Rule 10b5-1 Trading Plan for David A. Pace

In accordance with Rule 10b5-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Starbucks Corporation insider trading policy, David A. Pace, the Company's executive vice president, Partner Resources, entered into a selling plan on February 7, 2006. Under the selling plan, between May 8, 2006 and December 31, 2006, Mr. Pace will sell a total of 30,000 shares of the Company's common stock so long as the market price of the common stock is higher than a minimum threshold price specified in the plan. Up to 10,000 shares of common stock may be sold beginning May 8, 2006, up to 10,000 additional shares of common stock may be sold beginning August 7, 2006, and the remaining 10,000 shares of common stock may be sold beginning November 6, 2006.

Rule 10b5-1 permits an insider to implement a written prearranged trading plan entered into at a time when the insider is not aware of any material nonpublic information about the Company and allows the insider to trade on a one-time or regularly scheduled basis regardless of any material nonpublic information about the Company thereafter received by the insider.

Shareholder Approval of Management Proposal to Declassify the Board

On February 8, 2006, the shareholders of Starbucks Corporation (the Company) approved a management proposal to declassify the board of directors of the Company and provide for the annual election of all directors, commencing with the Company's 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The full management proposal, along with the board's recommendation to shareholders that they approve the proposal, was included in the Company's definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 16, 2005. A copy of the press release announcing shareholder approval of the proposal to declassify the board is attached as Exhibit 99.1.
