Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

A. Trust Preferred Securities Offering

On May 4, 2005, QCR Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") and its newly formed business trust subsidiary, QCR Holdings Statutory Trust IV, a Delaware statutory trust (the "Trust"), consummated the issuance and sale of 5,000 of the Trust's floating rate capital securities, with a liquidation amount of $1,000 per capital security (the "Capital Securities"), in a pooled trust preferred transaction. The entire proceeds from the sale by the Trust to the holders of the Capital Securities were combined with the entire proceeds from the sale by the Trust to the Company of its common securities and were used by the Trust to purchase $5,155,000 in principal amount of the floating rate junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures of the Company. No underwriting commissions or placement fees were paid in connection with the issuances. All of the securities were issued in a private placement exempt from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and/or Regulation D promulgated thereunder.

The terms of the debt securities are governed by an Indenture dated May 4, 2005 between the Company and Wells Fargo Bank, as Indenture Trustee. The debt securities accrue interest at a variable rate based on the three-month LIBOR, reset and payable quarterly, plus 1.80%. The debt securities are not redeemable by the Company during the first five years, absent certain changes in tax, investment company or bank regulatory statutes or regulations.

The trust preferred securities were issued pursuant to a Purchase Agreement dated May 3, 2005, by and among the Company, the Trust and an initial purchaser. The terms of the trust preferred securities are governed by an Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust by and among the Company, Wells Fargo Bank, as Trustee, and the trust administrators. The trust preferred securities entitle the holders thereof to quarterly distributions at a per annum rate equal to the three-month LIBOR plus 1.80%. The trust preferred securities are not redeemable by the Trust during the first five years, absent certain changes in tax, investment company, bank regulatory statutes or regulations. Pursuant to a Guarantee Agreement dated May 4, 2005, by and between the Company and Wells Fargo Bank, as Trustee, the Company has agreed to guarantee the payments to be made to the holders of the trust securities, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein.

On May 5, 2005, the Company issued a press release announcing the transaction. The press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

B. Deferred Income Plan

On January 26, 2005, the board of directors adopted and on May 4, 2005, the shareholders approved the QCR Holdings 2005 Deferred Income Plan. The plan will permit directors and certain selected key officers to defer all or a portion of their fees and cash compensation. The aggregate number of shares that may be obtained by directors and selected key officers under the plan is 100,000 shares. All shares distributed under the plan will come from the Company's treasury shares or from open market purchases. Upon completing an irrevocable election once a year to defer all or a portion of the fees and cash compensation a participant receives from the Company, the deferred amounts will be invested in one of the available investment alternatives. Currently, only investments in Company common stock are permitted under the plan. On May 5, 2005, the Company issued a press release announcing the adoption of the plan. The press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
