CASE NAMES CELTIC GARDENS OWNER JOHN CULLEN

LANDSCAPER OF THE YEAR

Program Honors Industry's Best Contractors

RACINE, Wis. (Nov. 29, 2010) Case Construction Equipment and Total Landscape Care magazine have announced their selection of John Cullen, owner of Celtic Gardens in Dexter, Mich., as 2011 Landscaper of the Year.

The prestigious program recognizes the 12 best landscape companies across the United States. Finalists exemplify the highest standards of landscape professionals, including business acumen, marketing and equipment management expertise, attention to safety and community involvement. Competition is limited to landscapers with $8 million or less in current annual revenues.

We congratulate John and Celtic Gardens for their success, said Curtis Goettel, marketing manager, Case Construction Equipment. Case is pleased to honor the landscape industry's best contractors, and we remain committed to providing landscapers with the best equipment solutions to meet the challenges they face every day.

As a result of winning, Celtic Gardens will be featured in the January 2011 cover story of Total Landscape Care magazine. Plus, they and the other finalists won an all-expense-paid Bahamas cruise.

It is an honor to be recognized as the Landscaper of the Year, especially after meeting the other finalists. To be recognized in such impressive company is very humbling, said Cullen.

A 20-year veteran in the landscaping industry, Cullen specializes in old-world stonework and the design and creation of period gardens for which he procures the finest trees, plants and building materials in the world. He often travels to Europe and Asia in search of antique garden statuary and building materials. Cullen's high-end residential design capabilities enable him to compete successfully in a profitable market segment.

Celtic Gardens is the winner of numerous national and international awards from flower-and-garden shows, including earning Best in Show and gold medals at the Philadelphia, Singapore and Cincinnati flower shows.

Cullen will be one of the top contenders for design honors at the 2011 London-Chelsea Flower Show, considered one of the most prestigious garden shows in the world.

In addition to winning the cruise, each of the finalists will be featured in Total Landscape Care magazine during 2011.

The 11 other finalists for the award include:

Chad Beidel, Outside Solutions Inc., Sykesville, Md.;

William Dickerson, WT Dickerson Enterprises, Monticello, Fla.;

Gene Ebertowski, Flora Terra Landscape Management, San Jose, Cal.;

Steve Emmerson, Royal Landscape & Maintenance, Inc., Gotha, Fla.;
