GOLD FIELDS' OPENS NEW HOUSING COMPLEX

Johannesburg, 1 October 2010: Gold Fields Limited (Gold Fields) (JSE, NYSE, NASDAQ Dubai: GFI) today opened a new employee housing project in the Glenharvie community near its Kloof Gold Mine as part of its R550-million, five year housing programme. The new Grootkloof complex, representing an investment of R25-million, will offer housing accommodation to approximately 100 Kloof employees and their families.

The complex is an integral part of Gold Fields' continuing programme to renovate housing, construct new family homes and upgrade and dedensify our high-density accommodation. Significant progress has been made in this regard: at present room density in the hostels is just over two per room, from eight per room in 2006. Around 21,000 employees are accommodated by Gold Fields in high-density accommodation.

The Employee Housing Programme is part of Gold Fields' total wellbeing programme called "24 Hours in the Life of a Gold Fields Employee in the South African Region". This programme is designed to improve every facet of the health and well-being of employees, and addresses the key issues of safe production, healthcare, nutrition, accommodation, sport and recreation as well as education and training.

Gold Fields Chief Executive Officer, Nick Holland, said: "The well-being of our employees is one of the company's highest priorities and good accommodation is a fundamental requirement for total well-being and quality of life. These family homes are a key component of our wideranging employee housing programme, which also includes the renovation of houses and the upgrading of single accommodation villages into modern, high quality living units."
