FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

VISX REMINDS STOCKHOLDERS TO VOTE FOR BOARD'S DIRECTOR NOMINEES

Annual Meeting To Be Held On May 23, 2003

SANTA CLARA, CALIFORNIA, (May 20, 2003) - With only days left before the company's Annual Meeting, VISX, INCORPORATED (NYSE: EYE) reminds all VISX stockholders to vote the GOLD proxy card today FOR the Board's director nominees and discard any proxy materials received from Mr. Icahn and his affiliates.

Liz Davila, chairman and chief executive officer of VISX, stated, "Our current Board and management team are committed to building value for all our stockholders. We are number one in our market, we continue to generate cash from operations, and we are focused on bringing our promising technologies to market. We urge our stockholders to re-elect VISX's director nominees and vote for an experienced board that considers the interests of all stockholders."

ISS Supports VISX Nominees

In recommending that VISX stockholders re-elect VISX's board nominees, Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) - widely recognized as the nation's leading independent proxy advisory firm - stated in its May 13, 2003 report that:

"...in the absence of compelling evidence to support Mr. Icahn's arguments, the addition to the board of his nominee Mr. Meister, who has limited finance experience (which includes two years as a junior analyst at Lazard Freres and short stints at Northstar Capital Partners and J Net Ventures) is not warranted."*

Vote Today

VISX urges its stockholders to VOTE the GOLD proxy card today.
