Merger Agreement

On September 7, 2015, Media General, Inc., a Virginia corporation (“Media General”), Montage New Holdco, Inc., a Virginia corporation and a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Media General (“New Holdco”), Montage Merger Sub 1, Inc., a Virginia corporation and a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of New Holdco (“Merger Sub 1”), Montage Merger Sub 2, Inc., an Iowa corporation and a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of New Holdco (“Merger Sub 2”), and Meredith Corporation, an Iowa corporation (“Meredith”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which Merger Sub 1 will, upon the terms and subject to the conditions thereof, merge with and into Media General (the “Media General Merger”), with Media General surviving the Media General Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of New Holdco, and immediately following the Media General Merger, Merger Sub 2 will merge with and into Meredith (the “Meredith Merger” and together with the Media General Merger, the “Mergers”), with Meredith surviving the Meredith Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of New Holdco.

Transaction Structure

In the Media General Merger, each share of Media General voting common stock, or fraction thereof, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Media General Merger will be converted into the right to receive one share of New Holdco voting common stock, or equal fraction thereof, and each share of Media General non-voting common stock, or fraction thereof, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Media General Merger will be converted into the right to receive one share of New Holdco non-voting common stock, or equal fraction thereof, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.

In the Meredith Merger, each share of Meredith common stock and each share of Meredith Class B common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Meredith Merger will be converted into the right to receive (i) $34.57 in cash without interest (the “Cash Consideration”) and (ii) 1.5214 shares of New Holdco voting common stock (collectively with the Cash Consideration, the “Meredith Merger Consideration”), upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement (excluding shares of Meredith Class B common stock that are held by shareholders of Meredith, if any, who properly exercise their appraisal rights under Iowa law, if available).

The Merger Agreement provides that each equity-based award of Media General outstanding immediately prior to the Media General Merger will become an equity-based award of New Holdco on the same terms and conditions, including applicable vesting conditions, applicable to such Media General equity-based award immediately prior to the Media General Merger, and will be exercisable for or convertible into or may be settled for a number of shares of New Holdco voting common stock equal to the number of shares of Media General voting common stock subject to such equity-based award immediately prior to the Media General Merger.

The Merger Agreement provides that (i) each option award of Meredith outstanding immediately prior to the Meredith Merger will be assumed by New Holdco and become an option award of New Holdco that may be settled for New Holdco voting common stock on the same terms and conditions, including applicable exercise and expiration provisions but taking into account any acceleration of vesting as of the Meredith Merger provided for under the terms of the Meredith equity incentive plans and such option award immediately prior to the Meredith Merger, provided that the number of shares of New Holdco voting common stock subject to such option award and the per share exercise price thereof will be adjusted based on an equity award exchange ratio, (ii) each equity-based award of Meredith that does not vest as of or prior to the Meredith Merger will be assumed by New Holdco and will be subject to the same terms and conditions, including applicable vesting conditions, applicable to such equity-based award immediately prior to the Meredith Merger, provided that the number of shares of New Holdco voting common stock subject to such equity-based award will be adjusted based on an equity award exchange ratio, and (iii) each equity-based award of Meredith that vests in accordance with the terms of the Meredith equity incentive plans and such equity-based award as of or prior to the Meredith Merger will entitle the holder thereof to receive the Meredith Merger Consideration plus any accrued but unpaid dividends or dividend equivalents payable in accordance with the terms of such equity-based award.

Governance

New Holdco will have a board of directors consisting initially of twelve directors, four of whom will be designated by Meredith and eight of whom will be designated by Media General. Under the terms of the bylaws of New Holdco, the size of the New Holdco board of directors will remain the same until the first annual meeting of the shareholders of Media General following the first anniversary of the closing of the Mergers.

Non-Solicit

Both parties have agreed, among other things, (i) not to solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate alternative acquisition proposals from third parties and (ii) subject to certain exceptions, not to engage in any discussions or negotiations with any third parties regarding alternative acquisition proposals.

Prior to the time that Meredith receives the necessary shareholder vote, (i) the Meredith board of directors may, upon receipt of a bona fide acquisition proposal, contact the person making such proposal to clarify the terms and conditions thereof and if the Meredith board of directors determines in its good faith judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to a superior offer in accordance with the Merger Agreement, and, after consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to take certain actions would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Meredith board of directors' fiduciary duties to Meredith's shareholders under applicable law, then Meredith may furnish information with respect to Meredith and its subsidiaries to the person making such proposal and participate in discussions or negotiations with such person regarding such proposal, subject to customary notice and matching rights in favor of Media General; (ii) Meredith may, subject to compliance with certain obligations set forth in the Merger Agreement, including the payment of a termination fee to Media General, terminate the Merger Agreement to enter into a definitive agreement to accept a bona fide acquisition proposal that constitutes a superior proposal in accordance with the Merger Agreement; and (iii) the Meredith board of directors may change its recommendation to the Meredith shareholders regarding adopting the Merger Agreement in response to an intervening event or a superior proposal if the Meredith board of directors determines in good faith after consultation with its outside counsel that the failure to do so would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to Meredith's shareholders under applicable law, subject in each case to customary notice and matching rights in favor of Media General.

