Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 8, 2014, Noble Corporation plc, a public limited company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales (the "Company"), announced that its wholly owned subsidiary, Noble Drilling (U.S.) LLC ("NDUS"), has reached a final settlement with the United States Department of Justice (the "DOJ"), concluding a previously disclosed investigation commenced in November 2012 into the operations and systems aboard the drillship Noble Discoverer. The settlement also covers claims related to record keeping issues regarding the Kulluk drilling rig, which was previously operated by NDUS. Under the terms of the settlement agreement, NDUS will pay $8.2 million in fines and $4 million toward community services as designated by the DOJ, and serve a four year probation period. Pursuant to a separate agreement, the Company has agreed to implement a fleet-wide environmental management system and compliance plan. The Company previously disclosed that it had reserved $12 million to resolve this matter.

A copy of the related press release issued by the Company is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference herein.
