Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 17, 2007, A.C. Moore Arts & Crafts, Inc. (the Company or A.C. Moore) and Lawrence H. Fine, the Company's former President and Chief Operating Officer, entered into a separation agreement. Mr. Fine will receive severance payments from A.C. Moore in an amount equal to one year's compensation at his rate as of the separation date (June 11, 2007), paid in nine equal monthly installments, in exchange for his compliance with the terms of the separation agreement. Mr. Fine's separation agreement includes restrictive covenants relating to confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation. The confidentiality provisions protect A.C. Moore's confidential information and work product. Mr. Fine may not compete with, solicit employees from or interfere with the business relationships of A.C. Moore for a period of 12 months following the effective date of the separation agreement. The non-competition provision generally prohibits Mr. Fine from engaging in any business competing with A.C. Moore's business, as such business exists or was in process as of the separation date, within a 50 mile radius of any geographic location in which the Company engages, or actively plans to engage, in business. The separation agreement also provides for Mr. Fine's release of the Company from all claims.
