Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 13, 2018, DCP Midstream, LP (the Partnership) and certain of its direct and indirect subsidiaries entered into a 364-day, $200 million accounts receivable securitization facility (the Facility) pursuant to (i) a Receivables Sale and Contribution Agreement (the Receivables Sale and Contribution Agreement) between the originators from time to time party thereto (the Originators) and DCP Receivables LLC, a bankruptcy-remote special purpose entity that is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Partnership, as buyer (the SPV), and (ii) a Receivables Financing Agreement (the Receivables Financing Agreement) and, together with the Receivables Sale and Contribution Agreement, the Agreements) among, the SPV, as borrower, the Partnership, as initial servicer (the Servicer), the lenders, the LC bank, the LC participants and the group agents that are parties thereto from time to time (collectively, the Lenders), and PNC Bank National Association, as administrative agent (the Administrative Agent) and collectively with the Lenders, the Secured Parties) and PNC Capital Markets LLC, as structuring agent. The obligations of the Originators and the Servicer (as defined in the Receivables Financing Agreement) under the Agreements and the related transaction documents are guaranteed by the Partnership.

Under the Receivables Sale and Contribution Agreement, each Originator has sold or contributed, and will continue to sell or contribute on an ongoing basis, certain of its receivables, together with related security and interests in the proceeds thereof, to the SPV. Under the Receivables Financing Agreement, the SPV may borrow or obtain letters of credit for the account of the Originators in an amount not to exceed $200 million in the aggregate and will secure its obligations with a pledge of undivided interests in such receivables, together with related security and interests in the proceeds thereof, to the Administrative Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

Amounts outstanding under the Receivables Financing Agreement accrue interest based on the Lender s weighted average commercial paper rate for loans funded by a conduit lender, and otherwise at LIBOR Market Index Rate or Adjusted LIBOR, as selected by the SPV. The Agreements include customary fees, conditions, representations and warranties, indemnification provisions, covenants and events of default. Receivables in the Facility are subject to certain criteria, limits and reserves. Subject in some cases to cure periods, amounts outstanding under the Receivables Financing Agreement may be accelerated for typical defaults including, but not limited to, the failure to make when due payments or deposits, borrowing base deficiencies, failure to observe or perform any covenant, failure to pay a material judgment, inaccuracy of representations and warranties, certain bankruptcy or ERISA events, a change of control, the occurrence of a termination event under the Receivables Sale and Contribution Agreement if certain limits are exceeded for a specified period, for certain defaults or acceleration under material debt, invalidity of security interests or unenforceable transaction documents, or if the consolidated leverage ratio of the Partnership exceeds limits identical to those in its revolving credit facility.

As of August 13, 2018, there were no loans and letters of credit outstanding under the Facility. The Facility is for an initial 364-day term, as may be extended in accordance with the terms of the Receivables Financing Agreement.

Affiliates of certain of the Secured Parties have provided from time to time, and may provide in the future, investment and commercial banking and financial advisory services to the Partnership and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business, for which they have received, and may continue to receive, customary fees and commissions.

The foregoing descriptions of the Receivables Financing Agreement and the Receivables Sale and Contribution Agreement are not complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full and complete terms of such agreements, which are filed as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 hereto, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The information set forth under Item 1.01 above is incorporated in its entirety herein by reference.
