Entry into New Employment Agreements Theodore Kim and Woung Moo Lee

General Overview and Terms

In connection with the holistic review of our compensation programs conducted by the Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors throughout 2017, on October 22, 2018, we entered into a new employment agreement (each, an Employment Agreement and, collectively, the Employment Agreements) with each of the following two officers of MagnaChip Semiconductor Corporation (Parent) and MagnaChip Semiconductor Ltd., Parent's Korean subsidiary (together with any of its affiliates as may employ such officers from time to time, and Parent, the Company): (a) Theodore Kim, our Chief Compliance Officer, Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary and (b) Woung Moo Lee, our Executive Vice President and General Manager, Standard Products Group. The Employment Agreements further align Messrs. Kim and Lee's interests with those of our shareholders by establishing an equity grant program that serves to (i) gradually increase each officer's potential stock ownership and (ii) balance short-term operational goals with long-term shareholder return. The Employment Agreements also reflect certain changes to Messrs. Kim and Lee's prior employment terms to bring them within market practices, including the removal or modification of certain provisions that were determined to no longer be appropriate or desirable.

The Employment Agreements provide for an annual base salary of $330,000 for Mr. Kim and KRW350,000,000 for Mr. Lee and an opportunity to earn an annual bonus under the terms of the Company's Profit Sharing Plan as are then in effect in amounts determined by our Board of Directors based on the achievement of performance goals. Messrs. Kim and Lee are eligible to participate in the Company's benefit programs as in effect from time to time (which will include tax equalization payments for Mr. Kim for each taxable year in an amount equal to the amount necessary to put Mr. Kim in the same after-tax position that he would been in if Mr. Kim had been subject to only United States federal, state, and local income taxes).

Under his Employment Agreement, Mr. Kim is entitled to severance payments and benefits upon certain qualifying terminations of his employment with the Company. Upon termination of his employment by the Company without Cause or his resignation for Good Reason, in each case not in connection with a Change in Control (each as defined in his Employment Agreement), he is entitled to receive (i) 12 months of continued base salary (as then in effect or in effect prior to any diminution constituting Good Reason) (the Salary Payment), (ii) a pro rata bonus based on actual performance (if such termination occurs after June 30 of the year of termination), (iii) a lump sum payment equal to the cost of 12 months of Company-paid insurance premiums (the Insurance Payment), (iv) 90 days' continuation of Mr. Kim's expatriate benefits, and (v) to the extent that Mr. Kim is eligible to receive such payments as part of his expatriate benefits, a repatriation allowance in the amount of one month's base salary and certain repatriation expenses as described in his Employment Agreement. Further, Mr. Kim will vest in full in all equity awards granted prior to January 1, 2018, and will vest in pro rata portions of all equity grants made on or after January 1, 2018, as more fully described in his Employment Agreement.

If, during a period of time that (x) the Company is party to a definitive corporate transaction agreement the consummation of which would result in a Change in Control or (y) is within 18 months following a Change in Control, Mr. Kim's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by Mr. Kim for Good Reason, then Mr. Kim will be entitled to the severance payments described above, provided that the Salary Payment instead will equal the sum of (xx) one and one-half times the Mr. Kim's base salary (as then in effect or in effect prior to any diminution implicating Good Reason) and (yy) if the Date of Termination occurs after June 30th of the calendar year in which the Date of Termination occurs, an amount equal to an additional month of base salary for each month that has passed since July 1st through the Date of Termination (rounding up for any partial months), all of which will be payable in a lump sum on the sixtieth (60th) day following the Date of Termination. Further, Mr. Kim will vest in full in all equity awards granted prior to January 1, 2018 and in the time-based restricted stock units and PSUs (as defined below) granted or to be granted to Mr. Kim as described below.

Mr. Kim's right to receive any Change in Control or other severance payments provided in his Employment Agreement is subject to his execution of a release of claims against us and his compliance with certain restrictive covenants.

The initial term of employment under Mr. Kim's Employment Agreement is for three years, unless earlier terminated. At the end of the initial term, the term of Mr. Kim's Employment Agreement will automatically be extended for successive one year periods unless notice of non-extension of the term of the Employment Agreement is provided by Mr. Kim or the Company. In the event Mr. Kim's employment terminates at the expiration of the term of the Employment Agreement after the Company has provided notice of non-extension of the term, such termination will be treated as a termination without cause and the Salary Payment and the Insurance Payment will be reduced from 12 months to six months (unless such non-renewal is during a period of time when the Company is party to a definitive corporate transaction agreement the consummation of which would result in a Change in Control or is within 18 months following a Change in Control).

Under his Employment Agreement, Mr. Lee is entitled to severance payments and benefits upon certain qualifying terminations of his employment with the Company. Upon termination of his employment by the Company without Cause or his resignation for Good Reason, in each case not in connection with a Change in Control (each as defined in his Employment Agreement), he is entitled to receive (i) the Salary Payment, and (ii) a pro rata bonus based on actual performance (if such termination occurs after June 30 of the year of termination). Further, Mr. Lee will vest in full in all equity awards granted prior to January 1, 2018, and will vest in pro rata portions of all equity grants made on or after the January 1, 2018, as more fully described in his Employment Agreement.

If, during a period of time that (x) the Company is party to a definitive corporate transaction agreement the consummation of which would result in a Change in Control or (y) is within 18 months following a Change in Control, Mr. Lee's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by Mr. Lee for Good Reason, then Mr. Lee will be entitled to the severance payments described above, provided that the Salary Payment instead will equal one and one-half times Mr. Lee's base salary (as then in effect or in effect prior to any diminution implicating Good Reason), payable over 12 months beginning on the sixtieth (60th) day following the Date of Termination. Further, Mr. Lee will vest in full in all equity awards granted prior to January 1, 2018 and in the time-based restricted stock units and PSUs granted or to be granted to Mr. Lee as described below.

Mr. Lee's right to receive any Change in Control or other severance payments provided in his Employment Agreement is subject to his execution of a release of claims against us and his compliance with certain restrictive covenants.

Mr. Lee's Employment Agreement will remain in effect until terminated as provided under the terms of his Employment Agreement.

The Employment Agreements contain customary non-competition, non-solicitation and confidentiality provisions. To the extent required by applicable law and/or the rules and regulations of any securities exchange or inter-dealer quotation service on which equity of the Company or Parent is listed or quoted, or if so required pursuant to a written policy adopted by the Company or Parent, payments under the Employment Agreements or in respect of Company or Parent equity incentive awards shall be subject (including on a retroactive basis) to clawback, forfeiture or similar requirements. The Employment Agreements also provide that Messrs. Kim and Lee will be subject to any stock ownership guidelines and holding requirements as may be implemented by our Board of Directors from time to time.
