FORM 8-K

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

As described in Item 8.01 below, on December 29, 2009 Nautilus, Inc., a Washington corporation (the "Company"), completed the sale of certain assets of its StairMaster® and Schwinn® Fitness product lines. In connection with the closing of those transactions the Company entered into a License Agreement (the "Schwinn Agreement") with Xiamen World Gear Sports Goods Co., Ltd. ("World Gear") pursuant to which it granted to World Gear a license to certain patents, trademarks and other intellectual property enabling World Gear to produce, market and sell Schwinn® branded indoor cycling products in the commercial channel. The Company retains the right to continue to market and sell Schwinn® indoor cycling products in the retail and direct-to-consumer sales channels. The Company is entitled under the Schwinn Agreement to royalties based on net sales of the licensed products by World Gear, subject to a minimum annual royalty payment of $800,000 in 2010, $1,000,000 in 2011 and $600,000 each year thereafter. The Schwinn Agreement is subject to termination based on a failure by World Gear to pay required royalties, to meet certain minimum annual sales requirements and for other material breaches of the Schwinn Agreement. Unless terminated in accordance with its terms, the Schwinn Agreement has a perpetual term.

The Company also entered into a Technology Transfer and License Agreement (the "StairMaster Agreement") pursuant to which the Company assigned certain patents, trademarks and other intellectual property associated with the StairMaster® brand and product line to World Gear. In connection with such transfer, Nautilus is entitled to receive a fixed quarterly payment of $83,333.33 for calendar years 2010, 2011 and 2012, as well as royalties based on net sales of StairMaster® products to retail customers by WorldGear. Nautilus received a license back from World Gear of the right to use the StairMaster trademarks in the direct channel. The Company also received an exclusive license to use the StairMaster trademarks in connection with sales to certain retail customers for a period of eighteen months.

Item 8.01 Other Events

(a) Completion of Sale of Assets. On December 29, 2009, the Company completed the sale of certain assets of the Company's StairMaster® and Schwinn® Fitness product lines to World Gear. ("Fit Dragon"). World Gear is an affiliate of and permitted assignee of Fit Dragon.