Prior to the time that Media General receives the necessary Media General shareholder vote, (i) the Media General board of directors may, upon receipt of a bona fide acquisition proposal, contact the person making the acquisition proposal to clarify the terms and conditions thereof and if the Media General board of directors determines in its good faith judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior offer in accordance with the Merger Agreement, and, after consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to take certain actions would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Media General board of directors' fiduciary duties to Media General's shareholders under applicable law, then Media General may, at any time prior to the time that the required Media General shareholder vote is obtained, furnish information with respect to Media General and its subsidiaries to the person making such proposal and participate in discussions or negotiations with such person, and (ii) the Media General board of directors may change its recommendation to the Media General shareholders regarding approval of the proposed transactions (x) if the Media General board of directors determines in good faith after consultation with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that a bona fide acquisition proposal constitutes a superior offer in accordance with the Merger Agreement, or (y) in response to an intervening event if the Media General board of directors determines in good faith after consultation with its outside counsel that the failure to do so would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to Media General's shareholders under applicable law, subject in each case to customary notice and matching rights in favor of Meredith.

Subject to the parties' rights to terminate the Merger Agreement, including Meredith's right to terminate the Merger Agreement as described above, each party has agreed to submit the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, as applicable, to a vote of its shareholders for approval notwithstanding any change in recommendation by its board of directors.

Conditions to the Merger

The consummation of the Mergers is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain customary conditions, including, among others: (i) the receipt of approval from the Federal Communications Commission and the expiration or early termination of the waiting period applicable to the Mergers under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (ii) the absence of certain legal impediments to the consummation of the Mergers, (iii) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of Meredith, (iv) the approval by the shareholders of Media General of certain actions in connection with the Mergers, (v) the effectiveness of a registration statement on Form S-4 registering the New Holdco voting common stock to be issued in connection with the Mergers, (vi) the listing of the New Holdco voting common stock to be issued in the Mergers on the New York Stock Exchange and (vii) the receipt of certain customary third-party consents.

Other Terms of the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants for a transaction of this nature. The Merger Agreement also contains customary mutual pre-closing covenants, including the obligation of Meredith and Media General to conduct their respective businesses in all material respects in the ordinary course and to refrain from taking certain specified actions without the consent of the other party.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Meredith and Media General. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specific circumstances, Meredith will be required to pay Media General a termination fee. If the Merger Agreement is terminated in connection with Meredith entering into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal, the termination fee payable by Meredith to Media General will be $60,000,000. If the Merger Agreement is terminated because the required Meredith shareholder vote is not obtained at a shareholder meeting duly held for such purpose, the amount of the termination fee payable by Meredith will be $15,000,000. The Merger Agreement also provides that Media General will be required to pay a termination fee to Meredith of $60,000,000 if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances and a termination fee of $15,000,000 if the required Media General shareholder vote is not obtained at a shareholder meeting duly held for such purpose.

In addition to the foregoing termination rights, either party may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Mergers are not consummated on or before September 7, 2016 (which may be automatically extended to December 6, 2016, if necessary to obtain regulatory approval under circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement).

The foregoing description of the Mergers and the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated into this report by reference in its entirety. The Merger Agreement has been attached to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Meredith or Media General. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are qualified by information in confidential Disclosure Letters provided by each of Meredith and Media General to the other in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement. These confidential Disclosure Letters contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties and certain covenants set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were used for the purposes of allocating risk between Meredith and Media General rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement should not be relied on as characterizations of the actual state of facts about Meredith or Media General.

Debt Commitment

On September 7, 2015, Media General entered into a commitment letter (the “Commitment Letter”) with Royal Bank of Canada, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., and certain of their respective affiliates for a commitment with respect to the financing required by Media General to consummate the Mergers. Pursuant to the Commitment Letter, RBC Capital Markets and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC will act as joint lead arrangers for the debt financing. The Commitment Letter contains conditions to funding of the debt financing customary for commitments of this type, including satisfaction of the conditions to the Merger Agreement, the absence of a Material Adverse Effect on Meredith (as defined in the Commitment Letter in a manner consistent with the Merger Agreement), solvency of the borrower and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after giving effect to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, delivery of customary financial information, accuracy of certain fundamental representations and warranties and other customary conditions. The Commitment Letter provides for credit facilities in an aggregate principal amount of up to $2,800,000,000, consisting of a combination of one or more of the following: (i) a senior secured term B loan facility incurred as an incremental term B facility under Media General’s existing senior secured bank term credit facility and (ii) a senior unsecured bridge facility. Each of the facilities will bear interest at LIBOR plus an applicable margin. The term B loan facility will be secured by liens on substantially all of Media General’s assets and will be guaranteed by Media General, its new parent company and its wholly owned domestic subsidiaries. Various economic terms of the debt financing are subject to change in the process of syndication, and also the closing of the debt financing is subject to early escrow under certain circumstances. RBC Capital Markets will also use commercially reasonable efforts to arrange a $200,000,000 incremental revolving credit commitment in respect of Media General’s existing senior secured revolving credit facility. The description of the Commitment Letter above does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Commitment Letter, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Royal Bank of Canada and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and certain of their respective affiliates may have engaged in, and may in the future engage in, investment banking and other commercial dealings with Media General or its affiliates in the ordinary course of business. They have received, or may in the future receive, customary fees and commissions for these transactions.

Voting Agreements

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, Meredith, Media General, New Holdco and Meredith shareholders holding approximately 63% of the issued and outstanding Meredith Class B common stock entered into a voting and support agreement (the “Meredith Support Agreement”). The Meredith Support Agreement generally requires that the shareholders party thereto vote their Meredith common stock and Meredith Class B common stock in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and take certain other actions in furtherance of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, Meredith, Media General and Media General shareholders holding approximately 14.5% of the issued and outstanding Media General voting common stock entered into a voting and support agreement (the “Media General Support Agreement” and together with the Meredith Support Agreement, the “Support Agreements”). The foregoing description of the Support Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Support Agreements, copies of which are filed as Exhibits hereto and each of which is incorporated herein by reference.
