Notice to the Market

São Paulo, December 12, 2011 –GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (BM&FBOVESPA: GOLL4 and NYSE: GOL) (S&P/Fitch: BB-/BB-, Moody's: B1), the largest low-cost and low-fare airline in Latin America, the controller company of VRG Linhas Aéreas S.A. ("VRG") and Webjet S.A. ("Webjet"), hereby informs the market that Fabio Godinho will leave Webjet as the company's CEO, to take on new challenges. Júlio Perotti, the current Vice-President of Operations, assumes the position from today.

Júlio Perotti's nomination as CEO is in recognition of his work since May 2007, when he joined Webjet, where he served as Vice President of Planning and Vice President of Operations.

Fabio Godinho was in command of Webjet for three years and led the airline's transformation into the low-cost/low-fare business model, achieving excellent results.

Webjet's efficient management led to GOL acquiring 100% of the company in October 2011, through its subsidiary VRG Airlines S.A. This transaction is currently under review by the Brazilian Administrative Council for Economic Defense (Conselho Administrativo de Defesa Econômica - "CADE").

Fabio Godinho will participate in the transition process of Webjet, accompanied by the Board of Directors.

Webjet currently operates over 150 daily flights and its route network covers 18 cities in Brazil. Its fleet is composed of 24 aircraft, including the new Boeing 737-800 that will begin operations this year, with a capacity for 184 passengers. Since it began operations in 2005, Webjet has carried over 15 million people.
