Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 8, 2015, a subsidiary of the Company entered into an amended and restated Employment Contract, dated as of July 6, 2015, with Robert Boogaard, a Senior Vice President of the Company and the President of its Europe, Middle East and Africa floorcovering operations. A copy of the Employment Contract is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1. The Employment Contract is for an indefinite term (until a specified retirement age), but may be terminated by the Company's subsidiary as of the end of any calendar month by giving Mr. Boogaard twelve months prior notice (or by paying Mr. Boogaard the compensation due under the Employment Contract with respect to such period of twelve months) and otherwise complying with governing Dutch law. The Employment Contract provides that Mr. Boogaard will receive an annual salary of EUR 252,288 (reviewed annually for possible increase) and will have a bonus potential equal to 90% of annual salary (reviewed annually), plus a holiday allowance of 8% of annual salary. The Employment Contract provides for certain benefits in the event of Mr. Boogaard's incapacity to work on account of illness or disability. The Employment Contract also provides that Mr. Boogaard will receive certain perquisites and will participate in the various health and other employment benefit plans for which he is otherwise eligible in accordance with terms of the plans and policies in effect from time to time. In addition, the Employment Contract contains provisions placing restrictions on the ability of Mr. Boogaard to compete with the Company for a period of two years following any termination of his employment for any reason.

The foregoing description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, which is attached as an exhibit hereto.
