Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 22, 2011, United Continental Holdings, Inc. ( UAL ), United Air Lines, Inc. ( United ) and Continental Airlines, Inc. ( Continental and, together with UAL and United, the Company ) entered into a credit and guaranty agreement (the Revolving Credit Facility ). United and Continental entered into the Revolving Credit Facility, as co-borrowers, with UAL, as guarantor, the lenders party thereto and Citibank, N.A., as administrative agent.

The Revolving Credit Facility provides that United and Continental may from time to time prior to January 30, 2015, borrow, repay and reborrow loans and have letters of credit issued in an aggregate amount outstanding at any time of up to $500 million. United and Continental have not made any drawings under the Revolving Credit Facility as of the date of this report. Any borrowings that United and Continental might in the future make under the Revolving Credit Facility are due on January 30, 2015, at which time the Revolving Credit Facility terminates. Borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility bear interest at a variable rate equal to the London interbank offering rate, known as LIBOR, or another rate based on certain market interest rates, in each case plus a specified margin.

The obligations of United and Continental under the Revolving Credit Facility are secured by liens on certain take-off and landing rights of United and Continental at Newark Liberty International, LaGuardia and Ronald Reagan Washington National airports and certain of their other assets, including flight simulators and aircraft (the Collateral ).

The Revolving Credit Facility includes affirmative and negative covenants that restrict the Company s ability to, among other things, incur additional indebtedness, issue preferred stock or pay dividends. In addition, the Revolving Credit Facility requires the Company to maintain unrestricted cash and cash equivalents and unused commitments available under all revolving credit facilities (including the Revolving Credit Facility) aggregating not less than $3.0 billion and to maintain a minimum ratio of appraised value of Collateral to outstanding obligations under the Revolving Credit Facility of 1.67 to 1. If the Company does not meet the minimum collateral coverage ratio, it must either provide additional Collateral to secure its obligations under the Revolving Credit Facility or repay the loans under the Revolving Credit Facility by an amount necessary to maintain compliance with the collateral coverage ratio.

The Revolving Credit Facility contains events of default customary for similar financings. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, the outstanding obligations under the Revolving Credit Facility may be accelerated and become due and payable immediately. In addition, if certain change of control events occur with respect to UAL, each lender under the Revolving Credit Facility has the right to require the Company to repay any loan that it has made under the facility.

The foregoing description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Revolving Credit Facility, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant
