Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

On December 21, 2007, T&WA Inc., a tire mounting business that is 49% owned by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company (the "Company"), sold substantially all of its assets to EnovaPremier, LLC consistent with the Company's previously announced strategy to focus on its core consumer and commercial tire businesses. T&WA is a variable interest entity that is consolidated with the Company under generally accepted accounting principles.

As a result of the sale, the Company expects to record an after-tax, non-cash loss of $30 to $35 million, primarily relating to a loss on the sale of the assets, in the fourth quarter of 2007, subject to post-closing adjustments.

A copy of the news release announcing the sale is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Safe Harbor Statement

Certain information contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K may constitute forward-looking statements for purposes of the safe harbor provisions of The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including those statements regarding the expected amounts of charges incurred as a result of the sale. All forward-looking statements are based on management's estimates, projections and assumptions as of the date hereof. There are a variety of factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control, which could affect its operations, performance, business strategy and results and could cause its actual results and experience to differ materially from the assumptions, expectations and objectives expressed in any forward-looking statements. These statements are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements, including but not limited to the risks and other factors described in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Company's annual reports on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K. In addition, any forward-looking statements represent management's estimates only as of today and should not be relied upon as representing management's estimates as of any subsequent date. While the Company may elect to update forward-looking statements at some point in the future, the Company specifically disclaims any obligation to do so, even if management's estimates change.
