Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Attached as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated by reference herein is a press release dated February 21, 2017, issued by Verizon Communications Inc. (Verizon) and Yahoo! Inc. (Yahoo).

The information provided pursuant to this Item 7.01 is being furnished and shall not be deemed to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) or incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent set forth by specific reference in any such filing.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 20, 2017, Verizon and Yahoo entered into an amendment to the previously announced stock purchase agreement, dated as of July 23, 2016, by and between Verizon and Yahoo (the Purchase Agreement), pursuant to which the parties agreed that, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, the purchase price to be paid by Verizon in connection with the acquisition of Yahoo's operating business (the Transaction) will be reduced by $350 million to approximately $4.48 billion in cash, subject to certain adjustments. Subject to certain exceptions, the parties also agreed that certain user security and data breaches incurred by Yahoo (and the losses arising therefrom) will be disregarded (1) for purposes of specified conditions to Verizon's obligations to close the Transaction and (2) in determining whether a Business Material Adverse Effect under the Purchase Agreement has occurred.

Concurrently with the amendment of the Purchase Agreement, Yahoo and Yahoo Holdings, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Yahoo that Verizon has agreed to purchase pursuant to the Transaction, also entered into an amendment to a related reorganization agreement, pursuant to which Yahoo (which has announced that it intends to change its name to Altaba Inc. following the closing of the Transaction) will retain 50% of certain post-closing liabilities arising out of governmental or third party investigations, litigations or other claims related to certain user security and data breaches incurred by Yahoo. In accordance with the original Transaction agreements, Yahoo will continue to retain 100% of any liabilities arising out of any shareholder lawsuits (including derivative claims) and investigations and actions by the SEC.

The Transaction remains subject to customary closing conditions, including the approval of Yahoo's stockholders, and is expected to close in the second quarter of 2017.

Important additional information and where to find it
