PLEASE VOTE THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD TODAY!

November 10, 2015

Dear Fellow Stockholder,

Towers Watson's November 18, 2015 Special Meeting of Stockholders is rapidly approaching. We urge you to sign and return your proxy card today to approve our merger of equals (MOE) with Willis Group Holdings (Willis).

VOTE FOR THE CREATION OF WILLIS TOWERS WATSON

The Towers Watson Board believes the Towers Watson/Willis merger is in the best interest of all stockholders and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and related proposals on the enclosed proxy card TODAY to ensure your vote is counted.

A POWERFUL PLATFORM TO DELIVER PROFITABLE GROWTH AND SIGNIFICANT STOCKHOLDER VALUE

Following the merger, Towers Watson stockholders will have an approximately 49.9% ownership interest in a leading integrated global advisory, broking and solutions firm that is expected to deliver approximately $4.7 billion in total incremental value to stockholders through a combination of revenue synergies, cost savings and tax efficiencies.

USE THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD TO CAST YOUR VOTE TODAY!

Your vote is very important. Every vote counts. Not voting or abstaining will have the same effect as a vote against the merger. To ensure your representation at the Towers Watson special meeting, please complete and return the enclosed proxy card or submit your proxy by telephone or through the Internet. Instructions on how to vote your proxy card can also be found at <http://willisandtowerswatson.mergerannouncement.com>.

Please vote promptly whether or not you expect to attend the Towers Watson special meeting. Submitting a proxy now will not prevent you from voting in person at the Towers Watson special meeting. You are also encouraged to carefully read the joint proxy statement/prospectus dated October 13, 2015 which provides detailed information about the proposed merger.

On behalf of the Towers Watson Board and management team, thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

John J. Haley

Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You can identify these statements and other forward-looking statements in this document by words such as may, will, would, expect, anticipate, believe, estimate, plan, intend, continue, or similar words negative of such terms or other comparable terminology. These statements include, but are not limited to, the benefits of the business combination transaction involving Towers Watson and Willis Group, including the combined company's future financial and operating results, plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts. Such statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of Towers Watson's and Willis Group's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements: the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the transaction on the proposed terms and schedule; the failure of Towers Watson stockholders and Willis Group shareholders to approve the transaction; the failure of the transaction to close for any reason; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully; the risk that anticipated cost savings and any other synergies from the transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; the potential impact of the announcement or consummation of the proposed transaction on relationships, including with employees, suppliers, customers and competitors; changes in general economic, business and political conditions, including changes in the financial markets; significant competition; compliance with extensive government regulation; the combined company's ability to make acquisitions and its ability to integrate or manage such acquired businesses. Additional risks and factors are identified under "Risk Factors" in Towers Watson's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed on August 14, 2015, which is on file with the Commission, and under "Risk Factors" in the joint proxy statement/prospectus.

You should not rely upon forward-looking statements as predictions of future events because these statements are based on assumptions that may not come true and are speculative by their nature. Neither Towers Watson or Willis Group undertakes an obligation to update any of the forward-looking information included in this document, whether as a result of new information, future events, changed expectations or otherwise.
