under the Partnership's revolving working capital facility and the Partnership's revolving acquisition credit facility and will receive a portion of the proceeds from this offering through repayment of indebtedness under the credit facilities.
