Item 8.01. Other Events.

On October 23, 2015, First Horizon National Corporation (“FHN”) was advised that a FINRA arbitration panel had reached a decision which FHN has not received, but would receive shortly. In that arbitration, plaintiffs, led by First United Bank & Trust (collectively, “First United”), allege that FHN’s subsidiary, FTN Financial Securities Corp. (“FTN”), is liable under various theories, such as fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, breach of contract, and violation of rules concerning suitability and other regulatory standards, relating to First United’s purchase of PreTSL securities from FTN. First United currently is seeking damages of at least $46.5 million, and punitive damages. Based on discussions with counsel following completion of the proceedings, FHN currently estimates a range of reasonably possible loss for this matter between zero and approximately $11.5 million. FHN has not established a liability or reserve for this arbitration in its financial statements. FHN’s estimate of the range of reasonably possible losses for this arbitration at June 30, 2015, was included in the estimated reasonably possible loss range of zero to approximately $75 million disclosed in FHN’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015. This matter is unrelated to the home mortgage businesses which FHN sold in 2008.
