be and are hereby amended as follows: (a) Article 166 be deleted in its entirety and substituting therefor by the following new Article 166: "Article 166 When distributing the after-tax profits of the current year, the Company shall allocate 10 percent of its profits to the statutory reserve fund. In the event that the accumulated statutory reserve fund of the Company has reached more than 50 percent of the registered capital of the Company, no allocation is needed. In the event that the statutory reserve fund of the Company is insufficient to make up the losses of the Company of the previous year, before allocating the statutory reserve fund in accordance with the stipulations of the previous paragraph, the Company shall first make up the losses by using the profits of the current year. After allocating the statutory reserve fund from the after-tax profits of the Company, the Company can allocate the other reserve-fund according to the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting. The remaining profits shall, after making up the losses and allocating the reserve funds, be distributed in accordance with the proportion of shares-held by the shareholders, priority should be given to the distribution of profits in cash. The Company should keep its policy of distribution of profits consecutive and stable. The Company should give adequate consideration to shareholders' return. Except for the circumstances set out in paragraph 6 of this Article, in ensuring the normal operation of the Company and continuous development, and as long as the profit for the relevant year and accumulated retained earnings remain positive, the annual dividend level shall not be lower than 20% of the total net profit for the year. The specific payout amount shall be finally approved by the shareholders in a general meeting. When the operating conditions of the Company are good, and the Board is of the view that the price of the Share does not match the Company's capital structure and it is in the interest of the shareholders for the Company to pay dividend, the Company may make a preliminary distribution of share dividend as long as the conditions about cash dividend above can be met. In case of war, natural disasters and other force majeure event, or there exist changes to the external operating environment that have a material impact on the Company's operation, or the Company's own operating conditions changed significantly, the Company may adjust its profit distribution policy. The adjustment of the profit distribution policy shall be subject to the opinion of the independent directors and shall be discussed in detail by the Board on the reasons for the adjustment. The resolution of the Board shall be submitted to the shareholders for approval by way of a special resolution. Internet voting for shareholders shall be arranged by the Company for the general meeting to approve changes to the profit distribution policy (b)-Article 170 be deleted in its entirety and substituting therefor by the-following new Article 170: "Article 170 The Company may distribute dividends-in the following forms: (1) cash; (2) shares; (3) a mix of cash and shares."-(c) Article 171 be deleted in its entirety and substituting therefor by the following new Article 171: "Article 171 The Company's profit-distribution plan shall be prepared by the CEO and submitted to the Board of-Directors to review, the independent directors shall provide their-independent opinions, and the Board resolution shall be submitted to the-shareholders at a general meeting to approve. The convening of the-shareholders' general meeting should be consistent with the regulatory-requirements of the place of listing of the Company. After the shareholders-at a general meeting have resolved for a profit distribution, the Board of-Directors of the Company shall complete the distribution of dividends (or-shares) within two months of the shareholders' general meeting. If the-Company elects not to make a cash dividend in accordance with the special-circumstances set forth in Article 166, the Board of Directors shall provide the specific reasons for not-paying a cash dividend, the exact purpose of the retained earnings of the-Company and the expected investment income and other related matters, present-to the independent directors for their opinion and submitted to the-shareholders' general meeting for approval. The reasons shall also be-disclosed in designated media
