Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 28, 2013, a special-purpose wholly-owned subsidiary (the Seller) of Blackstone Mortgage Trust, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Master Repurchase Agreement (the Repurchase Agreement) with JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association (the Buyer). The Repurchase Agreement provides for advances of up to $250.0 million in the aggregate, which the Company expects to use to finance the acquisition or origination of eligible loans as more particularly described in the Repurchase Agreement.

Advances under the Repurchase Agreement accrue interest at a per annum pricing rate equal to the sum of (i) the 30-day LIBOR plus (ii) a margin of between 2.00% and 3.25% depending on the attributes of the purchased loans. The Repurchase Agreement specifies a one-year availability period, during which new advances can be made and which availability period is renewable at the discretion of the Buyer. Maturity dates for individual advances are tied to their respective purchased loan maturity dates subject to annual renewal at the Seller's discretion conditioned upon Seller's delivery of notice and payment of a fee to Buyer. In the event that the availability period is not renewed, it is followed by a two year stabilization period and then a term out period, during which all collateral interest and principal proceeds would be required to repay existing advances, subject to certain provisions for REIT income distribution requirements.

In connection with the Repurchase Agreement, the Company executed a Guarantee Agreement in favor of the Buyer (the Guarantee), pursuant to which the Company guarantees the obligations of the Seller under the Repurchase Agreement up to a maximum liability of (i) 25% of the advances related to purchased loans that are senior mortgage loans and (ii) 100% of the advances related to purchased loans that are mezzanine and junior mortgage loans. The Company may also be liable under the Guarantee for customary bad-boy events.

The Repurchase Agreement and the Guarantee contain various affirmative and negative covenants including the following financial covenants applicable to the Company: (i) ratio of EBITDA to fixed charges shall be not less than 1.40 to 1.0; (ii) tangible net worth of not less than $525.0 million plus 75% of the net cash proceeds of any equity issuance after the date of the agreements; (iii) cash liquidity of not less than the greater of (x) $10.0 million or (y) 5% of the Company's recourse indebtedness; and (iv) indebtedness shall not exceed 80% of total assets.
