Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 14, 2010, eHealth, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Management Retention Agreement (Agreement) with each of Bruce A. Telkamp and Sheldon X. Wang, both named executive officers of the Company (each, an Executive) summarized herein. The receipt of any severance benefits under each Agreement is subject to the Executive signing and not revoking a release of claims in favor of the Company.

Change in Control Severance Benefits. If Executive terminates his employment with the Company for Good Reason (as defined in the Agreement), or the Company terminates Executive's employment without Cause (as defined in the Agreement), during the period beginning on the date of a Change in Control and ending twelve (12) months thereafter (the Change in Control Period), Executive will receive the following severance benefits from the Company:

A lump-sum cash payment (less applicable withholding taxes) in an amount equal to twelve (12) months of Executive's then current base salary.

A lump-sum cash payment (less applicable withholding taxes) in an amount equal to Executive's then current target annual bonus, pro-rated to the date of termination.

100% of Executive's then outstanding and unvested equity awards will fully vest.

The Executive and his covered dependents will receive continued Company-paid group health, dental and vision benefits until the earlier of (i) twelve (12) months from the termination date, or (ii) until they become covered under comparable group health, dental and vision plans of another employer.

The severance provided in the Agreement constitutes the respective Executive's exclusive rights to severance in the event of covered terminations of service within the Change in Control Period and supersede all severance benefits within the Change in Control Period under the respective Executive's offer letter.
