Filed by Johnson Outdoors Inc.

Johnson Outdoors Inc. (the Company) issued a newspaper advertisement for publication in the Racine Journal Times and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel on March 15 and 16, 2005, respectively (the Advertisement), respecting the Agreement and Plan of Merger providing for the merger of JO Acquisition Corp., a Wisconsin corporation, with and into the Company. Under the terms of the proposed merger, public shareholders of the Company would receive cash for their shares, and the members of the Johnson family would acquire 100% ownership of the Company. A copy of the Advertisement follows as part of this filing under Rule 14a-6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

To All Johnson Outdoors Shareholders:

Nation's Leading Independent Proxy Advisory Firms Recommend Johnson Outdoors Shareholders Vote FOR the Proposed Merger

Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) and Glass Lewis & Co, widely recognized as the leading independent proxy advisory firms in the nation, have recommended that their members vote to approve Johnson Outdoor's proposed merger with JO Acquisition Corp. at the March 22, 2005 special shareholder meeting. In its report, ISS noted:

Based on our review of the terms of the transaction . . . in particular the premium paid to current shareholders and the procedural safeguards taken in negotiating the terms, we believe that the merger agreement warrants shareholder support. *

Did you know that not voting at all is the same as voting against the merger?

Approval of the merger agreement requires, among other votes, the affirmative vote of 66 2/3% of the shares held by individuals other than the Johnson family and their affiliates and associates. If shareholders fail to approve the all-cash premium offer, you will not receive the $20.10 in cash provided under the merger agreement.

The Board of Directors of Johnson Outdoors, including the special committee of independent directors, believes the $20.10 offer price appropriately values the Company and recommends that shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

FAIR PRICE The special committee undertook a thorough review process and received a fairness opinion from its outside financial advisor, William Blair, before arriving at its determination that $20.10 per share in cash represents a fair price for the unaffiliated shareholders of Johnson Outdoors.

PREMIUM The offer price represents a premium of 21.2% to the average closing price for the 30 days prior to the initial merger proposal and a 53.7% premium to the 52-week average closing price prior to the initial February 20, 2004 merger proposal announcement.

GUARANTEED VALUE Provides shareholders with an opportunity to exit their investment for the guaranteed amount of $20.10 in cash per share rather than be subject to the continued volatility and thin trading volume of Johnson Outdoors' stock and the Company's future prospects.

Don't Delay Your Vote Is Important!
